SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 2.01. State Policy

In order to promote the public health and welfare and to provide the necessary records, this code prescribes detailed and specific rules to be followed in establishing the marriage relationship. However, in order to provide stability for those entering into the marriage relationship in good faith and to provide legitimacy and security for the children of the relationship, it is the policy of this state to preserve and uphold each marriage against claims of invalidity unless strong reasons exist for holding it void or voidable. Therefore, every marriage entered into in this state is considered valid unless it is expressly made void by this chapter or unless it is expressly made voidable by this chapter and is annulled as provided by this chapter. When two or more marriages of a person to different spouses are alleged, the most recent marriage is presumed to be valid as against each marriage that precedes it until one who asserts the validity of a prior marriage proves its validity.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2707, ch. 888, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

§ 2.02. Fraud, Mistake, or Illegality in Obtaining License

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2707, ch. 888, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

The validity of a marriage is not affected by any lack of authority of the person conducting the marriage ceremony if there was a reasonable appearance of authority by that person and at least one party to the marriage participated in the ceremony in good faith and that party treats the marriage as valid.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2707, ch. 888, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

Except for marriages that would have been void under Section 2.21 of this code, all marriages that were entered into before January 1, 1970, in violation of the prohibitions of Article 496, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, are validated from the beginning if the parties continued until January 1, 1970, to live together as husband and wife and to represent themselves to others as being married.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2707, ch. 888, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

(a) Either party to a marriage made void by this subchapter may sue to have the marriage declared void, or the marriage may be declared void in any collateral proceeding.

(b) A suit to have a marriage declared void may be maintained in this state only if the purported marriage was contracted in this state or if either party is domiciled in this state.

(c) A suit to have a marriage declared void is a suit in rem, affecting the status of the parties to the purported marriage. Process shall be served as in a suit for divorce.

tice to the attorney filing the petition. Except in a suit in which the respondent is cited by publication, the attorney shall forward the notice to both parties to the suit and shall certify to the court that he has complied with the provisions of this subsection.

(b) The availability of counseling notice shall be printed on the stationery of the clerk and shall state:

"In a divorce suit the court is authorized by law to require both parties to consult with a marriage counselor or other person appointed by the court. The counselor's function is to report to the court whether or not, in the opinion of the counselor, there exists a reasonable expectation of reconciliation and, if so, whether further counseling would be beneficial. If you believe that counseling would be beneficial to you or to the court, you may ask your attorney to request that the court order consultation with a counselor."

(c) After a petition for divorce is filed, the court may, in its discretion, direct the parties to counsel with a person or persons named by the court, who shall submit a written report to the court before the hearing on the petition.

(d) In his report, the counselor shall give only his opinion as to whether there exists a reasonable expectation of reconciliation of the parties, and if so, whether further counseling would be beneficial. The sole purpose of the report is to aid the court in determining whether the suit for divorce should be continued pending further counseling, and the report shall not be admitted as evidence in the suit. Copies of the report shall be furnished to the parties.

(e) If the court is of the opinion that there exists a reasonable expectation of the parties' reconciliation, the court may by written order continue the proceedings and direct the parties to any person or persons named by the court for further counseling for a period of time fixed by the court not to exceed 60 days, subject to any terms, conditions, and limitations the court deems desirable. The court shall consider the circumstances of the parties, including the needs of the parties' family, and the availability of counseling services, in making its order. At the expiration of the period of time specified by the court, the counselor to whom the parties were directed shall report to the court whether the parties have complied with the court's order. Thereafter, the court shall proceed as in divorce suits generally.

(f) No person who has counseled parties to a suit for divorce under this section is competent to testify in any action involving the parties or their children. The files, records, and other work-products of the counselor are privileged and confidential for all purposes and may not be admitted as evidence in any action involving the parties or their children.

(g) The expenses of counseling may be taxed as costs against either or both parties.

The court with continuing jurisdiction shall then transfer the proceeding to the court with jurisdiction of the suit for divorce, annulment, or to declare the marriage void. Proceedings for transfer under this section shall be governed by the procedures governing transfer under Section 11.06 of this code. On transfer of the proceedings to the court with jurisdiction of the suit for divorce, annulment, or to declare the marriage void, that court shall consolidate the suit affecting the parent-child relationship with the suit for divorce, annulment, or to declare the marriage void.

(d) After transfer of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, or if the parties are parents of a child and no other court has jurisdiction of the child, the court with jurisdiction of the suit for divorce, annulment, or to declare the marriage void has jurisdiction to make orders, decrees, or judgments affecting the parent-child relationship in the same manner that a court with jurisdiction of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship has under Subtitle A, Title 2, of this code, and is subject to the same rules, requirements, and standards set forth in Subtitle A, Title 2, of this code for such suits. On entering its decree or judgment affecting the parent-child relationship, the court has continuing jurisdiction under Section 11.05 of this code, and the decree or judgment shall be treated for all purposes as though it were entered in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship.

