1970 SUPPLEMENT

This Supplement to Vernon's Texas Statutes includes the laws of a general and permanent nature enacted at the First Called Session of the 60th Legislature and at the Regular and Called Sessions of the 61st Legislature. The sessions convened and adjourned as follows:

	Convened	Adjourned
First Called Session, 60th Leg.	June 4, 1968	July 3, 1968
Regular Session, 61st Leg.	Jan. 14, 1969	June 2, 1969
First Called Session, 61st Leg.	July 28, 1969	Aug. 26, 1969
Second Called Session, 61st Leg.	Aug. 27, 1969	Sept. 9, 1969

This volume supplements the 1948 edition of Vernon's Texas Statutes and the 1950, 1952, 1954, 1956, 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966 and 1968 Supplements.

Constitutional amendments, approved by the voters on November 5, 1968 and August 5, 1969, are also included.

To assist the user in readily locating any article or section affected by legislation from 1949 through 1969, a special Table has been prepared and is printed on the colored pages herein.

Vernon's Texas Statutes 1948 and Supplements are under the same classification and arrangement as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes. This means that users of this popular edition may go from any article therein to the same article in Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes where the complete constructions of the law by the state and federal courts, as well as complete historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, are conveniently available.

The same practical features which have served to popularize the 1948 Edition, such as a complete index, tables, etc., are continued in the Supplements.

The Publisher extends appreciative thanks to the office of the Secretary of State, as well as to other state officials, for guidance and suggestions during the preparation of this work.

Section 48a. In addition to the powers given the Legislature under Section 48, Article III, it shall have the right to levy taxes to establish a fund to provide retirement, disability and death benefits for persons employed in the public schools, colleges and universities supported wholly or partly by the state; provided that the amount contributed by the state to such fund each year shall be equal to the aggregate amount required by law to be paid into the fund by such employees, and shall not exceed at any time six per centum (6%) of the compensation paid each such person by the state and/or school districts; and provided that no person shall be eligible for retirement who has not rendered ten (10) years of creditable service in such employment, and in no case shall any person retire before either attaining the age fifty-five (55) or completing thirty (30) years of creditable service, but shall be entitled to refund of moneys paid into the fund.

Section 51-a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may by the Legislature be deemed expedient, for assistance grants to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and any other services included in the federal laws as they now read or as they may hereafter be amended, providing matching funds to help such families and individuals attain or retain capability for independence or self-care, and for the payment of assistance grants to and/or medical care for, and for rehabilitation and other services to or on behalf of:

tained and by present or hereafter enacted Acts of the Legislature not inconsistent herewith. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of said system are hereby vested in a State Board of Trustees, to be known as the State Board of Trustees of the Employees Retirement System of Texas, which Board shall be constituted and shall serve as may now or hereafter be provided by the Legislature. Said Board shall exercise such powers as are herein provided together with such other powers and duties not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the Legislature. The Treasurer of the State of Texas shall be custodian of said moneys and securities. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire, hold, manage, purchase, sell, assign, trade, transfer, and dispose of any securities, evidence of debt, and other investments in which said securities, moneys, and assets have been or may hereafter be invested by said Board. Said Board is hereby authorized and empowered to invest and reinvest any of said moneys, securities, and assets, as well as the proceeds of any of such investments, in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued, or assumed or guaranteed in whole or in part, by the United States or any agency of the United States, or by the State of Texas, or by any county, city, school district, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas, both general and special obligations; or in home office facilities to be used in administering the Employees Retirement System including land, equipment, and office building; or in such corporation bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness, and corporation stocks, including common and preferred stocks, of any corporation created or existing under the laws of the United States or of any of the states of the United States, as said Board may deem to be proper investments; provided that in making each and all of such investments said Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as probable safety of their capital; and further provided, that a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may now or hereafter be provided by law. Unless investments authorized herein are hereafter further restricted by an Act of the Legislature, no more than one per cent (1%) of the book value of the total assets of the Employees Retirement System shall be invested in the stock of any one (1) corporation, nor shall more than five per cent (5%) of the voting stock of any one (1) corporation be owned; and provided further, that stocks eligible for purchase shall be restricted to stocks of companies incorporated within the United States which have paid cash dividends for ten (10) consecutive years or longer immediately prior to the date of purchase and which, except for bank stocks and insurance stocks, are listed upon an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors; and provided further, that not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) at any one time of the book value of investments of said Fund shall be invested in Government and Municipal Securities as enumerated above. This Amendment shall be self-enacting and shall become effective immediately upon its adoption without any enabling legislation.

* * * * *

(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.

CONSTITUTION—PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

* * * * *

(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

Art.

29c—1. Unsolicited goods; gift to recipient [New].

Art. 1c. Governor's Committee on Human Relations

Section 1. There is hereby created an agency of the State of Texas to be known as the Governor's Committee on Human Relations, which shall consist of fifty citizens of the State of Texas, to be appointed by the Governor. They shall be persons who have demonstrated their interest in the promotion and attainment of ideals of dignity and equality of opportunity for all members of society, and they shall be chosen so as to represent the various geographical sections and the various ethnic, racial and religious groups of the state. No person shall be ineligible for appointment because of his holding a public office or employment. Duties performed by members of the Committee are of an advisory nature, and membership shall not be deemed to constitute the holding of a public office.

Sec. 2. The terms of members initially appointed shall begin on September 1, 1969, and shall expire on February 1, 1971, and the succeeding term shall begin on September 1, 1969, and shall expire on February 1, 1973.

The Committee shall come into existence on September 1, 1969, and shall cease to exist on February 1, 1973, unless extended by the Legislature.

Sec. 3. Recognizing that the improvement of human relations between and among the various ethnic and racial groups of the state and nation is a matter of the highest importance and priority, the Legislature is creating this Committee upon the request of the Governor, as an official governmental agency to recommend programs of action designed and intended to promote and obtain a better understanding and relationship between the various groups. The Committee is charged with the duty of gathering and assembling suggestions for and information pertinent to the attainment of this goal from all practicable sources, both private and public, including individuals, groups, organizations, and other governmental agencies. In carrying out its duties and responsibilities, the Committee may conduct hearings and interviews at such places as it deems desirable, either through individual members or subcommittees or through members of its administrative staff, and it may also employ all other available means for gathering these materials.

The Committee shall report the results of its studies and make recommendations to the Governor at such times as it determines or as re-requested by the Governor. It shall also make a report to the Governor and to each member of the Legislature not later than November 1 of the years 1970 and 1972, on any recommendations involving legislative action.

Sec. 4. Members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but each shall receive reimbursement for travel expense when on official business of the Committee, in accordance with the rules and regulations applicable to state employees which are in effect for the period in which the travel occurs. The payment shall be made out of the appropriation made to the Governor's Office for general operating expenses.

Sec. 5. The Governor shall designate the Chairman of the Committee and shall call the first meeting of the Committee, at which meeting the members shall elect a Vice-Chairman and a Secretary from among their number. After the first meeting, the Committee shall meet at the call of the Chairman or the Governor, on the date and at the place designated in each call. The Committee may adopt procedural rules governing the conduct of its meetings and other affairs.

Sec. 6. The Committee shall appoint an Executive Director and shall fix his salary. The Executive Director shall employ or contract for the professional, technical and clerical staff necessary to accomplish the goals of this Act, and is authorized to make such other expenditures as are necessary for that purpose, within the budgetary limits fixed by the Committee.

Operating expenses of the Committee, other than traveling expenses of its members, shall be paid from money appropriated for that purpose in the general appropriation act. The Committee shall adopt an annual budget, which may be amended from time to time, allocating funds for the various expenditures to be incurred.

The Board of Control shall provide suitable quarters for the Committee and its staff in the City of Austin. The Secretary of State shall cooperate with the Committee in furnishing technical and clerical staff and services when necessary.

Sec. 7. Every state agency, department and institution and every state, county and municipal officer is directed to provide such information as may be requested by the Committee, and to assist the Committee in accomplishing its objectives.

Sec. 8. The Committee may accept gifts and grants of money from any individual, group, association, corporation, or the Federal Government. Such funds as are received shall be deposited in the State Treasury and are hereby appropriated to be expended in accordance with the specific purpose for which given and under such conditions as may be imposed by the donor or as may be provided by law.

Regular meetings shall be held at its offices at Austin, but, whenever the convenience of the public or of the parties may be promoted, or delay or expense may be prevented, it may hold hearings or proceedings at any other place designated by it. The Commission may employ such clerical and other employees and assistants as it may deem necessary for the proper transaction of its business and shall fix their salaries. Provided that the Commission shall not make any obligations or expend any state moneys unless and until an appropriation by the Legislature is made therefor. Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1394, ch. 424, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Art. 46c—6. Commission Powers and Duties

Subdivision 1. General. The Commission, and its Director acting under its authority, is empowered and directed to encourage, foster, and assist in the development of aeronautics in this state and to encourage, aid, and assist in the establishment of airports and airstrips and air navigational facilities in this state, and, as to lands, or portions thereof, or navigational aids or facilities donated or given to the state, or to the Texas Aeronautics Commission to be held by it in trust for the state, the Texas Aeronautics Commission may control, administer, and have jurisdiction thereover, and may lease the same on the terms hereafter provided. The Commission and its Director may cooperate with and assist the United States, municipalities or other governmental subdivisions of this state, or persons engaged in aeronautics or in the development of aeronautics, and may endeavor to coordinate the aeronautical activities of such others, and, municipalities and governmental subdivisions are authorized to cooperate with the Commission in the development of aeronautics and aeronautical navigational facilities or aids in this state.

Subdivision 2. Authority to Contract. The Commission may enter into contracts which it deems necessary or advisable in conformity with and in the execution of the powers granted it by this Act, as amended. However, except as to moneys received by gift, the Commission shall have no power to enter into any contract or agreement binding on the State of Texas for the payment of any moneys which have not been authorized by appropriation of the Legislature from the general revenues or from the Texas Aeronautics Commission Fund. All contracts entered into by the Commission shall be submitted to the attorney general for the approval as to form. The Commission shall not enter into any contract binding the State of Texas in excess of the power granted in this Act.

Subdivision 3. Air Carriers. (a) The Commission is hereby granted and vested with the right, power and authority to promulgate and administer economic and safety rules and regulations over air carriers. The Commission shall be vested with broad discretion in promulgating such rules and regulations. Without limiting the right, power and authority of the Commission, to the extent necessary to enable it to perform its functions, it may approve or disapprove the maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum rates, fares and charges of each air carrier, require filing of such reports and other data of air carriers as the Commission may deem necessary, approve or disapprove the schedules of the air carriers, and adopt a program, rules and regulations necessary to effectuate its duties hereunder.

(b) No air carrier shall operate as such, after this Act goes into effect, without having first obtained from the Commission a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to a determination by the Commission that its proposed service is in the interest of public convenience and necessity; provided, however, that all operating rights and privileges granted to any air carrier by the Commission prior to the passage of this Act shall continue in effect, authorizing the same service under the same terms and conditions as previously granted by the Commission. Upon notice and hearing, certificates of public convenience and necessity shall be subject to revocation or suspension for violation of the Commission's regulations, the provisions of this Act or the regulations or laws of the United States or any authorized agency or board thereof. Any such certificate so revoked or suspended may be reinstated upon order of the Commission on its own motion or upon application of the air carrier, when the Commission finds reinstatement to be in the public interest. In determining the existence of a public convenience and necessity for a proposed air service, the Commission shall consider the encouragement and development of an intrastate air transportation system properly adapted to the present and future needs of the State of Texas, and in addition shall consider the financial responsibility of the air carrier, its proposed routes and rates or charges, the effect, if any, upon existing air carriers and CAB certificated carriers, and any other factors similarly related to public convenience and necessity. Nothing in this Act affects any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act.

(c) No application for a certificate shall be received and filed by the Commission unless the same shall be in writing under oath in original and six copies filed with the Director of the Commission and contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant and the names and addresses of its officers, if any, and full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant.

(2) The complete route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, together with the description of each aircraft which the applicant intends to use.

(3) A proposed schedule of service and a schedule of rates to be charged between the several points or localities to be served.

(4) It shall be accompanied by plats or maps showing the route or routes over which the applicant desires to operate, on which plats or maps shall be delineated the line or lines of any existing air carrier or airlines, whether or not subject to this Act, serving such territory, and shall point out the need for additional air transportation facilities.

(5) Such other information, exhibits and other data in regard to the application as may be required by duly promulgated rules and regulations of the Commission.

(6) Every application filed with the Commission for a certificate shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of $50, which fee shall be in addition to any other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission, whether the application is approved or not, to defray operating expenses.

Copies of such application shall be transmitted contemporaneously to the Civil Aeronautics Board, the Federal Aviation Administration and to any air carrier or CAB certificated carrier, which serves, or is authorized to serve, over the routes proposed to be served by the applicant, or any portion thereof. Upon receipt of such application in proper form, the Commission shall set a date for public hearing which may be conducted by the Commission, or at its discretion, by the Director, or any staff member of the Commission.

Any other provision of this Act notwithstanding, carriers certificated by the Civil Aeronautics Board pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as now or hereafter amended,¹ together with any other interested party shall be afforded the right to appear and present evidence and arguments at such hearings on all issues involved in any such hearing held under the provisions of this Act. The final determination of such application shall be made by the Commission by written order setting forth its findings and served upon the parties in such manner as the Commission shall specify, and such application may be granted or denied, in whole, or in part; provided, however, any service not specifically authorized shall be deemed specifically denied.

(d) Any certificate held, owned or obtained by any air carrier operating under the provisions of this Act may be sold, assigned, leased, transferred or inherited; provided, however, that any proposed sale, lease, assignment or transfer shall be first presented in writing to the Commission for its approval or disapproval and after public notice and public hearing the Commission may disapprove such proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer if it is found and determined by the Commission that such proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee is not in good faith or that the proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee is not able or capable of continuing the operation of the equipment proposed to be sold, assigned, leased, or transferred in such manner as to render the services demanded by the public convenience and necessity on and along a designated route, or that the proposed sale, assignment, lease or transfer is not in the best public interest. The Commission in approving or disapproving any sale, assignment, lease or transfer of any certificate may take into consideration all the requirements and qualifications of a regular applicant required in this Act and apply the same as necessary qualifications of any proposed purchaser, assignee, lessee or transferee. Every application filed with the Commission for an order approving the lease, sale or transfer of any certificate of convenience and necessity shall be accompanied by a filing fee in the sum of $25, which fee shall be in addition to any other fees and taxes and shall be retained by the Commission whether the lease, sale, or transfer of the certificate is approved or not.

(e) If any air carrier or other party in interest be adversely affected by any decision, rate, charge, order, rule, act or regulation adopted by the Commission, that party, after failing to get relief from the Commission, may file a petition setting forth its particular objections to the action of the Commission in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, against the Commission as defendant. This action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. All decisions, rates, charges, orders, rules, acts or regulations adopted or approved by the Commission shall be sustained in the District Court unless there is no substantial evidence to support them. The appeal shall be tried de novo as an appeal from Justice Court to the County Court. The District Court shall not be bound thereby, but, upon motion of any party to the proceedings, the record of the proceedings made before the Commission of the proceedings under review may be admissible in the District Court. Appeals from any final judgment of the District Court may be taken by any party to the cause in the manner provided for in civil actions generally, but no appeal bond shall be required of the Commission.

(f) Every officer, agent, servant or employee of any corporation and every other person who violates or fails to comply with or procures, aids or abets in the violation of any provision of this Act or who violates or fails to obey, observe or comply with any lawful order, decision, rule or regulation, direction, demand or requirement of the Commission shall be subject to and shall pay a penalty not exceeding $100 for each and every day of such violation. The penalty shall be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the violation occurs. Suit for the penalty or penalties shall be instituted and conducted by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, or by the county or district attorney in the county in which the violation occurs in the name of the State of Texas. Upon violation of any provision of this Act, or upon the violation of any rule, regulation, order or decree of the Commission promulgated under the terms of this Act, any district court of any county where such violation occurs shall have the power to restrain and enjoin the person, firm or corporation so offending from further violating the provisions of this Act or from further violating any of the rules, regulations, orders, and decrees of the Commission. Such injunctive relief may be granted upon the application of the Commission, the attorney general or any district or county attorney. No bond shall be required when such injunctive relief is sought upon the application of the Commission, attorney general or any district or county attorney. Such relief may be granted in suits for penalties as provided in this section, but suit for penalties shall not be a condition precedent to the injunctive relief provided hereby.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Subdivision 4. Cooperation with the United States. The Commission shall work with the agencies of the United States in enforcing the statutes, directives, rules and regulations of the United States. It is authorized to report to the appropriate federal agencies and agencies of other states all proceedings instituted charging violations of this Act or of federal statutes. It is authorized to receive reports of penalties and other data from agencies of the United States and other states, and when necessary, to enter into agreements, approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form, with the United States and the agencies of other states governing the delivery, receipt, exchange and use of reports and data. The commission may make such reports, with or without request therefor, to any officer of the state or of a municipality authorized by the commission or by the United States to enforce the aeronautics laws, but such reports shall not constitute evidence of any violation nor shall the same be received as evidence by any court.

Subdivision 5. Aircraft Operation. Aircraft shall be operated in and over the state in a safe manner. Operation shall be deemed safe if conducted in compliance with the United States laws and regulations governing air traffic and aeronautical operation, now in existence or hereafter enacted.

Subdivision 6. Airports and Navigation Aids, Gifts, Leases. (a) To develop aeronautics for the common good, benefit, and safety of the citizens of Texas, and to provide for catastrophe, disaster, or state or national emergency, the state, or the Texas Aeronautics Commission on behalf of the state, is granted the right, under its police power, to accept gifts or donations of all or any parts of lands on, adjacent to, or utilizable as, airports or airstrips, or utilizable as a navigational aid, in the judgment of the Texas Aeronautics Commission, from the United States or any agency thereof or from any governmental, municipal, or other political subdivision of this state, or from any other person, firm, association, group, or corporation. The same shall be administered by the Texas Aeronautics Commission and shall be and remain under its control and jurisdiction. The Texas Aeronautics Commission is hereby granted the right to utilize such portion of the Texas Aeronautics Commission Fund, or other moneys appropriated to it by the Legislature, to construct improvements, facilities or navigational aids thereon as the commission shall deem advisable or necessary. The commission is granted the right to rent or lease such lands and improvements to any governmental or municipal agency or subdivision, or to any other person, firm, association, group, or corporation, provided any such lease so executed by the commission shall be for a term not to exceed 20 years, and provided further, the Texas Aeronautics Commission shall determine, after investigation, and reduce its findings to writing in a book or books to be maintained in the office of the Texas Aeronautics Commission for that purpose: (1) that the lease is desirable or essential for the purpose above stated; (2) that the lessee is financially responsible; and (3) that the amount of monthly or periodic rental payments shall be sufficient to amortize the amount it has expended thereon for improvements within the term of the lease. Any such lease, before the same shall become effective, shall be submitted to, and approved by, the attorney general as to form. Any such lease shall provide that the lessee shall maintain the land, premises and improvements placed thereon by the Texas Aeronautics Commission in accordance with the standards prescribed by the Texas Aeronautics Commission and shall contain a provision that the lease shall immediately terminate and that the lessee shall surrender the premises to the Texas Aeronautics Commission without liability, and without court action, in the event of violation of any of the provisions of the lease, or any rule, regulation or order of the Texas Aeronautics Commission pertaining thereto; and provided further, the Texas Aeronautics Commission shall have the right to utilize the same, or any part thereof, for itself or others, without liability or cost, in time of national or state disaster, emergency, or catastrophe, as determined by either the Governor of Texas or the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

(b) Independently and additionally, the Commission shall be authorized to accept any grant, payment, or gift of moneys, funds or property made to it by any person, individual, firm, association, corporation, municipality, county, or other political subdivision of the state, or from the United States, or any department or agency thereof, as to which the donor has prescribed a particular use for one or more aeronautical purposes. The Commission shall utilize any such grant of property in accordance with the terms of the grant, and as to any such payment, or gift of funds or moneys, the Commission shall (1) deposit the same in any one or more state or national banks approved by the State Depository Board as a depository of the public funds of Texas, and shall (2) utilize such moneys for the purpose or purposes prescribed by the donor. A record shall be maintained in the Commission's offices of such properties and funds. Such funds shall be expended only upon general or special order of the Commission, and all checks shall be signed by the Director and countersigned by the Chairman of the Commission, or some other Commissioner designated by a majority of the Commission to so countersign. Reports of any such expenditures shall be made at the end of each fiscal year to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Subdivision 7. Investigations, Hearings (General). The Commission shall have the power to conduct and hold investigations, inquiries, and hearings concerning matters covered by the provisions of this Act and the rules, regulations and orders of the Commission, unless specifically provided otherwise herein. Hearings shall be open to the public. Each member of the Commission, the Director and every officer or employee of the Commission, designated by it to hold an inquiry, investigation or hearing, shall have the power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, issue subpoenas, and order the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of papers, books and documents. Each subpoenaed witness who shall appear at a designated place outside the county of his residence shall receive for his attendance Five Dollars per day and six cents per mile traveled by the nearest practicable route in going to and returning from the place so designated, which shall be ordered paid, on the presentation of proper vouchers, sworn to by such witness and approved by the Commission or Chairman thereof, provided, no witness shall be entitled to any witness fees or mileage who is directly or indirectly interested or involved in the investigation or hearing on account of which he is summoned. Any witness entitled to be paid shall be paid out of any funds so appropriated by the Legislature, or out of the Texas Aeronautics Commission Fund. In the case of the failure of any person to comply with any subpoena or order issued under the authority of this section, the Commission shall notify the attorney general who may bring suit in the name of the state in any district court of Travis County, Texas. The court, if it determines such noncompliance was not justified, shall thereupon order such person to comply with the requirements of the subpoena or order, and failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Subdivision 8. Education, Publications. The Commission may organize and administer a program of aeronautical education in the schools and colleges of the state and for the general public and may prepare and conduct flight clinics for airmen. The Commission may issue such aeronautical publications as may be required in the public interest.

Subdivision 9. Technical Services. In the interest of public safety and welfare, the Commission may, insofar as is reasonably possible, make available its engineering and technical services, with or without charge, to any municipality or person desiring them in connection with the planning, acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance or operation of airports, air navigation facilities or other aeronautical activities.

Subdivision 10. Grants or Loans. When in the discretion of the Commission the public interest will best be served, and the governmental function of the state or its political subdivisions relative to aeronautics will best be discharged, it may grant or loan funds, appropriated to it for that purpose by the Legislature, to any state agency with a governing board that is authorized to operate airports, and to any incorporated city, town or village in this state for the establishment, construction, reconstruction, enlargement or repair of airports, airstrips or air navigational facilities. Provided that any such funds must be expended by the city, town or village for the purpose provided herein and in conformity with the laws of this state and with the rules and regulations which the Commission is hereby authorized to promulgate.

Prior to approving any loan or grant under this Act the Commission shall hold a public hearing at which all interested parties shall have an opportunity to be heard. No such loan shall be made without a majority vote of the entire Commission in favor thereof and no such grant shall be made without a two-thirds vote of the entire Commission in favor thereof. In determining whether or not a grant or loan shall be made, the Commission shall consider the following:

(1) The need for an airport or facility or improvement of existing facility in the locality in the light of existing airports or facilities in the area and in light of the overall needs of the state, and

(2) The financial needs of the community with priority given to areas of greatest need.

(3) Loans shall be made in lieu of grants whenever feasible. Prior to approving any loan or grant the Commission shall require that:

(1) The airport or facility remain in the control of the political subdivision or political subdivisions involved for at least 20 years, and

(2) The political subdivision disclose the source of all funds for the project and its ability to finance and operate the project, and

(3) All loans shall bear interest at the rate of at least three percent per annum and have a term of not longer than 20 years, and

(4) At least fifty percent of the total project cost be provided from sources other than the State of Texas, and

(5) The project be adequately planned.

CHAPTER TWO—STATE SEED AND PLANT BOARD

Art.

64a. Protection of varietal quality of cotton [New].

Art. 64a. Protection of varietal quality of cotton

Section 1. The purpose of this article is to encourage the development of superior cotton varieties through the investment of private and corporate funds, to improve the quality of cotton planting seed, and to reduce the sale of varietally impure cotton planting seed in this state.

Sec. 2. In this article,

(1) "person" means an individual, an association of individuals, a partnership, or a corporation; and

(2) "board" means the State Seed and Plant Board of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. Under the provisions of this Chapter and Chapter 93, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1929 (Article 67a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the board shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the registration and certification of newly developed cotton varieties.

Sec. 4. If a new variety of cotton is registered or certified by the board, no person may use the name given the new variety by its developer to sell non-certified cotton seed for a period of 17 years from the date the new variety is registered or certified by the board.

Sec. 5. A person who violates Section 4 of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.

Sec. 6. (a) This article does not require a developer of a new variety of cotton to register, or have certified his new variety; and a developer after 10 days notice to the board, may withdraw from the operation of this article a variety that he has registered or had certified.

(b) This article does not prohibit a developer of a new cotton variety of cotton from entering into contracts with seedsmen and farmers for the production and/or sale of seed of the new variety.

(c) This article does not in any manner alter the farmer exemption in the present seed laws of Texas.

(d) At any time when a critical situation exists because rain, hail, drouth, insects, or any other natural elements beyond the originator's control, have reduced the supply of planting seed of varieties covered under this Act, the board may hold proper public hearings to gather information on the supply, demand, and quality of seed available; and if in its judgment an emergency exists, the board may allow non-certified seed, grown from state certified seed, of the variety, or varieties, in which a shortage exists, to be sold by variety name for that crop year only. For the protection of the purchaser, the board shall require bona fide grower affidavits to establish varietal status for all non-certified seed sold by variety name during such an emergency.

Sec. 7. This Act is not applicable to seeds which were marketed, certified, or registered before the effective date of this Act. Added by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 147, ch. 50, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Duties and authority of the Commissioner of Agriculture

Sec. 6.

* * * * *

(b) Further, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner of Agriculture individually or through his authorized agents is authorized:

(1) To enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds and the records from personnel authorized by management connected therewith subject to the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, and any truck or other conveyer by land, water, or air at any time when the conveyer is accessible, for the same purpose.

(2) To issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural or vegetable seed which the Commissioner of Agriculture has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act which shall prohibit further sale of such seed until such officer has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, that in respect to seeds which have been denied sale as provided in this paragraph, the owner or custodian of such seeds shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the seeds are found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and for the discharge of such seed from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the right of the enforcement officer to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(3) To establish and maintain or make provision for seed testing facilities, to employ qualified persons, and to incur such expenses as may be necessary to comply with these provisions.

(4) To make or provide for making purity and germination tests of seeds for farmers and dealers on request; to prescribe rules and regulations governing such testing; and may fix and collect charges for the tests made.

(5) To cooperate with the United States Department of Agriculture in seed law enforcement.

Sec. 6(b) amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 575, ch. 195, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Inspection fee; payment procedure; records; reports; rules and regulations; failure to comply; cancellation of permit

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of administering the Texas Seed Act, any person who sells, offers for sale or otherwise distributes for sale any agricultural seed within this state for planting purposes shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee. Said inspection fee shall be deposited in the State Treasury by the Commissioner, and placed by the State Treasurer in the special Department of Agriculture Fund.

(b) The procedure for paying for inspection fee on agricultural seed shall be either by the use of the Tax Tag (which shall be known as the Texas Tested Seed Label) or by means of the reporting system but shall not be by means of both such procedures, and shall in addition to such rules and regulations which the Commissioner of Agriculture is herewith authorized to issue, be in compliance with all the provisions of this Act.

(c) When the inspection fee is to be paid by use of the Tax Tag (Texas Tested Seed Label) the person who distributes, sells, offers for sale or exposes for sale agricultural seed shall purchase said Texas Tested Seed Label from the Commissioner of Agriculture at a cost of not to exceed two cents (2¢) for each one hundred pounds or fraction thereof and shall attach said tag to each container of seed sold, offered for sale or otherwise distributed for sale for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby empowered to promulgate rules and regulations prescribing the form of said tags, and the manner to show the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act.

(d) When the inspection fee is paid by means of the reporting system, said fee shall be four cents (4¢) for each 100 pounds of agricultural seed offered for sale, exposed for sale, or otherwise distributed for sale for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized at his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may promulgate, to prescribe and furnish such forms and to require the filing of such reports and shall issue permits bearing a number assigned by the Commissioner on application therefor to any person who sells, offers for sale, exposes or otherwise distributes for sale any agricultural seed. The inspection fee shall be due on the total pounds of first sales or distribution by the originating permittee, except that in cases where a Texas seedsman purchases or receives agricultural seed for planting purposes from a seedsman located outside the State of Texas, the inspection fee may be paid by either seedsman, but final responsibility rests with the Texas seedsman. In cases where a Texas seedsman under the reporting system purchases or receives agricultural seed from another Texas seedsman also using the reporting system, the fee may be paid by either seedsman, provided an agreement in writing specifying this option is on file with each seedsman. In such cases the invoice covering such transaction shall indicate which seedsman is responsible for reporting and paying the inspection fees. In addition to all other provisions of this Act, each person who is issued a permit to sell, offer for sale or otherwise distribute agricultural seed and pay the inspection fee in accordance with the reporting system shall:

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Commissioner of Agriculture may require to reflect accurately the total pounds of agricultural seed handled and the portion of such pounds that is sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale as planting seed and subject to the inspection fee of four cents (4¢) per 100 pounds. The Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agents shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee during normal working hours.

(2) File with the Commissioner of Agriculture within thirty days after the close of each quarter year ending the last day of November, February, May and August, sworn reports covering the total pounds of all first sales of agricultural seeds sold during the preceding quarter. A penalty of ten per cent (10%) of any inspection fee which is not paid within the time allowed shall be added to the inspection fee.

(3) When located outside of the State of Texas and when distributing agricultural seed in the State of Texas, shall maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by Section 7(d) of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside of the state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized and directed to revoke the permit of any person who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Commissioner promptly on completion of any such audit, and he must pay the same within thirty (30) days from the date of the statement.

(4) Affix to each container of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed and to the invoice of each lot of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in bulk, a plainly printed or written statement giving the information required in Section 3 of this Act.

Any failure of a permittee to observe these regulations, file required reports, or pay fees required shall be grounds for cancellation of the permit.

(e) Any person who sells, offers for sale, exposes for sale or otherwise distributes seed in bulk must use the reporting system and all labeling information required in Section 3 of this Act must be shown on the invoice or such person must furnish to the purchaser one (1) Texas Tested Seed Label with the analysis information required in Section (3) printed thereon for each one hundred (100) pounds and/or fraction thereof sold.

(f) In no case shall the inspection fee be paid more than once on any quantity of seed either by the Tax Tag or reporting system, except that the inspection fee must be paid once during the first and once during any subsequent germination period as required in Section 4(a) (1) of this Act, that said seed remains offered or exposed for sale. For any seed on which the germination test has expired, payment of the inspection fee is the responsibility of the custodian of said seed.

(g) The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe, amend, adopt, and publish after public hearing following due public notice, such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out and make effective the provisions of this section.

Standards of quality

Sec. 3. (a) The standards of quality, the grades and the standards of size as determined by weighing shall be the same as the standards and grades promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture for shell eggs, and such lower grades and sizes as the Egg Marketing Advisory Board shall promulgate.

(b) All eggs which are offered for sale to consumers shall be graded according to consumer grades and weight classes and classified, except as otherwise provided in Section 11.

(c) All eggs which are offered for sale at wholesale shall be graded according to wholesale grades and weight classes and classified, except as otherwise provided in Section 11.

Grading by local and outstate licensees; outstate inspections by commissioner; reimbursement of expenses; reciprocal agreements; use of prefix "U. S."

Sec. 8. All grades and sizes claimed for eggs sold in the state shall be established by inspection by a person duly licensed hereunder having a place of business within this state at which such inspections are made or by a person licensed hereunder and qualified to do business in this state who makes such inspections at a designated location outside the state. Where such inspections are made at a location outside the state by a licensee hereunder, such location and records relating to eggs graded pursuant to such Texas license shall be subject to inspection by the commissioner or his deputies at such times and intervals as the commissioner may deem necessary for the proper administration of the provisions herein; the expenses for such travel shall be reimbursed to the commissioner by the licensee within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of an invoice therefor. The commissioner shall schedule all feasible inspections within an area on each inspection trip, and the expenses shall be divided amongst such licensees inspected on an equitable basis. These expenses are in addition to all other fees hereunder and failure of licensee to pay such expenses as herein required shall act to automatically cancel the outstanding license of such person and shall be grounds for denial of a license to any person in anywise connected with a person whose license has been cancelled; provided, however, the commissioner is hereby empowered to make reciprocal agreements with the several states providing for the inspections herein required; and it shall be unlawful to use the prefix "U.S." on grades and weight classes of shell eggs unless the egg grading is under official United States Department of Agriculture supervision.

- (d) not be advertised in a manner which indicates price without also indicating the full, correct and unabbreviated designation of size and grade of eggs therein;

(e) be labeled showing the classification thereof except for shipped eggs which shall meet the requirements therefor as hereinafter set out:

(1) Texas eggs shall be so labeled that such classification is evident and shall be in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may prescribe. Eggs not produced in Texas shall not be labeled or advertised in any manner to infer that they were produced in Texas.

(2) Shipped eggs coming into Texas in cartons ready for retail sale shall be not less than Grade A as established by a Texas licensee. Shipped eggs coming into Texas loose packed shall be inspected and graded by a Texas licensee at his place of business in Texas before being sold at retail. All shipped eggs coming into Texas shall move under refrigeration in accordance with such rules regulating these movements as shall be prescribed by the commissioner.

In the case of eggs offered for sale uncartoned, a sign showing all of the above information must be clearly displayed attached to the container. This sign must be distinctly legible in letters at least one inch high; provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed so as to prevent a retailer of less than 120 dozen (1440) eggs per week from selling ungraded eggs when such eggs are clearly and distinctly labeled ungraded.

SUBCHAPTER B. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Terms of court

Sec. 2.001. Each district court holds in each county within its jurisdiction continuous terms which commence on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

(a) In any county in which there are two or more district courts, the judges of such courts may, in their discretion, either in term-time or in vacation, on motion of any party or on agreement of the parties, or on their own motion, transfer any case or proceeding, civil or criminal, on their dockets to the docket of one of the other said district courts; and the judges of the courts may, in their discretion, exchange benches or districts from time to time.

(b) Whenever a judge of one of the courts is disqualified, he shall transfer the case or proceeding from his court to one of the other courts, and any of the judges may in his own courtroom try and determine any case or proceeding pending in either of the other courts without having the case transferred, or may sit in any of the other courts and there hear and determine any case or proceeding there pending. Any of the judges may hear and determine motions, petitions for injunction, applications for appointment of receivers, interventions, pleas of privilege, pleas in abatement, and all dilatory pleas, motions for new trials, and all preliminary matters, questions and proceedings, and may enter judgment or order thereon in the court in which the case or proceeding is pending without having the same transferred to the court of the judge acting; and the judge in whose court the same is pending may thereafter proceed to hear, complete, and determine the same or other matter or any part thereof and render final judgment thereon. Any of the judges of the courts may issue restraining orders and injunctions returnable to any of the other courts.

(d) The specific matters mentioned in this section shall not be construed as any limitation on the powers of such judges when acting for any other judge by exchange of benches or otherwise.

Filing and docketing cases

Sec. 2.003. In a county in which there are two or more district courts, the judges of the courts may make such rules governing the filing and numbering of cases, the assignment thereof for trial, and the distribution of the work of such courts as in their discretion is deemed necessary or desirable for the orderly dispatch of the business of the courts.

Process, writs, etc.

The following classes of persons shall be qualified for registration:

(a) Any person over the age of 21 years, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, who submits evidence to the board that prior to the passage of this Act, that he is a resident of Texas and a citizen of the United States, possesses good moral character, and who has, for a period of not less than three years, regularly represented himself to be a landscape architect engaged in the practice of landscape architecture, as defined in this Act, shall be entitled to receive, without examination, a license to practice landscape architecture as a landscape architect, if he files such application within six months of this Act being enacted into law. Such application shall be accompanied by a fee of $50.

Sec. 6. The board may certify for registration without examination an applicant who is legally registered as a landscape architect in any state or country whose requirements for registration are at least substantially equivalent to the requirements of this state and which extends the same privilege of reciprocity to landscape architects registered in this state. Such application shall be accompanied by a fee to be determined by the board.

Certificates of registration

Sec. 7. All certificates of registration shall expire on the 31st day of August of each year, following their issuance or renewal and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to notify every person registered under this Act of that date of expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected at any time during the month of July or August of each year by payment of the fee as prescribed and set by the board, but in no event to be less than $10 nor more than $50. Failure on the part of any registrant to renew his certificate annually, and by not later than August 31st, as required above shall not deprive such person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate after August 31st shall be increased 10 percent for each month or fraction of a month that renewal payment is delayed; and provided further, that if such failure to renew shall continue for more than one year after the date of expiration of the registration certificate, the applicant must reapply for registration and must qualify under Section 5, Subsection (b) of this Act. - (4) Holding himself out to the public or any member thereof as an engineer or making use of the words "engineer," "engineered," "professional engineer," "P.E.," or any other terms tending to create the impression that such registrant is authorized to practice engineering or any other profession unless he is licensed under provisions of Texas Engineering Practice Act or the other applicable licensing law of this state.
- (5) Holding himself out to the public or any member thereof as a surveyor or making use of the words "surveyor," "surveyed," "registered public surveyor," "R. P. S.," or any other terms tending to create the impression that such registrant is authorized to practice surveying or any other profession unless he is licensed under the provisions of the Registered Public Surveyors Act or the other applicable licensing law of this state.

(b) In determining the truth of any such charges the board shall proceed upon sworn information furnished it by any reliable resident of this state; such information shall be in writing and shall be duly verified by the person familiar with the facts therein charged, and three copies of the same shall be filed with the secretary of the board. Upon receipt of such information the board, if it deems the information sufficient to support further action on its part, shall make an order setting the charges therein contained for hearing at a specified time and place, and the secretary of the board shall cause a copy of the board's order and of the information contained in the written charges to be served upon the accused at least 30 days before the date appointed in the order for the hearing. The accused may appear in person or by counsel or both, at the time and place named in the order and make his defense to the same. The board shall have the power, through its chairman or secretary, to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses before it as in civil cases in the district court, by subpoena issued over the signature of the secretary and the seal of the board.

Any person who may feel himself aggrieved by reason of the revocation of his certificate of registration of the board, as hereinabove authorized, shall have the right to file suit within 30 days within receiving notice of the board's order revoking his certificate of registration in the district in the county of his residence or the county in which the alleged events relied upon, and grounds for revocation, took place, to annul or vacate the order of the board revoking the certificates of registration; said suit to be filed against the board as defendant, and service of process may be had upon its chairman or secretary. The only issues to be tried in such cause shall be whether such person has been guilty as originally found by the board, which issue shall be by trial de novo, as that term is commonly used in connection with an appeal from the justice of the peace court to the county court, and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply.

Violations and penalties

Sec. 9. After the effective date of this Act as defined in Section 5 hereof, any person who represents himself to be a landscape architect in this state without being registered or exempted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any person presenting or attempting to use as his own, the certificate of registration or the seal of another, or any person who shall give any false or forged evidence of any kind to the board or to any member thereof in obtaining or assisting in attaining for another a certificate of registration, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed three months, or both. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense.

The attorney general or his assistants shall act as legal advisor of the board and shall render such legal assistance as may be necessary in enforcing and making effective the provisions of this Act, provided that this shall not relieve the local, prosecuting officers of any of their duties under the law as such.

4. PUBLIC DEFENDERS

Art. 341—1. Tarrant County; appointment and compensation; entitlement of indigents

Findings and purpose

Section 1. (a) Recent federal and state court decisions have emphasized the constitutional obligation of the state to afford needy persons the effective assistance of counsel in criminal actions. In some counties, the bar has partially met this obligation through creation of a nonprofit organization, primarily financed by federal grants, which provides counsel; in others, volunteers from the bar donate their services to defend needy persons. And in still other counties, the courts concerned appoint counsel under Articles 26.04 and 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) Especially in the metropolitan counties, the obligation to furnish competent counsel imposes a substantial burden on county financial resources. None of the alternative methods presently employed to furnish counsel has proved entirely satisfactory and the Legislature finds that a countywide public defender system, functioning either alone or in a combination with other methods, may better satisfy the constitutional and statutory obligations for providing counsel for the needy accused.

(c) In view of the findings and determinations expressed in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, there is established in Tarrant County the offices of Public Defender of Tarrant County, hereafter referred to as the "public defender."

Appointment of public defenders

Sec. 2. (a) Each criminal district judge of Tarrant County shall appoint one attorney to serve as a public defender and define his duties and responsibilities. A public defender serves at the pleasure of the appointing Judge.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Compensation

Sec. 3. (a) The public defenders shall receive an annual salary of not less than $10,000 to be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Tarrant County and paid from the appropriate county fund.

(b) The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding daily appearance fees shall not apply to public defenders, however, all other provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding fees and allowances shall apply to public defenders.

(c) A public defender may not engage in any criminal law practice other than that authorized in this Act and shall accept nothing of value, except as authorized in this Act, for any services rendered in connection with a criminal case.

(d) A violation of Subsection (c), Section 3 of this Act shall be cause for removal of the public defender by the judge who appointed him.

Entitlement to representation

Sec. 4. (a) Any indigent person charged with a criminal offense in a court in Tarrant County or any indigent person in Tarrant County who is a party in a juvenile delinquency proceeding shall be represented by a public defender or other practicing attorney appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. If an attorney, other than a public defender, is appointed, he shall be compensated as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) A public defender may inquire into the financial condition of any person whom he is appointed to represent and shall report any findings of the investigation to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing into the financial condition of the defendant and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by a public defender.

Substitute defender

Sec. 5. At any stage, including appeal or other post-conviction proceedings, the court concerned may assign a substitute attorney. The substitute attorney shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Severability clause

Sec. 6. If any provision of the Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

The Commissioner shall examine each state bank three times each twenty-four months and no more, unless he deems additional examinations necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders, and to enforce the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943. The Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Departmental Examiner and each examiner may administer oaths and examine any person under oath upon any subject which he deems pertinent to the financial condition of any state bank. The Commissioner shall assess and collect a fee in connection with each examination, based on the bank's total assets, covering the cost of such examination, the equitable or proportionate cost of maintenance and operation of the Banking Department, and the enforcement of the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, including but not limited to, the premium on the bond of the Commissioner and other officers and employees of the Banking Department, and such other fidelity or casualty insurance or coverage required or furnished pursuant to or in connection with the provisions of the Banking Code of 1943, together with all other expenses of the Banking Department, which fee shall in no event be less than Fifty Dollars ($50) for each examination so made. Such fees, together with any other fees, penalties or revenues collected by the Commissioner, pursuant to any law of this State, shall be retained by the Banking Department and shall be expended only for the expenses of said department.

CHAPTER THREE—INCORPORATION, MERGER, REORGANIZATION, PURCHASE OF ASSETS OF ANOTHER BANK, DISBURSING AGENT, AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF STATE BANKS, AND CONVERSIONArt. 342—312. Amendment of Articles of Association—Rights of Stockholders upon Increase in Capital—Stock Option Plans

Subject to the provisions of this Code, any state bank may amend its articles of association for any lawful purpose.

If the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, at any regular meeting of stockholders, or any special meeting called for that purpose, vote to amend the charter, the board of directors shall prepare, execute in the manner provided for the execution of articles of association, and file with the Commissioner an amendment to the articles of association. If the Commissioner finds that the amendment is not violative of law and does not prejudice the interest of depositors and creditors or the public, he shall approve such amendment and deliver to the bank a certified copy thereof, and said amendment shall thereupon become effective; provided, however, that if a state bank does not have the power to receive demand deposits, no amendments of its articles of association adopting any power provided under Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f) of Article 1 of this Chapter and no amendment changing the domicile of any state bank shall be effective until approved by the State Banking Board in the manner provided for the approval of an original application for charter. Any state bank may amend its articles of association to extend its corporate existence for a perpetual period or for any period of years.

Each stockholder of a state bank shall be entitled to his proportionate part of any increase of stock effected out of surplus funds or undivided profits, and shall be entitled to subscribe for his proportionate share of any capital increase to be paid in cash; provided, however, that each stockholder or his assignee, in event he elects to assign such rights of subscription, shall subscribe for and pay the amount of such subscription to the corporation within ten (10) days after the stockholders have adopted such amendment, otherwise the board of directors may allocate the unsubscribed or unpaid portion of the increase among the other stockholders or otherwise as they deem to the best interest of the bank.

With prior approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, shares of stock in a bank, which are created by a capital increase, may be allocated to and purchased by the bank out of its surplus which is not certified or out of its undivided profits to be held by the bank for fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option plan, whereby officers or employees, or both, of the bank are given options to purchase shares of the bank's capital stock at a specified price, subject to the following requirements and restrictions:

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five per cent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of other stockholders. Stock option plans authorized under this Article may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance and shall otherwise qualify under applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it may be amended from time to time. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five per cent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article.

CHAPTER FOUR—STOCK, STOCKHOLDERS, BY-LAWS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES

Art. 342—405. Directors—Qualifications

No person shall serve as director of a state bank when (1) the bank holds a judgment against him, or (2) holds a charged-off note against him, or (3) he is not the bona fide owner in his own right of unpledged and unencumbered stock in said bank of a par value of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). Provided, however, if the capital stock is less than $50,000 each director shall own in his own right unpledged and unencumbered stock in the bank as may be prescribed in its Articles of Association but the foregoing minimum requirement as to other banks shall not apply, or (4) he has been convicted of a felony.

Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1317, ch. 403, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

CHAPTER FIVE—LOANS AND INVESTMENTS

Art. 342—503. Engaging in Commerce—Exceptions

No state bank shall invest its funds in trade or commerce by buying and selling goods, wares, merchandise or chattels or by owning or operating an industrial plant except when necessary to avoid a loss on a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided that to the extent that national banks may now or hereafter have authority to do so, a state bank may become the owner and lessor of personal property acquired upon the specific request and for the use of a customer and may incur such additional obligations as may be incident to becoming an owner and lessor of such property.

Rental payments collected by the bank under the lease agreement shall be considered to be rent and shall not be deemed to be interest or compensation for the use of money loaned.

The aggregate of the bank's investment in properties so acquired shall not exceed limits prescribed by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission as they may be adjusted from time to time, and property so acquired shall not be retained more than six (6) months beyond the duration of the original lease period agreed to by the customer for whom the property was acquired, except with written permission of the Banking Commissioner.

Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1630, ch. 507, § 4, emerg. eff. June 10, 1969.

Art. 342—504. Real Estate Loans—Limitations—Exceptions

Except as provided in Sections 4 through 8 of this Article, no state bank shall make a loan upon security of real estate or invest its funds in obligations secured by real estate unless:

* * * * *

2. The total net balance owing upon the indebtedness secured by such lien:

* * * * *

(b) does not exceed seventy per cent (70%) of the appraised value of such real estate and such loan or obligation provides for uniform monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual reductions of principal in such amounts as to retire the entire indebtedness within one hundred and eighty (180) months from the date of the bank's loan or investment; or

Art. 342—506. Own Stock—Security—Acquisition—Disposition—Investment Certificates—Maturity

No state bank shall acquire a lien by pledge or otherwise on its shares of stock nor purchase or acquire title to such stock, except to prevent loss upon a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Provided, however, that with the approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, a bank may purchase and carry as an asset its own shares for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option plan.

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five per cent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of the other stockholders. Stock option plans authorized under this Article may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance and shall otherwise qualify under applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it may be amended from time to time. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five per cent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article.

If a state bank acquires a lien upon or title to its stock under the exception first provided for in this Article, it shall not permit such lien to continue for more than two (2) years, nor shall it hold title to such stock for more than one (1) year. Provided that the stock on which the bank has a lien plus the stock held by it as owner shall not exceed, in par value, the aggregate of all surplus accounts and undivided profits of said bank; provided, however, that any provision of this Code to the contrary notwithstanding, a state bank may make loans, charge or collect in advance interest thereon at a rate not exceeding that permitted by law, together with other charges permitted by this Code, and take as collateral thereof its investment certificates, issued simultaneously with the granting of the loans or otherwise, requiring weekly, semi-monthly, monthly or other regular periodic installments to be paid upon such certificates; such loans, subject to acceleration for specified causes, shall mature when the withdrawal value of the investment certificate or certificates securing the same equals the face amount of the note evidencing the loans, and shall be comparable in form and principle of operation to sinking-fund loans which building and loan associations are now authorized to make under the laws of this State.

Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1630, ch. 507, § 6, emerg. eff. June 10, 1969.

Art. 342—507. Limit of Liability of Any One Borrower—Exceptions—Penalty

No state bank shall permit any person or any corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus. The phrase "indebted or in any other way liable" shall be construed to include liability as partner or otherwise. The above limitation shall not apply to the following classes of indebtedness or liability:

1. Liability as endorser or guarantor of commercial or business paper discounted by or assigned to the bank by the actual owner thereof who has acquired it in the ordinary course of business.

2. Indebtedness evidenced by bills of exchange or drafts drawn against actually existing values and secured by a lien upon goods in transit with shippers' order bills of lading or comparable instruments attached.

3. Indebtedness evidenced by notes or other paper secured by liens upon agricultural products, manufactured goods, or other chattels in storage in bonded warehouses or elevators with warehouse or elevator receipts attached, cotton yard tickets, signed by a bonded weigher, when the value of the security is not less than one hundred twenty-five per cent (125%) of the indebtedness, and the bank's interest therein is adequately insured against loss, with insurance policies or certificates of insurance attached.

4. Deposit in a reserve depository, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

5. Indebtedness of another state or national bank arising out of short-term loans when such loans are made out of the excess cash reserve funds of the lending bank and have settlement periods of less than one week.

6. Indebtedness arising out of the daily transaction of the business of any clearing house association in this State.

7. Bonds and other legally created general obligations of any State or of any county, city, municipality or political subdivision thereof and indebtedness of the United States of America, or any instrumentality or agency of the United States Government.

8. Any portion of any indebtedness which the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest.

A state bank may permit any person, partnership, association or corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount equal to or less than fifteen per cent (15%) of its capital and certified surplus in addition to any indebtedness or liability of such person, partnership, association or corporation to the bank in an amount not in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus, when such additional indebtedness or liability to the bank is secured by bonds or notes of the United States issued since April 24, 1917, certificates of indebtedness of the United States, Treasury bills of the United States, or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States, the market value of which security is at all times not less than one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of such indebtedness or liability to the bank.

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly violates or participates in the violation of any provision of this Article shall upon conviction be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

 2. Bills of exchange, checks or drafts drawn against money actually on deposit to the credit of the bank or due to said bank.
 3. Liability to stockholders on account of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits.
 4. Liabilities arising under or pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Act,¹ the Federal Reserve Act,² the Federal Agricultural Credit Act of 1923,³ or pursuant to any or all amendments to any or all of said acts.
 5. Indebtedness evidenced by investment certificates or certificates of indebtedness.

 7. Liabilities to other banks arising out of short-term loan transactions when such liabilities are incurred for the purpose of fulfilling cash reserve requirements and have settlement periods of less than one week.

Art. 342—606. Cash Reserve—Calculation Reserve Depositories—Amount Carried

Every state bank shall maintain a reserve of not less than fifteen per cent (15%) of its aggregate demand deposits and five per cent (5%) of all other deposits, provided that any member of the Federal Reserve System which maintains the reserves required by that System shall not be deemed to have violated the provisions of this Article.

Such reserve shall be kept in the vaults of the bank or on deposit with Federal Reserve banks or with banks incorporated by any state or the United States with not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) capital approved as reserve depositories by the Commissioner and such reserves may be calculated on the basis of the average daily deposit balances covering weekly periods. Items in the process of clearing through a clearing house association shall be considered as reserves on deposit with an approved reserve depository within the meaning of this Article. If a state bank shall fail to maintain the total reserves required by this Article, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner may collect as a fee or penalty not more than Fifty Dollars ($50) per week for the period of such failure as may be prescribed from time to time by the Banking Section of the Finance Commission of Texas; and upon relation of the Banking Commissioner of default in such payment, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover such fees or penalties and for such other relief as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary. Section 1. Any Texas mortgage banking institution that has actually paid in capital of not less than $25,000 and up to but not including $100,000 and is qualified to lend money under the provisions of the Federal Housing Act is subject to inspection and supervision by the Banking Commissioner of Texas.

Sec. 2. On or before February 1 of each year, any mortgage banking institution that meets the requirements of Section 1 shall file with the Banking Commissioner of Texas a statement of its condition as of the previous December 31. The statement of condition shall be filed in the form prescribed by the banking commissioner and shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $25. The statement of condition is for the information of the banking commissioner and his employees only and its contents shall not be made public except in the course of some judicial proceeding of this state.

Sec. 3. The banking commissioner shall annually examine or cause to be examined the books and accounts of any mortgage banking institution which meets the requirements of Section 1. The institution being examined shall pay the actual expenses incident to the examination and a fee of not more than $25 per day per person engaged in the examination. Such fees, together with all other fees, penalties and revenues collected by the banking department, shall be retained by the department and shall be expended only for the expenses of the department.

Sec. 4. If an institution subject to the provisions of this Act fails to comply with the provisions of Section 2, that institution is subject to a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, which penalty shall be assessed and collected by the banking commissioner. If the banking commissioner assesses a penalty against a mortgage banking institution and that institution fails to pay the penalty within 30 days from the date it is notified of the assessment, the banking commissioner may request the attorney general to collect the penalty by suit.

Sec. 5. If an institution subject to the provisions of this Act refuses to submit to the examination by or withholds information from the banking commissioner or his representatives or has an impairment of a minimum of $25,000 capitalization, the banking commissioner shall notify the institution of such failure. If such failure is not corrected within 30 days from the date of such notification such failure to comply with this Act shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of the institution's charter in an action filed by the attorney general upon the request of the Banking Commissioner of Texas.

(a) The State Board of Control shall control, superintend and beautify the grounds of the State Cemetery and shall preserve the grounds and everything pertaining thereto and protect the property from depreciation and injury. The Board shall procure and erect, at the head of each grave which has no permanent monument, an obelisk of marble upon which shall be engraved the name of the dead therein buried.

Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1594, ch. 489, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Art. 678g. Construction of public buildings and facilities for use by handicapped persons

Policy

Section 1. The provisions of this Act are enacted to further the policy of the State of Texas to encourage and promote the rehabilitation of handicapped or disabled citizens. It is the intent of this Act to eliminate, insofar as possible, unnecessary barriers encountered by aged, handicapped or disabled persons, whose ability to engage in gainful occupations or to achieve maximum personal independence is needlessly restricted when such persons cannot readily use public buildings.

Application of act

Sec. 2. (a) The standards and specifications set forth in this Act shall apply to all buildings and facilities used by the public which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the state's power of regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings and facilities constructed in this state through partial or total use of federal funds. All buildings and facilities constructed in this state, or substantially renovated, modified, or altered, after the effective date of this Act from any one of these funds or any combination thereof shall conform to each of the standards and specifications prescribed herein except where the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned shall determine, after taking all circumstances into consideration, that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impracticable. Where it is determined that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the State Building Commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practicable, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(b) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in those buildings and facilities under construction on the effective date of this Act, unless the authority responsible for the construction shall determine that the construction has reached a state where compliance is impractical. This Act shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

Scope and purpose

Sec. 3. (a) This Act is concerned with nonambulatory disabilities, semiambulatory disabilities, sight disabilities, hearing disabilities, disabilities of coordination and aging.

(b) It is intended to make all buildings and facilities covered by this Act accessible to, and functional for, the physically handicapped to, through, and within their doors, without loss of function, space, or facilities where the general public is concerned.

Definitions

Sec. 4. For the purpose of this Act the following terms have the meanings as herein set forth:

(1) "Nonambulatory disabilities" means impairments that, regardless of cause or manifestation, for all practical purposes, confine individuals to wheelchairs.

(2) "Semiambulatory disabilities" means impairments that cause individuals to walk with difficulty or insecurity. Individuals using braces or crutches, amputees, arthritics, spastics, and those with pulmonary and cardiac ills may be semiambulatory. The listing here made is illustrative and shall not be construed as being exhaustive.

(3) "Sight disabilities" means total blindness or impairments affecting sight to the extent that the individual functioning in public areas is insecure or exposed to danger.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(4) "Hearing disabilities" means deafness or hearing handicaps that might make an individual insecure in a public area because he is unable to communicate or hear warning signals.

(5) "Disabilities of coordination" means faulty coordination or palsy from brain, spinal, or peripheral nerve injury.

(6) "Aging" means those manifestations of the aging processes that significantly reduce mobility, flexibility, coordination, and perceptiveness but are not accounted for in the aforementioned categories.

(7) "Standard," when this term appears in small letters, is descriptive and means typical type.

(8) "Fixed turning radius, wheel to wheel" means the tracking of the caster wheels and large wheels or a wheelchair when pivoting on a spot.

(10) "Involved (involvement)" means a portion or portions of the human anatomy or physiology, or both, that have a loss or impairment of normal function as a result of genesis, trauma, disease, inflammation, or degeneration.

(11) "Ramps, ramps with gradients" means ramps with gradients (or ramps with slopes) that deviate from what would otherwise be considered the normal level. An exterior ramp, as distinguished from a "walk," shall be considered an appendage to a building leading to a level above or below existing ground level. As such, a ramp shall meet certain requirements similar to those imposed upon stairs.

(12) "Walk, walks" means a predetermined, prepared-surface, exterior pathway leading to or from a building or a facility, or from one exterior area to another, places on the existing ground level and not deviating from the level of the existing ground immediately adjacent.

(13) "Appropriate number" means the number of a specific item that would be reasonably necessary, in accord with the purpose and function of a building or a facility, to accommodate individuals with specific disabilities in proportion to the anticipated number of individuals with disabilities who would use a particular building or facility.

Design criteria

Sec. 5. The following design criteria shall be applicable:

(1) The collapsible-model wheelchair of tubular metal construction with plastic upholstery for back and seat is most commonly used. The standard model of all manufacturers falls within the following limits, which are used as the basis of consideration:

(A) Length: 42 inches

(B) Width, when open: 25 inches

(C) Height of seat from floor: 19-1/2 inches

(D) Height of armrest from floor: 29 inches

(E) Height of pusher handles (rear) from floor: 36 inches

(F) Width, when collapsed: 11 inches

(2) The fixed turning radius of a standard wheelchair, wheel to wheel, is 18 inches. The fixed turning radius, front structure to rear structure, is 31.5 inches.

(3) The average turning space required by a person in a wheelchair (180 to 360 degrees) is 60 × 60 inches. A turning space of 63 × 56 inches may at times prove more workable and desirable.

(4) A minimum width of 60 inches is required for two individuals in wheelchairs to pass each other.

(5) In a wheelchair the average unilateral vertical reach is 60 inches and ranges from 56 to 78 inches.

(6) The average horizontal working (table) reach of a person in a wheelchair is 30.8 inches and ranges from 28.5 inches to 33.2 inches.

(7) The bilateral horizontal reach, both arms extended to each side, shoulder high, of a person in a wheelchair, ranges from 54 inches to 71 inches and averages 64.5 inches.

(8) An individual reaching diagonally (from a wheelchair) as would be required in using wall-mounted dial telephones or towel dispenser, would make the average reach (on the wall) 48 inches from the floor.

(9) Most individuals ambulating on braces or crutches, or both, or on canes are able to manipulate within the specifications prescribed for wheelchairs, although doors present quite a problem at times. However, a crutch tip extending laterally from an individual is not obvious to others in heavily trafficked areas, and not as obvious or protective as a wheelchair and is, therefore, a source of vulnerability.

(10) On the average, individuals 5 feet 6 inches tall require an average of 31 inches between crutch tips in the normally accepted gait.

(11) On the average, individuals 6 feet 0 inches tall require an average of 32.5 inches between crutch tips in the normally accepted gait.

Site development

Sec. 6. (a) The ground shall be graded, even contrary to existing topography, so that it attains a level with a normal entrance and will make a facility accessible to individuals with physical disabilities.

(b) Public walks shall be at least 48 inches wide and shall have a gradient not greater than 5 percent. These walks shall be of continuing common surface, not interrupted by steps or abrupt changes in level. Wherever walks cross other walks, driveways, or parking lots they shall blend to a common level. A walk shall have a level platform at the top which is at least 5 feet by 5 feet if a door swings out onto the platform or toward the walk. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway. A walk shall have a level platform at least 3 feet deep and 5 feet wide, if the door does not swing onto the platform or toward the walk. This platform shall extend at least one foot beyond each side of the doorway.

(c) Spaces in parking lots that are accessible to the building or facility shall be set aside and identified for use by individuals with physical disabilities. An adequate parking space is one that is open on one side and which allows room for individuals in wheelchairs or individuals with braces and crutches to get in and out of an automobile onto a level surface, suitable for wheeling and walking. Parking spaces for individuals with physical disabilities when placed between two conventional diagonal or head-on parking spaces shall be 12 feet wide. Care in planning shall be exercised so that individuals in wheelchairs and individuals using braces and crutches are not compelled to wheel or walk behind parked cars. Consideration shall be given to the distribution of spaces for use by the disabled, in accordance with the frequency and regularity of their parking needs. Walks shall be in conformity with Section 6(b) of this Act.

Ramps

Sec. 7. (a) Where ramps with gradients are necessary or desired, they shall conform to the following specifications:

(1) A ramp shall not have a slope greater than one foot rise in 12 feet, or 8.33 percent, or 4 degrees 50 minutes.

(2) A ramp shall have handrails on at least one side, and preferably two sides, that are 32 inches in height, measured from the surface of the ramp, that are smooth, that extend one foot beyond the top and bottom of the ramp, and that as far as practicable conform with American Standard Safety Code for Floor and Wall Openings, and Toe Boards as promulgated by the American Standards Association, Inc.

County welfare board; appointment by commissioners' court; multi-county boards; coordinated plans and services

Sec. 4. (a) The Commissioners Court of any county may appoint in said county a Child Welfare Board for the county; such Board shall consist of not less than seven (7) nor more than fifteen (15) members, and shall be of such size and such membership, within the limitations prescribed herein, and experience as may be determined by the Commissioners Court and the State Department of Public Welfare to be essential. The members of the Child Welfare Board shall be residents of the county and shall serve without compensation and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Commissioners Court. The Child Welfare Board shall select its own chairman, and it shall perform such duties as may be required of it by the said Commissioners Court and the State Department of Public Welfare in furtherance of the purposes of this Act. The County Commissioners Court of any county may remove any member of the Child Welfare Board for just cause.

(b) When found to be more practical, and when approved by the State Department of Public Welfare, multi-counties may join for the purpose of this law in establishing a Child Welfare Board for their joint use under the terms and conditions above set forth for a single county. In such cases such combined counties shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as a single county herein provided for.

(c) In the interest of the welfare of all children in this state, it is essential that the state and all subdivisions thereof be given the authority through legislative acts to make broad, general, flexible plans for improving health, education and welfare of all children, and it is particularly necessary for the County Commissioners Court in the various counties to have discretionary powers in relation to determining the size of Child Welfare Boards established depending upon the needs and the types of programs in the particular county.

It is the expressed intent of this Act to strengthen Child Welfare Boards so that services may be provided to all children in the county who are in need of services. The Child Welfare Board shall work with the County Commissioners Court and shall be an entity of the State Department of Public Welfare for the purposes of providing coordinated state and local public welfare services for children and their families and coordinated utilization of federal, state, and local funds for these services. Permanently and totally disabled persons; eligibility for assistance; definitions; amount of assistance

Sec. 16-B. (1) Assistance to the permanently and totally disabled shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any needy person:

1. Who is permanently and totally disabled as hereinafter defined; and
2. Who is eighteen (18) years of age or older but less than sixty-five (65) years of age; and
3. Who is a citizen of the United States, and
4. Who resides in the State; and
5. Who is in need as hereinafter defined; and
6. Who is not receiving Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, or Aid to Families with Dependent Children; and
7. Who has not disposed of property, either personal or real, for the purpose of qualifying or increasing need for assistance, provided that the property, if still available, would affect either eligibility or the amount of the assistance payment.

No application for assistance under the provisions of this Act shall be approved until it has been established in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated by the State Department of Public Welfare that the applicant is permanently and totally disabled by reason of a mental or physical impairment or a combination of both.

(2) The term "Permanently and totally disabled", as used in this Act, means that the individual has a permanent physical or mental impairment, disease, or loss, or a combination of such which is verifiable by medical findings, which is irreversible, or progressive, and not amenable to treatment, or requires treatment that is continuous, extremely hazardous, or of questionable benefit, and renders the individual totally disabled, as demonstrated by the fact that he is restricted in his performance of usual activities of daily living to the extent that he requires services, or the presence of another person in performing these activities, and which permanently precludes the applicant from engaging in a useful occupation as a homemaker or as a wage earner.

"Permanent and total disability", as defined herein, shall be established on the basis of a current applicable medical report of examination by a physician legally licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas and who has been approved by the State Department of Public Welfare to make such examinations. The examining physician shall certify in writing, upon forms prescribed by the State Department, such information as the Department may require for proper diagnosis, prognosis, and recommendations as to medical and surgical treatment. Said reports shall be reviewed by a physician legally licensed to practice medicine in the State of Texas and employed by the State Department of Public Welfare, who shall approve or disapprove the medical evidence to substantiate the finding of "permanent and total disability". Said reviewing physician shall also determine the feasibility of referring said applicant for vocational rehabilitation. The State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt a reasonable fee schedule for examinations, when examinations are considered necessary by the State Department of Public Welfare for the purpose of determining eligibility for assistance of individuals who are permanently and totally disabled under the provisions of this Act, and the Department of Public Welfare is hereby authorized to pay for such examinations out of the funds appropriated to the State Department for the purpose of assistance to the permanently and totally disabled persons under the provisions of this Act or for administrative expense. The State Department of Public Welfare is hereby authorized to incur claims for medical examinations which may be paid later out of subsequent appropriations for medical expenses when the current appropriation is inadequate to pay for such medical examinations.

Each recipient of assistance who is permanently and totally disabled shall submit to a reexamination whenever such reexamination is deemed necessary by the State Department of Public Welfare for the continuance of the assistance grant.

(3) The Department of Public Welfare is authorized to provide through employment of properly qualified personnel such medical, social and related services as are found necessary for proper administration of this Act, and for most effective use of other resources for rehabilitation and restoration to health and independence. The Department of Public Welfare shall refer recipients who can be benefited thereby to the appropriate public and private resources for rehabilitation through retraining, restorative services, or treatment and therapy.

(4) In determining "need", the State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the purpose of determining eligibility, and shall take into consideration all of the resources and income available to the individual from any source. Assistance may not be granted if such individual has available resources which are sufficient to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency; provided that in consideration of income and resources actually available to an applicant, the State Department shall take into consideration the income and resources which may be available to the relatives of an applicant or a recipient, who under rules and regulations promulgated by the Department pursuant to Federal rules and regulations, are responsible for his support.

The State Department of Public Welfare shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for determining the amounts of assistance given to an applicant. The amount of assistance given shall be determined by the State Department of Public Welfare through its District or County Agents in the County or District in which the needy person resides. The amount granted shall provide such person with a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency and within the limitations and provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as is now provided or may hereafter be provided. The amount of such assistance out of state funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount so expended out of Federal funds. The method of investigation and the determination of the amount of assistance granted shall comply with the limitations and provisions of the Federal Social Security Act as is now provided or may hereafter be provided.

Old age assistance; persons eligible

Sec. 20. Old Age Assistance shall be given under the provisions of this Act to any needy person:

- (1) Who has attained the age of sixty-five (65) years; and
- (2) Who is a citizen of the United States or who is a noncitizen and has resided within the boundaries of the United States for at least twenty-five (25) years; and
- (3) Who resides in the State; and
- (4) Who has not sufficient income or other resources to provide a reasonable subsistence compatible with health and decency. Provided that in consideration of income and resources actually available to applicant the State Agency shall not evaluate income and resources which may be available only to relatives of applicant. Income and resources to be taken into consideration shall be known to exist and shall be available to the applicant. An applicant for old age assistance shall not be denied assistance because of the existence of a child or other relative, except husband or wife, who is able to contribute to the applicant's support, and no inquiry shall be made into the financial ability of said child or other relative, except husband or wife, in determining applicant's eligibility. The applicant's child or other relative, except husband or wife, is to be treated by the State Department in the same way as any person not related to the applicant; any aid or contributions to the applicant from such child or other relative, except husband or wife, must actually exist in fact, or with reasonable certainty, be available in the future to constitute a resource to the applicant.