§ 14.05. Support of Child

(a) The court may order either or both parents to make periodic payments or a lump-sum payment, or both, for the support of the child until he is 18 years of age in the manner and to the persons specified by the court in the decree. In addition, the court may order a parent obligated to support a child to set aside property to be administered for the support of the child in the manner and by the persons specified by the court in the decree.

(b) If the court finds that the child, whether institutionalized or not, requires continuous care and personal supervision because of a mental or physical disability and will not be able to support himself, the court may order that payments for the support of the child shall be continued after the 18th birthday and extended for an indefinite period.

(c) The court may order the trustees of a spendthrift or other trust to make disbursements for the support of the child to the extent the trustees are required to make payments to a beneficiary who is required to make support payments under this section. If disbursement of the assets of the trust is discretionary in the trustees, the court may order payments for the benefit of the child from the income of the trust, but not from the principal.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by the marriage of the child, the removal of the child's disabilities for general purposes, or the death of a parent obligated to support the child.

§ 14.06. Agreements Concerning Conservatorship

(a) To promote the amicable settlement of disputes between the parties to a suit under this chapter, the parties may enter into a written agreement containing provisions for conservatorship and support of the child.

(b) If the court finds the agreement is not in the child's best interest the court may request the parties to submit a revised agreement or the court may make orders for the conservatorship and support of the child.

(c) If the court finds that the agreement is in the child's best interest, its terms shall be set forth in the decree and the parties shall be ordered to perform them.

(d) Terms of the agreement set forth in the decree may be enforced by all remedies available for enforcement of a judgment, including contempt, but are not enforceable as contract terms unless the agreement so provides.

§ 14.07. Best Interest of Child

(a) The best interest of the child shall always be the primary consideration of the court in determining questions of managing conservatorship, possession, and support of and access to the child. If the child is 14 years of age or older, he may, by writing filed with the court, choose the managing conservator, subject to the approval of the court.

(b) In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider the circumstances of the parents.

(c) The court may interview the child in chambers to ascertain the child's wishes as to his conservator. The court may permit counsel to be present at the interview. The court shall cause a record of the interview to be made and to be made part of the record in the case.

§ 14.08. Modification of Order

(a) Any party affected by an order of the court providing for managing conservatorship or support of a child, or setting the terms and conditions for possession of or access to a child, may file a motion requesting the court to modify its former order. The motion shall allege that the circumstances of the child have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order sought to be modified, set forth the alleged circumstances, and be sworn to by the party seeking modification.

(b) All parties to the suit are entitled to notice and hearing.

(c) After a hearing and on a finding that the circumstances of the child have materially and substantially changed and that modification is in the best interest of the child, any order or part of an order may be modified, except that an order providing for support of a child may be modified only as to obligations accruing subsequent to the motion to modify.

(d) No motion to modify the decree of conservatorship may be made earlier than one year after the date of the initial decree unless the court decides on the basis of affidavit that there is reason to believe that the child's present environment may endanger his physical health or significantly impair his emotional development. The affidavit shall set forth facts supporting the requested modification and shall be submitted with the motion to modify. The court shall deny the motion to modify unless it finds adequate cause for hearing the motion, in which case the motion shall be set for hearing.

§ 14.09. Enforcement of Order

(a) Any order of the court may be enforced by contempt.

(b) A court may enforce an order for support as provided in Rule 308A of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure or any subsequent version of the rule promulgated by the supreme court.

(c) On the motion of any party entitled to receive payments for the benefit of a child, the court may render judgment against a defaulting party for any amount unpaid and owing after 10 days' notice to the defaulting party of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order. The judgment may be enforced by any means available for the enforcement of judgments for debts.

(d) A parent may be compelled to testify fully in regard to his ability to support the child.

§ 14.10. Habeas Corpus

(a) If the right to possession of a child is presently governed by a court order, the court in a habeas corpus proceeding involving the right to possession of the child shall compel return of the child to the relator if and only if it finds that the relator is presently entitled to possession by virtue of the court order.

(b) The court shall disregard any cross action or motion pending for modification of the decree determining managing conservatorship, possession, or support of or access to the child unless it finds that the previous order was granted by a court of another state or nation and that:

(1) the court did not have jurisdiction of the parties; or

(2) the child has been within the state for at least 12 months immediately preceding the filing of the petition for the writ.

(c) The court may issue any appropriate temporary order if there is a serious immediate question concerning the welfare of the child.

(d) While in this state for the sole purpose of compelling the return of a child through a habeas corpus proceeding, the relator is not amenable to civil process and is not subject to the jurisdiction of any civil court except the court in which the writ is pending and in that court only for the purpose of prosecuting the writ.

§ 16.03. Prerequisites to Petition

(a) If a petitioner is married, both spouses must join in the petition for adoption.

(b) Except as provided in Subsections (c), (d), and (e) of this section, no petition for adoption of a child may be considered unless there has been a decree terminating the parent-child relationship as to each living parent of the child.

(c) If a parent is presently the spouse of the petitioner, no termination decree is required with respect to the parental rights of that parent.

(d) If the child is not the legitimate child of its father and the mother is the spouse of the petitioner, the mother shall execute an affidavit in accordance with Section 15.04 of this code, and no termination decree is required with respect to the parental rights of the natural father. The affidavit must be attached to the petition.

(e) If an affidavit of relinquishment of parental rights contains a consent that the State Department of Public Welfare or an authorized agency may place the child for adoption and appoints the department or agency managing conservator of the child, no further consent by the parent is required and the adoption decree shall terminate all rights of the parent without further termination proceedings.

(b) If a parent of the child is presently the spouse of the petitioner, that parent must join in the petition for adoption, and no further consent of that parent is required.

(c) If the child to be adopted is 12 years of age or older, his consent must be given in court or in writing in the form directed by the court. The court may waive this requirement if the best interest of the child would be served.

(d) The court may waive the requirement of consent to the adoption by the managing conservator if it finds that the consent is being refused, or has been revoked, without good cause.

§ 21.11. Interstate Rendition

(a) The governor of this state may:

(1) demand from the governor of any other state the surrender of any person found in such other state who is charged in this state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in this state; and

(2) surrender on demand by the governor of any other state any person found in this state who is charged in such other state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person in such other state.

(b) The provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent herewith shall apply to any such demand although the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and although he had not fled therefrom. Neither the demand, the oath nor any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice, or at the time of the commission of the crime was in the demanding or other state.

(a) Before making the demand on the governor of any other state for the surrender of a person charged in this state with the crime of failing to provide for the support of any person, the governor of this state may require any prosecuting attorney of this state to satisfy him that at least 60 days prior thereto the obligee brought an action for the support under this chapter, or that the bringing of an action would be of no avail.

(b) When under this chapter or a substantially similar act, a demand is made upon the governor of this state by the governor of another state for the surrender of a person charged in the other state with the crime of failing to provide support, the governor may call upon any prosecuting attorney to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him whether any action for support has been brought under this chapter or would be effective.

(c) If any action for the support would be effective and no action has been brought, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit prosecution of an action for support.

(d) If an action for support has been brought and the person demanded has prevailed in that action, the governor may decline to honor the demand.

(e) If an action for support has been brought and pursuant thereto the person demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand so long as the person demanded is complying with the support order.

SUBCHAPTER C. CIVIL ENFORCEMENT

§ 21.21. Choice of Law

Duties of support applicable under this chapter are those imposed or impossible under the laws of any state where the obligor was present during the period for which support is sought; but shall not include alimony for a former wife. The obligor is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown.

§ 21.22. State or Political Subdivision Furnishing Support

Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to an obligee, it has the same right to invoke the provisions hereof as the obligee to whom the support was furnished for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support.

§ 21.23. How Duties of Support are Enforced

All duties of support, including arrearages, are enforceable by a suit under this chapter, irrespective of the relationship between the obligor and the obligee.

§ 21.24. Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction of all proceedings hereunder is vested in the district court. If the child for whom support is sought is the subject of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship, the court having continuing jurisdiction under Section 11.05 of this code has exclusive jurisdiction of a suit under this chapter.

§ 21.25. Petition for Support

The petition shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the plaintiff, the address and circumstances of the defendant and his dependents for whom support is sought and all other pertinent information. The plaintiff may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the defendant, such as a photograph of the defendant, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his fingerprints, or Social Security number.

§ 21.27. Minor Petitioner

A petition on behalf of a minor obligee may be brought by a person having legal custody of the minor without appointment as guardian ad litem.

§ 21.28. Court of This State as Initiating State

(a) When a petition is filed under this chapter in a court of this state which does not have continuing jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought under Section 11.05 of this code, the court shall request from the State Department of Public Welfare identification of the court which last had jurisdiction of the child. The child shall be identified by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction.

(b) If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of the petition, its certificate, and this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

§ 21.29. Costs

There shall be no filing fee or other costs taxable to the obligee, but a court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, may in its discretion direct that any part of or all fees and costs incurred in this state, including without limitation by enumeration, fees for filing, service of process, seizure of property, and stenographic service of both plaintiff and defendant or either, be paid by the obligor or the county.

§ 21.30. Jurisdiction by Arrest

When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the defendant may flee the jurisdiction, it may:

(1) as an initiating state, request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state; or

(2) as a responding state, obtain the body of the defendant by appropriate process.

§ 21.31. State Information Agency

The State Department of Public Welfare of Austin, Texas, is hereby designated as the state information agency under this chapter, and it shall:

(1) compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this chapter and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this chapter or a substantially similar act;

(2) maintain a register of such lists received from other states and transmit copies thereof as soon as possible after receipt to every court in this state having jurisdiction under this chapter; and

(3) on the request of a court of another state, transmit identification of the court in this state which last had jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought or a statement that the child has not been the subject of a suit affecting the parent-child relationship in this state.