(5) An applicant for old age assistance shall not be denied assistance because of the ownership of a resident homestead, as the term "resident homestead" is defined in the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas. Such services shall be provided by an attorney legally licensed to practice in the State of Texas, or through the use of law students acting under the supervision of a law teacher or of a

The State Department shall adopt a reasonable fee schedule for such services, such fees not to exceed those customarily charged by the attorney for similar services for private clients. Such fees shall be paid only out of such funds as may be appropriated to the Department for this purpose.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any attorney in fact, or any other person, firm or corporation whatsoever, representing any applicant or recipient of assistance with respect to any application before the State Department, or any of its agents, to charge a fee for his services in aiding or representing any such applicant before the State Department, or for any other service in aiding such applicant to secure assistance or service unless such individual is an attorney legally licensed to practice in the State of Texas. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, to advertise, hold himself out for or solicit the procurement of assistance or service.

"Sec. 10. The fact that under Federal Law the Department is required to extend the welfare programs and to provide services to and on behalf of the needy people served by the Department, and such services can, in many instances, be best provided through contracts and agreements with individuals or with other public or private agencies; the fact that by extending these programs and services, funds which could be made available to the Department through other public or private sources can be used for matching Federal funds; the fact that the Federal and State Laws enacted since the State Department of Public Welfare was created have added innumerable responsibilities to the Department thereby making the divisions which were created within the Department at that time inoperative; the further fact that the Department could more effectively operate and more effectively use staff time if divisions were restructured; the fact that many persons, particularly aged and disabled persons, live with their children or other relatives so as to receive personal care and assistance; the fact that these aged and disabled recipients have to frequently move across state lines in order to receive this care because the relatives with whom they live have to move across state lines due to military service or employment; the fact it works a grave hardship and injustice on the recipient whose public assistance grant is denied because of these factors beyond his control; the fact that part of the funds used in paying the grants come from Federal funds; the fact that the Federal courts have held that the durational residence requirement for recipients of public assistance is unconstitutional; the fact that under Title XIX durational residence for Medical Assistance is prohibited; the fact that the Social Security Amendments of 1967 provided additional funds for extending the assistance and services available to applicants for and recipients of Public Assistance, and the crowded condition of the calendar create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and the said Rule is suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Art. 695c—2. Physical abuse of children; reports to county attorney; central registry

Purpose

Section 1. In order to protect children whose health and welfare may be adversely affected through the infliction, by other than accidental means, of physical injury, or through physical neglect, the legislature hereby provides for the reporting of such cases by physicians or medical staff of institutions, school teachers, nursery school directors, coroners, social workers, and all peace officers of the state to the office of the county attorney. It is the intent of the legislature that, as a result of such reporting, protective social services shall be made available through the office of the nearest director of child welfare services in an effort to prevent further abuse or neglect, and to safeguard and enhance the welfare of such children and preserve family life wherever possible.

Persons to report

Sec. 2. (a) Any licensed physician staff member of a medical institution, intern, registered nurse, school teacher, nursery school director, social worker, coroner, or peace officer who observes or treats a child suffering from injuries suspected to have been inflicted by other than accidental means, or who appears to be suffering from physical neglect, may report this fact to the county attorney of the county in which the child resides, or to the Regional Department of Public Welfare, Division of Child Welfare.

Immunity from liability

Sec. 3. Any person making a report without malice pursuant to this Act is immune from any civil or criminal liability.

Evidence not privileged

Sec. 4. The husband-wife privilege shall not be a ground for excluding evidence regarding a child's injuries or neglect, or the cause thereof, in any judicial proceeding resulting from a report made pursuant to this Act.

Duties of the county attorney

Sec. 5. (a) Each county attorney shall accept and maintain a file of the reports rendered to his office under the provisions of this Act on injured or neglected children residing within the county.

(b) The file of reports shall be sufficient to trace a family pattern of abuse or neglect, if any, and to facilitate inter-agency cooperation.

(c) The county attorney is responsible for implementing the recommendations of the local director of the county child welfare unit.

(d) The county attorney shall take whatever legal measures are necessary to insure the physical well-being, health, and safety of the child, including requesting issuance from the juvenile court of an order for the temporary removal of the child, such order to become permanent upon a showing of good cause at the completion of the investigation.

Central registry

Sec. 6. There shall be established and maintained in Austin, Texas, by the Texas State Welfare Department a central registry of reported cases of child abuse. The Registry shall provide for cooperation with local social service agencies, and cooperation with other states in exchanging reports to effect a national registration system.

Refunding bonds; power to issue; sale price; maturity; interest rate; security; combination issuance; election; approval; registration; sale and delivery; legal investments; exception

Sec. 2. (a) The governing body of any issuer shall be authorized to refund all or any part of any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds to be sold for cash in such principal amounts as are necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of any obligations being refunded and the interest to accrue on said obligations to the maturity thereof, and/or to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any date or dates upon which said obligations are subject to such redemption, including principal, and any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on said obligations to said redemption date or dates. Said refunding bonds shall be sold for not less than their par value plus accrued interest to date of delivery, shall mature not more than forty years from their date, and shall bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer. Such refunding bonds may be secured by and made payable from the same source as the obligations being refunded thereby, or may be secured by and made payable from taxes or revenues, or both, or any other or different source, or any combination of sources, if the issuer is otherwise authorized by the Texas Constitution or any statute to secure or pay any kind or type of bonds by or from any such source. Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any encumbrance in connection therewith; except that if the Texas Constitution would require an election or vote to permit any procedure, action, or matter pertaining to such refunding bonds, then an election to authorize any such procedure, action, or matter shall be held substantially in accordance with Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, to the extent practicable, applicable, and appropriate. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with the Texas Constitution and this Act he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, without the surrender, exchange, or cancellation of the obligations being refunded; and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, such bonds shall be so registered before the making of the deposit with the State Treasurer as required hereunder, and such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered to the purchaser thereof in order to permit the issuer to use the proceeds from such sale and delivery to make all or any part of said deposit. After such approval and registration, such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. All refunding bonds issued under this Act, shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees and guardians, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said refunding bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the market value of said refunding bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder unless the obligations to be refunded are scheduled to mature or are subject to redemption prior to maturity within not more than five years from the date of the refunding bonds; and no refunding bonds shall be issued hereunder to refund electric and gas system revenue bonds issued by any city having a population in excess of 500,000, according to the most recent federal census.

Deposits with State Treasurer; effect; refunding of obligations; fees; forwarding to place of payment; time of payment

Sec. 7. When the deposit of money required hereunder is made with the State Treasurer in accordance with this Act, for any obligations being refunded pursuant hereto, such deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded; provided, however, that, at the option of and within the discretion of the issuer, provision may be made in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds for the subordination thereof to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent specifically provided in said proceedings. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the fees to be paid the State Treasurer for his services and expenses under this Act shall not exceed a maximum of $1,000. Immediately after the receipt thereof, and by the most expeditious means, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to forward to and deposit with the place of payment (paying agent) for the obligations being refunded all of the money deposited with him pursuant hereto (excepting the fees for his services). If there is more than one place of payment for the obligations being refunded, the State Treasurer shall forward the aforesaid money directly to the one of said places of payment which is located in the State of Texas; provided that if more than one of such places of payment is located in the State of Texas, or if no place of payment is located in the State of Texas and there is more than one place of payment located outside of the State of Texas, then said money shall be forwarded directly to the one of such places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the duty of the place of payment to deposit the aforesaid money received from the State Treasurer (excepting the amount thereof representing the charges of the place of payment) into an interest and sinking fund to be established and maintained in trust and as a trust fund for the payment of the obligations being refunded. Further, it shall be the duty of the place of payment, out of said interest and sinking fund, to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when duly presented therefor at the maturity, due date, or redemption date thereof. If there is more than one place of payment, the one having the deposit shall make appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary funds will be available at the other place or places of payment to pay or redeem any of such obligations being refunded when so presented for payment or redemption. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act shall not have the right to demand or receive payment thereof at any time before the scheduled maturity date or dates, due date or dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of said obligations being refunded, unless the governing body of the issuer shall have specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of said obligations in the proceedings authorizing said refunding bonds.

(a) The term "public agency" shall mean and include the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, and any body politic and corporate of the State of Texas.

(b) The term "public securities" shall mean any bonds, notes, or other obligations payable from taxes, or revenues, or both, which any public agency is now or hereafter may be authorized to issue and sell pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act.

(c) The term "net interest cost" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total of all interest to accrue and come due thereon through the final scheduled maturity date thereof, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the price paid therefor. The term "bond years" with reference to each separate bond, note, or other obligation constituting part of an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the principal amount (par value) of each such bond, note, or other obligation by one-thousand (1000) and multiplying such quotient by the number of years from the date interest commences to accrue thereon to its scheduled maturity date. The term "net effective interest rate" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the amount of the net interest cost of such issue or series by the aggregate total number of bond years of all bonds, notes, or other obligations constituting such issue or series, and then dividing such quotient by ten (10) and expressing the result as a rate of interest in per cent per annum.

Sec. 2. Any public agency is hereby authorized to issue and sell any issue or series of its public securities at any price or prices and bearing interest at any rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided. Any public securities heretofore authorized by an election may be issued, sold, and bear interest as provided in this Act, except that public securities heretofore authorized by an election required by the Constitution of Texas shall not be issued at an interest rate greater than authorized at such election unless a further election is held resulting favorably to the issuance of such previously voted public securities at a price and at a rate authorized by this Act. Elections for that purpose shall be called and held, and notice thereof given, in the same manner as provided by law applicable to the previous election authorizing such public securities.

Said refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and/or with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions, and with such security, as may be set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds, all within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. All refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued without any election in connection with the issuance thereof or the creation of any incumbrance in connec-

Any such exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries, and all or any part of any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations may be refunded in whole or in part hereunder. Any outstanding issue of bonds, notes, or other obligations, whether payable from revenues, taxes, or otherwise, may be refunded hereunder in part provided that the issuer can demonstrate to the attorney general at the time of the refunding that adequate resources will remain, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment of the unrefunded part of such issue when due.

issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any issuer shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Title of Act:

An Act defining the term "issuer" as meaning any and every kind and type of political or governmental instrumentality or entity in or of the State of Texas, and defining the term "governing body" as being the group authorized by law to issue bonds for or on behalf of any issuer; authorizing the governing body of any issuer to refund any of its outstanding bonds, notes, or other general or special obligations by the issuance of refunding bonds to be secured by or payable from any lawful source; providing for the manner in which said refunding bonds may be issued, and for certain restrictions in connection therewith; providing for the approval of said bonds by the attorney general and the registration thereof by the comptroller of public accounts; providing for the exchange of refunding bonds for the obligations being refunded; providing that this Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but shall prevail and control in the case of conflict with any other law; prescribing a severability provision; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2319, ch. 784.

Art. 717k—4. Revenue bonds; issuance by cities, towns and villages; validation of proceedings

Section 1. Where any city, town, or village incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas has heretofore submitted to the qualified electors who own taxable property in said city and who had duly rendered the same for taxation a proposition or propositions for the issuance of revenue bonds for a purpose or purposes provided by Chapter 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and such revenue bonds were approved by a majority vote of the said participating property taxpaying voters, all election proceedings relating thereto are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed and such bonds may be issued and made payable from and secured by the net revenues of one or more of the utility systems mentioned in the said proposition or propositions approved at the said election, but in no event shall any such pledge of net revenues be made which would conflict with the contract rights of the holders of any outstanding bonds.

Sec. 2. All proceedings of the governing body of an incorporated city with respect to the authorization of bonds payable from revenues (any sources except ad valorem taxes) are hereby ratified and confirmed and such bonds shall be payable from and secured by the revenues pledged to the payment thereof.

Sec. 3. In all instances where revenue bonds are validated by the provisions hereof, all proceedings relating to the authorization of such bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 4. The provisions hereof shall not be construed as validating any bonds where (i) such bonds were required by law to be approved at an election unless the issuance thereof was approved at such election by a majority of the participating resident qualified property taxpaying electors, or (ii) the bonds or election proceedings are involved in litigation questioning the validity thereof on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof. Acts 1969, 61st Leg., 2nd C.S. p. 159, ch. 47, emerg. eff. Sept. 19, 1969.

Sections 5 and 6 of the act of 1969 provided:

"Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, or for other reasons void or unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other word, phrase, clause, sentence, or part of this Act, and such remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

"Sec. 6. The fact that a decision of the United States Supreme Court (dated July 16, 1969, in the case styled Cipriano v. City of Houma) [see 89 S.Ct. 714, 1623, 286 F. Supp. 823] has cast doubt upon the validity of elections ordered held for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds by holding a state may not constitutionally restrict the electorate participating in such an election to property taxpaying voters, the fact that under Texas laws most revenue bonds are required to be approved by such restricted classification of voters, the fact that cities should be authorized to proceed with the issuance of revenue bonds which have been approved at an election, if same was required by Texas law, and the further fact that proceedings relating to the authorization of revenue bonds should be validated with limited exceptions, all of which facts constitute and create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Title of Act:

An Act validating proceedings relating to the issuance of revenue bonds authorized by incorporated cities, towns, and villages under certain conditions; providing for the issuance of such revenue bonds, for their security and payment, their approval by the Attorney General and registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts; limiting the application of the Act; providing a severance clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1969, 61st Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 159, ch. 47.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any such road bonds or to any such road district or other defined district involved in litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state on the effective date hereof, questioning the validity of any matters hereby validated, if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity of the same; nor shall this Act apply to any such road bonds or to any such road district or other defined district which has been declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state.

The upper half of every fifth wheel shall be fastened to the motor vehicle with at least the security required for the securing of the lower half to the truck tractor or dolly. Locking means shall be provided in every fifth wheel mechanism including adapters when used, so that the upper and lower halves may not be separated without the operation of a positive manual release. A release mechanism operated by the driver from the cab shall be deemed to meet this requirement. passenger; without cracks more than one-fourth inch wide, and the back-rests, if slatted, without cracks more than two inches wide, and the exposed surfaces, if made of wood, planed or sanded smooth and free of splinters.

(5) Protection from weather: Whenever necessary to protect the passengers from inclement weather conditions, be equipped with a top at least 80 inches high above the floor and facilities for closing the sides and ends of the passenger-carrying compartment. Tarpaulins or other such removable devices for protection from the weather shall be secured in place.

(6) Exit: Adequate means of ingress and egress to and from the passenger space shall be provided on the rear or at the right side. Such means of ingress and egress shall be at least 18 inches wide. The top and the clear opening shall be at least 60 inches high, or as high as the side wall of the passenger space if less than 60 inches. The bottom shall be at the floor of the passenger space.

(7) Gates and doors: Gates or doors shall be provided to close the means of ingress and egress and each such gate or door shall be equipped with at least one latch or other fastening device of such construction as to keep the gate or door securely closed during the course of transportation; and readily operative without the use of tools.

(8) Ladders or steps: Ladders or steps for the purpose of ingress and egress shall be used when necessary. The maximum vertical spacing of footholds shall not exceed 12 inches, except that the lowest step may be not more than 18 inches above the ground when the vehicle is empty.

(9) Handholds: Handholds or devices for similar purpose shall be provided to permit ingress and egress without hazard to passengers.

(10) Emergency exit: Vehicles with permanently affixed roofs shall be equipped with at least one emergency exit having a gate or door, latch and hold as prescribed in this section and located on a side or rear not equipped with the exit described in Subparagraph (6) of this subsection.

(11) Communication with driver: Means shall be provided to enable the passengers to communicate with the driver. Such means may include telephone, speaker tubes, buzzers, pull cords, or other mechanical or electrical means.

(3) Heaters permitting fuel leakage: Any type of heater from the burner of which there could be spillage or leakage of fuel upon the tilting or overturning of the vehicle in which it is mounted.

(4) Heaters permitting air contamination: Any heater taking air, heated or to be heated, from the engine compartment or from direct contact with any portion of the exhaust system; or any heater taking air in ducts from the outside atmosphere to be conveyed through the engine compartment, unless said ducts are so constructed and installed as to prevent contamination of the air so conveyed by exhaust or engine compartment gases.

(5) Any heater not securely fastened to the vehicle.

No person shall drive nor shall any motor carrier permit or require a driver employed or used by it to drive or operate for more than 10 hours in the aggregate (excluding rest stops and stops for meals) in any period of 24 consecutive hours, unless such driver be afforded eight consecutive hours rest immediately following the 10 hours aggregate driving. The term "24 consecutive hours" as used in this section means any period starting at the time the driver reports for duty.

Definitions

Section 1. A. "City" means any incorporated city, town or village in the State of Texas.

"B. "Governmental Unit" means any county, city, town, village, authority, district or other political subdivision of the state.

"C. "Commission" means a Regional Planning Commission, Council of Governments or similar regional planning agency created under this Act.

forms of urban development or concentration, or special problems of agriculture, forestry, conservation or other matters, or any combination thereof. It is the intention of this Act to permit the greatest possible flexibility among the various participating governmental units to organize and establish regions most suitable to the nature of the area problems as they see them.

E. "Comprehensive Development Planning Process" means the process of (1) assessing the needs and resources of an area; (2) formulating goals, objectives, policies and standards to guide its long-range physical, economic, and human resource development; and (3) preparing plans and programs therefor which (a) identify alternative courses of action and the spacial and functional relationships among the activities to be carried out thereunder, (b) specify the appropriate ordering in time of such activities, (c) take into account other relevant factors affecting the achievement of the desired development of the area, (d) provide an overall framework and guide for the preparation of function and project development plans, (e) make recommendations for long-range programming and financing of capital projects and facilities which are of mutual concern to two or more member governments, and (f) make such other recommendations as may be deemed appropriate.

Objectives

Sec. 2. The purpose of this Act is to encourage and permit local units of government to join and cooperate with one another to improve the health, safety and general welfare of their citizens; to plan for the future development of communities, areas, and regions to the end that transportation systems may be more carefully planned; that communities, areas, and regions grow with adequate street, utility, health, educational, recreational, and other essential facilities; that needs of agriculture, business, and industry be recognized; that residential areas provide healthy surroundings for family life; that historical and cultural value be preserved; and that the growth of the communities, areas, and regions is commensurate with and promotive of the efficient and economical use of public funds.

Creation

Sec. 3. Any two or more governmental units may join in the exercise, performance, and cooperation of planning, powers, duties, and functions as provided by law for any or all such governmental units. When two or more such governmental units agree, by ordinance, resolution, rule, order, or other means, to cooperate in regional planning, they may establish a Regional Planning Commission. But nothing in the Act shall be construed to limit the powers of the participating governmental units as provided by existing law. The participating governmental units, by appropriate mutual agreement, may establish a Regional Planning Commission for a region designated in such agreement, provided that such region shall consist of territory under their respective jurisdictions, including extraterritorial jurisdictions, if any, but need not include all of the territory of the governmental units participating.

Powers

Sec. 4. Under this Act, a Regional Planning Commission shall be a political subdivision of this state, the general purpose of which is to make studies and plans to guide the unified, far-reaching development of the area, to eliminate duplication, and to promote economy and efficiency in the coordinated development of the area. The Commission may make plans for the development of the area which may include recommendations on major thoroughfares, streets, traffic and transportation studies, bridges, airports, parks, recreation sites, school sites, public utilities, land use, water supply, sanitation facilities, drainage, public buildings, population density, open spaces, and other items relating to the effectuation of the general purpose.

The plans and recommendations of the Commission may be adopted in whole or in part by the respective governing bodies of the cooperating governmental units. The Commission may assist the participating governmental units individually or collectively in carrying out plans or recommendations developed by the Commission. The Commission may assist any participating governmental unit individually in the preparation or effectuation of local planning consistent with the general purposes of this Act.

The Commission may contract with one or more of its member governments to perform any service which that government could, by contract, have any private organization without governmental powers perform, provided that such contract imposes no cost or obligation upon any member government not signatory thereto.

A Commission may purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, sell or otherwise dispose of real and personal property. It may employ such staff, and consult with and retain such experts as it deems necessary. It may provide for retirement benefits for its employees by means of a jointly contributory retirement plan with an agency, firm, or corporation authorized to do business in this state.

Operation

Sec. 5. The cooperating governmental units may through joint agreement determine the number and qualifications of the governing body of the Commission. The joint agreement may provide for the manner of cooperation and the means and methods of the operation of the Commission. The joint agreement may provide a method for the employment of the staff and consultants, the apportionment of the cost and expenses, and the purchase of property and materials. The joint agreement may allow for the addition of other governmental units to the cooperative arrangement.

A grant made under this provision shall not exceed local funds available to the recipient agency. The provisions for state financial assistance shall be administered by the governor or such state agency as he may designate. For purposes of administering the provisions of this Act, population shall be based on the latest official estimate acceptable to the governor or such agency as he may designate to administer this Act.

In order to be eligible for state financial assistance, a Commission shall comply with the regulations of the agency responsible for administering this Act and shall:

(3) In the event the Legislature shall either increase or decrease the rate of such State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax, the combined rate of the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax and the Local Sales and Use Tax shall be the sum of the two rates, in which event the schedule for collection of such combined taxes shall be calculated by multiplying the combined tax rate times the amount of the sale. Art. 1110e. Waterworks and sanitary sewer systems; "on-site" and "off-site" improvements; assessments; certificates; procedure

Power to make off-site improvements and assessments

Section 1. Cities as defined herein shall have the power under this Act to make improvements of the kinds or classes herein named or any combination thereof or part thereof within certain designated or defined areas within their limits so as to enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such areas from "off-site" waterworks system or sanitary sewer systems, either or both, as herein defined hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities and to assess a portion of the cost of such improvements against the properties benefited thereby and against the owners thereof, regardless of whether or not said property is in an area which has been subdivided or platted preceding the effective date of this Act by a plat filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such city is situated or otherwise.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) "City" shall mean any city or town, including general law and home rule cities, and not included in whole or in part within the boundaries of any political subdivision functioning and with an outstanding bonded indebtedness having as one of its purposes the supplying of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses or the furnishing of sanitary sewer services, and which city or town does not have a municipally owned water or sanitary sewer service system at the effective date of this Act. The powers conferred in this Act shall terminate after a period of 5 years from the effective date of this Act.

(b) "On-site" when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or water system shall refer to such segments of a water or sanitary sewer system, or improvements in connection therewith, including mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances located within the "Defined Area" within which the benefited property lies. "On-site Improvements" do not include the water and/or sanitary sewer plant proper even though situated within the area.

(c) "Off-site" when used in connection with the words sanitary sewer system, water system, mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts, appurtenances or improvements, or improvements to the sewer system or improvements to the water system shall refer to mains, gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts and other appurtenances or segments of a water or sanitary sewer system located outside of the "Defined Area" in which the benefited property lies. "Off-site Improvements" include the waterworks and/or sanitary sewer plant proper whether situated within such area or outside of such area.

(d) "Improvements to the Sanitary Sewer System" shall mean the laying of all mains, laterals and extensions, any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned, and other "on-site improvements" liberally construed, necessary or advisable for the sanitary disposal of excreta and offal from Benefited Properties situated within the "Defined Area" but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from public mains into private property for service to such property.

(e) "Improvements to the Water System" shall mean the laying of all water mains with gates, tees, crosses, taps, meter boxes, manholes, laterals, extensions, appliances, adjuncts thereto and any and all other appliances or appurtenances or adjuncts thereto and any combinations thereof or of portions thereof above mentioned and other "on-site improvements" liberally construed, advisable or necessary for the furnishing of water for domestic or commercial purposes to the Benefited Properties in the "Defined Area" but shall not embrace any connection facilities leading from a meter into private property.

(f) "Cost of Improvement" with regard to the construction of improvements to the water system and sewer system, either or both, shall include expenses of engineering, fiscal fees, and other expenses incident to construction of improvements in addition to the other costs of the improvements.

(g) "Construction of Improvement" when used herein shall mean the construction of "on-site" improvements, as same are defined herein, to the water or sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city.

(h) "Improvements" when used alone herein shall mean "on-site" improvements within designated or defined areas of cities which will enable water service or sanitary sewer service, either or both, to be furnished to property situated in such area from "off-site" waterworks and sanitary sewer systems, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by such cities.

(i) "Governing Body" shall mean the city, or town council or commission which serves as the legislative body of the municipality.

(j) "Benefited Property" shall mean any lot or tract of land situated in a "Defined Area" and to which water and sewer service, either or both, is made available under the terms of this Act.

(k) "Defined Area or Areas" means any area or any areas within the limits of any city to which this Act applies which is served by neither a municipally owned sanitary sewer or water system the boundaries of which area or areas are defined by the governing body of the city in an ordinance or resolution declaring that a necessity exists for improvements as herein defined.

Power to make on-site improvements and assessments

Sec. 3. The governing body of the city shall have at any time the power to determine the necessity for and to order the construction of "on-site" improvements within said city to a water system or to a sanitary sewer system, either or both, hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired by the city and to contract for the construction of such improvements by one or more contracts in the name of the city and to provide for the payment of the costs of such improvements by the city or partly by the city and partly by assessments levied against benefited property and the owners thereof as herein provided.

Ordinance; cost estimates; payment of cost by assessment and by city

Sec. 4. By the ordinance or resolution declaring that the necessity exists for such improvements, the city shall state generally the nature and extent of the "on-site" improvements, shall define the area or areas in which the benefited property lies and in which the "on-site" improvements are to be constructed, and may direct that detailed plans, specifications and cost estimates therefor be prepared and submitted to the governing body. The costs of "on-site" improvements may be wholly paid by the city or partly by the city and partly by the property benefited by the construction of the improvements and the owners of such property, but if any part of such cost is to be paid by such benefited property and the owners thereof, then before any "on-site" improvements are actually constructed, either before or after bids for the proposed construction are received by the city, and before any hearing herein provided for is held, the governing body shall prepare or cause to be prepared an estimate of the cost of such "on-site" improvements; in no event shall more than nine-tenths of the costs of such "on-site" improvements as shown on such estimate be assessed against such benefited property and the owners thereof. The city shall pay all of the costs of "off-site" improvements.

Railway assessment exemption

Sec. 5. No special tax or assessment shall be levied against a railway, street railway or interurban right-of-way to defray a portion of the cost of improvements to a city's water or sanitary sewer system.

Assessments; payment and interest; priority of liens; assignable certificates; suits; collection costs

Sec. 6. Subject to the terms hereof, the governing body of any city shall have power by ordinance to assess not exceeding nine-tenths of the estimated cost of "on-site" improvements against benefited property, and against the owners of such property, and to provide the time, terms, and conditions of payment and defaults of such assessments, and to prescribe the rate of interest thereon not to exceed 10 percent per annum. Any assessment against benefited property shall be a first and prior lien thereon, from the date improvements are ordered and shall be a personal liability and charge against the true owners of such property at such date whether named or not in any notice, instrument, certificate or ordinance provided for hereunder. The governing body shall have the power to cause to be issued in the name of city assignable certificates in evidence of assessments levied hereunder declaring the lien upon the property and liability of the true owners thereof whether correctly named or not and to fix the terms and conditions of such certificates. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer and attested by the city secretary or city clerk, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. The city seal may likewise be placed in facsimile thereon.

If any such certificate shall recite substantially that the proceeding with reference to making the improvements therein referred to have been regularly had in compliance with the law and that all prerequisites to the fixing of the assessment lien against the property described in said certificate and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof have been performed, and that the improvements have been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and have been accepted by the city and the date of such acceptance, same shall be prima facie evidence of all the matters recited in said certificate, and no further proof thereof shall be required. In any suit upon any assessment or reassessment in evidence of which a certificate may be issued under the terms of this Act it shall be sufficient to allege the substance of the recitals in such certificate and that such recitals are in fact true, and further allegations with reference to the proceedings relating to such assessment or reassessment shall not be necessary.

Such assessments shall be collectable with interest, expense of collections, and reasonable attorney's fees, if incurred, and shall be first and prior liens on the property assessed, superior to all other liens and claims except state, county, school district and city ad valorem taxes, and shall be a personal liability and charge against said owners of the property assessed.

Apportionment of cost

Sec. 7. That part of the cost of water and sewer "on-site" improvements, either or both, but computed separately, which may be assessed against benefited property and the owners thereof in the Defined Area or Areas shall be apportioned among the tracts or parcels of property benefited by such water improvements or sewer improvements, or both, and against the owners thereof in accordance with the square footage of each tract or parcel of land as shown on a recorded plat if such property is platted and the square footage can be computed from the information shown on such plat, or if no such plat is recorded, then as such square footage may be estimated by the city's engineer from such information as is available, provided that if the application of this rule of apportionment would in the opinion of the governing body, in particular cases, result in injustice or inequality it shall be the duty of said body to apportion and assess said costs in such proportion as it may deem just and equitable, having in view the special benefits in enhanced value to be received by such owners, and the adjustment of such apportionment so as to produce a substantial equality of benefits received and burdens imposed. For purposes of computing the amount of the assessment to be made each parcel of benefited property shall be assessed according to the number of square feet of each such parcel irrespective of the location of "on-site" improvements constructed hereunder relative to such parcel so long as such improvements provide water or sanitary sewer service, or both, to the parcel to be assessed.

Notice of assessment; requisites; filing

Sec. 8. Whenever the governing body of any city shall pursuant to this Act determine it to be necessary that any "on-site" improvements should be constructed, then if it is proposed that all or any part of the costs of the "on-site" improvements be levied or assessed and made a lien on property benefited thereby, there may be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such property is situated a notice signed in the name of such city by the city clerk, secretary, mayor or mayor pro tem or other authorized officer, which signatures may be facsimile signatures in lieu of manual signatures, and such facsimile signatures may be printed, engraved, lithographed, stamped or otherwise placed in facsimile thereon. Such notice shall meet all requirements of the Act when it shows substantially that the governing body of such city has ordered, directed or otherwise provided or determined it to be necessary that such system be improved and shall define the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies (the Defined Area or Areas), either by metes and bounds or by reference to streets, highways, survey lines, city limits lines or lot and block or subdivision lines shown on recorded plats, or shall otherwise identify or designate the area within which the improvements are to be made; and shall state that a portion of the costs of the "on-site" improvements is to be or has been specially assessed as a lien upon the benefited property. It is specially provided that one notice may embrace and include any number of such systems or improvements, or designated areas. If there are lots or parcels of land within any Defined Area or Areas which it has been determined by the governing body or the city's engineer will not be Benefited Property as that term is defined herein, then in such notice or in a later notice filed as promptly as feasible after such fact has been so determined such non-benefited property shall be described as adequately as possible and the inchoate lien against same and liability of the owners thereof shall be declared released and cancelled.

Necessity of acknowledgment and filing of assessment notice

Sec. 9. It shall not be necessary that any notice required by this Act give details or that it be sworn to or acknowledged and same may be filed at any time and the county clerk with whom any such notice is filed shall record same and index same in the name of the city and in the name or other designation of the water or sewer system or systems to the improvement of which it relates. The lien and liability of the assessment shall not be invalidated should said notice not be filed or not be indexed or recorded as herein provided, or shall be otherwise defective.

Exemptions from assessment; lien and personal liability; enforcement

Sec. 10. No property of any kind, church, school or otherwise, shall be exempt from any tax or assessment or assessments authorized hereby for local improvements, provided, however, that nothing herein shall empower any city or its governing body to fix a lien against any interest in property which is exempt from the lien of special assessments for local improvements under the Constitution of Texas at the time the lien takes effect, but the owner or owners of such property shall nevertheless be personally liable for any assessment in connection with such improvement and the city shall have power and authority to refuse water or sewer service, either or both, to the owners of such property until the owner thereof pays to the city the amount of assessment made against such property or an amount equal to the amount assessed for such improvements against private property of equal or comparable size. The fact that any improvement, though ordered, is omitted as to any property, any interest in which is so exempt shall not invalidate the lien or liability of assessments made against other property.

The lien created against any property and the personal liability of the owner or owners thereof may be enforced by suit in any court having jurisdiction, or by sale of the property assessed in the same manner as may be provided by law or charter in force in the particular city for sale of property for ad valorem city taxes, and the city, as an aid to the enforcement of the liability imposed by the assessment, may refuse to connect or may disconnect sewer or water service to a tract or parcel of benefited property during the period on which there is a default in the payment of any amount assessed hereunder against such tract or parcel and the owners thereof.

Notice and opportunity for hearing; publication and mailing of notices;
requisites; powers of governing body; appeal

Sec. 11. No assessment herein provided for shall be made against any benefited property or its owners, until after notice and opportunity for hearing as herein provided, and no assessment shall be made against any benefited property or owners thereof in excess of the special benefits of such property and its owners in the enhanced value thereof by means of such improvements as determined at such hearing. Such notice shall be by advertisement inserted at least three times in some newspaper published in the city where such special assessment is to be imposed, if there be such a paper: if not, then in a newspaper published in the county wherein such city is situated with general circulation in such city; the first publication of such notice of hearing to be made at least 21 days before the date of the hearing; and, additional written notice of the hearing shall be given by depositing in the United States mail, at least 14 days before the date of the hearing, notice of such hearing, (which may consist of a copy of the published notice) postage prepaid, in envelopes addressed to the respective owners of the Benefited Properties, as the names of such owners are shown on the then current rendered tax rolls of such city and at the addresses so shown, or if the names of such respective owners do not appear on such rendered tax rolls, then addressed to such owners as their names are shown on the current unrendered rolls of the city at the addresses shown thereon. The certificate of the city clerk or city secretary of such mailing and such publication shall constitute proof that all notice requirements of this Act have been fully complied with.