§ 21.32. Duty of State as Responding State

(a) After the court of this state, acting as a responding state, has received from the court of the initiating state the aforesaid copies, the clerk of the court shall request from the State Department of Public Welfare identification of any court in this state which has continuing jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought under Section 11.05 of this code. The child shall be identified by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction. If it is found that no court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the clerk of the court shall docket the case and notify the district judge or the judge of the domestic relations court, or both judges, of his action.

(b) It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney diligently to prosecute the case. He shall take all action necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to give the court jurisdiction of the defendant or his property and shall request the clerk of the court to set a time and place for a hearing. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1411, ch. 543, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 21.33. Duty of Prosecuting Attorney in Responding State

(a) The prosecuting attorney shall, on his own initiative, use all means at his disposal to trace the defendant or his property and if, due to inaccuracies of the petition or otherwise, the court cannot obtain jurisdiction, the prosecuting attorney shall inform the court of what he has done and request the court to continue the case pending receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state.

(b) If the defendant or his property is not found in the judicial district and the prosecuting attorney discovers by any means that the defendant or his property may be found in another judicial district of this state or in another state, he shall so inform the court; and thereupon the clerk of the court shall forward the documents received from the court in the initiating state to a court in the other judicial district or to a court in the other state or to the information agency or other proper official of the other state with a request that it forward the documents to the proper court. Thereupon, both the court of the judicial district and any court of this state receiving the documents and the prosecuting attorney have the same powers and duties under this chapter as if the documents had been originally addressed to them. When the clerk of a court of this state retransmits documents to another court, he shall notify forthwith the court from which the documents came.

(c) If the prosecuting attorney has no information as to the whereabouts of the obligor or his property he shall so inform the initiating court.

§ 21.34. Continuation of the Case

If the plaintiff is absent from the responding state and the defendant presents evidence which constitutes a defense, the court shall continue the case for further hearing and the submission of evidence by both parties.

§ 21.35. Testimony of Husband and Wife

Laws attaching a privilege against the disclosure of communications between husband and wife are inapplicable to proceedings under this chapter. Husband and wife are competent witnesses and may be compelled to testify to any relevant matter, including marriage and support.

§ 21.36. Rules of Evidence

In any hearing under this chapter, the court shall be bound by the same rules of evidence that bind the district court.

§ 21.37. Support Order

If the court of the responding state finds a duty of support, it may order the defendant to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the defendant to such order.

§ 21.38. Transmittal of Orders

The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall cause to be transmitted to the court of the initiating state a copy of all orders of support or for reimbursement therefor.

§ 21.39. Enforcement Power of Court

In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the defendant to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders, and in particular:

(1) to require the defendant to furnish a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the defendant;

(2) to require the defendant to make payments at specified intervals to the district clerk or probation department of the court; and

(3) to punish the defendant who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 659, ch. 276 amended Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 2328b-4, § 25, to read:

"In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this State when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the defendant to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular: (a) To require the defendant to furnish a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the defendant.

"(b) To require the defendant to make payments at specified intervals to the district clerk or probation department of the court.

"(c) To punish the defendant who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

"(d) To order the defendant (obligor) to pay as court costs a reasonable fee to any attorney or to the prosecuting attorney's office who represents the petitioner in any enforcement proceeding."

§ 21.40. Receipt and Disbursement of Payments—
Responding State

The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the district clerk or probation department of the court:

(1) on the receipt of payment made by the defendant pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state; and

(2) on request, to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the defendant.

Initiating State

The court of this state when acting as an initiating state shall have the duty which may be carried out through the district clerk or probation department of the court to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the defendant or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

§ 21.42. Stay of Proceedings

No proceeding under this chapter shall be stayed because of the existence of a pending suit for divorce, separation, annulment, dissolution, habeas corpus, or custody proceeding.

§ 21.43. Application of Payments

No order of support issued by a court of this state when acting as a responding state shall supersede any other order of support, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both.

§ 21.44. Participation in Proceeding

Participation in any proceedings under this chapter shall not confer upon any court jurisdiction of any of the parties thereto in any other proceeding.

§ 21.45. Interdistrict Application

(a) This chapter is applicable when both the plaintiff and the defendant are in this state but in different judicial districts.

(b) When a petition is filed in a court which does not have continuing jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought under Section 11.05 of this code, the court shall request from the State Department of Public Welfare identification of the court which last had jurisdiction of the child. The child shall be identified by name, birthdate, and place of birth. If it is found that another court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the case shall be transferred to the court with continuing jurisdiction, and that court shall act as the initiating court. If it is found that no other court in this state has continuing jurisdiction of the child, the court in which the petition was filed shall proceed as the initiating court.

(c) If the initiating court finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the defendant owes a duty of support and finds that another court in this state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, the clerk of the court shall send three copies of the petition and a certification of the findings to the court of the judicial district in which the defendant or his property is found. The clerk of the court receiving these copies shall notify the prosecuting attorney of their receipt. The prosecuting attorney and the court to which the copies are forwarded shall then have duties corresponding to those imposed upon them when acting for the state as a responding state.