If any such notice shall describe in general terms the nature of the improvements for which assessments are proposed to be levied and to which such notice relates; shall name the water or sanitary sewer system to be improved, shall state the estimated amount or amounts per square foot proposed to be assessed against benefited property or the owners thereof, showing separately the amount proposed to be assessed for water improvements and the amount proposed to be assessed for sanitary sewer improvements; shall define in the manner provided by Section 8 of this Act the outside boundaries of the area or areas in which the benefited property lies or lie (the Defined Area or Areas), with reference to which the hearing mentioned in the notice is to be held; shall state the estimated total cost of the "on-site" improvements to the water system separately from the estimated total cost of the "on-site" improvements to the sewer system; and shall state the time and place at which such hearing shall be held, then such notice shall be sufficient, valid and binding upon all owning or claiming such benefited property or any interest therein. Such hearing shall be by and before the governing body of such city and all owning or claiming such benefited property, or any interest therein, shall have the right, at such hearing, to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a constitutional prerequisite to the validity of any assessment authorized by this Act, and to contest the amounts of the proposed assessments, the lien and liability thereof, the special benefits to the benefited property and owners thereof by means of the improvements for which assessments are to be levied, the accuracy, sufficiency, regularity and validity of the proceedings and contract or contracts in connection with such improvements and proposed assessments, and the governing body shall have power to correct any deficiencies, and to determine the amounts of assessments and all other matters necessary, and by ordinance to close such hearing and levy such assessments before, during or after the construction of such improvements, but no part of any assessment shall be made to mature prior to acceptance by the city of the improvements or the portion of such improvements which make service available to the Benefited Property against which assessment is levied.

Anyone owning or claiming any property assessed, or any interest therein, who shall desire to contest any such assessment on account of the amount thereof, or any inaccuracy, irregularity, invalidity, or insufficiency of the proceedings or contract with reference thereto, or with reference to such improvements, or on account of any matter or thing not in the discretion of the governing body, shall have the right to appeal therefrom and from such hearing by instituting suit for that purpose in any court having jurisdiction within 15 days from the time such assessment is levied; and anyone who shall fail to institute such suit within such time shall be held to have waived every matter which might have been taken advantage of at such hearing, and shall be barred and estopped from in any manner contesting or questioning such assessment, the amount, accuracy, validity, regularity and sufficiency thereof, and of the proceedings and contract with reference thereto and with reference to such improvements for or on account of any matter whatsoever. And the only defense to any such assessment in any suit to enforce the same shall be that the notice of hearing was not published or mailed or did not contain the substance of one or more of the requisites therefor herein prescribed, or that the assessments substantially exceed the amount of the estimate, and no words or acts of any officer or employee of the city, or member of any governing body of the city, other than the action of the governing body shown in its written proceedings and records shall in any way affect the force and effect of the provisions of this Act.

Changes in improvements

Sec. 12. The governing body of the city shall have power to provide for changes in plans, methods or contracts for improvements, or other proceedings relating thereto, but any change substantially affecting the nature or quality of any improvements shall only be made when it is determined by a majority vote of the governing body that it is not practical to proceed with the improvements as theretofore provided for, and if any such substantial change be made after any hearing has been held or after notice has been given of any such hearing, as herein required, then unless the improvement be abandoned altogether a new estimate of cost shall be made and a new hearing ordered, and held, and new notices given, all with like effect and in like manner as herein provided for original notice and hearings. The substitution of equivalents shall not be deemed a substantial change. The elimination or change of location of particular mains, laterals, adjuncts and other appurtenances shall not be deemed a substantial change if an ordinance shall be passed which shall have the effect of cancelling any assessments theretofore levied against properties and their owners will as a result of such elimination or change receive neither water nor sewer service, and cancelling any assessment so levied for sewer improvements if sewer service is eliminated or for water improvements if water service is to be eliminated, as the case may be. Changes in or abandonment of improvements must be with the consent of such person, firm or corporation as may have contracted with the city for the construction thereof, if any such contract has been entered into.

Separate or joint assessments

Sec. 13. Assessments against several parcels of benefited property may be made in one assessment when owned by the same person, firm, corporation or estate, and benefited property owned jointly by one or more persons, firms or corporations may be assessed jointly.

Powers of governing body; rules and regulations

Sec. 14. Said governing body shall have power to carry out all the terms and provisions of this Act and to exercise all the powers thereof, either by resolution, motion, order or ordinance, except where ordinance is specifically prescribed, and such governing body shall have power to adopt, either by resolution or ordinance, any and all rules or regulations appropriate to the exercise of such powers, the method and manner of ordering and holding such hearings, and the giving of notices thereof.

Invalid assessments; correction of irregularities; amendment of assessment; reassessments; effect on certificates

Sec. 15. In case any assessment for any reason whatsoever be held or determined to be invalid or unenforceable, then the governing body of such city is empowered to supply any deficiency in proceedings with reference thereto and at any time before or after suit is filed seeking to enforce such assessment or during the pendency of any such suit but in any event not later than two years after the maturity date of the last installment on the assessment involved extended by the period of time, if any, in which litigation involving such assessment or the certificate evidencing same was pending to make and levy reassessments after notice and hearing as nearly as possible in the manner herein provided for original assessments and subject to the provisions hereof with reference to special benefits; however, such city may at any time correct any mistake or irregularity by amending any assessment without the necessity of reassessment proceedings and without the necessity of new notice and hearing where the original notice to the property owners after the original hearing was published and mailed as required by this Act and contained, in substance, the information required to be contained therein by this Act and the irregularity or mistake can be corrected by the substitution of a correct property description for an incorrect one, or the making of a correction showing the true area of a particular tract where an incorrect area was originally shown, so long as such correction is insubstantial and does not go to the question of benefits, or where other similar irregularities exist and where such amendment does not require an increase in the square foot rate previously assessed against the benefited property and the owner thereof nor go to the question of benefits to such property. Recitals in certificates issued in evidence of reassessments or amended assessments shall have the same force as provided for in recitals in certificates relating to the original assessment, and such certificate shall be dated as of the date of the original certificate and shall bear interest as therein provided. Such certificates may be signed by the mayor, mayor pro tem or other authorized officer and attested by the city clerk or city secretary in office at the date of their issuance. Such signatures and the seal of the city may be placed on said reassessment certificates in facsimile in the manner herein provided for assessment certificates.

Reassessments; appeal

Sec. 16. Anyone owning or claiming any property interest in any property against which such reassessment is levied shall have the same right of appeal as herein provided in connection with original assessments, and in the event of failure to appeal within 15 days from the date of hearing relative to such reassessment, the provisions hereinabove made with reference to waiver, bar, estoppel and defense shall apply to such reassessment.

Construction of Act

Sec. 17. The powers conferred by this Act shall not be construed as precedent beyond the powers specifically granted herein, and nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect in any way the law of this State whether promulgated by Statute or court decision, either or both, relating to the duty of a city in its proprietary capacity to furnish water and sewer service, either or both. Nor shall the legislative history of this Act be construed to affect in any way the law of this State.

Certificates of assessment; legal investments

Sec. 18. Certificates of special assessment issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all other public funds of the State or its agencies.

Certificates of assessment; purchase from contractor; payment

Sec. 19. Any city to which this Act applies may purchase at not more than face value and accrued interest from the contractor constructing the improvements any certificates of special assessment which may be issued to him pursuant to the provisions of this Act out of the proceeds of any bond funds voted and issued for making such improvements (whether such bond funds be proceeds from the sale of general obligation tax bonds or revenue bonds issued by the city), or out of any other available funds; provided that the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificate levied for water improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of bond funds issued for such improvements and the amount of the assessment evidenced by any such certificates levied for sewer improvements, if paid out of bond funds, is paid out of the proceeds of bond funds voted and issued for such sewer improvements, and further provided that the proceeds from such certificates, both principal and interest, when collected shall be paid into the fund from which the money was obtained to purchase the certificates.

Cumulative effect

Sec. 20. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of existing laws, except that the provisions of this Act shall be controlling as to cities acting under its provisions, over any irreconcilable conflicting provisions of any Act enacted contemporaneously herewith at this session. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes and substantial compliance with the provisions hereof shall be sufficient.

If the case is reversed on appeal, the $10 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Briefs; filing

Sec. 35. Briefs shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which an appeal is taken within 10 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts in the municipal court.

Sec. 36. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on appeal; presumptions; decision

Sec. 37. The court, having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require. The court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; (4) that the court's charge was certified by the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the municipal court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts. In each case decided by the court having jurisdiction of appeals, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the court, but cases relied upon by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the court shall set forth the reasons for such decision. Copies of the decision of the court shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as rendered by the court.

Certificate of appellate proceedings; filing of record; enforcement of judgment

Sec. 38. When the judgment of the court, having jurisdiction of appeal from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal court from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it upon the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a writ of habeas corpus for the defendant, or an execution against his property.

New trial

Sec. 39. Where the appeal court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to Court of Criminal Appeals; applicability of Code of Criminal Procedure; record

Sec. 40. Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas from the decision of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, when permitted by law, shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas, except that when an appeal is permitted by law, the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts filed in the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts shall constitute the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts before the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas or as the rules of the court of criminal appeals may provide in such cases.

Places and quarters for court, etc., salaries

Sec. 41. (a) The municipal court shall be held in the city at a place or places within the corporate limits of the city as may be designated by the governing body of the city in the ordinances establishing the court.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide suitable quarters for the court, and all costs of providing a court and office space for the court, the clerk, and court reporter shall be paid for by the governing body of the city. Payment and deposit of fines, etc.

Sec. 42. All fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds in municipal courts shall be paid to the clerk of the municipal court. The clerk of the municipal court shall deposit all fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds directly into the general fund of the city.

Judges, clerks and court reporters: civil service ordinance; retirement; vacation; sick leave; etc.

Sec. 43. The judges of municipal courts, the clerks and deputy clerks of the courts, and the court reporters of the municipal courts shall not be considered to be classified employees under the city civil service ordinance. However, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance that all other employees of the municipal courts may be hired and paid as classified employees of the city under the city civil service ordinance. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters may be authorized or required by the governing body of the city to participate in the retirement program of the city. The judges, clerks, deputy clerks, and court reporters of municipal courts shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and other benefits as are provided for other nonclassified employees of the city under such regulations as may be provided by the governing body of the city by ordinance.

Vacation of court; transfer of pending cases

Sec. 44. After the establishment of a municipal court if the governing body of the city shall by legally adopted ordinance find and determine that the condition of the dockets of the other courts of the county is such as not to require the existence of the municipal court in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city, then the office of municipal judge, clerk of the municipal court, court reporter, and other employees of the court shall be declared vacated as of the end of the term for which the municipal court judge was last appointed. In that event, any case pending in the municipal court shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense.

Art. 1269j—4.2 Coliseums or stadiums of counties in excess of 500,000; sale to certain cities

Section 1. This Act shall be applicable to any city to which Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended (Article 1269j—4.1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply (each such city herein called an "authorized city") and to any county which has a population in excess of 500,000 according to the then most recent federal census, which county has issued bonds for the purpose of constructing a coliseum or stadium within the county and which is operating such coliseum directly and is not having the same operated by another through a lease or other agreement not subject to cancellation by the county in event of a sale of such facilities (each such county being herein called an "authorized county").

Sec. 2. The commissioners court of any authorized county, upon finding (a) that the coliseum or stadium owned and operated by it is in need of expansion or other improvement, and (b) that such expansion or other improvement may be better accomplished without resort to the tax funds and resources of the county by the sale of such coliseum or stadium and related land to an authorized city in which such facility is located, may sell such coliseum or stadium and related land and facilities to such authorized city pursuant to an agreement of sale and purchase entered into in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. A sale and purchase, as authorized in Section 2 of this Act, shall be upon such terms and for such price as shall be agreed between the authorized county and the authorized city, but in no event shall such price be less than the amount of the then outstanding bonds of the county issued for the purpose of constructing and equipping such coliseum or stadium. Such sale and purchase price may be paid by the authorized city in cash and the funds to pay the same may be obtained by such city in any manner now permitted by law; or, such sale and purchase price may be paid by the city in installments with interest at not lower than the same rates borne by the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds. The funds with which to make such installments may be obtained by such city in any lawful manner, including, but not limited to, one or a combination of the following methods, to-wit: (a) Such installments, by the agreement, may be made payable to the authorized county out of revenues of the stadium or coliseum thus sold on dates coinciding with or earlier than the dates upon which principal and interest on such county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds shall mature and come due. If this method of payment is selected, the payments due the county may be treated as a fixed operating expense of the stadium or coliseum payable solely from the revenues of such facilities. When received by the county, such funds shall be utilized for the purpose of retiring and paying interest upon its outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds when due. (b) Such city and such county may agree that the city shall issue a series of coliseum or stadium acquisition revenue bonds (or include such purpose as a part of a larger series of coliseum or stadium revenue bonds), which revenue bonds (or part of a larger series allocable to such purchase) shall be delivered to the county in payment of the purchase price for said stadium or coliseum. Such bonds shall be at least payable at the times and in the same amounts as, and bear not lower than the same rates of interest borne by, the county's outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds, so as to provide funds from such revenue bonds to the county with which to pay the principal and interest when due upon its said outstanding bonds. Such revenue bonds of the city may be upon such other terms as the city and the county may agree and may include any mortgage security authorized by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended. Upon delivery of such bonds to the county, the county shall hold the same for the account of the Interest and Sinking Fund created in connection with its outstanding coliseum or stadium bonds and shall utilize the payments when received to pay the principal and interest on its said bonds when due.

Sec. 4. Any such sale authorized by this law shall be effected by delivery of a deed, with reservation of such vendor's liens on such facilities as may be appropriate in connection with the selected method for payment of the purchase price, from the county and approved by the commissioners court and accepted by the city in accordance with the terms of such sale and purchase agreement. From and after the delivery of such deed, the city shall be the complete and total owner of the coliseum or stadium, and the land and facilities thus conveyed, and may thereafter exercise all the powers with respect thereto authorized and implied by Chapter 63, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, as amended, and any other laws applicable to such city, for the purpose of operating, maintaining, improving, or expanding a coliseum or stadium, and may in connection with the financing thereof include such indoor and outdoor recreational facilities, properties and entertainment attractions as may be considered by the city to be appropriate in connection therewith and may lease, or enter into operating agreements with respect to, all or any part of the same for such periods and upon such terms as the city may determine.

repair, operate or maintain (any or all) permanent public improvements, to-wit: structures, parking areas or facilities (hereinafter called "improvements") for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances; provided that any such lease shall be on such terms and conditions as said city shall deem appropriate.

Revenue bonds

Sec. 3. (a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds for the establishment, acquisition, lease, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of said improvements.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of said improvements (any or all) as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds. To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city, and subject to the limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such improvements are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services rendered by such improvements, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

Bonds; demand of payment

Sec. 4. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Funds; additional bonds and covenants

Sec. 5. In the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the city may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities, the revenues of which are pledged, including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of, as lessor or lessee, all or any part of said improvements and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as it may deem appropriate. Such ordinance or ordinances may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payment from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in said ordinance or ordinances. Such ordinance or ordinances may contain other provisions and covenants, as the city may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and the city may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any of said bonds.

Bond proceeds; appropriation; investment

Sec. 6. From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the city may appropriate or set aside, out of the bond proceeds, an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited in the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred or to be incurred in the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds. Until such time or times as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such bond proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on time deposit, either or both, moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, and the reserve fund or funds, and any other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond ordinance or ordinances may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond ordinance or ordinances.

Sec. 7. That all bonds shall be signed by the mayor of the city and countersigned by the city secretary or city clerk, and shall have the seal of the city impressed thereon; provided, that the bond ordinance or ordinances may provide for the bonds and any attached interest coupons to be signed by facsimile signatures and for the seal of the city on the bonds to be in facsimile as provided by Acts, 1961, 57th Legislature, page 406, Chapter 204 (Art. 717j—1, V.A.C.S.), as amended. Such bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date or dates and may be sold at a price and under such terms determined by the governing body of the city to be the most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the city, calculated by the use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, does not exceed six and one-half per cent (6½%) per annum, and within the discretion of the governing body such bonds may be called prior to maturity at such time or times and at such price or prices as may be prescribed in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing such bonds. Any such bonds may be made registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest. All bonds issued hereunder and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable.

Refunding bonds; approval and registration

Sec. 8. Any city to which this Act applies shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund either original bonds or revenue refunding bonds theretofore issued by said city under this Act, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Refunding bonds shall be authorized by ordinance or ordinances and shall be executed and shall mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof the ordinance or ordinances authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. All such refunding bonds, after they have been approved by the Attorney General and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, shall be incontestable.

Bonds; negotiability; legal investments; security for deposits

Sec. 9. All bonds issued under this Act, whether original bonds or refunding bonds, shall be and are hereby declared to be, and to have all the qualifications of, negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Act of the State of Texas, and all such bonds shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies of every kind or type, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative effect; precedence

Sec. 10. This Act is cumulative of all existing laws of the State of Texas, but to the extent that such existing laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail; and this Act shall take precedence over any and all conflicting or inconsistent city charter provisions. If the governing bodies of two or more cities shall find that it is to the best interest of such cities to create an authority to include such cities, each governing body shall pass an ordinance creating the authority and designating the name by which it shall be known. The authority shall comprise only the territory included within the boundaries of such city or cities and shall be a body politic and corporate. It shall have the power of perpetual succession, have a seal, may sue and be sued and may make, amend and repeal its bylaws.

Board of directors

Sec. 4. (a) The authority shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of not less than seven nor more than eleven members to be determined at the time of creating the authority. Except as hereinafter in this section provided, the first directors shall be appointed by the governing body of the city or by the governing bodies of the cities, and they shall serve until their successors are appointed as hereinafter provided. If authority includes more than one city, each governing body shall appoint an equal number of directors unless otherwise agreed by the cities. When the authority issues its revenue bonds the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture securing them may prescribe the method of selecting and the term of office of a majority of the members of the board. The remaining members of the board shall be appointed by the governing body of the city or the governing bodies of the cities for two year terms. The trust indenture may also provide that, in event of default as defined in the trust indenture, the trustee may appoint all of the directors, in which event the terms of the directors then in office shall automatically terminate. Unless and until provision is made in the bond resolution or indenture in connection with the issuance of bonds for the appointment by other means of part of the directors, all of the directors shall be appointed by the governing body of the city or each of the cities, as the case may be, for terms not to exceed two years, but the terms of directors appointed prior to the issuance of the first issue of revenue bonds shall be subject to the exercise of the provision herein made for appointment of a majority of the members of the board in connection with the issuance of the bonds. The board of directors shall elect from among their members a president and vice president, and shall elect a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be directors, and may elect such other officers as may be authorized by authority's bylaws. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined. The president shall have the same right to vote on all matters as other members of the board. Such facilities need not be located within the city limits of such city or cities.

Revenue bonds

Sec. 7. The authority may issue revenue bonds to provide funds for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from and secured by a pledge of the net revenues to be derived from the operation of the facility or facilities and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the educational facilities properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of authority or by a chattel mortgage on its personal property, or by both.

Procedure for bond issue; requisites; maturity; sale; registration

Sec. 8. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the board of directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the board of directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the rate of interest to be borne by such bonds shall not exceed six and one-half percent per annum and that such bonds shall not be sold at less than 90 percent of their par or face value, plus accrued interest, and within the discretion of the board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest.

Bond resolution; notice of intent to adopt; publication; referendum

Sec. 9. (a) Before authorizing the issuance of bonds, other than re-funding bonds, the board of directors shall cause a notice to be issued stating that it intends to adopt a resolution (herein called "bond resolution") authorizing the issuance of the bonds, the maximum amount thereof, and the maximum maturity thereof. The notice shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper or newspapers

Sec. 9. A professional corporation shall be governed by a Board of two or more Directors, which shall have the power to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, and the continuing authority to make management decisions on its behalf. No person not duly licensed or otherwise duly authorized to render the professional service of the corporation shall be a member of the Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be not less than two; but subject to this limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws of the professional corporation or by the Articles of Incorporation if such articles specifically prescribe the number of directors.

Officers

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors shall elect a President and a Secretary and such other officers as it may deem desirable to have to conduct the affairs of the professional corporation. No person not duly licensed or otherwise duly authorized to render the professional service of the professional corporation may hold an office.

Bylaws

Sec. 11. The shareholders may adopt bylaws for the regulation of the affairs of the professional corporation, or if such authority is given by the Articles of Incorporation, the shareholders may delegate to the Board of Directors the power to make and amend bylaws. Issuance and transfer of shares

Sec. 12. A professional corporation may issue shares representing ownership of the capital of the professional corporation only to individuals who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same type of professional service as that for which the corporation was organized. Except to the extent provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement, shares representing ownership of professional corporation capital shall be freely transferable by any shareholder to any other shareholder, or to the professional corporation which issued such shares or to any person who is not a shareholder, provided such person is duly licensed or qualified under the laws of this state to render the same type of professional service which the corporation was organized to render, and such transferee shall thereupon become a shareholder and be entitled to participate in the management, affairs, and profits of the professional corporation. Any restriction on the transfer of shares imposed by the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any stock purchase or redemption agreement shall be written or printed on all certificates representing shares issued to shareholders, unless such restrictions are incorporated by reference pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Redemption of shares

Sec. 13. A professional corporation shall have the power to redeem the shares of any shareholder, or the shares of a deceased shareholder, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the Board of Directors and such shareholder or his personal representative, or at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws, or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement.

Legal disqualification

Sec. 14. If any shareholder, officer or director of a professional corporation, or any agent or employee thereof who has been rendering professional service for or with it of the same type which such professional corporation was organized to render, becomes legally disqualified to render such professional service, he shall sever all employment with such professional corporation and shall terminate all financial interest therein forthwith; and such corporation shall thereupon purchase or cause to be purchased from him all shares owned by him in such professional corporation, at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement. Likewise, if any person who is not licensed or duly authorized to render the professional service which a professional corporation was organized to render should succeed to the interest of any shareholder of such professional corporation, the person holding such interest shall terminate all financial interest in such professional corporation forthwith; and such corporation shall thereupon purchase or cause to be purchased from such person all shares owned by such person in such professional corporation, at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement.

Rendition of professional services

Sec. 15. A professional corporation may render professional service only through its officers, employees and agents who are duly licensed to render such professional service in this state; provided, however, that this provision shall not be interpreted to include within such prohibition employees such as clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, nurses, assistants and other individuals who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be rendering professional service for which a license or other legal authorization is required; and further provided, that no person shall, under the guise of employment, practice a profession unless duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice that profession under the laws of this state.

Professional relationships not affected

Sec. 16. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to alter or affect the professional relationship between a person furnishing professional service and a person receiving such service, and all such confidential relationships enjoyed under this state shall remain unchanged. Nothing in this Act shall remove or diminish any rights at law which a person receiving professional services shall have against a person furnishing professional services for errors, omissions, negligence, incompetence, or malfeasance. The corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for such professional errors, omissions, negligence, incompetence, or malfeasance on the part of any officer or employee thereof.

Continuity of existence

Sec. 17. Unless the Articles of Incorporation expressly provide otherwise, a professional corporation shall continue as a separate entity for all purposes and for such period of time as is provided in the Articles of Incorporation until dissolved by a vote of its shareholders. A professional corporation shall continue to exist regardless of the death, incompetency, bankruptcy, resignation, withdrawal, retirement or expulsion of any one or more of its shareholders or the transfer of any of its shares to any new holder or the happening of any other event which under the laws of this state and under like circumstances would cause a dissolution of a partnership, it being the intent of this Section that such professional corporation shall have continuity of life independent of the life or status of its shareholders. No shareholder shall have power to dissolve the professional corporation by his independent act of any kind.

Dissolution

Sec. 18. A professional corporation may be dissolved at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation by a meeting called and held in accordance with the bylaws or by unanimous written consent of all shareholders without the necessity of a meeting. A copy of such resolution (noting the shares voting for and against such resolution) or of such written consent, certified by the President or a Vice-President, or the Secretary of the corporation, shall be filed in duplicate originals in the office of the Secretary of State and the dissolution shall be effective from the time of such filing. In the event of a dissolution of a professional corporation, the Board of Directors, as Trustees of the property and assets of the corporation, shall apply the assets first to the payment of debts of the corporation and second, to or among the shareholders, as the Articles of Incorporation shall provide.

The sale, issuance or offering of any capital stock of a professional corporation to persons permitted by the provisions of this Act to own such capital stock are hereby exempted from all provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Act, which provide for supervision, registration or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance or offering of securities; and the sale, issuance or offering of any such capital stock to such persons shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official or state regulatory agency au-

If the parent corporation does not own all the outstanding shares of each class of each subsidiary corporation party to the merger, the resolution shall state the terms and conditions of the merger, including the securities, cash or other property to be used, paid or delivered by the surviving corporation upon surrender of each share of the subsidiary corporation or corporations not owned by the parent corporation.

(4) If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation, the address, including street number if any, of its registered or principal office in the jurisdiction under whose laws it is governed. It shall comply also with the provisions of Article 5.07B(3) of this Act.

Delivery to secretary of state; duties

C. Duplicate originals of the articles of merger shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one (1) of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of merger to which he shall affix the other duplicate original and deliver them to the surviving corporation or its representative.

Effective date and effect

D. The effective date and the effect of such merger shall be the same as provided in Articles 5.05 and 5.06 of this Act if the surviving corporation is a domestic corporation. If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation, the effective date and the effect of such merger shall be the same as in the case of the merger of domestic corporations except in so far as the laws of such other jurisdiction provide otherwise.

Remedy of minority shareholders

E. In the event all of the shares of a subsidiary domestic corporation party to a merger effected under this Article are not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, the surviving corporation shall, within ten (10) days after the effective date of the merger, mail to each shareholder of record of such subsidiary domestic corporation a copy of the articles of merger and notify him that the merger has become effective. In case any such shareholder elects to demand payment for his shares, the following procedure shall be followed:

(1) Such shareholder shall within twenty (20) days after the mailing of the notice and copy of the articles of merger make written demand on the surviving corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of his shares. The fair value of such shares shall be the value thereof as of the day before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such proposed act. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by the dissenting shareholder and the fair value of such shares as estimated by him. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the twenty (20) day period shall be bound by such corporate action.

(2) Within ten (10) days after receipt by the surviving corporation of a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares made by such dissenting shareholder in accordance with Subsection (1) hereof, such corporation shall deliver or mail to such dissenting shareholder a written notice which shall either set out that the corporation accepts the amount claimed in such demand and agrees to pay such amount within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed, or shall contain an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of such shares, together with an offer to pay the amount of such estimate within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporation action was effected, upon receipt of notice within sixty (60) days after such date from such shareholder that he agrees to accept such amount upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed.

(3) If, within sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

(4) If, within such period of sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, the shareholder and the surviving corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder or the corporation may, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares as provided in Section B of Article 5.12 of this Act and thereupon the parties shall have the rights and duties and follow the procedure set forth in Sections B to D inclusive of Article 5.12 and set forth in Article 5.14.

(5) In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the remedy provided by this Article to a shareholder objecting to such corporate action is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action; and if the surviving corporation complies with the requirements of this Article, any such shareholder who fails to comply with the requirements of this Article shall not be entitled to bring suit for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action.

Exemption from other articles

F. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the provisions of Articles 5.11, 5.12 and 5.13 of this Act shall not be applicable to a merger effected under the provisions of this Article.

Added by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 844, ch. 280, § 1, emerg. eff. May 22, 1969.

Severability:

Section 2 of Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 844, ch. 280, provided: "If any word, phrase, clause, sentence or section of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

PART SEVEN

Art. 7.01. Involuntary Dissolution

A. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated or of any district court in Travis County in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation or its incorporators have failed to comply with a condition precedent to incorporation; or

(2) The original articles of incorporation or any amendments thereof were procured through fraud; or

(3) The corporation has continued to transact business beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation; or

(4) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this Act.

B. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the Secretary of State when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation has failed to file any report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, franchise taxes or penalties prescribed by law when the same have become due and payable; or

(2) The corporation has failed to maintain a registered agent in this state as required by law.

C. No corporation shall be involuntarily dissolved under Section B hereof unless the Secretary of State, or other state agency with which such report, fees, taxes, or penalties is required to be made, gives the corporation not less than 90 days notice of its neglect, delinquency, or omission by certified mail addressed to its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation, and the corporation has failed prior to such involuntary dissolution to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency.

D. Whenever a corporation has given cause for involuntary dissolution and has failed to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency as provided in Sections B and C, the Secretary of State shall thereupon dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of involuntary dissolution, which shall include the fact of such involuntary dissolution and the date and cause thereof. The original of such certificate shall be placed in his office and a copy thereof mailed to the corporation at its registered office, or to its principal place of business, or the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of involuntary dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for purposes otherwise provided by law.

E. Any corporation dissolved by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Section B of this article may be reinstated by the Secretary of State at any time within a period of 12 months from the date of such dissolution, upon approval of an application for reinstatement signed by an officer or director of the dissolved corporation. Such application shall be filed by the Secretary of State whenever it is established to his satisfaction that in fact there was no cause for the dissolution, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in dissolution has been corrected and payment of all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the dissolution plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of dissolution to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation not been dissolved. A reinstatement filing fee of $50 shall accompany the application for reinstatement.

Reinstatement shall not be authorized if the corporate name is the same as or deceptively similar to a corporate name already on file or reserved or registered, unless the corporation being reinstated contemporaneously amends the articles of incorporation to change its name.

When the application for reinstatement is approved and filed by the Secretary of State, the corporate existence shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from the date of dissolution except the reinstatement shall have no effect upon any issue of personal liability of the directors, officers, or agents of the corporation during the period between dissolution and reinstatement.

TITLE 33—COUNTIES AND COUNTY SEATS

CHAPTER THREE—CORPORATE RIGHTS AND POWERS

Art.

1581e—1. Flood insurance; participation in federal program by gulf coast counties; control of flood damage [New].

Art. 1581e—1. Flood insurance; participation in federal program by gulf coast counties; control of flood damage

Section 1. The State of Texas recognizes the personal hardships and economic distress caused by flood disasters since it has become uneconomical for the private insurance industry alone to make flood insurance available to those in need of such protection on reasonable terms and conditions. Recognizing the burden on the nation's resources, Congress enacted the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968,¹ whereby flood insurance can be made available through coordinated efforts of the Federal Government and the private insurance industry, by pooling risks, and through the positive cooperation of state and local government. The purpose of this Act is to evidence a positive interest in securing flood insurance coverage under this Federal program, and to so procure for those citizens of Texas desiring to participate; and to promote the public interest by providing appropriate protection against the perils of flood losses and encouraging sound land use by minimizing exposure of property to flood losses.

Sec. 2. Any county bordering on the Gulf of Mexico or the tidewater limits thereof may determine and describe the boundaries of flood, or rising water prone, areas. The suitability of such determination shall be conclusively established when the commissioners court of such county shall have made a finding in a resolution passed by it that an area or areas located within the boundaries of such county are flood, or rising water prone, areas.

Sec. 3. For the purposes of this Act, the phrase, "flood, or rising water prone, area" shall mean an area that is subject to or exposed to flooding by the Gulf of Mexico or its tidal waters, including lakes, bays, inlets, and lagoons, which results in damage to land or property.

Sec. 4. The commissioners court of any such county shall have the power and authority to enact and enforce regulations which regulate, restrict, or control the management and use of land, structures, and other development in flood, or rising water prone, areas in such a manner as to reduce the danger of damage caused by flood losses. This power and authority may include, but shall not be limited to, requirements for flood-proofing of structures which are permitted to remain in, or be constructed in, flood or rising water prone, areas; regulations concerning minimum elevation of any structure permitted to be erected in, or improved in, such areas; specifications for drainage; and any other action which is feasible to minimize flooding and rising water damage.

Sec. 3. (a) After the commissioners court has authorized the creation of a branch office, the county tax assessor and collector may appoint one or more deputies to work in the office. The commissioners court shall determine the length of time for which the deputies will serve and the salaries to be paid to the deputies.

(b) Each deputy shall execute a bond in any amount required by the commissioners court, payable to the county judge, conditioned on the faithful performance of their duties. The county tax assessor and collector is liable under his bonds for all taxes collected by any deputy under this Act, and this Act shall not be construed as a limit on the liability of the bonds of the county tax assessor and collector or his deputies.

(c) Any deputy appointed under this Act may collect taxes from any person who desires to pay his taxes and may issue a valid receipt for the taxes.

(d) Any deputy appointed under this Act is subject to the terms and provisions of the law relating to deputy tax collectors.

sary sites therefor or in any other manner connected with or incident to such Disposal Facilities.

Sec. 4. For the purpose of providing funds for the acquisition, construction, repair, improvement or equipment of Disposal Facilities, and necessary sites therefor, the Commissioners Court of any County shall have the power from time to time and is hereby authorized, without the necessity of an election, to issue its revenue bonds. Said revenue bonds shall be fully negotiable instruments under the laws of the State of Texas and shall be authorized by Bond Order or Trust Indenture adopted or approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the Commissioners Court. Such revenue bonds shall be signed by the County Judge, countersigned by the County Clerk and Ex Officio Clerk of the Commissioners Court of said county and registered by the County Treasurer of said county. Each bond shall have the seal of the Commissioners Court impressed or placed in facsimile thereon, shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold by the Court at a price and under the terms determined by the Court to be most advantageous and reasonably obtainable, provided that the average interest cost, taking into consideration the maturity date or dates of said bonds calculated by the use of the standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses, shall not exceed six and one-half per cent (6-½%) per annum.

The Bond Order or Trust Indenture shall designate the place or places of payment of the bonds, and the interest thereon and may contain provisions, among others, for the calling of said bonds for redemption prior to their respective maturity date at such prices, times and terms as may be prescribed therein; for the establishment of funds and designating the purposes thereof; for the bonds to be registerable as to principal or as to both principal and interest; for the issuance of bonds in one or more series from time to time as required for carrying out the purposes of this Act; for the security of the bonds and preservation of the trust estate; for the issuance of bonds to replace lost or mutilated bonds; for investment of surplus revenues or proceeds; and such other provisions and covenants as the Commissioners Court may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act and said Commissioners Court may adopt, or cause to be executed, any other proceedings or instruments necessary or convenient in the issuance of any such bonds.

The Court may set aside an amount for payment of interest estimated to accrue during the construction period from the proceeds derived from the sale of said revenue bonds, and in addition thereto may set aside a reserve for the interest and sinking fund as may be deemed proper. The expenses necessarily incurred in issuing and selling said revenue bonds shall be paid from the proceeds thereof. The remainder of such proceeds shall be used for the purposes specified in the Bond Order or Trust Indenture and permitted under this Act.