(d) In a suit under this section, no defense may be raised other than payment and satisfaction of the support obligation or invalidity of the decree or judgment creating the obligation.

(e) If the defendant in a suit filed under this section files a motion to modify a prior order in a court with continuing jurisdiction of the child for whom support is sought under Section 14.08 of this code, the proceeding under this section shall be abated.

ARTICLE I. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE

"That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies, and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III. DEFINITIONS

"That, for the purpose of this compact, 'delinquent juvenile' means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; 'probation or parole' means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; 'court' means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected, or dependent children; 'state' means any state, territory, or possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and 'residence' or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV. RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

"(a) That the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person, or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner, and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected, or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

"Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

"(b) That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

"(c) That 'juvenile' as used in this article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V. RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABSCONDERS

"(a) That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

“Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with this<sup>1</sup> legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

“(b) That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this article shall be responsible for the payment of the transportation costs of such return.

ARTICLE VI. VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

“That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV(a) or of Article V(a), may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped, or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing in writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII. COOPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES

“(a) That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called ‘sending state’) may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called 'receiving state') while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian, or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies, and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian, or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

"(b) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

"(c) That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceedings to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention, or supervision for such offense of juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

"(d) That the sending state shall be responsible under this article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII. RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

"(a) That the provisions of Articles IV(b), V(b), and VII(d) of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies, and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

"(b) That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency, or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV(b), V(b), or VII(d) of this compact.

ARTICLE IX. DETENTION PRACTICES

"That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail, or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious, or dissolute persons.

ARTICLE X. SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS

"That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment, and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment, and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment, and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall (1) provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment, and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services, and subsistence furnished; (2) provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment, and custody; (3) provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile; (4) provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state; (5) provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state; (6) provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person, or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and (7) make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

ARTICLE XI. ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

"That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts, and grants of money, equipment, and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm, or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same, subject to the terms, conditions, and regulations governing such donations, gifts, and grants.

ARTICLE XII. COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

"That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII. EXECUTION OF COMPACT

"That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form or execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV. RENUNCIATION

"That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months renunciation notice of the present article.

ARTICLE XV. SEVERABILITY

"That the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters." [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1411, ch. 543, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

§ 25.03. Execution of Additional Article

The governor shall also execute on the behalf of the state with any other state or states legally joining in it, an additional article to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles in substantially the following form:

ARTICLE XVI. ADDITIONAL ARTICLE

"That this article shall provide additional remedies, and shall be binding only as among and between those party states which specifically execute the same.

"For the purposes of this article, 'child,' as used herein, means any minor within the jurisdictional age limits of any court in the home state.

"When any child is brought before a court of a state of which such child is not a resident, and such state is willing to permit such child's return to the home state of such child, such home state, upon being so advised by the state in which such proceeding is pending, shall immediately institute proceedings to determine the residence and jurisdictional facts as to such child in such home state, and upon finding that such child is in fact a resident of said state and subject to the jurisdiction of the court thereof shall within five days authorize the return of such child to the home state, and to the parent or custodial agency legally authorized to accept such custody in such home state, and at the expense of such home state, to be paid from such funds as such home state may procure, designate, or provide, prompt action being of the essence."

RENDITION AMENDMENT

"(a) This amendment shall provide additional remedies, and shall be binding only as among and between those party states which specifically execute the same.

"(b) All provisions and procedures of Articles V and VI of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles shall be construed to apply to any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of a violation of any criminal law. Any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of violating any criminal law shall be returned to the requesting state upon a requisition to the state where the juvenile may be found. A petition in such case shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in the requesting state where the violation of criminal law is alleged to have been committed. The petition may be filed regardless of whether the juvenile has left the state before or after the filing of the petition. The requisition described in Article V of the compact shall be forwarded by the judge of the court in which the petition has been filed."

§ 25.06. Supplementary Agreements

A compact administrator may make supplementary agreements with appropriate officials of other states pursuant to the compact. If a supplementary agreement requires or contemplates the use of an institution or facility of this state or requires or contemplates the provision of a service of this state, the supplementary agreement has no force or effect until approved by the head of the department or agency under whose jurisdiction the institution is operated, or whose department or agency is charged with performing the service.

§ 25.09. Additional Procedures not Precluded

§ 51.13. Effect of Adjudication or Disposition

(a) An order of adjudication or disposition in a proceeding under this title is not a conviction of crime, and does not impose any civil disability ordinarily resulting from a conviction or operate to disqualify the child in any civil service application or appointment.

(b) The adjudication or disposition of a child or evidence adduced in a hearing under this title may be used only in subsequent proceedings under this title in which the child is a party or in subsequent sentencing proceedings in criminal court against the child to the extent permitted by the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(c) A child may not be committed or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used primarily for the execution of sentences of persons convicted of crime, except:

(b) All files and records of a public or private agency or institution providing supervision of a child by arrangement of the juvenile court or having custody of the child under order of the juvenile court are open to inspection only by:

- (4) with leave of the juvenile court, any other person, agency, or institution having a legitimate interest in the work of the agency or institution.