Said bonds shall never be a debt of the County or the State of Texas within the meaning of any Constitutional or statutory provisions, but shall be payable solely from the revenues pledged to their payment. Such bonds shall be a charge solely upon said pledged revenues and shall never be considered in determining the power of the County to incur obligations payable from taxation. Each bond issued under authority of this Act shall contain on its face substantially the following sentence:

"The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation."

So long as any of the bonds are outstanding, no additional bonds of equal dignity shall be issued against the pledged revenues except to the extent and in the manner expressly permitted in the Bond Order or Trust Indenture. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the Net Revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the Bond Order or Trust Indenture.

After any bonds have been authorized by the Commissioners Court hereunder, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved said bonds they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable. When any bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts made between the Commissioners Court and another Person, a copy of such contract or contracts and the proceedings authorizing the same may or may not be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record and, if so submitted, the approval of the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable.

Sec. 5. The Commissioners Court shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund bonds issued under this Act (either original bonds or refunding bonds). Said refunding bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of said refunding bonds may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued provided an amount sufficient to pay the interest and principal on the underlying bonds to their maturity dates or to their option dates if said bonds have been duly called for payment prior to maturity according to their terms, has been so deposited in the place or places where said underlying bonds are payable, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds.

Sec. 6. So long as any of the said bonds or the interest thereon remain outstanding the Commissioners Court shall charge or require the payment of fees, tolls and charges for the use of such Disposal Facilities which shall be equal and uniform within classes defined by the Court and which shall yield revenues at least sufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance and to provide for the payments which may be prescribed in the Bond Order or Trust Indenture (which payments may without limitation include the following: the payment into an interest and sinking fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as such principal and interest respectively mature, the establishment and maintenance of funds for extensions and improvements, an operating reserve, and an interest and sinking fund reserve).

The Commissioners Court may, subject to the provisions of any Bond Order or Trust Indenture, use any surplus Net Revenues derived in any year for any purpose which it determines would be in furtherance of the purposes of this Act. After all bonds authorized under this Act have matured and provisions made for the payment of all principal and interest thereof, the Commissioners Court may use the revenues derived from the operation of the Disposal Facilities and any operating leases, agreements or other contracts, in furtherance of the purposes of this Act or for any other lawful purpose.

Sec. 7. The Commissioners Court may, within its discretion and for such period of time as it may deem desirable, make contracts or lease agreements with a Person or Persons for the operation of each Disposal Facility or all Disposal Facilities and the consideration for each such contract or lease agreement shall be specified therein or the method of determining such consideration shall be prescribed in such contract or lease agreement. The revenues from any such contract or agreement may be pledged by the Bond Order or Trust Indenture as security or additional security for the bonds authorized by this Act. Such contracts or agreements must provide that the rentals, tolls and charges to be enforced by such lessee for the use of service as provided by such facilities shall be sufficient at least to yield in the aggregate the necessary money to pay reasonable operation and maintenance expenses to assure proper operation and maintenance of such facility or facilities, plus an amount which will assure income to the Court to permit and assure payments into the several funds and accounts in the manner, at the times and in the amounts specified in the Bond Order or Trust Indenture. Any such lease agreement or contract may provide that such rentals, tolls and charges may be sufficient to yield a reasonable profit to the other party to the lease agreement or contract, but to be realized only after payment in full of the obligation to the Court. Said contracts shall provide that failure to pay any required sum when due by the lessee or operating company shall give the Court the right to declare a breach of contract or agreement and entitle the Court, under regulations prescribed in said contracts or agreement, to declare it forfeited and to take over the operation and maintenance of such facility or facilities, and said remedies shall be cumulative of all others therein provided or recognized.

Sec. 8. The Bond Order or Trust Indenture may contain such provisions for protecting or enforcing the rights or remedies of bondholders as may be considered by the Commissioners Court to be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the Court in reference to maintenance, operation, repair and insurance of the Disposal Facilities whose revenues are pledged, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all monies received from the sale of the bonds and from revenues to be received from the operation of said facilities and any contracts, leases or agreements relating thereto.

The Bond Order or Trust Indenture may contain all other suitable provisions as the Commissioners Court may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders, including, in the event of default as defined in the Bond Order or in the Trust Indenture securing said bonds, to apply for and obtain the appointment of a receiver of any of the properties. If such receiver be appointed he shall enter and take possession of the facilities whose revenues have been pledged, and until said default is cured, or relieved by a Court having jurisdiction, retain possession of facilities and properties involved and collect and receive all revenues and tolls arising therefrom and dispose of all such money and apply same in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Order or Trust Indenture. Nothing in this Act shall authorize any bondholder to require the Commissioners Court to use any funds in the payment of the principal of or interest on the bonds authorized by this Act except from the revenues pledged for their payment.

Sec. 9. All bonds and refunding bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas and for all public funds in the State of Texas or its agencies, including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other public corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 10. The Commissioners Court shall have the power to adopt and promulgate all reasonable regulations and rules applicable to the usage of said Disposal Facilities.

Sec. 11. The Commissioners Court is authorized to accept grants and gratuities in any form from any source, including the United States Government, or any agency thereof, the State of Texas, or any agency thereof, any private or public corporation and any other Person for the purpose of promoting, establishing and accomplishing the objectives and purposes and powers herein set forth.

Sec. 12. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws relating to the powers, purposes and functions of Counties, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performances of other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the Commissioners Court shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient and necessary to carry out any power or authority, expressed or implied, granted by this Act.

Sec. 2. The regulations necessary for the control of animals of such county as determined by the Commissioners Court shall be set forth in the minutes of the Court. The said Court shall have the power and authority upon the basis of preventing the introduction or spread of rabies in the county to protect public health and safety of the people, to determine and fix any reasonable regulation to control animals, which may include the following but which shall not limit the power of the Court to act:

A. To authorize the County Health Officer or his delegate to enforce a rabies quarantine in the county and cause the removal or disposition of animals which may endanger the public health and safety.

B. Require each and every dog in the county to be registered with the county unless registered with a local municipality within the county. Such registration shall be evidenced by an identification tag to be furnished by the enforcing agency, which tag shall carry the registration number of the dog and, as required by this Act, an anti-rabies vaccination is a condition precedent to the issuance of such a registration, the tag bearing the number and fact of such vaccination shall be securely fastened to a collar or harness worn by such dog. Such registration shall be good for one (1) year from the date of registration and the owner of such dog shall be required to renew the registration each year.

C. To require a current anti-rabies vaccination of dogs by the time they reach 4 months of age with a vaccine (preferably modified live virus) approved by the United States Department of Agriculture as a condition precedent to the issuance of such registration to help prevent the spread of rabies in the animal population, since the existence of a rabies epizootic would be a menace to the health and safety of the people in such county. A rabies vaccination shall remain current for such period as determined by the court upon due consideration of the specific type of anti-rabies vaccine to be administered and the local rabies situation. Evidence of the current vaccination certified by a licensed veterinarian, shall be furnished to the enforcement agency before issuance of such registration and evidence of such shall be carried on the tag required to be fastened to the collar or harness of the dog.

D. To declare any dog, whether registered and tagged or unregistered and untagged, that is not restrained by the owner within the county to be a public nuisance and require that such animal be detained or impounded by any person or persons designated by the Court. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to direct the holding of such dog until claimed, to charge the owner of such animal for impoundment and board during the period of retention at a rate to be set by the Court, and to dispose of any animals which are unclaimed by their owners.

E. To allow the enforcement agency (whether it be the county or local municipality therein) to collect a fee set by the Commissioners Court order for the registration of any dog. Such fees shall be used only to help defray the expense of administration of these regulations promulgated by the Commissioners Court.

F. To require the reporting to the enforcement agency of all animal bites and the quarantining for a minimum of 10 days under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian of the biting animal suspected of being rabid or being exposed to a possibly rabid animal.

G. The promulgation and establishment of regulations by the Commissioners Court of any county in accordance with this Act shall not prevent or jeopardize a corporate municipality within the county to establish more stringent rules and regulations to prevent the introduction and spread of rabies and the control of animals within their corporate limits, and such ordinances established by said corporate municipalities shall supersede the county order within the municipality so that dual enforcement will not occur.

Punishment for violations

Sec. 3. Any owner who fails to restrain a dog in the county, whether registered and tagged or not, or any owner who fails to vaccinate or register any dog in violation of any order of the Commissioners Court promulgated pursuant to this Act or otherwise violating any provision thereof or any provision of any regulation established by the Court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50) for the first offense; by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100) for the second offense; and by a fine not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200) or imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed sixty (60) days, or both such fine and imprisonment for each subsequent offense. Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1690, ch. 549, § 1, emerg. eff. June 10, 1969.

(a) A credit union may loan to members for a provident or productive purpose and upon such security as the bylaws may provide and the credit committee shall approve. A credit union shall not grant unsecured loans with maturities exceeding five years, nor shall it grant secured loans except as expressly herein otherwise provided with maturities exceeding 10 years; provided, however, these limitations shall not apply to loans made under the National Higher Education Act and guaranteed in whole or in part by the United States Government or any agency of the State of Texas. No loan shall bear an interest rate to exceed one percent per month on the unpaid monthly balance. No credit union shall charge the borrower anything of value in connection or in association with a loan other than repayment of the unpaid principal balance and interest; provided, that the credit union may require the borrower to pay fees and charges prescribed by law which actually¹ are or will be paid to public officials for determining the existence of or for perfecting or releasing or satisfying any security related to the credit transaction, fees or premiums in connection with real estate loans, including fees or premiums for title examination, title insurance or similar purposes, fees for preparation of deeds, settlement statements or other documents, escrows for future payments of taxes and insurance, fees for notarizing deeds and other instruments, appraisal fees, or credit reports. Any loans made to or co-signed by members of the board of directors, credit committee, or audit committee, shall require the $\frac{2}{3}$ approval of all members of the board of directors and credit committee where such loan exceeds the unencumbered share balance of the borrowing member.

(c) Loans may be granted to members of the credit union, secured by a first mortgage on residential real estate. The term "residential real estate" shall mean land on which is situated a dwelling of not more than four family units, the primary use of which is occupancy as a home. No loan shall be made by a credit union on residential real estate for a maturity of more than 25 years.

(d) Loans may be granted to members of the credit union secured by a first mortgage on real estate other than residential real estate, provided that the loan does not exceed 60 percent of the appraised value of such real estate and such loan provides for regular reduction of principal, and provided further that such loan does not exceed a maturity of 15 years. Such loan shall also provide additionally regular deposits for the payment of insurance and taxes assessed against the property unless an amount equivalent to at least the annual insurance payment and annual taxes is maintained in the share account.

(e) The total outstanding balance of all first mortgage loans on real estate shall not exceed 25 percent of the outstanding shares and deposits of the credit union.

(f) A credit union may loan to members under the provisions of Title 1 of the National Housing Act and such insurance on these loans shall be deemed adequate security. The terms of such loans shall be as defined by the credit committee or under the provisions of Title 1 of the National Housing Act.

A member may receive a loan in installments or in one sum, and may pay the whole or any part of his loan on any day in which the credit union office is open for business.

(h) The credit committee or, when authorized, a loan officer may approve in advance upon its or his own motion or upon application by a member, an extension of credit, and loans may be granted to such members within the limits of such extension of credit. Where an extension of credit has been approved, applications for loans need no further consideration as long as the aggregate obligation does not exceed the limits of such extension of credit. The credit committee shall, at least once a year, review, or cause to be reviewed, all such extensions of credit, and any such extension of credit shall expire if the member becomes more than 90 days delinquent in his obligations to the credit union.

(b) At any time within five days after the Credit Union Commissioner has closed any credit union under the provisions set out above, such credit union acting through its directors may sue in the district court of the credit union's domicile to enjoin the commissioner from liquidating the credit union, and the court, or the judge thereof if in vacation, may, without notice or hearing, restrain the commissioner from liquidating the assets of such credit union pending hearing on the merits, and shall, in that event, instruct the commissioner to hold the assets of such credit union in his possession pending final disposition of such suit. In the event the commissioner shall order its dissolution, such credit union shall be liquidated by a liquidating agent appointed by and subject to the control and supervision of the Credit Union Commissioner. The liquidation shall be performed in the same manner as provided in Section 36 of this Act.

(c) All fees collected under the provisions of this Act shall be paid to the Treasurer of the State of Texas. Funds necessary for the enforcement of this Act and the administration of its provisions shall be appropriated by the Legislature, but the funds so appropriated for a biennium shall not exceed the total amount of the fees which it is anticipated will be collected hereunder during such biennium.

Change of business address

Sec. 16. Notice in writing shall be given to the secretary by the licensed examiner of any change of principal business location within 30 days of the time he changes the location. Sec. 17. Each polygraph examiner's license shall be issued for the term of one year and shall, unless suspended or revoked, be renewed annually as prescribed by the board. A polygraph examiner whose license has expired may at any time within two years after the expiration thereof obtain a renewal license without examination by making a renewal application therefor and satisfying Section 8(2), (3), and (4). However, any polygraph examiner whose license expired while he was in the federal service on active duty with the armed forces of the United States, or the national guard called into service or training, or in training or education under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the military service, may have his license renewed without examination if within two years after termination of such service, training, or education except under condition other than honorable, he furnishes the board with an affidavit to the effect that he has been so engaged and that his service, training, or education has been so terminated. Section 8(2), (3), and (4) of this Act must also be satisfied.

Sec. 18. No action or counterclaim shall be maintained by any person in any court in this state with respect to any agreement or service for which a license is required by this Act, or to recover the agreed price or any compensation under such agreement, or for such services for which a license is required by this Act without alleging and proving that such person had a valid license at the time of making such agreement or performing such services.

Refusal, suspension, revocation—grounds

Sec. 19. The board may refuse to issue or may suspend or revoke a license on any one or more of the following grounds:

(1) for failing to inform a subject to be examined as to the nature of the examination;

(2) for failing to inform a subject to be examined that his participation in the examination is voluntary;

(3) material misstatement in the application for original license or in the application for any renewal license under this Act;

(4) wilful disregard or violation of this Act or of any regulation or rule issued pursuant thereto, including, but not limited to, wilfully making a false report concerning an examination for polygraph examination purposes;

(5) if the holder of any license has been adjudged guilty of the commission of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;

(6) making any wilful misrepresentation or false promises or causing to be printed any false or misleading advertisement for the purpose of directly or indirectly obtaining business or trainees;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (7) having demonstrated unworthiness or incompetency to act as a polygraph examiner as defined by this Act;
- (8) allowing one's license under this Act to be used by any unlicensed person in violation of the provisions of this Act;
- (9) wilfully aiding or abetting another in the violation of this Act or any regulation or rule issued pursuant thereto;
- (10) where the license holder has been adjudged as habitual drunkard or mentally incompetent as provided in the Probate Code;
- (11) failing, within a reasonable time, to provide information requested by the secretary as the result of a formal complaint to the board which would indicate a violation of this Act; or
- (12) failing to inform the subject of the results of the examination if so requested.

Violation by one examiner or trainee not to affect employer

Sec. 20. Any unlawful act or violation of any of the provisions of this Act on the part of any polygraph examiner or trainee shall not be cause for revocation of the license of any other polygraph examiner for whom the offending examiner or trainee may have been employed, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board that the polygraph examiner-employer has wilfully or negligently aided or abetted the illegal actions or activities of the offending polygraph examiner or trainee.

Registration of examiners with county clerks

Sec. 21. Each polygraph examiner shall register with the county clerk in the county wherein he maintains a business address. The county clerk of each county shall maintain a list of all polygraph examiners registered in his county.

Board hearing

Sec. 22. (a) When there is cause to refuse an application or to suspend or revoke the license of any polygraph examiner, the board shall, not less than 30 days before refusal, suspension, or revocation action is taken, notify such person in writing, in person or by certified mail at the last address supplied to the board by such person, of such impending refusal, suspension, or revocation, the reasons therefor, and of his right to an administrative hearing for the purpose of determining whether or not the evidence is sufficient to warrant the refusal, suspension, or revocation action proposed to be taken by the board. If, within 20 days after the personal service of such notice or such notice has been deposited in the United States mail, such person has not made a written request to the board for this administrative hearing, the board is authorized to suspend or revoke the polygraph examiner's license of such person without a hearing. Upon receipt by the board of such written request of such person within the 20 day period as set out above, an opportunity for an administrative hearing shall be afforded as early as is practicable. In no case shall the hearing be held less than 10 days after written notification thereof, including a copy of the charges, shall have been given the person by personal service or by certified mail sent to the last address supplied to the board by the applicant or licensee. The administrative hearing in such cases shall be before the board.

(b) The board shall conduct the administrative hearings and it is authorized to administer oaths and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books, papers, documents, etc. On the basis of the evidence submitted at the hearing, the board shall take whatever action it deems necessary in refusing the application or suspending or revoking the license.

Judicial review

Sec. 23. Any person dissatisfied with the action of the board in refusing his application or suspending or revoking his license, or any other action of the board, may appeal the action of the board by filing a petition within 30 days thereafter in the district court in the county where the person resides or in the district court of Travis County, Texas. In all appeals prosecuted in any of the courts of this state pursuant to the provisions of this Act, such trials shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from justice of the peace courts to county courts. When such an appeal is filed and the court thereby acquires jurisdiction, all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect, and the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this Act. The Legislature hereby specifically declares that the provisions of this section shall not be severable from the balance of this Act, and further specifically declares that this Act would not have been passed without the inclusion of this section. If this section, or any part thereof, is for any reason ever held by any court to be invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative in any way, such holding shall apply to this entire Act, and in such event this entire Act shall be null, void and of no force and effect.

Surrender of license

Sec. 24. Upon the revocation or suspension of any license, the licensee shall forthwith surrender the license or licenses to the secretary; failure of a licensee to do so shall be a violation of this Act and upon conviction, shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter set forth. At any time after the suspension or revocation of any license, the secretary shall restore it to the former licensee, upon the written recommendations of the board.

Proceedings through the attorney general

Sec. 25. If any person violates any provisions of this Act, the secretary shall, upon direction of a majority of the board, in the name of the State of Texas, through the Attorney General of the State of Texas, apply in any district court of competent jurisdiction, for an order enjoining such violation or for an order enforcing compliance with this Act. Upon the filing of a verified petition in the court, the court or any judge thereof, if satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the person has violated this Act, may issue a temporary injunction, without notice or bond, enjoining such continued violation and if it is established that the person has violated or is violating this Act, the court, or any judge thereof, may enter a decree perpetually enjoining the violation or enforcing compliance with this Act. In case of violation of any order or decree issued under the provisions of this Section, the court, or any judge thereof, may try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Proceeding under this Section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all other remedies and penalties provided by this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 26. Any person who violates any provision of this Act or any person who falsely states or represents that he has been or is a polygraph examiner or trainee or that he is qualified to apply instrumentation to the

Admissibility of results as evidence

Sec. 27. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as permitting the results of truth examinations or polygraph examinations to be introduced or admitted as evidence in a court of law.

Validating clause

Sec. 28. All acts and governmental proceedings performed by the Polygraph Examiners Board and its officers since the creation or attempted creation of such Board by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., R.S. Ch. 441, p. 888, are hereby in all respects validated as of the date of such acts or proceedings.

Savings clause

Sec. 29. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

Emergency clause

Sec. 30. The fact that Acts, 1965, 59th Leg., R.S., Ch. 441, p. 888, has been held by the Texas Supreme Court to be invalid solely because of a defect in the caption to the bill and that this state will have no law licensing and regulating the use of lie detection or polygraph examination techniques and instruments by reason of said decision, and that untrained and unlicensed examiners, and examiners using inadequate techniques and equipment cause great harm to the general public, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each House be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended; and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2504, ch. 839, emerg. eff. June 18, 1969.

(d) The nonresident tuition fee prescribed in this Act does not apply to a nonresident student who is a resident of a state situated adjacent to Texas and who registers in any Texas public junior college situated immediately adjacent to the state in which the nonresident student resides. The nonresident student described in this Subsection shall pay an amount equivalent to the amount charged a Texas student registered at a similar school in the state in which the nonresident student resides.

(e) The term 'residence' as used in this Act means 'domicile.' The term 'resided in' means 'domiciled in.' For the purpose of this Act, the status of a student as a resident or nonresident student is determined in the following manner:

(1) An individual under twenty-one (21) years of age, living away from his family, and whose family resides in another state or has not resided in Texas for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of registration shall be classified as a nonresident student;

(2) An individual twenty-one (21) years of age or under whose family has not resided in Texas for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of registration shall be classified as a nonresident student regardless of whether he has become the legal ward of residents of Texas or has been adopted by residents of Texas while he is attending an educational institution in Texas, or within a 12-month period before his attendance, or under circumstances indicating that the guardianship or adoption was for the purpose of obtaining status as a resident student;

(3) An individual twenty-one (21) years of age or over who has come from outside Texas and who is gainfully employed in Texas for a 12-month period immediately preceding registration in an educational institution shall be classified as a resident student as long as he continues to maintain a legal residence in Texas; and

(4) An individual twenty-one (21) years of age or over who resides out of the state or who has come from outside Texas and who registers in an educational institution before having resided in Texas for a 12-month period shall be classified as a nonresident student.

(f) An individual twenty-one (21) years of age or under whose parents were formerly residents of Texas is entitled to pay the resident tuition fee for the 12-month period immediately following the parents' change of legal residence to another state.

(g) The Governing Board of each institution required by this Act to charge a nonresident tuition or registration fee is subject to the rules, regulations, and interpretations issued by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, for the administration of the nonresident tuition provisions of this Act. The rules, regulations, and interpretations promulgated by the Coordinating Board shall be furnished to the presidents or administrative heads of all Texas public senior and junior colleges and universities.

(h) A nonresident student classification is presumed to be correct as long as the residence of the individual in the state is primarily for the purpose of attending an educational institution. After residing in Texas for at least twelve (12) months, a nonresident student may be reclassified as a resident student as provided in the rules and regulations adopted by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. Any individual reclassified as a resident student is entitled to pay the tuition fee for a resident of Texas at any subsequent registration as long as he continues to maintain his legal residence in Texas.

(i) A nonresident who marries and remains married to a resident of Texas, classified as such under this Act at the time of the marriage and at the time the nonresident registers, is entitled to pay the resident tuition fee regardless of the length of time he has lived in Texas, and any student who is a resident of Texas who marries a nonresident is entitled to pay the resident tuition fee as long as he does not adopt the legal residence of the spouse in another state.

(j) An alien student is classified as a nonresident student; however, an alien who is living in this country under a visa permitting permanent residence or who has filed with the proper Federal immigration authorities a declaration of intention to become a citizen has the same privilege of qualifying for resident status for fee purposes under this Act as has a citizen of the United States. A resident alien residing in a junior college district located immediately adjacent to Texas boundary lines shall be charged the resident tuition by that junior college.

(k) Military personnel are classified in the following manner:

(1) An officer, enlisted man or woman, selectee or draftee of the Army, Army Reserve, Army National Guard, Air National Guard, Texas State Guard, Air Force, Air Force Reserve, Navy, Navy Reserve, Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reserve, Coast Guard, or Coast Guard Reserve of the United States, who is assigned to duty in Texas is entitled to register himself, his spouse, and their children in a state institution of higher education by paying the tuition fee and other fees or charges required of Texas residents, without regard to the length of time he has been assigned to duty or resided within the state; provided, however, that out-of-state Army National Guard or Air National Guard members attending training with Texas Army or Air National Guard units under National Guard Bureau regulations shall not be exempted from nonresident tuition by virtue of such training status nor shall out-of-state Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard Reserves training with units in Texas under similar regulations be exempted from nonresident tuition by virtue of such training status. It is the intent of the legislature that only those members of the Army or Air National Guard, Texas State Guard, or other reserve forces mentioned above, be exempted from the nonresident tuition fee and other fees and charges only when they become members of Texas units of the military organizations mentioned above;

(2) As long as they reside continuously in Texas, the spouse and children of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States who has been assigned to duty elsewhere immediately following assignment to duty in Texas are entitled to pay the tuition fees and other fees or charges provided for Texas residents;

(3) If nonresident military personnel are attending an institution of higher education under a contract between the institution and any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States, in which the tuition of the member of the military is paid in full by the United States Government, the student shall pay the nonresident tuition fee;

(4) A Texas institution of higher education may charge to the United States Government the nonresident tuition fee for a veteran enrolled under the provisions of a Federal Law or regulation authorizing educational or training benefits for veterans;

(5) The spouse and children of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States who dies or is killed are entitled to pay the resident tuition fee, if the wife and children become residents of Texas within sixty (60) days of the date of death; and

(6) If a member of the Armed Forces of the United States is stationed outside Texas and his spouse and children establish residence in

(l) A teacher, professor, or other employee of a Texas institution of higher education is entitled to register himself, his spouse, and their children in a state institution of higher education by paying the tuition fee and other fees or charges required for Texas residents, without regard to the length of time he has resided in Texas. A teacher, professor, or other employee of a Texas institution of higher education is any person employed at least one-half time on a regular monthly salary basis by a state institution of higher education.

(m) The provisions of this Act requiring the Governing Boards of institutions of higher education in Texas to collect tuition fees do not deprive the Boards of the right to collect special fees authorized by law. Laboratory fees or charges shall cover only the cost of actual materials and supplies used by the student.

(n) A Texas institution of higher education shall retain and spend all tuition, local funds, and fees collected and accounted for, as provided in the General Appropriations Act.

(o) The Governing Boards of state-supported institutions of higher education are authorized to assess and collect from each nonresident student failing to comply with the rules and regulations of the Governing Boards concerning nonresident fees a penalty not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10) a semester.

Art. 2675l. Commission for rehabilitation

Purpose

Section 1. It shall be the policy of the State of Texas to provide rehabilitation and related services to eligible handicapped individuals so that they may prepare for and engage in a gainful occupation or achieve maximum personal independence.

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(a) The term "agency" or "commission" means the Commission for Rehabilitation.

(b) The term "commissioner" means the chief administrative officer of the agency.

(c) "Handicapped individual" means any individual, except one whose disability is of a visual nature, who has a disability which constitutes a substantial handicap to employment, or to achieving maximum personal independence, but which is of such a nature that rehabilitation services may reasonably be expected to render him fit to engage in a gainful occupation, including a gainful occupation which is more consistent with his capacities and abilities or render him fit for self-care and independent living; and "handicapped individual" includes such an individual for whom rehabilitation services are necessary for the purposes of the determination of rehabilitation potential. "Handicapped individual" shall include individuals disadvantaged by reason of their youth or advanced age, low educational attainments, ethnic or cultural factors, prison or delinquency records, or other conditions which constitute a barrier to employment, as well as members of their families when the provision of rehabilitation services to family members is necessary for the rehabilitation of a handicapped individual.

(d) "Disability" means a physical or mental condition which materially limits, contributes to limiting or, if not corrected, will probably result in limiting an individual's activities or functioning. It includes behavioral disorders characterized by deviant social behavior or impaired ability to carry out normal relationships with family and community which may result from vocational, educational, cultural, social, environmental, or other factors. "Disability" includes the disadvantageous condition resulting from low educational attainment, ethnic or cultural factors, youth or advanced age, or other factors which constitute a barrier to employment or self-care and independent living.

(e) "Substantial handicap to employment" means that a disability impedes an individual's occupational performance by preventing his obtaining, retaining, or preparing for a gainful occupation consistent with his capacities and abilities.

(f) "Rehabilitation services" means any goods and services necessary to render a handicapped individual fit to engage in a gainful occupation, or independent living, or to determine his rehabilitation potential, and to provide work adjustment training or adult social services. To render a handicapped individual fit to engage in a gainful occupation or independent living, may require the agency to engage in or contract for some or all of such activities as outreach, diagnosis and appraisal, treatment, training, job placement or self-employment, guidance and counseling. Services may include maintenance, transportation and training allowances, not exceeding the estimated cost of subsistence during rehabilitation, for the handicapped individual as well as members of his family when necessary for the rehabilitation of the handicapped individual.

(g) "Gainful occupation" includes employment in the competitive labor market; practice of a profession; self-employment; homemaking, farm or family work (including work for which payment is in kind rather than in cash); sheltered employment; and home industries or other gainful homebound work.

(h) "Establishment of a rehabilitation facility" means (1) the expansion, remodeling, or alteration of existing buildings, necessary to adopt or to increase the effectiveness of such buildings for rehabilitation facility purposes; (2) the acquisition of initial equipment for such purposes; or (3) the initial staffing of a rehabilitation facility.

(i) "Establishment of a workshop" means the expansion, remodeling, or alteration of existing buildings necessary to adapt such buildings to workshop purposes or to increase the employment opportunities in workshops, and the acquisition of initial equipment necessary for new workshops or to increase the employment opportunities in workshops.

(j) "Construct" includes construction of new buildings, acquisition of existing buildings, and expansion, remodeling, alteration, and renovation of existing buildings, and initial equipment of such new, newly acquired, expanded, remodeled, altered, or renovated buildings.

Application of act; creation of county-wide vocational school districts. Section 1. This Act is applicable to every county of this State. For the purpose of levying, assessing and collecting a County-Wide Vocational School Tax for the county-wide support of area vocational school programs hereinafter set forth and authorized and for such further administrative functions as are set forth herein, the territory of each of such counties is hereby created into a school district, hereinafter described as the County-Wide Vocational School District, this taxing power to be exercised as hereinafter provided.

Taxing power of school districts; election. Sec. 2. There shall be exercised in and for the entire territory of each of such counties to the extent in this Act prescribed, the taxing power conferred on school districts by Article VII, Section 3, Constitution of Texas; provided, such taxing authority shall not be exercised until and unless authorized by the qualified property taxpaying voters residing therein at an election to be held for that purpose as hereinafter provided.

Petition for election; notice; ballots; conduct of election; expenses. Sec. 3. a. Whenever a petition is presented to the county judge of any such county, signed by at least one hundred (100) qualified property taxpaying voters residing therein, asking for an election to be ordered for the purpose of determining whether or not a County-Wide Vocational School Tax shall be levied, assessed and collected on taxable property within said county for the support of area vocational school program(s) so designated by the Texas Central Education Agency pursuant to a State Plan for Vocational Education, and operated by local school district(s) in said county, not exceeding twenty cents (20¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation of taxable property, it shall be the duty of the county judge immediately to order an election to be held throughout the county to determine said question. The finding of the county judge that such petition is sufficient and signed by the number of taxpaying voters required by this law shall be conclusive.

b. The county judge shall give notice of such election by publication of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in said county once a week for at least two (2) weeks, the date of the first publication to be not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date fixed for holding said election. Further notice shall be given by the posting of a copy of said election order within the boundaries of each school district having territory in the county, and one copy of said notice shall be posted at county courthouse door, posted at least twenty (20) days prior to the date fixed for said election.

c. The ballots for such election shall have written or printed thereon the words: "For County-wide Vocational School Tax.

d. Except as otherwise provided herein, the manner of holding such election(s) shall be controlled by the General Laws of the State, and only legally qualified property taxpaying voters residing in the county who own taxable property in such county and who have duly rendered the same for taxation shall be qualified to vote at such election. The election shall be held at the regular polling places within the county with duly appointed election officers holding said election. If a majority of the votes cast shall favor such tax, the court shall declare the results which shall be recorded in the minutes of the commissioners court, and certify same to the county tax assessor-collector. The commissioners court shall thereupon be authorized to levy said tax and the county tax assessor-collector shall be authorized to assess and collect the same.

b. No election to revoke said tax shall be ordered until the expiration of three (3) years from the date of the election at which such tax was adopted.

Annual levy and collection of tax; deposit of funds. Sec. 5.

It shall be the duty of the commissioners court, after such tax shall have been voted, at the time other taxes are levied in the county, annually to levy a tax under this law of not to exceed twenty cents (20¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation in said county at the same rate of valuation as is assessed for State and county purposes. Such taxes shall be assessed by the tax assessor and collected by the tax collector as other taxes are assessed and collected.

b. The county tax assessor-collector shall deposit the money as collected from said tax to a separate fund in the county depository to be known as the County Vocational School District Fund, to be allocated and distributed for the support of area vocational school programs operated by designated school district or districts in the county. He shall have the same authority and the same laws shall apply as in the collection of other county ad valorem tax.

Duties of commissioners court. Sec. 6. As soon as the commissioners court of said county shall determine the total of assessed value of taxable property, which value shall be the same as those fixed by it as the Board of Equalization for State and County purposes, it shall then perform the following duties: (a) determine the estimated total receipts from the levying and collecting of said tax of not exceeding twenty cents (20¢) on the property in such County-Wide District according to such valuation; (b) determine the estimated amount of money apportionable for the ensuing school year to school district or districts under the jurisdiction of the county, which operate designated area vocational school(s), on the formula basis hereinafter prescribed; (c) transmit a copy of the order fixing the estimated proportioned amount available, to the president of the board of trustees of each such designated school district or districts eligible therefor.

Apportionment of money; formula basis. Sec. 7. The money collected from any taxes levied by the commissioners court under this Act shall be distributed to such designated eligible school district(s) in the county to be apportioned on the following formula basis: The combined average daily membership (ADM) of students in vocational programs of designated area vocational school(s) as determined for the preceding school year divided into the average daily memberships in vocational programs of each such area vocational school; except that for the first year of operation the apportionment will be upon average daily membership (ADM) in grades 9 through 12 inclusive, determined for the preceding year, in all of the school districts operating designated area vocational school programs.

And the tax collector shall place to the credit of the common or other school districts using the county depository such moneys as are apportioned to them.

Alteration or enlargement of duties and powers of commissioners court. Sec. 9. Until and unless said County-Wide Vocational School Tax has been authorized by an election held in such county, the duties and powers of the commissioners court shall not be considered as having been changed, altered or enlarged by this Act.

Eligibility to attend school district operating vocational school program; tuition average daily attendance. Sec. 10. a. Irrespective of whether a County-Wide School District Tax has been voted: Any resident of the County-Wide Vocational School District who shall have attained the age of fourteen (14) years prior to September 1 shall be considered eligible to attend a school district in his county designated as operating an area vocational school program, provided he is accepted by such district as qualifying under its entrance requirements.

b. No tuition shall be charged any such eligible resident of the county enrolled in said area vocational school program, if the county has voted and collects said county-wide tax in support thereof.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

c. Any pupil under 21 years of age on September 1 and who has not completed the twelfth grade shall be eligible to be counted in average daily attendance (ADA) for Foundation School Program purposes by the designated area school district in accordance with policies of the Central Education Agency.