(c) Law-enforcement files and records concerning a child shall be kept separate from files and records of arrests of adults and shall be maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository.

(d) Except for files and records relating to a charge for which a child is transferred under Section 54.02 of this code to a criminal court for prosecution, the law-enforcement files and records are not open to public inspection nor may their contents be dis-

However, if a child 15 years of age or older is referred to the juvenile court for a felony, his fingerprints may be taken and filed by a law-enforcement officer investigating the case.

(b) No child taken into custody may be photographed without the consent of the juvenile court unless the child is transferred to criminal court for prosecution under Section 54.02 of this code.

(c) Fingerprint and photograph files or records of children shall be kept separate from those of adults, and fingerprints or photographs known to be those of a child shall be maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository.

(d) Fingerprint and photograph files or records of children are subject to inspection as provided in Subsections (a) and (d) of Section 51.14 of this code.

(e) Fingerprints and photographs of a child shall be removed from files or records and destroyed if:

(1) a petition alleging that the child engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision is not filed, or the proceedings are dismissed after a petition is filed, or the child is found not to have engaged in the alleged conduct; or

(2) the person reaches 18 years of age and there is no record that he committed a criminal offense after reaching 17 years of age.

(f) If latent fingerprints are found during the investigation of an offense, and a law-enforcement officer has reasonable cause to believe that they are those of a particular child, if otherwise authorized by law, he may fingerprint the child regardless of the age or offense for purpose of immediate comparison with the latent fingerprints. If the comparison is negative, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be destroyed immediately. If the comparison is positive, and the child is referred to the juvenile court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be delivered to the court for disposition. If the child is not referred to the court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be destroyed immediately.

(g) When destruction of fingerprints or photographs is required by Subsection (e) or (f) of this section, the agency with custody of the fingerprints or photographs shall proceed with destruction with-

(1) two years have elapsed since final discharge of the person, or since the last official action in his case if there was no adjudication;

(2) since the time specified in Subdivision (1) of this subsection, he has not been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, and no proceeding is pending seeking conviction or adjudication; and

(b) The court may grant the relief authorized in Subsection (a) of this section at any time after final discharge of the person or after the last official action in his case if there was no adjudication.

(4) the juvenile court, clerk of court, prosecuting attorney, public or private agency or institution, and law-enforcement officers and agencies shall properly reply that no record exists with respect to such person upon inquiry in any matter; and

(5) the adjudication shall be vacated and the proceeding dismissed and treated for all purposes, including the purpose of showing a prior finding of delinquency, as if it had never occurred.

(f) Inspection of the sealed files and records may be permitted thereafter by an order of the juvenile court on the petition of the person who is the subject of the files or records and only by those persons named in the order.

(g) On the final discharge of a child or on the last official action in his case if there is no adjudication, the child shall be given a written explanation of his rights under this section and a copy of the provisions of this section.

53.06. Summons.

53.07. Service of Summons.

§ 53.01. Preliminary Investigation and Determinations; Notice to Parents

(a) On referral of a child or a child's case to the office or official designated by the juvenile court, the intake officer, probation officer, or other person authorized by the court shall conduct a preliminary investigation to determine whether:

(1) the person referred to juvenile court is a child within the meaning of this title;

(2) there is probable cause to believe the child engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision; and

(3) further proceedings in the case are in the interest of the child or the public.

(b) If it is determined that the person is not a child, or there is no probable cause, or further proceedings are not warranted, the child shall immediately be released and proceedings terminated.

(c) When custody of a child is given to the office or official designated by the juvenile court, the intake officer, probation officer, or other person authorized by the court shall promptly give notice of the whereabouts of the child and a statement of the reason he was taken into custody to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian unless the notice given under Section 52.02(b) of this code provided fair notice of the child's present whereabouts.

§ 53.02. Release from Detention

(a) If a child is brought before the court or delivered to a detention facility designated by the court, the intake or other authorized officer of the court shall immediately make an investigation and shall release the child unless it appears that his detention is warranted under Subsection (b) of this section. The release may be conditioned upon requirements reasonably necessary to insure the child's appearance at later proceedings, but the conditions of the release must be in writing and filed with the office or official designated by the court and a copy furnished to the child.

(b) A child taken into custody may be detained prior to hearing on the petition only if:

- (1) he is likely to abscond or be removed from the jurisdiction of the court;
- (2) suitable supervision, care, or protection for him is not being provided by a parent, guardian, custodian, or other person; or
- (3) he has no parent, guardian, custodian, or other person able to return him to the court when required.

(c) If the child is not released, a request for detention hearing shall be made and promptly presented to the court, and an informal detention hearing as provided in Section 54.01 of this code shall be held promptly, but not later than the next working day after he was taken into custody.