Provided, however, where such a pupil attends school in his home district a part of a day and attends part of a day in vocational class(es) offered only in a designated area vocational school district, his ADA shall be counted for the entire day in the home district; his state per capita, if any, to remain with the home district. Provided further, that such a pupil shall be eligible to be counted by the designated area vocational school district for purposes of vocational teacher unit allotments pursuant to the policies and formulas adopted by the State Board of Education.

d. Any eligible child residing in a school district which is under agreement with a neighboring school district designated to operate and accept such in its area vocational school program shall, on timely application of his parents for enrollment in the vocational program, be received by the designated area district free of tuition without the necessity of a formal transfer, any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

e. Any eligible child residing in a school district which is not listed under any agreement with a school district designated to operate and accept such in its area vocational school program may, on timely application of his parents for enrollment in its vocational program, be received by a designated area district in his county or in an adjoining county if there is none in his county, on such terms as the receiving district may deem just and proper, without the necessity of a formal transfer, any existing law to the contrary notwithstanding.

f. Upon certification of the acceptance and vocational program enrollment of such children from one district to another, by the superintendent of the receiving district, the State Department of Education shall adjust its records to pay over directly the state per capita apportionment to the respective district in which such children are received and educated.

Changing duties or powers of school district trustees. Sec. 11. This Act shall not have the effect of changing any duties imposed or powers conferred on the trustees of any school district of this State except as expressly provided herein; it being the intention of this law that said respective boards of trustees shall continue to administer their lawful duties and powers as now authorized by law, that the County-Wide Vocational School Tax herein authorized, if voted, shall be levied by the commissioners court and assessed and collected by the county tax assessor-collector to be distributed and used for the purpose expressed herein.

Nor shall this law affect the right and duty of the respective local school districts of the counties to levy, assess and collect local maintenance and/or bond taxes authorized for local school district purposes by the property taxpayers in said respective districts.

(a) Before the first election to authorize the levy of a tax for any purpose is held in a union junior college district lying wholly within one county, which district was created prior to the effective date of this Act, the territory of a school district lying within the college district shall be removed therefrom, if

(1) a majority of the persons in any school district constituting a part of the union college district signing the petition praying for the creation of the college district filed a written request with the county board of education or, if none, with the commissioners court, asking that their names be removed from the petition, or otherwise signified their desire to nullify their signatures on the petition, prior to the date on which the election to create the college district was ordered; and

(2) the majority of the voters in the school district where the request for removal was requested, voting at the election to create the college district, voted against its creation.

(b) When the territory of a school district is removed from a college district as provided in Subsection (a) of this Section, the board of trustees of the college district, prior to entering an order calling an election to authorize the levy of a tax for any purpose, shall prepare an order redefining the boundaries of the college district and present the order to the commissioners court. The court, if satisfied with the accuracy of the order, shall enter the order in its minutes. The board of trustees shall send a copy of this order to the State Board of Education.

(c) The revised metes and bounds description of the boundary of the district shall be included in the order calling the following elections:

(1) each election on the question of levying a tax for any authorized purpose ordered within five years after the creation of the district;

(2) the first election on the question of levying a tax for any authorized purpose if that election is called more than five years after the creation of the district.

(d) Where the territory of a school district is removed under Section 19a of this Act, no review of feasibility and desirability shall be made and the college district shall be effective as created except with respect to its boundaries.

Territory consisting of school districts or parts of school districts adjoining or lying adjacent to any Junior College District may be annexed to such Junior College District for Junior College purposes only by either of the following methods, to-wit:

(a) By Contract: Upon petition presented to the governing board of any Junior College District executed by all property owners of all property situated in the territory proposed for annexation, which petition shall contain a legally sufficient description of such territory proposed for annexation, the governing board of such Junior College District, if such board deems such annexation to be in the best interest of the District, shall enter an order authorizing the annexation of such territory by contract and, thereupon, shall enter into a written agreement duly executed and acknowledged by all persons, corporations, and entities owning property within such territory thereby effecting such annexation.

(b) By Election: Any such territory may be annexed to a Junior College District for Junior College purposes only by an election called upon petition of five percent (5%) of the property tax paying voters in the territory seeking to be annexed, said petition to contain a legally sufficient description of the territory proposed for annexation and to be presented to The County School Trustees of such County, or the County Board of Education, or to the County Commissioners Court of the County in case there be no County School Trustees or County Board of Education, together with a certified copy of an order by the governing board of the Junior College District affected approving the proposed annexation of such territory to the Junior College District for Junior College purposes only. The County School Trustees, or the County Board of Education, or the County Commissioners Court, shall issue an order for an election to be held in such territory proposed for annexation, said election to be held not less than twenty (20) days nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of said order and shall give notice of the date of such election by posting notices of such election in three (3) public places within such territory proposed for annexation. Only those legally qualified voters residing in such territory proposed for annexation shall be permitted to vote. The County School Trustees, or the County Board of Education, or the County Commissioners Court, shall, at a meeting held not more than five (5) days after said election, canvass the returns of such election, and if the votes cast therein show a majority in favor of such annexation, then the County School Trustees, the County Board of Education, or the County Commissioners Court, shall declare such territory annexed to the Junior College District for Junior College purposes only, and the said County School Trustees, or County Board of Education, or County Commissioners Court, shall cause a certified copy of such order to be transmitted to the governing board of said Junior College District.

At the next regular or special meeting of the governing board of the Junior College District to which territory has been annexed, such governing board shall, in the event of annexation by election, enter an order concurring in the order of the County School Trustees, County Board of Education, or County Commissioners Court, and, in any event, shall enter an order re-defining the boundary lines of the Junior College District as enlarged and extended and shall cause the same to be recorded upon the minutes of the governing board of said Junior College District.

Annexation of territory in counties of less than 10,000 population. Sec. 21b. (1) This Section applies to any junior college district which is located wholly within a county having a population of less than 10,000 according to the last preceding federal census.

(2) By election upon a petition of five per cent of the property taxpaying voters of the county, all of the territory within the county, not lying within the boundaries of the district, may be annexed to the district for junior college purposes only.

(3) The petition shall be presented to the commissioners court of the county, together with a certified copy of an order by the board of trustees of the district approving the proposed annexation. Within 30 days after the petition is presented, the commissioners court shall issue an order for an election to be held in the county, and the election shall be held not less than 20 nor more than 30 days after the date of the order. The commissioners court shall give notice of the date of the election by posting notices at least 10 days before the date of the election. All legally qualified voters residing in the county shall be permitted to vote.

(4) At a meeting not less than five days after the election, the commissioners court shall canvass the returns of the election. If a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the annexation, then the commissioners court shall declare the territory annexed for junior college purposes only, and shall transmit certified copies of the order to the board of trustees of the district. The board of trustees shall make concurring orders and shall re-define the boundary lines of the district as enlarged and cause these to be recorded on the minutes of the board of trustees.

(5) Within 30 days after the annexation, the board of trustees shall order an election to be held in the district as enlarged, on the question of the levy and collection of taxes for the support and maintenance of the district as enlarged. No petition is required, and Chapter 70, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, applies. If the district issued bonds prior to the annexation, and any of the bonds are outstanding at the time of the annexation, then the question of the assumption of the bonded indebtedness by the district as enlarged and the levy and collection of taxes in payment of the indebtedness shall also be submitted at the same election. The election for the levy and collection of taxes and assumption of bonded indebtedness shall be in accord with the general law relative to independent school districts, but no petition is necessary.

(6) If less than a majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the annexation, then the boundaries of the district remain the same as before the election, and no subsequent election may be held on the question within 30 days after the date of the election.

Annexation of territory in counties of less than 65,000 population. Sec. 21c. (1) This Section applies to any Junior College District which is located wholly within a county having a population of less than 65,000, according to the last preceding Federal Census, but only after reclassification of the Junior College as a public senior college has been approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

(2) By election upon a petition of 51 percent of the property taxpaying voters of the county who reside outside the Junior College District, all of the territory within the county, not lying within the boundaries of the District, may be annexed to the District for Junior College purposes only.

(3) The petition shall be presented to the Commissioners Court of the county, together with a certified copy of an order by the Board of Trustees of the District approving the proposed annexation. Within 30 days after the petition is presented, the Commissioners Court shall issue an order for an election to be held in the county, and the election shall be held not less than 20 nor more than 30 days after the date of the order. The Commissioners Court shall give notice of the date of the election by posting notices at least 10 days before the date of the election. All legally qualified voters residing in the county but outside the District shall be permitted to vote.

(4) At a meeting not less than five days after the election, the Commissioners Court shall canvass the returns of the election. If a majority of the votes cast are in favor of the annexation, then the Commissioners Court shall declare the territory annexed for Junior College purposes only, and shall transmit certified copies of the order to the Board of Trustees of the District. The Board of Trustees shall make concurring orders and shall redefine the boundary lines of the District as enlarged and cause these to be recorded on the minutes of the Board of Trustees.

(5) Within 30 days after the annexation, the Board of Trustees shall order an election to be held in the District as enlarged, on the question of the levy and collection of taxes for the support and maintenance of the District as enlarged. No petition is required, and Chapter 70, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947, applies. If the District issued bonds prior to the annexation, and any of the bonds are outstanding at the time of the annexation, then the question of the assumption of the bonded indebtedness by the District as enlarged and the levy and collection of taxes in payment of the indebtedness shall also be submitted at the same election. The election for the levy and collection of taxes and assumption of bonded indebtedness shall be in accord with the General Law relative to Independent School Districts, but no petition is necessary.

(6) If less than a majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the annexation, then the boundaries of the District remain the same as before the election, and no subsequent election may be held on the question within six months after the date of the election.

Art. 2815h—1b. Inclusion of territory within junior college district

Section 1. Any territory may be included within the boundaries of a junior college district, herein called "district," for junior college purposes, in the manner hereinafter specified; provided, the territory to be included is contiguous to the district in which such territory is to be included and has been laid out by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, as a service area for assisting junior colleges.

Sec. 2. (a) Upon presentation of a petition, signed by 50, or a majority, whichever number is smaller, of the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed for inclusion in a district, to the governing body of the district requesting that the boundaries of the district be changed to include the territory described in said petition, such governing body may, in its discretion, order an election to be held within the boundaries of the entire district as proposed to be changed on the question of whether the boundaries of the district shall be changed to include the proposed territory. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon "For" and "Against" boundary change.

(b) All qualified electors residing within the boundaries of the entire district as proposed to be changed shall be qualified to vote at such an election. The returns of any such election shall be canvassed by the governing body of the district and if a majority of persons residing in the district and voting at the election and a majority of the persons residing

Sec. 4. At the next regular election held in the junior college district after territory is added to the district under this Act, the qualified electors shall elect a new board of trustees. To continue in office, members of the present board of trustees must be reelected at this election.

Sec. 5. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the inclusion of territory in the boundaries of a district and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; provided, however, that the governing body of any district shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

ards developed by the Commission shall be submitted by the Texas Education Agency to all active certificated professional personnel in a referendum to determine approval or disapproval of each individual standard and the Commission shall have available the results of the referendum and give them consideration before finally adopting the standards. The Commission shall likewise have power to revise or adopt amendments to the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices. The Code of Ethics and Standard Practices originally adopted by the Commission, and in like manner any amendment thereto or revision thereof, shall become effective on the first day of September following the expiration of 90 days after the full text of the professional standards so adopted by the Commission or the amendment or revision so adopted shall have been filed with the Commissioner of Education of the State of Texas. No professional standards disapproved in the referendum vote shall be adopted.

It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Education on request of any member of the profession, licensed in this state, to furnish him a copy of the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices, together with amendments then in effect.

Subsection 2. A violation of any rule or provision of the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices adopted in conformity with this Act shall be deemed to be "unprofessional practice," which shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate of the member, which grounds shall be additional to those specified in Article 2884, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; or the member may be warned or reprimanded for such violation, if in the judgment of the Commissioner of Education the violation is not of sufficient gravity to require suspension or revocation of the teaching certificate.

Subsection 3. The Commission shall act in an advisory capacity to the State Commissioner of Education and to the State Board of Education in matters of interpretation and enforcement of the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices.

The Commission shall be authorized to receive written complaints from any certified teacher of alleged violation by any member of the profession of any rule or provision of the Code of Ethics and Standard Practices, and may hear the matter en banc, or may refer the matter to a committee of the Commission, composed of three of its members, for hearing, as it may order. Upon receipt of a complaint, the Commission shall give to the member against whom the complaint is made at least 15 days notice of the nature of the complaint, and the time and place at which the Commission, or a panel thereof, will hear the matter, such notice to be given by registered mail addressed to the member. At any hearing before the Commission, or before a panel of the Commission, the member complained of shall be entitled to produce witnesses in his behalf, and shall have a right to be represented by counsel. After hearing (which shall be private unless the party affected requests a public hearing), the Commission, or the hearing panel, shall make findings and recommendations whether the complaint shall be dismissed or whether the complaint shall be heard by the Commissioner of Education. The Commission or panel thereof hearing the matter shall file its recommendations with the Commissioner of Education and shall also file with him a transcript of any evidence presented before it.

Subsection 4. Members of the Commission shall be privileged in their utterances while acting in good faith in the course of their duties.

Subsection 5. Any certified teacher who violates the provisions of Chapter 135, Acts of the 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947,¹ shall be suspended by the Commissioner of Education.

Subsection 6. Nothing in this Act shall abridge the right of any certified teacher to join any professional association or organization, or to refuse to join any professional association or organization.

Art. 2891—105. Powers and Duties of Commissioner of Education Regarding Complaints

Subsection 1. In cases wherein the Commission, or the panel thereof hearing the matter, has recommended dismissal of the complaint, the Commissioner of Education may dismiss the complaint without further hearing. No appeal shall lie from the action of the Commissioner of Education in dismissing a complaint hereunder.

Subsection 2. In cases where the Commission, or the panel thereof hearing the matter, shall recommend suspension or revocation of the certificate of any member, the Commissioner of Education may dismiss the complaint on the basis of the record certified to him, or may set the matter for hearing and disposition by the Commissioner of Education; and from his final decision in the matter, after hearing, appeal shall lie to the State Board of Education. The party charged by the complaint may appeal the decision of the State Board of Education to the district court of the county of his residence. Art. 2891—107. Appeals

In all appeals prosecuted in any of the courts of this state pursuant to the provisions of this Act, such trials shall be de novo as that term is used and understood in appeals from justice of the peace courts to county courts. When such an appeal is filed and the court thereby acquires jurisdiction, all administrative or executive action taken prior thereto shall be null and void and of no force and effect, and the rights of the parties thereto shall be determined by the court upon a trial of the matters in controversy under rules governing the trial of other civil suits in the same manner and to the same extent as though the matter had been committed to the courts in the first instance and there had been no intervening administrative or executive action or decision. Under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule as interpreted and applied by the courts of Texas in other cases ever be used or applied to appeals prosecuted under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 2909c—3. Revenue bonds for permanent improvements at institutions of higher learning

Section 1. The governing board (hereinafter called the "Board") of each state-supported Senior College and University of higher learning of the State of Texas shall be authorized and have the power to issue its revenue bonds for the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, and/or equip any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities, for and on behalf of its institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof, with said revenue bonds to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of any of the revenues from any rentals, rates, charges, fees, or other resources of such Board, in the manner hereinafter provided. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed fifty years from their date, and each Board may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (provided that such bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, all as shall be determined and provided by the Board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of said bonds and for providing a reserve for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. Such proceeds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond resolution. Each Board shall be authorized and required to fix and collect rentals, rates, charges, and/or fees from students or others for the occupancy, use and/or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities, in such amounts as will be sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with any bonds issued under this Act, and, to the extent required by the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with said bonds and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with said property, buildings, structures, or facilities. Each Board shall be authorized to establish and enforce such parietal rules for students and others, and to enter into such agreements regarding occupancy, use, and availability, and the amounts and collection of pledged revenues, fees, or other resources, as will assure making all said required payments. Fees for the use or availability of all or any property, buildings, structures, or facilities, may be pledged to the payment of said bonds, and shall be fixed and collected from all or any designated part of the students enrolled in the institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof, in such manner as shall be determined and provided by the Board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, and said fees may be collected in the amounts required herein, without regard to actual use or availability, commencing at the time designated by the Board. The aforesaid fees may be fixed and collected for the use by or availability to the students of any specifically described property, buildings, structures, or facilities; or said fees may be fixed and collected as general fees for the general use by or availability to the students of the institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof. Such specific and/or general fees may be fixed and collected, and pledged to the payment of any issue or series of bonds issued hereunder, in the amounts required herein, in addition to, and regardless of the existence of, any other specific or general fees at the institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof; provided that each Board may restrict its power to pledge such additional specific or general fees in any manner that may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds issued hereunder, and provided that no such additional specific fees shall be pledged if prohibited by any resolution which authorized the issuance of any then outstanding bonds issued pursuant to any Texas statute. Each Board further shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of bonds issued under this Act all or any part of any resources of said Board, including tuition fees and charges at its institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof, to the extent that such resources, including tuition, are permitted to be pledged to the payment of revenue bonds authorized to be issued by the Board by any Texas statute other than this Act; and each Board shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of bonds issued under this Act all or any part of any grant, donation, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Sec. 1-A. The bonds authorized by this Act are to be paid solely from the revenues received from the facilities or from funds specifically provided for that purpose from other sources and shall never be an obligation of the state.

Sec. 2. Any revenue bonds issued by any such Board under this Act, and any revenue bonds or notes issued by any such Board under any other Texas statute and payable from tuition fees and charges and/or any part of the use fees from or revenues of any property, buildings, structures, or facilities at the institution or institutions, or any branch or branches thereof, may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by such governing Board, and in such case all pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds. In refunding or otherwise refinancing any such bonds or notes the governing Board may, in the same authorizing proceedings, refund or refinance bonds issued under this Act and bonds or notes issued pursuant to any other such Texas statute and combine all said refunding bonds and any other additional new bonds to be issued under this Act into one or more issues or series of bonds, and may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms and conditions as may be set forth in said authorizing proceedings.

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under this Act, and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance, shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas; and after such approval and registration such bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under this Act shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies and bodies politic. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities thereof, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 5. All revenue bonds heretofore approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, which were issued, sold, and delivered by any Board, and which are payable from or secured by a pledge of any revenues, use fees, or other resources of such Board, together with all proceedings authorizing the issuance thereof, are hereby validated in all respects, and said bonds and proceedings shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms and conditions for all purposes.

Sec. 6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any Board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. Sec. 2. The Coordinating Board is hereby vested with the right, power, and authority to contract with Baylor College of Medicine for the administration, direction, and performance of all services and provision, maintenance, operation and repair of all buildings, facilities, structures, equipment or materials necessary or proper to the education, training, preparation or instruction of bona fide Texas resident undergraduate medical students; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to empower the Coordinating Board to limit, alter, modify, or in any other manner change or approve, or negotiate for changes in or approval of the administration, direction, and performance of such services or provision, maintenance, operation and repair of such buildings, facilities, structures, equipment or materials.

Sec. 3. A. In the exercise of the rights, powers, and authority described in Section 2 of this Act, the Coordinating Board may disburse to Baylor College of Medicine, during each scholastic year of disbursement, an amount equal to the average annual state tax support per undergraduate medical student at the established public medical schools multiplied by the number of bona fide Texas resident undergraduate medical students enrolled at Baylor College of Medicine; provided, however, that the Coordinating Board shall never disburse an amount exceeding the amount appropriated by the Legislature for this purpose.

B. Subject to the limitations described in Section 3A of this Act, the Coordinating Board is hereby granted the right, power, and authority to establish, by contract with Baylor College of Medicine, the method by

For the purposes of this section The University of Texas Dental Branch at Houston shall be used to calculate the average annual state tax support per undergraduate dental student.

Sec. 6. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Constitution of the United States of America or the Constitution of the State of Texas and all acts done hereunder shall be done in such manner as may conform thereto. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision. inafter provided. Said bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and such board may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms and conditions as may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds. Said bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, shall be negotiable instruments (provided that such bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest), and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates, all as shall be determined and provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of said bonds and providing a reserve for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds. Such proceeds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond resolution. Such board shall be authorized and required to fix and collect lease rentals, rentals, rates, charges, and/or fees from students or others for the occupancy, use, and/or availability of all or any of its said property, buildings, structures, or other facilities, in such amounts as will be sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with any bonds issued under this Act, and, to the extent required by the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the issuance of said bonds and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with said property, buildings, structures, or facilities. Fees for the use or availability of all or any property, buildings, structures, or facilities, may be pledged to the payment of said bonds, and shall be fixed and collected in such manner as shall be determined and provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Such board further shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of bonds issued under this Act all or any part of any resources of said board or association to the extent that such resources are permitted to be pledged to the payment of such revenue bonds, and each board shall be authorized to pledge to the payment of bonds issued under this Act all or any part of any grant; donation, or income received or to be received from the United States Government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

After such approval and registration such bonds shall be incontestable for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes. If any of said bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or lease made between the board and another party or parties (public agencies or otherwise), a copy of such contract or lease and of the proceedings authorizing same may or may not be submitted to the attorney general along with the bond records, and, if so submitted, then the approval by the attorney general of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or lease, and thereafter such contract or lease shall be incontestable.

Bonds are eligible investments

(1) no person shall be allowed to acquire credits on the basis of teaching employment outside this state in excess of one year for each two years of service in Texas;

(1) Option One: on his death, the same monthly payments shall be made to and continued throughout the life of the person nominated by the member's written designation filed with the State Board of Trustees prior to his retirement; or nominated by the member's written designation filed with the State Board of Trustees prior to his retirement; or

(3) Option Three: on his death before 60 monthly payments have been made, they shall continue to the person nominated by the member in writing, or to such person's executor or administrator, until the remainder of the 60 payments have been made; or

(4) Option Four: on his death before 120 monthly payments have been made, they shall continue to the person nominated by the member in writing, or to such person's executor or administrator, until the remainder of the 120 payments have been made; or

(e) A teacher member who has retired or who retires from service after attaining 60 years of age and after having completed 25 or more years of creditable service shall in any event be entitled to receive the actuarial equivalent of a minimum standard service retirement benefit aggregating in 12 months the sum of $50 multiplied by each year of prior service credit and membership service credit to which such member is entitled; provided, however, that no standard service benefit shall be increased by reason of the provisions of this subsection to an amount exceeding the sum of $1,800 per year.

(f) No annuity payment authorized under the provisions of this Act shall be made for any fraction of a month in which the annuitant dies. Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 109, ch. 41, § 1, emerg. eff. March 31, 1969.

Art. 2922—3.02 Disability benefits

(a) Upon application of a member, or (where the member is unable to make application) of his employer or legal representative acting in behalf of the member, the State Board of Trustees may, after the filing of said application, retire such member upon the applicable disability benefit set out below if the medical board, after a medical examination, certifies that the member is mentally or physically disabled from further performance of duty and that such disability is probably permanent.

(b) If the member has less than 10 years of creditable service at the date of his retirement, he shall be paid a monthly disability benefit of $50 for the duration of such disability, or for life, or for a period equal to the number of months of creditable service rendered by such member prior to date of such retirement, whichever term is shortest.

(c) If the member has more than 10 years of creditable service, but is not eligible for service retirement, he shall receive for the duration of his disability the standard annuity calculated on the basis of his creditable service to date of retirement, or the sum of $50 per month, whichever is greater. In the event the disability retirement occurs after or continues until he attains 60 years of age, his disability shall be conclusively presumed continuous for the remainder of his life.

(d) Once each year during the first five years following disability retirement and once every three years thereafter, the State Board of Trustees may require any member who retired on a disability benefit and who has not yet attained age 60 to undergo a medical examination by a physician or physicians designated by the State Board of Trustees at the retired member's residence or any other place mutually agreed upon. Should he refuse to submit to at least one such medical examination during any authorized examination period, his allowance shall be discontinued until he consents to an examination; if his refusal continues for one year, all his rights to his allowance shall be revoked by the State Board of Trustees.

(e) If a person under 60 years of age who is receiving a disability retirement benefit is restored to active service, or if the medical board certifies to the State Board of Trustees that he is no longer physically or mentally disabled from further performance of duty and the State Board of Trustees concurs, his allowance shall be discontinued, he shall again become a member of the Retirement System and the sum in his account before disability retirement, less all disability benefits paid to him, shall be transferred from the retired reserve account to his individual account in the member savings account. On restoration to membership, any creditable service used to compute a member's benefit when he retired shall be restored to full force and effect.

(f) If a person receiving a disability retirement benefit is gainfully employed, his allowance shall be suspended or reduced to an amount by which his salary earned during his last year of creditable service exceeds his present earnings. Should his earnings later change, his allowance may be further modified, but shall never exceed his original allowance.

(g) No member eligible for service retirement without reduction shall be allowed to retire on a disability allowance.

Art. 2922—3.03 Beneficiary designation

(a) Any member may provide in writing on a form the State Board of Trustees prescribes that the benefits payable under this Act in the event of his death shall be paid to the designated beneficiary. The member may change or revoke a designation previously made by filing with the State Board of Trustees, on a form it prescribes, a notice of change or revocation.

(b) In the event a member fails to designate a beneficiary, or the designated beneficiary predeceases the member and there is no designation effective at the date of death, the death benefits and election right to survivor benefits shall vest (in the order listed) with

(1) the surviving widow or surviving dependent widower of the deceased; or

(2) the children of the deceased in equal portions; or

(3) the dependent parent or parents of the deceased in equal portions.

(c) If none of the persons named in Subsection (b) (1) (2) and (3) of this section survive, then, to the member's estate, or to his heirs, in complete discharge of all claims for death and survivor benefits under this Act, there shall be paid

(1) the return of the accumulated contributions of the member; or

(2) a $500 lump sum if death occurs after retirement.

(2) the rate of annual compensation of the member for the current school year; or

(3) 60 monthly payments equal to the monthly installments of a standard annuity (calculated as provided in Section 1.02(a) (20) of this Act); or

(4) an annuity payable for the designated beneficiary's life with payments equal to those under Option One in Section 3.01(b) (1) of this Act had the member retired at the end of the month preceding his death; or

(5) the accumulated contributions of the member's member savings account.

(b) In the event the designated beneficiary is other than a surviving widow, dependent widower, child, brother, sister, or dependent parent of the deceased, or other person financially dependent on the deceased, the death benefits payable to the beneficiary under the provisions of this Act shall be limited to the accumulated contributions in the member's member savings account.

(c) If a member dies during an absence from service, his designated beneficiary shall be paid

(1) the same benefits payable upon the member's death in active service if the absence of the member from service was due to sickness, accident, or other cause which the State Board of Trustees determines to be involuntary or in furtherance of the objectives or welfare of the public school system, or during a period when he was eligible to retire or would become eligible without further service to retire within five years of his last covered employment; or

(2) the accumulated contributions in the member's individual account if the absence of the member from service was not the result of sickness, accident, or other justifiable cause determined in this Act.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 109, ch. 41, § 1, emerg. eff. March 31, 1969.

Art. 2922—3.05 Survivor benefits

(a) If a teacher member dies before retirement, his designated beneficiary (if entitled to a death benefit other than the accumulated contributions of the member) may elect, in lieu of the applicable death benefit authorized under Section 3.04 of this Act, to receive a lump sum payment of $500 plus the following applicable survivor benefits:

(1) if the designated beneficiary is the widow, dependent widower, or dependent parent of the deceased member, he may elect to receive for life a monthly benefit of $75 commencing at age 65 or immediately if the beneficiary has already attained that age; or

(2) if the designated beneficiary is the widow or dependent widower of the deceased and has one or more children under 18 years of age or has the custody of one or more children of the deceased under 18 years of age, he may elect to receive a monthly benefit of $150 until the youngest child attains the age of 18 years, and at that time all payments shall cease until the beneficiary attains age 65 when he shall receive for life a monthly benefit of $75; or

(3) if the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries are the deceased's dependent children under the age of 18 years, they may, upon election of their guardian, receive a total monthly benefit of $150 so long as there are two or more such children under 18 years of age; thereafter, when there is only one child remaining under 18 years of age, he may receive $75 per month until attaining 18 years.

(b) If the designated beneficiary is a widow, dependent widower, or dependent parent of the deceased, the benefits payable under Subsection (a) (1) and (2) of this section shall cease upon the beneficiary's death or remarriage; in that event, however, payment of the benefits provided in Subsection (a) (3) of this section will commence if applicable.

(c) If an auxiliary member dies before retirement, his designated beneficiary or beneficiaries shall be entitled to the same elections provided in Subsection (a) of this section except that the monthly benefits shall be two-thirds of the amount payable to the beneficiary or beneficiaries of a deceased teacher member if his rate of compensation for his last year of employment was less than $3,800.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 109, ch. 41, § 1, emerg. eff. March 31, 1969.

Art. 2922—3.06 Benefits payable upon death after retirement

(a) If a retired member dies while receiving a retirement benefit, his eligible designated beneficiary shall be entitled to the same survivor benefits provided for designated beneficiaries of members in active service at death. Any benefit payable to the designated beneficiary under a service retirement option previously elected by the deceased shall not be affected by the beneficiary's eligibility for survivor benefits. The lump sum payment of $500 shall be made regardless of the beneficiary's eligibility for any other survivor benefit.

(b) If a member retires upon a disability retirement benefit and dies while drawing his benefit, his beneficiary may elect to receive, in lieu of the benefit provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the same death benefit to which he would have been entitled had the deceased been in active service at death, less all disability payments made to the deceased.

(c) An unremarried widow or widower, as designated beneficiary of a member of the Retirement System with 25 or more years of creditable service who died prior to April 8, 1957, shall be entitled to receive survivor benefits provided in this Act for beneficiaries of members with a creditable year of service, except that the $500 lump sum amount shall not be payable, and provided that such beneficiary did not receive or is not receiving a death benefit other than the return of the member's deposits plus accumulated interest.

(d) An unremarried widow or widower, as designated beneficiary of a retired member who did not have a creditable year of service after November 23, 1956, and who died prior to August 23, 1963, while receiving a retirement annuity from the Retirement System, shall be entitled to receive survivor benefits provided elsewhere in this Act, except that the lump sum amount shall not be payable.

(e) Benefits provided in Subsections (c) and (d) of this section shall become effective on the last day of the month in which the qualified beneficiary applies to the Retirement System in such form as may be prescribed by the State Board of Trustees and payments shall be due from and after that date only, and the same age requirements specified elsewhere in this Act shall apply to the provisions of these subsections.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 109, ch. 41, § 1, emerg. eff. March 31, 1969.

(a) Any person receiving a service retirement benefit from the Retirement System may be employed in the public schools of Texas

(1) on a part-time day-to-day basis only not to exceed 80 school days in any one school year as a substitute for an employee who is absent from duty;

(2) as a substitute in a vacant position until such position can be filled, but not to exceed 30 days, but any substitute employment in a vacant position shall be deducted from the 80 days permitted as a substitute for an absent employee; or

(3) on as much as a one-third time basis if the retired member is over age 60.

(b) This employment will not affect any person's rights to any benefits under the Retirement System. However, it will not entitle a person to additional creditable service under the Retirement System and the person so employed shall not be required to make further contributions to the System.

(c) A person who reports for duty as a substitute during any day and works any portion of that day, shall be considered to have worked one day. The State Board of Trustees of the Retirement System shall by rule define "one-third time basis" and shall adopt rules governing the employment of a substitute.

"Physically handicapped children" means children of educable mind whose body functions or members are so impaired from any cause that they cannot be adequately or safely educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special services.

"Mentally retarded children" means children whose mental capacity is such that they cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special services.

In interpreting and carrying out the provisions of this Act, the words "exceptional children," wherever used, will be construed to mean physically handicapped children, mentally retarded children, emotionally disturbed children, and pregnant girls who are residents of or under the care of licensed maternity homes. Provided, no child shall receive special services permitted by law as an emotionally disturbed child without the consent of his parent or guardian, and provided that said child is seventeen (17) years of age or under. Provided further, that the statewide total of all classroom teacher units allocated for emotionally disturbed children under this Article in each year beginning September 1, 1965, shall be limited to twenty (20) classroom teacher units per year. It is the intent of the Legislature that these twenty (20) classroom teacher units per year be allocated as a pilot study only, to ascertain the most practical and effective means of educating emotionally disturbed children.

(4A) Annual Transportation Cost Allotment. An annual transportation cost allotment for each district operating an approved exceptional children program shall be computed as part of the Foundation School Program and paid from the Foundation

School Fund on a per capita pupil formula basis as follows:

For physically and/or orthopedically handicapped, visually handicapped children with conditions making impracticable the use of public transportation, deaf, trainable mentally retarded, and/or educable mentally retarded: The transportation allotment shall be One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150) per exceptional child pupil receiving such transportation, provided the district locally determines and certifies subject to the approval of the State Commissioner of Education that:

(1) Such a pupil is unable to utilize existing regular transportation services; and Services, current operating costs. Section 1. The total current operating cost for each school district other than professional salaries and transportation shall be determined by multiplying the number of approved classroom teacher units, exceptional teacher units, and vocational teacher units by Six Hundred Sixty Dollars ($660) and grants therefor shall be allotted.

Services, transportation. Sec. 2. (1) The County Boards of School Trustees of the several counties of this state, subject to the approval of the State Commissioner of Education, are hereby authorized to establish and operate an economical public school transportation system within their respective counties. In establishing and operating such transportation systems, the County Boards of School Trustees shall: (1) requisition buses and supplies from the State Board of Control as provided for in this Article; (2) prior to June 1st of each year, with said Commissioner's approval, establish school bus routes within their respective counties for the succeeding school year; (3) employ school bus drivers; and (4) be responsible for the maintenance and operation of school buses. State warrants for transportation shall be made payable to the County School Transportation Fund in each county for the total amount of transportation funds for which the county is eligible under the provisions of this Act.

Provided, however, that when requested by the Board of Trustees of an independent school district, the County Board of School Trustees shall authorize such independent district to: (1) employ its school bus drivers; (2) be responsible for the maintenance and operation of its school buses; and (3) receive transportation payments direct from the state. When the County School Superintendent reports such authorization to the State Commissioner of Education, state warrants for transportation funds for which the district is eligible shall be made to the District Transportation Fund, which is hereby created.

The County Boards of School Trustees and the State Commissioner of Education shall promulgate regulations in regard to the use of school buses for purposes other than transporting eligible pupils to and from their classes. Provided, however, that under rules and regulations of the State Board of Education, the appropriate district allocation in the County Transportation Fund, when approved by the County Board of School Trustees, or the District Transportation Fund, when approved by the Board of Trustees of the independent school district operating its own transportation system, may be used for school bus transportation of its pupils and necessary personnel on extracurricular activity and field trips sponsored by the respective school district.

School buses shall be operated upon approved school bus routes, and no variations shall be made therefrom. The penalty for varying from authorized routes and for unauthorized use of buses shall be the withholding of transportation funds from the offending county or school district. (2) The total annual transportation cost allotment for each district or county shall be based on the following formula:

(a) A typical bus route is defined as being from forty-five (45) to fifty-five (55) miles of daily travel and composed of sixty (60%) percent surfaced roads and forty (40%) percent dirt roads, over which fifteen (15) or more pupils who live two (2) or more miles from school are transported.

(b) Allowable total base cost of maintenance, operation, salaries, depreciation, etc., for each bus shall be:

72 capacity bus	$3,276 per year
60—71 capacity bus	3,156 per year

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

20—29 capacity bus	2,676 per year
15—19 capacity bus	2,196 per year

The capacity of a bus shall be interpreted as the number of eligible children being transported who live two (2) or more miles from school along the approved route served by the bus. A bus that makes two (2) or more routes or serves two (2) or more schools shall be considered as having a capacity equal to the largest number of eligible children on the bus at any one time.

(c) For each one percent (1%) increase of dirt road above forty percent (40%), add one-half percent ($\frac{1}{2}\%$) to the allowable total cost.

(d) For each five (5) miles or major fraction thereof increase in daily bus travel above fifty-five (55) miles add one percent (1%) of the total cost of operation. For each five (5) miles or major fraction thereof less than forty-five (45) miles daily travel, deduct one percent (1%) from the total cost of operation.

(e) The State Commissioner of Education may grant not to exceed Seventy-Five Dollars ($75) per pupil per year for private or commercial transportation for eligible pupils from isolated areas. The need for this type of transportation grant shall be determined on an individual basis and the amount granted shall not exceed the actual cost. Such grants shall be made only in extreme hardship cases and no such grants shall be made if such pupils live within two (2) miles of an approved school bus route or city public transportation services.

Contracts with public transportation companies for school bus service. Sec. 2A. (a)

As an alternative to maintaining and operating a complete public school transportation system under Section 2 of this Article, a county board of school trustees may contract with public transportation companies for all or any part of the public school transportation if the board is able to obtain an economically advantageous contract. An independent school district may enter into contracts authorized by this Section if the county board of school trustees has authorized it to be responsible for the maintenance and operation of its school buses.

(b) A contract is economically advantageous if the cost of the service contracted for is less than the projected cost of the same service under Section 2 of this Article.

(c) Contracts for public school transportation are subject to review by the Commissioner of Education and subject to the approval of the State Board of Education.

(d) Contracts for public school transportation may include provisions for transporting students to and from approved school activities.

(e) Once a contract has been approved, the contract price for the service shall be included in the annual transportation cost allotment for the county or district.

(f) The Commissioner of Education shall make rules for the administration of this Section, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education.

1969 Amendments

Article 2922—16 was both amended and repealed at the 1969 Regular Session. Chapters 872 and 883 which does the amending affects only sections 2, 4 and 5. Chapter 889 which does the repealing enacts the Texas Education Code and provides that any conflicting act passed at the same session prevails. Hence, the amended text, including other earlier amendments is set out, post, for possible use and application.

Sections 2 and 4 of repealed article 2922—16 were amended by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 880, ch. 438, § 2; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1852, ch. 721, § 2; and Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2634, ch. 872, §§ 6, 7. Section 5 was amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2698, ch. 883, § 1. As so amended, these sections provided:

Total local school funds to be charged to all school districts in the state. Sec. 2. The sum of the amounts to be charged for the 1969-70 school year against the local school districts of the State toward such Foundation School Program shall be One Hundred Eighty Million Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars ($180,800,000) to which shall be added by the State Board of Education at its July meeting in 1969, twenty percent (20%) of the estimated increased cost of such Foundation Program authorized by Acts of the 61st Legislature amending such Foundation School Program.

The sum of the amounts to be charged for the 1970-71 school year against the local school districts of the State toward such Foundation School Program shall be Two Hundred Four Million Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($204,900,000) to which shall be added by the State Board of Education at its March meeting in 1970, twenty percent (20%) of the estimated increased cost of such Foundation Program authorized by Acts of the 61st Legislature amending such Foundation School Program.

For the 1971-72 school year, and for each school year thereafter, the sum of the amounts to be charged against the local school districts of the State toward such Foundation School Program shall be twenty percent (20%) of the estimated total cost of the Foundation School Program for the immediately preceding school year, plus an amount equal to the difference between the gross Local Fund Assignment and the net Local Fund Assignment for the immediately preceding school year. At its regular meeting in March 1971, and at each regular meeting in March thereafter, the State Board of Education after receiving the recommendation of the State Commissioner of Education, shall estimate the total cost of the Foundation School Program for the then current school year, based upon laws and approved school budgets in effect on the date when such estimate is made. Within thirty (30) days after such estimate has been made, the State Commissioner of Education, subject to the approval of the State Board of Education, shall assign each school district according to its taxpaying ability as determined in this Act, its proportionate part of such total to be raised locally for the next school year and applied towards the financing of its Minimum Foundation School Program.

Local fund available in each county. Sec. 4. For the school year beginning 1971-72 and each school year thereafter, the State Commissioner of Education shall calculate and determine the total sum of local funds that the school districts of a county shall be assigned to contribute toward the total cost of the Foundation School Program by multiplying twenty percent (20%) of the estimated Foundation Program cost for the immediately preceding school year, plus an amount equal to the difference between the gross Local Fund Assignment and the net Local Fund Assignment for the immediately preceding school year as determined under the provisions of this Act by the Economic Index determined for each county. The product shall be regarded as the local funds available in each respective county toward the support of the Foundation School Program and shall be used in calculating the portion of said amount which shall be assigned to each school district in the county.

Local funds to be charged to each district. Sec. 5. The State Commissioner of Education shall determine the amount of local funds to be charged to each school district and used therein toward the support of the Foundation School Program, which amount shall be calculated as follows:

Divide the State and county assessed valuation of all property in the county subject to school district taxation for the next preceding school year into the State and county assessed valuation of the district for the next preceding school year, finding the district's percentage of the county valuation. Multiply the district's percentage of the county valuation by the amount of funds assigned to all of the districts in the county. The product shall be the amount of local funds that the district shall be assigned to raise toward the financing of its foundation school program.

Provided, however, that in any district containing State University-owned land, State-owned prison land, Federal-owned forestry land, Federal-owned reservoirs, Federal-owned recreation areas, Federal-owned military reservations or Federal-owned Indian reservations, the amount assigned to such school district shall be reduced in the proportion that the area included in the above-named classification bears to the total area of the district. Provided further, that no local fund assignment shall be charged to the Boys Ranch Independent School District in Oldham County, Texas, the Bexar County School for Boys Independent School District in Bexar County, Texas, and the Bexar County School for Girls Independent School District in Bexar County, Texas.

Provided that if the revenue that would be derived from the legal maximum local maintenance school tax is less than the amount that is assigned to a school district according to the economic index, and if such property valuation is not less than said property is valued for State and county purposes such lesser amount shall be the amount assigned to be raised by such school district.

Provided further, that if a school district is unable or for any reason failed to collect local maintenance school funds equal to the amount assigned to it as determined by this Act, such failure will not make the district ineligible for full State per capita apportionment and full Foundation School Fund grants, but the amount as determined by this Act shall be charged against the district as budgetary receipts whether such amount is collected or not.

Provided that the amount of local funds assigned to a contract district, as provided for in Article III of this Act, shall be assigned to the receiving district and all local taxes, except those required for the interest and sinking fund, shall be credited as collected to the receiving school district.

If a district other than such a contract district has no school, the amount of local funds assigned to such district shall be assigned for the current year to the receiving district in which such children attend school and the local tax funds collected shall be transferred to such receiving district; provided that if pupils from such a district attend schools in more than one receiving district, such local fund assignment and local tax funds shall be divided for the current year between such receiving districts proportionately according to the number of transfers to each receiving district.

If any school district which has a budgetary income, as provided in Article VI, Section 1, Subsections a and b, in excess of the amount needed to operate a Minimum Foundation School Program as provided herein and transfers pupils to another district, such sending district shall pay a proportionate part of such excess based upon the ratio of the number transferred to the number of enumerated scholastics, to the district or districts to which such pupils are transferred, and such amount shall be charged to the receiving school.

The sum of the amounts assigned to the several portions of a county-line school district shall be the amount assigned to be raised by such district toward the financing of its Foundation School Program.

The county tax assessor-collector in each county, in addition to his other duties prescribed by law, shall certify to the State Commissioner of Education in Austin, Texas, not later than December 1st of each year, the following information:

(1) The assessed valuation, on a State and county valuation basis, of all property subject to school district taxation in each school district or portion of school district in such county, and the total assessed valuation of all property subject to the school district taxation in the county;

(2) The total area of each school district; and

(3) The area within each school district comprised of State University-owned land, State-owned prison land, Federal-owned forestry land, Federal-owned reservoirs, Federal-owned recreation areas, Federal-owned military reservations, and Federal-owned Indian reservations.

Should any county tax assessor-collector fail to submit such certificates to the State Commissioner of Education as provided for herein, the State Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby directed to submit such information, estimating when necessary. As soon after the receipt of such certificates as practicable, and prior to the time that the respective tax rates for the school districts of the county have been set, the State Commissioner of Education shall notify each school district as to the amount of local funds that such district is assigned to raise for the succeeding school year.

If there has been a marked increase or decrease in the assessed valuation of a school district within a county, and if the county school board certifies that the use of the county and school district valuations for the preceding year in determining local fund assignments to the school districts in the county would be inequitable, and recommends a different distribution of the county total than that made by the State Commissioner of Education, such recommendations, subject to the approval of said Commissioner, shall become and be the lawful fund assignments to such districts.

Provided further, that any local maintenance funds in excess of the amount assigned to a district as determined by this Section may be expended for any lawful school purpose or it may be carried over as a balance into the next school year.

Art. 2922—16f. County financial support; economic index

Section 1. In calculating an economic index of the financial ability of each county to support the Foundation School Program pursuant to the provisions of Section 3, Article VI, Chapter 334, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 2922—16, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the Commissioner of Education shall calculate the value of cattle or other animal sales from feedlots at the net increase in value while in the feedlot.

Sec. 2. Definition: The "net increase in value in a feedlot" is arrived at by using the latest three years' average of the Federal Reserve Bank's interest rate as of January 1 of each year to which is added one and one-half percentage points. This total interest rate percentage figure then multiplied by the average sale value of cattle or other animals from the feedlot, will result in the "net increase in value while in a feedlot," and is the figure that shall be used to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Arts. 2922—17 to 2922—24. Repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 3042, ch. 889, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1969

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2735, ch. 889, repealing these Articles, enacts the Texas Education Code.

Art. 2922—25a. Governor's Committee on financing of Minimum Foundation Program

a. There is hereby established a committee to be comprised of eighteen (18) members: Six (6) to be appointed by the Governor, six (6) by the Lieutenant Governor, and six (6) by the Speaker of the House. Three (3) members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor shall be members of the Senate and three (3) members appointed by the Speaker of the House shall be members of the House of Representatives. The committee members shall serve from the date of their respective appointments until August 31, 1971. Members of the committee shall serve without compensation but each shall receive reimbursement for actual travel expense when on official business of the committee.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

b. The Governor shall call the first meeting of the committee immediately after a majority of the members have accepted appointment and at that time the members shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman from among their number and adopt procedure rules governing membership and committee conduct. The committee may create advisory committees to perform officially and effectively the duties and responsibilities imposed by this Act. A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum. The committee shall have the responsibility of studying the relationship between the State and local school districts in financing the Minimum Foundation Program. They shall examine the structure of the Economic Index now in operation, ascertaining its weaknesses and its strengths. It shall review the findings of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education and evaluate information available relative to the financing of the Minimum Foundation Program. They shall explore all facets and all possibilities in relation to this problem area and shall recommend to a called session of the Legislature or to the 62nd Legislature convening in 1971 a specific formula or formulae to establish a fair and equitable basis for the division of the financial responsibility between the State and the various local school districts of Texas.

c. There is hereby appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1970, the sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) to pay the expenses of the committee. Any unexpended balance of the original appropriation of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) is hereby re-appropriated to carry out the work of the committee during the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1970.

d. The State Board of Education and the Committee shall coordinate their efforts and the State Board of Education shall cooperate with the Committee and shall furnish professional, technical and clerical staff when deemed necessary to implement the work of the committee. Every State agency, department, and institution and every State, county, and school district official is directed to provide such information as may be requested by the committee and to assist the committee in accomplishing its objective.

e. The committee shall report the results of its studies and make recommendations to the Governor and to each member of the Legislature not later than August 31, 1970. Because of the serious problem which exists in the financing of the Minimum Foundation Program and of apparent inequities in the allocation of funds to be provided by local school districts, the committee is encouraged to complete its work at the earliest possible date so that a solution might be found to be made applicable to the 1970-71 school year.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2735, ch. 889, repealing this Article, enacts the Texas Education Code.

Repealed article authorized quarterly semester pilot programs in public schools, and was derived from Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1827, ch. 706.

Art. 2922—27. Three-semester pilot programs

Section 1. For the purpose of exploring the feasibility of operating three-semester pilot programs, public school districts of this state are hereby authorized to operate (in lieu of the usual nine-month program) a twelve-month school year program and to receive allocation of state aid toward financing the additional three-month operation from the Foundation Program Fund, determined in the manner prescribed in this Act.

Provided, however, that the district shall operate such twelve-month program under its proposed plan submitted to the Central Education Agency, and subject to approval of the Agency as meeting policy and regulations established and adopted by the State Board of Education applicable thereto.

Sec. 2. (a) Three-semester pilot programs, annually approvable under this Act, shall be restricted in number to involve a maximum of 10 programs not to exceed 100,000 pupils, based on average daily attendance in the preceding school year, and the attendance of eligible pupils shall be restricted to two semesters out of the three-semester program.

(b) Provided further, that for purposes only of this pilot program, any child otherwise eligible who becomes 6 years of age after September 1 may be admitted to public school in any following semester beginning after he has reached 6 years of age, and such attendance shall be counted as eligible attendance for allocation purposes of the Foundation School Program Fund.

Sec. 3. The cost of operating such approved three-semester pilot programs shall be borne by the state and each participating district on the same percentage basis that applies to financing the Foundation School Program Act within the respective district.

Sec. 4. For purpose of computing authorized state aid and allocations under this Act, the cost of the program shall be ascertained as follows:

(a) The district's average daily attendance for classroom teacher unit eligibility and allocations shall be determined on a three-semester basis, limiting eligible pupil attendance to two semesters within each scholastic year. Eligibility for special service teachers, supervisors and/or counselors, head teachers, part-time principals, and full-time principals shall be determined by dividing the total aggregate days of attendance in the pilot program by the number of days that instruction is offered during two semesters, determined to the best advantage of the district.

(b) An additional salary adjustment, based on the state minimum salary schedule, shall be added for classroom teacher units occasioned by a twelve-month operation. Provided further that the number of months and salary, based on the state minimum salary schedule, for eligible special service teachers, supervisors and/or counselors, head teachers, part-time principals, and full-time principals shall be allowed for 12 months.

(c) The total current operating costs of each pilot program as herein described, other than professional salaries and transportation, shall be determined by multiplying the number of classroom teacher units and exceptional teacher units times the number of months employed times $67.

(d) An additional transportation allotment shall be added not to exceed the amount of one-third of the transportation allotment as normally computed for a nine-month operation.

Sec. 5. The state's share of the cost shall be paid from the Minimum Foundation Program Fund, and this cost shall be considered by the Foundation Program Committee in estimating the funds needed for Foundation School Program purposes.

CHAPTER THREE—OFFICERS OF ELECTIONArt. 3.01 Appointment of election officers

(a) For county elections. The commissioners court at its July term shall appoint from among the citizens of each election precinct one qualified voter as presiding judge of elections held at the expense of the county in that precinct and one qualified voter as alternate presiding judge, each of whom shall continue to act until his successor is appointed. Whenever a vacancy arises in either of such offices, the commissioners court may fill the vacancy at any regular or special term of court. All orders appointing judges and alternates shall be entered of record. Each presiding judge shall appoint two qualified voters, who are residents of the precinct, to serve as election clerks, and shall appoint for each election as many additional clerks as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election, not to exceed the maximum number authorized by the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed for each precinct, and may fix different maximums depending on the type of election. The clerks shall be selected from different political parties, when practicable. The chairman of the county executive committee of each of the two parties whose candidate for Governor received the most votes for Governor in the last prior general election may submit a list of not less than two qualified nominees who are members of that party to each election judge at least 30 days prior to the date of a general election or 10 days prior to the date of a special election. Art. 3.04 Disqualifications

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided herein, no one who holds an office of profit or trust under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state, or within 30 days after resigning or being dismissed from any such office, except a notary public, or who is a candidate for public office, or who is not a qualified voter, shall act as judge, clerk, or watcher of any election, general, special, or primary. The holding of a nonlucrative office does not disqualify a person to act as a judge, clerk, or watcher in any election other than an election held by a county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of which he is an officer. The holding of a lucrative office, except notary public, disqualifies the holder to act as a clerk or watcher in any election held by a county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of which he is an officer or in a primary election at which nominations for offices of that political subdivision are to be made, but does not disqualify him to serve in any other election. As used in this subdivision, the term 'officer of a county' includes only those officers who serve a county or one of its precincts in its capacity as a political subdivision.

Subdivision 2. The offices referred to in Subdivision 1 of this section do not include offices of a political party, and no one shall be disqualified to act as judge, clerk, or watcher at an election by reason of his holding or being a candidate for the office of county chairman or precinct chairman or other office of a political party.

Subdivision 3. No one shall act as chairman or as member of any district, county, or city executive committee of a political party who is not a qualified voter, or who is a candidate for public office, or who holds any office of profit or trust, either under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state.

Art. 3.08. Pay of judges and clerks

(a) In all elections, general, special, or primary, by whatever authority conducted, the rate of pay for judges and clerks of the election shall be determined by the appropriate authority, but shall not exceed two dollars per hour for each judge or clerk. No judge or clerk shall be paid for more than one hour of work before the polls open. In precincts where voting machines are used, no judge or clerk shall be paid for any period of time subsequent to two hours after the official time for closing the polls or subsequent to two hours after voting is concluded by all voters offering themselves for voting during regular voting hours, whichever is the later. The judge who delivers the returns of election may be paid an amount not to exceed five dollars for that service; provided, also, he shall make returns of ballots, ballot boxes, and election supplies not used when he makes returns of the election.

Subsec. (a) amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1509, ch. 453, § 1, emerg. eff. June 10, 1969.

* * * * *

(c) The compensation of judges and clerks of general and special elections shall be paid by the authority responsible for the expenses of the election, upon presentation of claims for such services approved in the manner required for other claims against its funds. In a joint election, the total pay for the judges and clerks may not exceed the maximum specified in Subsection (a) of this section. However, if the election judge delivers the returns of election and the election supplies to different locations for the different election authorities, he shall be paid by each election authority for each delivery the amount specified in Subsection (a) of this section.

Subsec. (c) amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1564, ch. 473, § 1, emerg. eff. June 10, 1969.

CHAPTER FOUR—ORDERING ELECTIONS

Art. 4.03 Writs of election

Not less than 15 days before any general or special election, the county judge shall mail or deliver a copy of the writ of election to the presiding judge of each election precinct in which the election is ordered to be held, and shall notify him in writing of his duty to hold the election in that precinct and of the location of the polling place and the hours during which the polls shall be kept open.

Amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Art. 4.05 Notice of election

Subdivision 1. The county judge shall cause notice of each general or special election ordered by him or by the commissioners court to be given in at least one of the following manners: (1) by posting a notice of the election in each precinct in which the election is to be held at least 20 days before the election; or (2) by publishing the notice at least one time, not more than 25 days nor less than 10 days before the election, in at least one daily newspaper published in the county (in the political subdivision or territory in which the election is to be held if the election is less than countywide), or if there is no daily newspaper published therein, then in a weekly newspaper published therein; or (3) if there are one or more newspapers published in the county, by issuing the notice in the form of a news release sent to each newspaper published in the county, not more than 25 days nor less than 10 days before the election. In all cases, a copy of the notice shall also be filed with the county clerk and another copy shall be posted on a bulletin board in the office of the county clerk, at least 20 days before the election. As used herein, the term "newspaper" has the meaning defined in Section 1, Chapter 84, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as amended (Article 28a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Subdivision 2. The notice of each general or special election shall state the nature and date of the election, the hours during which the polls will be open, and the location of the polling place or places. A notice given in the first manner listed in Subdivision 1 of this section shall state the location of the polling place in the precinct where the notice is posted; all other notices shall state the location of the polling places in all the precincts in which the election is to be held. The notice of a special election shall also state the office or offices to be filled, or the question or questions to be voted on; provided, however, that in the case of an election on proposed constitutional amendments, publication of which amendments is required by Article XVII, Texas Constitution, the notice required by this section need not state the propositions which are to appear on the ballot.

Subdivision 3. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, where the manner of giving notice for a local option, stock law, bond or tax election, or any other special election is specially provided for by the laws of this state, the notices of election shall be given in compliance with the laws governing each respective election.

Subdivision 4. Where notice is given in the first manner listed in Subdivision 1 of this section, the sheriff or a constable shall post the notice and shall make a return on a copy of the notice, showing how and when he executed the notice. Where notice is given in the second manner, the county judge shall file with the county clerk a copy of the notice as published, together with the name of the newspaper or newspapers and the date or dates of publication. Where notice is given in the third manner, the county judge shall file with the county clerk a copy of the news release together with a list of the newspapers to which it was sent and the date of mailing.

Property shall be deemed to have been duly rendered for taxation, for the purpose of determining eligibility to vote in an election as provided in this code and in Article VI, Section 3a, of the Texas Constitution, only if the property was rendered to the county, city, district, or other political subdivision holding the election within the period of time fixed by law for such rendition, or was placed on the tax rolls by the tax assessor prior to the date on which the election was ordered, if the regular rendition period expired before that date.

Art. 5.04 Affidavit of voter in bond election, etc.

(a) Before any person is allowed to vote in an election for the purpose of issuing bonds or otherwise lending credit, or expending money or assuming any debt, he shall sign and swear to an affidavit to the effect that he owns property, giving a description of one item, which has been duly rendered for taxation to the political subdivision holding the election at a time and in a manner which entitles him to vote in the election, as provided in Section 35 (Article 5.03) of this code. The voter's registration certificate number shall be shown on the affidavit, and it shall contain a statement that the affiant understands that the giving of false information in the affidavit is a felony punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000 or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) The secretary of state shall prescribe the form of the affidavit, and may prescribe instructions to accompany the affidavit. A form for multiple signatures of voters may be used for voting at regular polling places and for absentee voting by personal appearance where the absentee ballots are cast on a voting machine or are counted by a special canvassing board.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Each person voting an absentee ballot by mail or voting by personal appearance in elections where the ballots are to be sent to regular polling places for counting shall be furnished an individual affidavit form, which shall be signed and sworn to at the time the voter marks his ballot. After the voter seals the ballot envelope, he shall place the affidavit into the carrier envelope along with the ballot envelope and the ballot stub. The election officers shall ascertain that the affidavit is properly executed before opening the ballot envelope, and if it is not properly executed, the ballot shall be rejected.

Voters voting at regular polling places or voting absentee by personal appearance shall swear to the affidavit before an officer of the election, and all clerks and deputy clerks for absentee voting and all election judges and clerks at regular polling places shall have authority to administer the oath required of the voter.

Art. 5.05 Absentee voting

Subdivision 1. Who may vote absentee. Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who because of sickness, physical disability, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place in the election precinct of his residence on the day of the election, may nevertheless cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting. If a voter's religious belief prohibits him from voting during any part of the time during which the polls are open on the day of the election, he shall nevertheless be entitled to vote absentee even though the prohibition does not operate throughout the entire time that the polls are open.

Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods: (1) voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, and (2) voting by mail. All voters coming within the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office if they are able to make such appearance within the period for absentee voting. The following persons, and no other, may vote by mail:

(i) Qualified voters who because of sickness or physical disability, or because of religious beliefs, cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing it to him, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The voter shall state in his application the address to which the ballot is to be mailed to him, which must be either his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living. If the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any address other than one of the foregoing, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(ii) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he expects to be absent from the county of his residence on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him. Applications made under this paragraph may be mailed either from within or without the county of the voter's residence, but in every case the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk is postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iii) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expect to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he is absent from the county at the time of making the application and expects to be absent on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The clerk shall not mail a ballot to any such voter unless the envelope in which the application received is postmarked from a point outside the county, and the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the envelope in which the application is received and the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk are each postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail shall state the applicant's permanent address and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed to the applicant, and shall also state the address to which his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate is to be mailed back to him.

Subd. 1 amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 202, ch. 82, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Subdivision 2. Application for ballot. A voter desiring to vote absentee shall make written application for an official ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence, which application shall be signed by the voter, or by a witness at the direction of the voter in the case of the latter's inability to make such application because of physical disability. The application shall state the ground on which the applicant is entitled to vote absentee, and in case of an application by mail, it shall also state the additional information required by Subdivision 1 of this section. In case of an application to vote absentee by personal appearance, except where the voted ballot is to be placed in a carrier envelope, the application shall contain or have attached thereto an affidavit signed by the applicant, in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. _____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the _____ day of _____, 19____, and that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of the election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, expected absence from county, or religious belief).

(Signature of Voter)

By: _____
(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

The application shall be accompanied by the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate of the voter, or in lieu thereof, his affidavit in writing that same has been lost or mislaid or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place on election day, a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability shall accompany the application, which certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of _____, and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

Witness my hand at _____, Texas, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(Signature of Practitioner)

Expected or likely confinement for childbirth on election day shall be sufficient to entitle a voter to vote absentee on the ground of sickness or physical disability, and a physician executing a certificate for a pregnant woman may state in the certificate that because of pregnancy and possible delivery she will be or may be unable to appear at the polling place on election day.

Any person who requests a physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner to execute a certificate for another person without having been directed by such other person to do so, and any physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner who knowingly executes a certificate except upon the request of the voter named therein or upon request of someone at the voter's direction, or who knowingly delivers a certificate except by delivering it to the voter in person or by mailing it to the voter at his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living, or who knowingly falsifies a certificate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned.

Subd. 2 amended by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 202, ch. 82, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Subdivision 2a. Absentee voting by members of the armed forces, etc. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of Subdivision 1 or Subdivision 2 of this section, any qualified voter within any of the following categories shall be entitled to vote absentee by mail upon making a sworn application by mail for an absentee ballot on an official federal post card application for absentee ballot, and no further statement of his eligibility to vote absentee by mail shall be required of him, provided the application is mailed from outside the county and the ballot is to be mailed to an official address outside the county:

(1) a member of the armed forces of the United States while in the active service, his spouse and dependents;

(2) a member of the merchant marine of the United States, his spouse and dependents; and

(3) a citizen of the United States domiciled in this state but temporarily living outside the territorial limits of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) Application for an absentee ballot made on a federal post card application form by a voter coming within either of the categories listed in Paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not be subject to the provisions of Paragraph (ii) of Subdivision 1 of this section which requires that the application be made not more than 60 days before the day of the election; and an application received at any time within either the calendar year or the voting year during which the election is held shall be accepted. The voter may apply on one application form for a ballot for more than one election. Every application for a primary election ballot shall be treated as an application for both the first primary election and the second primary election of the political party indicated on the application. If the application does not indicate the election or elections for which application is made, the clerk shall treat it as an application for each general election for which he will conduct the absentee voting during that calendar year, and in the case of an application made to a county clerk, he shall also treat it as an application for both the first and the second primary election of the political party indicated if a party preference is indicated on the application.

(c) The applicant need not be registered as a voter, and, if registered, he need not accompany his application with his voter registration certificate or an affidavit of its loss. Before mailing a ballot in response to an application, the clerk shall ascertain whether the applicant's name is listed on the current list of registered voters for the precinct of his residence, and if it is not so listed, the application shall also be treated as an application for registration for all elections for which the applicant is applying for an absentee ballot.

(d) If the applicant is not currently registered through the registrar of voters, the clerk shall examine the information on the federal post card application, and if it shows that the applicant possesses the qualifications for voting at that election in the precinct of his residence, the clerk shall enter his name on a list headed "Absentee voters registering by FPCA for the _____ election held on _____" and shall also enter thereon the voter's local permanent address and election precinct number, the address to which the ballot is mailed, and the date on which it is mailed. The list shall be made up in duplicate and shall be kept up from day to day. One copy shall be posted in the clerk's office, which shall serve to fulfill the requirement of Subdivision 11 of this section. After the election is held, this copy shall be filed as a record of the clerk's office if the clerk conducting the absentee voting is a county clerk or a city secretary or city clerk, and as a record of the authority which appointed the clerk for absentee voting in other instances, to be preserved for a period of two years, after which it may be destroyed. The other copy shall be placed with the records of the election which are delivered into the custody of the officer designated in Paragraph (a) (2) of Section 111b of this code,¹ to be subject to the same regulations as those records.

(e) The clerk shall mail a ballot and the other balloting supplies to each voter in an envelope endorsed "Official Election Balloting Material—via Air Mail" or similar language, with the words "Free of U. S. Postage, Including Air Mail" printed in a box in the upper right corner of the envelope, in conformity with the specifications contained in the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955, as amended.² The carrier envelope included in the balloting supplies mailed to the voter shall be similarly endorsed. The secretary of state shall prescribe forms and furnish instructions for the preparation of envelopes to comply with these provisions.

² 50 U.S.C.A. § 1451 et seq.

(f) The names of regularly registered voters who apply for absentee ballots on federal post card application forms shall be included on the lists of absentee voters which the clerk sends to the presiding judges of the election, but the names of absentee voters who register under this subdivision shall not be sent to the presiding judges.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(g) Oaths and affirmations required for application for and the voting and returning of absentee ballots by voters using the federal post card application forms may be administered and attested by any commissioned officer in the active service of the armed forces or by any civilian official empowered by state or federal law to administer oaths.

(h) Words and phrases used in this subdivision shall be construed to have meanings in harmony with the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955, as amended.

Subdivision 3b. Voting by personal appearance in election less than county-wide. In an election less than county-wide in which absentee paper ballots are to be sent to the regular polling places for counting, upon receipt of an application of an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, the clerk shall thereupon furnish to the voter the following absentee voting supplies:

(1) One official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election.

(2) One ballot envelope, which shall be a plain envelope, without any markings except the words "Ballot Envelope" printed on the face thereof, followed by the instructions contained in this subdivision and Subdivision 4 for marking the ballot, for placing it in the carrier envelope, and for returning a ballot to be voted by mail, together with a statement of the deadline for placing the ballot in the mail and for delivery to the clerk's office in that election.

(3) One carrier envelope, upon the face of which there shall appear the words "Carrier Envelope for Absentee Ballot" and the name, official title, and post-office address of the county clerk, and upon the other side a printed affidavit in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. _____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the _____ day of _____, 19____; that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of such election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, expected absence from county, or religious belief); that the enclosed ballot expresses my wishes, independent of any dictation or undue persuasion of any person; and that I did not use any memorandum or device to aid me in the marking of said ballot.

(Signature of voter)

By: _____
(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark the ballot in the presence of the clerk, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign and swear to the affidavit on the carrier envelope, and deliver the carrier envelope to the clerk, who shall certify to the affidavit. The clerk shall, when requested, also take any other affidavits for a voter which are required by this Code, for which service no fee shall be charged. The clerk shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that he has voted absentee in the election, shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall return the receipt or certificate to the voter.

Subdivision 4d. Voting upon return to county after applying for absentee ballot by mail. If a voter to whom an absentee ballot has been mailed returns to the county of his residence before receiving or returning the ballot and will be present in the county on the day of the election, he may vote on election day at the regular polling place in the precinct of his residence after notifying the clerk in writing to void his application for an absentee ballot. Upon receiving the notification, the clerk shall remove his name from the list of absentee voters. If the voter will not be present in the county on the day of the election, he may vote an absentee ballot by personal appearance in the clerk's office at any time during the period for absentee voting by personal appearance after notifying the clerk to void his application for an absentee ballot by mail. The clerk shall make the necessary notations on his records to insure that the absentee ballot mailed to the voter will not be counted if it is returned to his office.

Subd. 4d added by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 10, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.

Subdivision 4e. Period for mailing ballot to voter outside the United States, etc. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivision 4 of this section, the clerk shall mail a ballot to an absentee voter as soon as possible after the ballots become available, but not earlier than 30 days before the election, if the ballot is to be mailed to one of the following: (1) an address outside the United States; (2) an address in the United States for forwarding to the voter at a location outside the United States; (3) an Army Post Office (APO) or a Fleet Post Office (FPO) address; or (4) an address in the United States for delivery or forwarding to a member of the merchant marine. If, after an absentee ballot is mailed to a voter, any change is made in the official ballot due to the death of a candidate or for any other reason except to correct an error, the clerk shall not mail another ballot to the voter, and the votes cast for that office on ballots mailed before the change is made shall not be counted.

Art. 5.05c Voting by persons having less than six months' residence in county Subdivision 1. Persons eligible to vote. A person who is a qualified elector as defined in Section 34 of this code ¹ except for the requirement of six months' residence in the county immediately preceding the election shall nevertheless be entitled to vote on all offices, questions or propositions to be voted on by electors throughout the state, including electors for President and Vice President of the United States, for which the person would be eligible to vote if he fulfilled the county residence requirement. A person having less than six months' residence in the county, if otherwise eligible, shall be entitled to vote for any district office or at any other election of a district composed of territory situated in more than one county if he has resided in the district for the last six months preceding the election. Where a district consists of only a part of one county or where a part of a county is joined with territory situated in another county or counties to form a district, a person who has resided in the county for the last six months and is a resident of the district on the date of the election fulfills the local residence requirement for voting in a district election.

Subdivision 2. Registration; transfer of registration. No person shall be eligible to vote under this section unless he is registered as a voter under the general voter registration laws of this state for the year in which the election is held or is eligible to vote under the special registration provisions applicable to persons entitled to use the federal post card application for absentee ballot. A voter who has changed the county of his residence since receiving his registration certificate need not comply with the provisions of this code on transfer of registration before being permitted to vote.