§ 53.03. Intake Conference and Adjustment

(a) If the preliminary investigation required by Section 53.01 of this code results in a determination that further proceedings in the case are authorized and warranted, the probation officer or other designated officer of the court, subject to the direction of the juvenile court, may advise the parties for a reasonable period of time not to exceed six months concerning an informal adjustment and voluntary rehabilitation of a child if:

- (1) advice without a court hearing would be in the interest of the public and the child;
- (2) the child and his parent, guardian, or custodian consent with knowledge that consent is not obligatory; and
- (3) the child and his parent, guardian, or custodian are informed that they may terminate the adjustment process at any point and petition the court for a court hearing in the case.

(b) Except as otherwise permitted by this title, the child may not be detained during or as a result of the adjustment process.

(c) An incriminating statement made by a participant to the person giving advice and in the discussions or conferences incident thereto may not be used against the declarant in any court hearing.

§ 53.04. Court Petition; Answer

(a) If the preliminary investigation, required by Section 53.01 of this code results in a determination that further proceedings are authorized and warranted, a petition for an adjudication or transfer hearing of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be made as promptly as practicable by a prosecuting attorney who has knowledge of the facts alleged or is informed and believes that they are true.

(b) The proceedings shall be styled "In the matter of _____."

(c) The petition may be on information and belief.

(d) The petition must state:

(1) with reasonable particularity the time, place, and manner of the acts alleged and the penal law or standard of conduct allegedly violated by the acts;

(2) the name, age, and residence address, if known, of the child who is the subject of the petition;

(3) the names and residence addresses, if known, of the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child and of the child's spouse, if any; and

(e) An oral or written answer to the petition may be made at or before the commencement of the hearing. If there is no answer, a general denial of the alleged conduct is assumed.

(b) The time set for the hearing shall not be later than 10 days after the day the petition was filed if:

- (1) the child is in detention; or
- (2) the child will be taken into custody under Section 53.06(d) of this code.

§ 53.06. Summons

(a) The juvenile court shall direct issuance of a summons to:

- (1) the child named in the petition;
- (2) the child's parent, guardian, or custodian;
- (3) the child's guardian ad litem; and
- (4) any other person who appears to the court to be a proper or necessary party to the proceeding.

(b) The summons must require the persons served to appear before the court at the time set to answer the allegations of the petition. A copy of the petition must accompany the summons.

(c) The court may endorse on the summons an order directing the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child to appear personally at the hearing and directing the person having the physical custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing. A person who violates an order entered under this subsection may be proceeded against under Section 54.07 of this code.

(d) If it appears from an affidavit filed or from sworn testimony before the court that immediate detention of the child is warranted under Section 53.02(b) of this code, the court may endorse on the summons an order that a law-enforcement officer shall serve the summons and shall immediately take the child into custody and bring him before the court.

(e) A party, other than the child, may waive service of summons by written stipulation or by voluntary appearance at the hearing.

§ 53.07. Service of Summons

(a) If a person to be served with a summons is in this state and can be found, the summons shall be served upon him personally at least two days before the day of the adjudication hearing. If he is in this state and cannot be found, but his address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served on him by mailing a copy by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days before the day of the hearing. If he is outside this state but he can be found or his address is known, or his whereabouts or address can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy to him personally or mailing a copy to him by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five days before the day of the hearing.

(b) The juvenile court has jurisdiction of the case if after reasonable effort a person other than the child cannot be found nor his post-office address ascertained, whether he is in or outside this state.

(c) Service of the summons may be made by any suitable person under the direction of the court.

(d) The court may authorize payment from the general funds of the county of the costs of service and of necessary travel expenses incurred by persons summoned or otherwise required to appear at the hearing.

(e) Witnesses may be subpoenaed in accordance with the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1460, ch. 544, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1973.]

CHAPTER 54. JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Section

54.01. Detention Hearing.

54.02. Waiver of Jurisdiction and Discretionary Transfer to Criminal Court.

Section

54.03. Adjudication Hearing.

54.04. Disposition Hearing.

54.05. Hearing to Modify Disposition.

54.06. Judgments for Support.

54.07. Enforcement of Order.

54.08. Public Access to Court Hearings.

54.09. Recording of Proceedings.

§ 54.01. Detention Hearing

(a) If the child is not released under Section 53.02 of this code, a detention hearing without a jury shall be held promptly, but not later than the next working day after he is taken into custody.

(b) Reasonable notice of the detention hearing, either oral or written, shall be given, stating the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. Notice shall be given to the child and, if they can be found, to his parents, guardian, or custodian. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the court shall inform the parties of the child's right to counsel and to appointed counsel if they are indigent and of the child's right to remain silent with respect to any allegations of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

(c) At the detention hearing, the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the detention hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in making the detention decision. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(d) A detention hearing may be held without the presence of the child's parents if the court has been unable to locate them. If no parent or guardian is present, the court shall appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem for the child.