Subdivision 3. Application for limited ballot; procedure for voting. A person having less than six months' residence in the county who is entitled to vote a limited ballot as stated in Subdivision 1 of this section shall be permitted to vote upon making a written, signed application for a limited ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence at the time of the election, upon an official application form to be prescribed by the Secretary of State and furnished by the county clerk. The procedure for voting a limited ballot shall be similar to the procedure for absentee voting. If the voter meets the requirements of Section 37 of this code¹ for voting an absentee ballot by mail, he shall be permitted to vote the limited ballot by mail under the procedure for absentee voting by mail upon submitting both an application for a limited ballot and an application for an absentee ballot. Otherwise, he shall vote by personal appearance during the period for absentee voting by personal appearance and under the procedure for voting by personal appearance in countywide elections insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. Ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the absentee ballots.

Subdivision 4. Ballot form. When paper ballots are used, the voter shall be furnished a regular official ballot for the election, from which all offices and propositions on which the voter is not entitled to vote have been stricken; and when a voting machine is used, all offices and propositions on which the voter is not entitled to vote shall be locked out before the voter is permitted to cast his ballot. When absentee voting by personal appearance is being conducted on a voting machine, the clerk may permit persons voting under this section by personal appearance to cast their ballots on the voting machine or he may furnish them with paper ballots, at his option.

Subdivision 5. Record of district offices voted on. The Secretary of State shall furnish to each county clerk the necessary information on the composition of the various districts to enable the clerk to determine whether a person entitled to vote a limited ballot for statewide offices is also entitled to vote for any district offices. The clerk shall note on each voter's application a list of all district offices for which he is permitted to vote.

Art. 5.12b Registration by persons in military service or recently discharged therefrom, etc.

In addition to registering during the regular registration period prescribed by Section 43a of this Code,¹ any person who, at the time of applying for registration, comes within a category of persons eligible to vote by absentee ballot without regular registration through use of the federal post card application for absentee ballot, as provided in Subdivision 2a of Section 37 of this code,² or who came within such a category at any time on or after January 1 preceding the beginning of the voting year for which he is applying, may register at any time after the close of the regular registration period and before the end of the voting year. Each person applying for registration under this section shall submit a written, signed statement of the necessary information to show that he is entitled to register hereunder, and the statement shall be filed and preserved in the same manner as other applications for registration. The registration shall become effective for voting on the fifth day following issuance of the registration certificate if the registrant is otherwise qualified to vote on that date.

Art. 5.13a Mode of applying for registration

(1) A person may apply for registration in person or by mail as provided herein. Each applicant must submit a written application which supplies all the information required by Section 45b of this code.¹ For the voting year 1970, the application may be made on any form which supplies all the information which an applicant is required to furnish by the provisions of this code as amended by the 61st Legislature, regardless of whether such information is supplied in the manner specified by such amendment or in the manner specified by the provisions of this code prior to such amendment, but a registrar shall not refuse to accept any application which contains sufficient information to enable him to determine that the applicant is eligible to register. For the voting year 1971 and thereafter, the application must be made on a form prescribed by the secretary of state. The secretary of state may prescribe one form or forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing voter registration certificates and a different form for use in counties not using electronic data processing methods, but the registrar in each county must accept any application made upon any form prescribed by the secretary of state which supplies all the necessary information for registration. In addition to other requirements, the application form shall contain the following statement: "I understand the giving of false information to procure the registration of a voter is a felony." The application shall be signed by the applicant or his agent. However, if the person making the application is unable to sign his name either because of physical disability or illiteracy, he shall affix his mark, if able to do so, which shall be attested by a witness, whose signature and address must be shown on the application. The registrar shall file and preserve all applications for a period of two years.

When a properly executed application is received by the registrar, he shall make out a registration certificate and shall either deliver the original certificate to the voter or his agent in person or shall mail it to the voter at his permanent address; or if the voter is temporarily living outside the county and requests that the certificate be mailed to the temporary address, the registrar shall mail it to the temporary address. When application is made in person, the registrar may make out and deliver the certificate immediately or he may defer preparation of the certificate until a later time, to be mailed to the voter or held for delivery in person if the applicant so directs. A certificate which is to be mailed to the voter must be mailed in time to be received before the date on which it becomes effective for voting.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

An application by mail shall be deemed to have been received by the registrar within the period for registration if it is placed in the mail on or before the last day of the registration period, as shown by the postmark, or is delivered to the registrar before the end of the first business day following the close of the registration period. Within the meaning of this section, the application is delivered when it is actually placed into the possession of the registrar or his duly authorized agent by a post-office employee, or is deposited into the registrar's mail box, or is left at the usual place of delivery for the registrar's official mail.

(2) The husband, wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a person entitled to register may act as agent for such person in applying for registration, without the necessity of written authorization therefor, may sign for the applicant, and may receive the registration certificate. However, none of the above may act as agent unless he is a qualified elector of the county. No person other than those mentioned in this subsection may act as agent for a person in applying for registration.

Except as herein permitted, a person who wilfully acts as agent for another in applying for registration or in obtaining a registration certificate is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

Amendment of Section 45a [article 5.13a] by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 40, was conditioned upon enactment of Senate Bill No. 228 of 61st Legislature which was vetoed.

Art. 5.13b. Information required on application

An application for a voter registration certificate shall show the following information:

1. The applicant's name, sex, and post-office address (or if living in an incorporated city or town, his street address).

2. A statement of the applicant's age. If the applicant has not attained the minimum age for voting, the application shall show his date of birth by month, day and year. If the applicant has already attained the minimum age for voting, it shall be sufficient for the applicant to state that he is over the minimum voting age. In lieu of showing the applicant's age in terms of a number of years, age may be shown by stating the date of birth; and in case that form of statement is called for on the application, it shall be sufficient for an applicant who has attained the minimum voting age to state the year of his birth without giving the month and day, or to state that he was born prior to a certain year which shows him to be over the minimum age for voting.

3. A statement that the applicant has resided in the state more than one year, in the county more than six months, and in the city or town (if a resident of an incorporated city or town) more than six months immediately preceding the date of application; or if not a resident for such length of time, a statement of the date on which he became a resident of the state, county, or city, as the case may be.

4. A statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States.

5. If the application is made by an agent, a statement of the agent's relationship to the applicant.

The application form shall contain a space for showing the address to which the certificate is to be mailed, if it is to be mailed to a temporary address. It shall also contain a space for showing the election precinct in which the applicant resides, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list the number or name of the precinct or for listing an incorrect number or name where the applicant's correct address is given. It may also contain a space for the applicant's Social Security number, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list the number.

Art. 5.15a Information required on certificate

Each certificate shall show the voter's name, age, address, and election precinct number. If the registrant will not become eligible to vote until a date subsequent to the first day of the voting year for which the certificate is issued, or subsequent to the date of issuance, whichever is later, the certificate shall show the date on which he will become eligible to vote (the date on which he will attain minimum voting age, will fulfill residence requirements, or will satisfy the waiting period following registration, whichever is applicable). Art. 5.18a Removal to another county or election precinct

(1) If a voter, after receiving his registration certificate, removes to another county or to another election precinct in the same county, he may vote in the precinct of his new residence by presenting to the judge of election his registration certificate or his affidavit of its loss, stating in such affidavit where he received the certificate, and by making oath that he is the identical person described in the certificate and that he then resides in the precinct where he offers to vote and has resided for the last six months in the county in which he offers to vote and 12 months in the state. But no such person shall be permitted to vote in a city of 10,000 inhabitants or more unless he complies with the following procedure: not less than four days prior to any election at which he wishes to vote, he shall present his registration certificate to the registrar of the county of his residence, or shall make affidavit of its loss, stating in such affidavit where he received the certificate, and shall on oath state in which election precinct he then resides and that he has resided in the state for the last 12 months and in the county for the last six months. The registrar shall thereupon add his name to the list of registered voters of the precinct of his new residence, and unless such voter has complied with this procedure and his name appears on the list of registered voters of the precinct of his new residence, he shall not vote.

(2) A person who has removed from one county to another less than six months before an election may vote a limited ballot under the procedures outlined in Section 37c of this code,¹ if he is otherwise a qualified elector at the election. Art. 5.19a List of registered voters

(1) Before the first day of March each year, the registrar of voters shall prepare from the duplicate registration certificates on file in his office a certified list of registered voters for each election precinct of the county, arranged alphabetically by the names of the voters and showing each voter's name, age, address, and registration number. If the registrant will not become eligible to vote until a date subsequent to the first day of the voting year for which the certificate is issued, or subsequent to the date on which his name is placed on the list of registered voters, whichever is later, the date on which he will become eligible to vote shall be noted on the list of registered voters. The registrar shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county prior to the first day of March of the following year, one set of such lists for all precincts in the county if any election which may be held by such authority is countywide, and one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the particular political subdivision if all elections which may be held by such authority are less than countywide. The registrar shall also furnish to each such authority, not less than four days prior to each election held by it, certified supplemental lists in the same form hereinabove prescribed of registered voters in each precinct whose names do not appear on the original list for such precinct, together with lists of the names of all persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct since preparation of the original lists. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies. CHAPTER SEVEN—ARRANGEMENT AND EXPENSES OF ELECTION

Art. 7.06 Ballot boxes

All ballot boxes shall be securely made of a material and construction and in a design approved by the secretary of state. All ballot boxes shall be provided with a lock and key and shall have an opening at the top just large enough to receive a ballot when voted. Whenever the ballots shall have been counted at any election, general, special or primary, the counted ballots shall be locked in one of the ballot boxes of suitable size and delivered to the proper official and the key or keys to the said lock shall be delivered to the proper official to be kept for at least thirty days unless sooner needed for recount or contest as provided by law.

Art. 7.14 Providing for voting machines

* * * * *

Sec. 8. Form of ballots on voting machines. All ballots shall be printed in black ink on white clear material, of such size as will fit in the ballot frame, and in as plain, clear type as the space will reasonably permit. In all elections, general, special, or primary, a designating letter and number may be affixed to the name of each candidate. In general elections, the party name may be affixed to the name of each candidate, and the names of all candidates of one political party shall be so arranged that a voter may be able to cast his ballot for such candidates as he may desire or to cast one ballot for all the candidates of that political party. In primary elections, however, the ballot shall be so arranged and the lever so locked as to prevent the voting of straight tickets. Should there be so many candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election as to exceed the capacity of one machine, more than one machine shall be provided for each polling place, but in all cases where more than one machine is necessary to list the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on one machine. In lieu of using an additional machine for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be placed in a separate column headed "Uncontested Races," with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one at which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word 'Independent' if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate's name; and all such uncontested races shall be voted on as a block, and the requirement of this section that the ballot in general elections be so arranged that the voter may be able to vote a straight ticket for all candidates of one political party shall not apply to candidates appearing in the uncontested column. However, in no election may the ballot be so arranged that a voter is able to vote as a block on propositions.

If the authorities charged with holding the election determine, in their discretion, that more than one voting machine is necessary to accommodate the number of voters voting in an election precinct, then as many voting machines shall be used for each precinct as such authorities deem necessary, and the same form of ballot containing the names of all candidates and/or propositions arranged in the same manner shall be provided for each machine.

Sec. 19a. Payment for recheck and comparison. A request for a recheck of voting machines used in an election shall be accompanied with a deposit of $3 for each precinct to be rechecked. If the request is made by a person or persons other than a candidate at the election, it shall state what interest they represent. If the recheck results in a change in the outcome of the election favorable to the person or persons making the request, the amount of the deposit shall be refunded to the payor; otherwise, it shall be applied to the payment of any expenses incident to the recheck, and any amount remaining after payment of expenses shall be turned over to the county treasurer for deposit in the general fund of the county.

Subdivision 5. Adoption by commissioners court.

(d) Whenever a municipality or other political subdivision is situated in more than one county, any election held by such political subdivision may be conducted by use of any authorized method of voting which has been adopted by the commissioners court of either such county for use in precincts lying within such political subdivision, regardless of whether that method had been adopted in the other county or counties in which the political subdivision is situated. The governing body of the municipality or other political subdivision shall make the determination as to the method to be used.

Subdivision 10a. Watchers at central counting station. Watchers may be appointed to observe activities at the central counting station in the same manner as watchers are appointed to serve at regular polling places. The watchers need not be present at the time the central counting station opens, and they may begin service at any time they desire. If the counting of ballots is begun before the official time for closing the polls, any watcher who is on duty after the counting is begun shall remain on duty until the time for closing the polls except for such periods of absence as permitted by the presiding judge of the central counting station. With this exception, a watcher may leave the central counting station and may resume his service at any time until the election officers have completed their duties. A watcher appointed for a regular polling place may also be appointed to serve at the central counting station after the official time for closing the polls. This subdivision does not affect the right of watchers from the polling places to accompany the election officials to the central counting station, as provided in Subdivision 19 of this section.

Subdivision 11a. Preparation of ballot and program. The ballots to be used at an election shall be prepared and procured under the same regulations as ordinary paper ballots, except that the officer making up the ballot shall confer with the programmer for that election before ordering the ballots printed, to make sure that the ballot is properly prepared for counting by means of the electronic tabulating equipment which will be used.

The authority charged with the duty to provide ballots shall select a competent person to prepare the program for the electronic tabulating equipment. The programmer may be one of the persons appointed or approved by the commissioners court under Paragraph (b), Subdivision 20 of this section or some other person, but if the program is prepared by anyone other than the tabulation supervisor, it must be submitted to the tabulation supervisor for his approval at least three days before the election.

Subdivision 19. Procedure after polls are closed. (a) As soon as the polls are closed and the last ballot has been deposited in the ballot box, the election officers shall immediately secure or inactivate all voting equipment in the polling place so that no equipment may be used or operated by any unauthorized person. They shall then remove from the ballot box all voted ballots not theretofore removed in accordance with Subdivision 18 of this section. They shall examine the ballots for write-in votes and count the votes cast for candidates whose names have been written in; provided, however, that if the voting system is such that write-in votes can be detected and segregated by the tabulating equipment, the counting of write-in votes may be done at the central counting station. Before any write-in vote is counted, the election officers shall examine the ballot to ascertain whether the write-in vote is valid, and count it only if it is found to be valid. A notation shall be made on the invalid portion of a ballot and it shall be segregated from other ballots and placed in the container provided for that purpose. Write-in votes shall be added to the results of the count of the ballots at the central counting station and be included in the official returns for the precinct. If the ballot consists of more than one part, the precinct election officials, after checking for write-in votes, shall then sort the ballots according to types or parts.

(b) All ballots not voted shall be handled in the manner provided in Section 100 of this code.¹ The presiding judge shall make out and sign a statement accounting for all ballots delivered to him, as provided in Section 100.

(c) The authority holding the election shall provide ballot containers made of metal, wood, or some other material approved by the secretary of state, with numbered metal seals, for use in delivering voted ballots from the polling place to the central counting station. A record of the serial numbers of the seal shall be preserved, and a copy of such records shall be furnished the central counting station. All voted ballots which are to be counted by automatic tabulating equipment shall be placed in a ballot container at the polling place for delivery to the central counting station. The poll lists and tally sheets for write-in votes shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and placed in the container with the voted ballots. Before sealing the ballot container, the election judge shall execute a certificate in triplicate recording the number of ballots placed in the container and the serial number of the seal. The certificate shall also be signed by an election clerk as witness and by at least two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The original of the certificate shall be placed in the container with the ballots, and the container shall then be sealed so that no additional ballots may be deposited and no ballots may be removed without breaking the seal. One copy of the certificate shall be immediately mailed to the authority holding the election in a pre-addressed stamped envelope at the nearest post office or postbox by an election officer other than those who deliver the ballot container to the counting station. The other copy of the certificate shall be retained with the election records at the polling place.

(d) After the ballot container is sealed, two authorized election officers shall immediately deliver the ballot container to the central counting station, and watchers shall have the privilege of accompanying them. They shall deliver the container to the presiding judge of the central counting station or his designated representative, who shall give them signed receipts for the container, in a form specified by the secretary of state. The container shall be opened only by the presiding judge of the central counting station or his designated representative, who shall inspect the container and the seal and shall verify the serial number on the seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the authority holding the election and with the original certificate enclosed in the container. Any irregularities shall be reported to the presiding judge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. After the container has been opened and the ballots removed, the original certificate and the broken seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station.

(e) As an alternative to the procedure provided above, the authority holding the election may in its discretion provide prelocked and presealed ballot boxes for use in designated precincts and require that ballot boxes be delivered to the central counting station in their locked and sealed condition and that the processing of voted ballots required to be performed at the polling place by the above provisions be performed at the central counting station. In that event, the authority holding the election shall provide an adequate number of ballot boxes for each polling place, which shall be locked and sealed prior to delivery. Each ballot box shall be locked in such a way that it may not be opened except with a key of which only the election authority has possession and sealed with a numbered metal seal in such a way that the ballot box may not be opened without breaking the seal. A record of the serial numbers of the seals shall be preserved, and a copy of such record and the keys to the ballot box locks shall be furnished the central counting station. Upon completion of the voting at the polling place, or whenever a ballot box has been inactivated, the ballot box slot through which ballots are inserted shall be closed with a paper seal signed by the election judge, an election clerk, and two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The ballot box containing the voted ballots shall then be delivered to the central counting station by the election officers in its locked and sealed condition under the same security measures as are provided in Paragraph (d) above for ballot containers. All procedures provided above to be performed at the polling place other than the processing of voted ballots shall be performed by the election officers at the polling place, and copies of all poll lists and reports shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and inserted in the final ballot box to be delivered to the central counting station before the ballot box slot is sealed. The ballot box shall be opened at the central counting station only by the presiding judge of the counting station or his designated representative, who shall inspect the ballot box, the metal seal and the paper seal and shall verify the serial number on the metal seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the election authority. Any irregularities shall be reported to the presiding judge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. The presiding judge or his authorized representative shall give the two election officers who deliver the ballot box receipts in a form specified by the secretary of state. The broken metal and paper seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station. After the ballot box has been opened, the voted ballots shall be processed in the manner provided in Paragraph (a) above by authorized central counting station election officers. In the event the election authority permits early processing of ballots at the central counting station as provided in Subdivision 18, emptied ballot boxes may be relocked and resealed at the central counting station by representatives of the election authority for further use at polling places.

(f) After the election officers at the polling place have delivered all ballots to the central counting station, the stub box, the ballot label assemblies, and all other election supplies and records, including all duplicate certificates and unused seals, shall be delivered to the proper authority designated by law to receive them.

Subdivision 20. Procedure at central counting station.

(a) The commissioners court shall establish one or more central counting stations to receive and tabulate voted ballots. The commissioners court shall appoint a competent person with experience in the conduct of an election under the system in use (herein called the manager of the central counting station), who shall be in charge of the overall processing of the ballots at the central counting station. He shall be responsible for setting up a plan for the orderly performance of the various duties required at the counting station and for making the necessary arrangements for the orderly handling of the ballots and other records after they are delivered to the counting station. Except as provided in Paragraph (e) of this subdivision, he shall assign the specific duties to be performed by the clerks employed at the counting station, and shall be responsible for the proper instruction of the clerks in the performance of their duties.

(b) The commissioners court shall appoint a competent person trained in the operation of the electronic tabulating equipment to be used (herein called the tabulation supervisor), who shall be in charge of the operation of the electronic equipment. The tabulation supervisor shall select the necessary personnel to assist him in the operation of the electronic equipment, and all persons selected by him shall be subject to the approval of the commissioners court as an assurance that they will possess the necessary competence, training, and experience to perform their duties satisfactorily. No person except one selected and appointed in accordance with these provisions shall operate any of the electronic equipment or handle the ballots from the time they have been turned over to the tabulation supervisor for counting until the counting is completed.

(c) The service of the trained personnel provided for in Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision is deemed essential to the successful operation of an electronic voting system, and the personnel provided for therein shall be employed in every election in which the system is used, by whatever authority conducted. The commissioners court shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid to them. The manager of the counting station must be a resident qualified voter of the county, except that during the first year after adoption of a system in a county, a non-resident may be appointed. Persons employed to operate the electronic equipment need not be residents or qualified voters of the county. Officers and employees of the county are eligible for appointment under both Paragraphs (a) and (b), and may be paid additional compensation for their services. Except as provided herein, persons employed under these two paragraphs are not subject to the qualifications and disqualifications for election judges and clerks as stated in Sections 17 and 18 of this code.¹

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) The board or body having authority to name the presiding judges for the election shall appoint a presiding judge for the central counting station, who shall be a qualified voter of the county if the election is countywide, and of the political subdivision in which the election is held if it is less than countywide. In other respects he shall be subject to the same qualifications and disqualifications as the other presiding judges of the election. He shall perform the duties imposed on him by Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. He may be present at any time and at any place within the counting station and may make suggestions to and counsel with the manager and tabulation supervisor concerning any and all phases of the election. He shall possess the power given to a presiding judge by Section 87 of this code and shall be responsible for maintaining order at the counting station. He shall also supervise the service of the watchers, if any, and shall supervise the absences of all central counting station personnel, under the rules applicable to election clerks at regular polling places as stated in Section 16 of this code, between the time that actual counting of the ballots is begun and the time for official closing of the polls if counting is begun before the polls are closed. He shall be paid at the same rate and in the same manner as the other presiding judges of that election, except that he shall be entitled to a minimum of $10 regardless of the number of hours worked.

(e) The manager and presiding judge of the central counting station shall appoint the clerks to serve at the counting station. The presiding judge may designate one or more clerks of his selection to assist in receiving the ballots and other records from the polling places and in performing the duties imposed on him after the ballots are counted. The manager shall select the clerks to assist in preparing the ballots for counting. Each clerk shall be a resident of the county but need not be a resident of the political subdivision holding the election if it is less than countywide. In other respects the clerks shall be subject to the same qualifications and disqualifications as the clerks serving at the polling places for the election and they shall be compensated under the same regulations as the other clerks; provided, however, that each clerk who serves for the full time that the counting station is in operation shall be entitled to a minimum of three hours' pay regardless of the number of hours worked.

(f) Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the authority in charge of holding the election shall have the automatic tabulating equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Public notice of the time and place of the test shall be given at least 48 hours prior thereto by publication once in one or more daily or weekly newspapers published in the county, city or other political subdivision where such equipment is used, if a newspaper is published therein, otherwise in a newspaper of general circulation therein. The test shall be conducted by processing a pre-audited group of ballots marked or punched so as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the automatic tabulating equipment to reject such votes. The programmer, the tabulation supervisor, and the manager and presiding judge of the counting station shall be jointly responsible for preparing the test materials. In such test a different number of valid votes shall be assigned to each candidate for an office, and for and against each measure. If any error is detected, the cause therefor shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the presiding judge of the counting station before the count of the official ballots is started. The tabulating equipment shall pass the same test at the conclusion of the count before the election returns are approved as official. On completion of the test count made before the start of the count of the ballots, the test materials shall be sealed in a suitable container, using a paper seal signed by the tabulation supervisor, the manager, and the presiding judge of the counting station, and by at least two watchers of opposed interests if such are present at the test. The presiding judge shall have custody of the materials until the test is made at the conclusion of the count. On completion of that test count, the programs and test materials shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

(g) The ballots for the various election precincts shall be separately tabulated by precincts. The ballots for a precinct shall be removed from their containers and prepared for processing by the automatic tabulating equipment. They shall be checked to ascertain that they are properly grouped and arranged so that all similar ballots from the precinct are together.

(h) The valid portion of a ballot which has been invalidated in part by the election officers as provided in Subdivision 19 of this section may be duplicated in the presence of watchers and substituted for the partially invalidated ballot, which shall be preserved, or such partially invalidated ballots may be counted manually.

(i) If it appears that a ballot cannot be counted by the automatic tabulating equipment, it may be counted manually or the manager of the counting station may cause a duplicate ballot to be made in the presence of the watchers and substituted for the original ballot, which shall be preserved. Each duplicate ballot prepared under either this paragraph or the preceding paragraph shall be clearly labeled with the word 'Duplicate' and shall bear a serial number, which shall also be recorded on the original ballot.

(j) The manager shall be in charge of preparing the ballots for counting, and ballots shall not be turned over to the tabulation supervisor for counting until the manager or his designated representative has approved them as ready for counting.

(k) Upon completion of the count for each precinct, the presiding judge of the counting station shall add to the results as so determined the results of the write-in votes as counted and tallied by the precinct election officers and shall thereupon make a written return of the election in the number of copies required for elections where paper ballots are used. The ballots, together with one copy of the returns, the poll list, and the tally list for write-in votes, shall be placed in a box made of metal, wood, or some other material approved by the secretary of state, which shall be securely locked. The voted ballots and all records of the election shall be delivered to the proper authorities as provided for election precincts where paper ballots are used. The presiding judge shall be responsible for the performance of the duties imposed by this paragraph.

(l) If for any reason it becomes impracticable to count all or a part of the ballots or ballot cards with tabulating equipment, the authority holding the election may direct that they be counted manually, following as far as practicable the provisions governing the counting of paper ballots.

(m) If the automatic tabulating equipment used with any electronic voting system produces a printed record of the votes tabulated by such equipment, such printed record to which have been added the write-in and absentee votes shall, after being duly certified, constitute the official return for that precinct.

Subdivision 23. Post-election examination of program and other materials; recount. At the time of making the official canvass, where an electronic voting system is used, upon the written request of any candidate whose name appears on the ballot or upon the written request of 25 voters of the county, city, or other subdivision for which the election was held (hereinafter called the petitioner), the authority charged with the duty of canvassing the returns shall defer a canvass on the office or proposition identified in the request until the procedure outlined in this subdivision has been completed. The request shall be directed to a district judge, with a copy to the presiding officer of the canvassing board. The request may ask for any one or more of the following, and it may be amended to include additional items at any time not later than 48 hours after completion of the procedures originally requested:

(1) Permission to examine the program used in counting the ballots.

(2) Permission to examine the materials used in making the test counts.

(3) Permission to examine the ballot assemblies for all or part of the voting devices, where a punch-card ballot is used.

(4) Permission to make a recount of the test count, using the program and the test materials.

(5) A recount of the ballots for all or part of the election precincts, using the same methods and materials as in the original count. A recount under this paragraph, or a recount of the test count, shall be made by a person selected and compensated by the petitioner, subject to approval by the district judge as to his competence to operate the electronic tabulating equipment. The recount may be made either on the equipment which was used for the official count at the central counting station or on any tabulating equipment located within the county which is capable of counting the ballots. If it is made on the equipment at the central counting station, the person in charge of the equipment must make the equipment available at a reasonable rate of compensation, to be paid by the petitioner. The petitioner shall also be responsible for any expense involved in using any other equipment. A return of the results of the recount shall be made and certified by the person making the recount, and shall be attested by the manager and tabulation supervisor of the central counting station.

(6) A manual recount of the votes cast on the office or proposition identified in the request. The recount shall be made by a committee of two or more persons appointed by the district judge, and they shall be compensated at the same rate as the election judges and clerks for the election. The district judge shall make a preliminary estimate of the cost and shall require the petitioner to make a deposit in that amount before the recount is ordered. A return of the results of the recount shall be made and certified by the committee.

(7) A recount of the ballot for all or part of the election precincts, using corrected materials as detailed herein. If an examination or utilization of the program, the ballot assemblies, or the test count materials reveals an apparent error in the preparation or use of the materials or a defect in the functioning of the equipment which affected the outcome of the election, the petitioner shall make a written report to the district judge, copies of which shall be furnished to the presiding officer of the canvassing authority, the programmer for the election, and the manager, tabulation supervisor, and presiding judge of the central counting station. If the programmer, manager, and tabulation supervisor unanimously agree that the error or defect does exist and that it can be remedied so that the true results of the election can be ascertained, the correction shall be made under supervision of the district judge; and the manager, tabulation supervisor, and presiding judge shall recount the ballots and prepare corrected returns in the same manner as for the original count. Any other relief incident to an examination of materials and request for a recount under this paragraph must be obtained through an election contest filed in a district court.

Upon presentation of an order signed by the district judge, the custodian of the election records shall deliver them into the custody of the person designated in the order to be responsible for their safekeeping while they are being used. After the use is completed, they shall be returned to the original custodian for safekeeping in the same manner as when they were originally delivered to him. The district judge or someone designated by him to serve in his place and the manager and the tabulation supervisor of the central counting station where the ballots were counted shall be present at all times while the election records are being used. The manager and tabulation supervisor shall be paid at a reasonable rate of compensation for time spent in performing the duties imposed by this subdivision, except that the authority responsible for the expenses of the election shall determine what compensation, if any, they shall receive for making a corrected recount as outlined in numbered Paragraph (7) of this subdivision. Except for their services in that capacity, the district judge shall require the petitioner to make a deposit to cover estimated costs for their services.

Whenever a recount is ordered, by whatever method it is to be made, each opposing candidate must be given notice of the time and place for making the recount and may be present or have a representative present to observe the proceeding. If the recount is for an election on an issue or proposition, the district judge may order that notice be given to such persons or groups as he deems desirable to provide representation for the opposing interest. The returns made on the recount shall be used in lieu of the original returns in the official canvass of the election for the office or proposition identified in the request; provided, however, that if any write-in ballots, absentee ballots, or other ballots were not recounted, the original returns shall be used as to those ballots.

If as a result of the recount the outcome of the election is changed favorable to the petitioner, any deposit for costs which the petitioner has made shall be returned to him, and the authority responsible for the expenses of the election shall pay the costs of the recount and shall reimburse the petitioner for any expenditure he has made for equipment and personnel in having the recount made; provided, however, that if the central counting station equipment and personnel were not used, the amount of reimbursement shall not exceed the amount which use of that equipment and personnel would have cost. If the recount does not change the outcome, the petitioner shall pay all costs. A change in the outcome of the election favorable to the petitioner means that as a result of the recount the proposition identified in the request carries, or the candidate identified in the request is declared to have been nominated or elected to the office, or to have become entitled to be a candidate in a runoff election, or to have tied with another candidate between the two of whom the right of nomination, election, or a place on a runoff ballot is to be decided.

Subdivision 24. Penal provisions. (a) No person may:

(1) wilfully tamper with or damage any voting equipment, as defined in Subdivision 1 of this section, or any automatic tabulating equipment, to be used or being used in any election;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(2) wilfully prevent or attempt to prevent the correct operation of any voting equipment or automatic tabulating equipment;

(3) wilfully program or attempt to program any automatic tabulating equipment so as to produce an inaccurate count in an election; or

(4) intentionally repunch a ballot card to reflect a vote contrary to the intent of the voter.

(b) A person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than five years, or by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or by both.

(c) Except as they conflict with the provisions of this section, the provisions of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to paper ballots, apply also to ballot cards.

Art.
8.19a Counting straight-ticket ballots
[New].

Art. 8.18 Defective, mutilated, and unused ballots in box No. 4

In any general, special, or primary election, there shall be deposited in ballot box No. 4, in addition to ballots defectively printed, all defaced and mutilated ballots, and, when the polls are closed, all the ballots that have not been voted. The term "defaced and mutilated ballot" as used in this article means a ballot which has been returned by the voter as provided in Section 98 of this code.¹ It does not include any ballot which a voter has deposited in the ballot box containing ballots to be counted, and the election officers shall place in ballot box No. 3 with other voted ballots any ballot which has been voted but which they refuse to count by reason of its being marked in an unintelligible manner or for any other reason. Ballot box No. 4 shall be locked and shall be delivered to the county judge or other officer receiving the returns for use in the official canvass, at the same time that the returns are delivered, with a statement which shall be placed therein, signed by the presiding judge, of the number of ballots received by him, the number of mutilated or defaced ballots that the box contains, and also the number of ballots not given to voters, as well as those defectively printed, so that, after adding such numbers, all ballots delivered to the election officers may be accounted for. When the returns of votes cast are canvassed by the commissioners court or other authority as provided for by law, such ballot box shall be opened, the ballots counted, and a record made of what they found the contents to be. The box shall then be relocked and delivered to the county clerk or other officer having custody of the voted ballots, and shall be preserved by him until expiration of the period for contesting the election. If no contest has arisen, the custodian of the box may then destroy or otherwise dispose of the contents as he sees fit.

Art. 8.19a Counting straight-ticket ballots

In an election where party columns appear on the official ballot, the tally sheets for the election shall be prepared with appropriate spaces for tallying straight-ticket ballots. Each straight-ticket ballot voted shall be tallied for the party receiving the vote instead of being tallied for the individual candidates of the party. When the presiding judge makes out the returns for the election, to the number of votes tallied for each party nominee individually there shall be added the number of straight-ticket votes tallied for the party which nominated the candidate.

* * * * *

(b) If after the 30th day preceding the first primary election, an opposed candidate in that primary dies or an opposed candidate who is seeking nomination to an office he then holds withdraws his candidacy or is declared ineligible to be elected to the office, his name shall be printed on the first primary ballot and the ballots cast for him shall be counted and a return made thereof. If such a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate receives a majority of the votes, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code,¹ to be printed on the general election ballot. If such a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate is one of the two highest candidates in that race in the first primary and if no one has a majority vote, the two candidates with the highest votes, other than the deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate, shall be certified to have their names printed on the second primary ballot. If an unopposed candidate in the first primary dies, withdraws, or is declared ineligible after the 30th day preceding the first primary, neither the office title nor the name of the candidate shall be printed on the primary ballot, and the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. If a candidate whose name is to appear on the second primary ballot dies between the dates of the first and second primaries, his name shall be printed on the second primary ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and returned for him; and if such a deceased candidate receives a majority of the votes in the second primary, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify his name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. Withdrawal of a candidate in the second primary is regulated by Section 204a of this code.²

Art. 8.32 Ballots and copy of returns delivered to county clerk

Immediately after the counting of the ballots is completed, the presiding judge shall place all the ballots voted, together with one copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list, into a wooden or metallic box or any approved ballot box, and shall securely fasten the box with nails, screws, or locks, and he shall immediately, and in no case later than 24 hours after the closing of the polls, deliver the box to the county clerk of his county. He shall deliver the key or keys to the sheriff, who shall keep the same for 30 days. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to keep the box securely, and it shall be unlawful for the county clerk or anyone else to burn or otherwise destroy these ballots and records, or permit it to be done, except where provided for by the law; and anyone violating this provision of this section upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed $1,000.