(e) At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall order the child released from detention unless it finds that:

(1) he is likely to abscond or be removed from the jurisdiction of the court;

(2) suitable supervision, care, or protection for him is not being provided by a parent, guardian, custodian, or other person; or

(3) he has no parent, guardian, custodian, or other person able to return him to the court when required.

(f) A release may be conditioned on requirements reasonably necessary to insure the child's appearance at later proceedings, but the conditions of the release must be in writing and a copy furnished to the child.

(g) No statement made by the child at the detention hearing shall be admissible against the child at any other hearing.

(h) A detention order extends to the conclusion of the disposition hearing, if there is one, but in no event for more than 10 days. Further detention orders may be made following subsequent detention hearings. Subsequent detention hearings may be waived in accordance with the requirements of Section 51.09 of this code, but each detention order shall extend for no more than 10 days.

(i) A child in custody may be detained for as long as 10 days without the hearing described in Subsection (a) of this section if:

(1) a written request for shelter in detention facilities pending arrangement of transportation to his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state is voluntarily executed by the child not later than the next working day after he was taken into custody;

(2) the request for shelter contains:

(A) a statement by the child that he voluntarily agrees to submit himself to custody and detention for a period of not longer than 10 days without a detention hearing;

(B) an allegation by the person detaining the child that the child has left his place of residence in another state or country or another county of this state, that he is in need of shelter, and that an effort is being made to arrange transportation to his place of residence; and

(C) a statement by the person detaining the child that he has advised the child of his right to demand a detention hearing under Subsection (a) of this section; and

(3) the request is signed by the juvenile court judge to evidence his knowledge of the fact that the child is being held in detention.

(j) The request for shelter may be revoked by the child at any time, and on such revocation, if further detention is necessary, a detention hearing shall be held not later than the next working day in accordance with Subsections (a) through (g) of this section.

(k) Notwithstanding anything in this title to the contrary, the child may sign a request for shelter without the concurrence of an adult specified in Section 51.09 of this code.

(l) The juvenile board or, if there is none, the juvenile court, may appoint a referee to conduct the detention hearing. The referee shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state. Such payment or additional payment as may be warranted for referee services shall be provided from county funds. Before commencing the detention hearing, the referee shall inform the parties who have appeared that they are entitled to have the hearing before the juvenile court judge or a substitute judge authorized by Section 51.04(f) of this code. If a party objects to the referee conducting the detention hearing, an authorized judge shall conduct the hearing within 24 hours. At the conclusion of the hearing, the referee shall transmit written findings and recommendations to the juvenile court judge or substitute judge. The juvenile court judge or substitute judge shall adopt, modify, or reject the referee's recommendations within 24 hours. Failure to act within that time results in release of the child by operation of law. A recommendation that the child be released operates to secure his immediate release, subject to the power of the juvenile court judge or substitute judge to reject or modify that recommendation. The effect of an order detaining a child shall be computed from the time of the hearing before the referee.

§ 54.02. Waiver of Jurisdiction and Discretionary Transfer to Criminal Court

(a) The juvenile court may waive its exclusive original jurisdiction and transfer a child to the appropriate district court or criminal district court for criminal proceedings if:

(1) the child is alleged to have violated a penal law of the grade of felony;

(2) the child was 15 years of age or older at the time he is alleged to have committed the offense and no adjudication hearing has been conducted concerning that offense; and

(3) after full investigation and hearing the juvenile court determines that because of the seriousness of the offense or the background of the child the welfare of the community requires criminal proceedings.

(b) The petition and notice requirements of Sections 53.04, 53.05, 53.06, and 53.07 of this code must be satisfied, and the summons must state that the hearing is for the purpose of considering discretionary transfer to criminal court.

(c) The juvenile court shall conduct a hearing without a jury to consider transfer of the child for criminal proceedings.

(d) Prior to the hearing, the juvenile court shall order and obtain a complete diagnostic study, social evaluation, and full investigation of the child, his circumstances, and the circumstances of the alleged offense.

(e) At the transfer hearing the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. At least one day prior to the transfer hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in making the transfer decision. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(f) In making the determination required by Subsection (a) of this section, the court shall consider, among other matters:

- (1) whether the alleged offense was against person or property, with greater weight in favor of transfer given to offenses against the person;
- (2) whether the alleged offense was committed in an aggressive and premeditated manner;
- (3) whether there is evidence on which a grand jury may be expected to return an indictment;
- (4) the sophistication and maturity of the child;
- (5) the record and previous history of the child; and
- (6) the prospects of adequate protection of the public and the likelihood of the rehabilitation of the child by use of procedures, services, and facilities currently available to the juvenile court.

(g) If the juvenile court retains jurisdiction, the child is not subject to criminal prosecution at any time for any offense alleged in the petition or for any offense within the knowledge of the juvenile court judge as evidenced by anything in the record of the proceedings.

(h) If the juvenile court waives jurisdiction, it shall state specifically in the order its reasons for waiver and certify its action, including the written order and findings of the court, and transfer the child to the appropriate court for criminal proceedings. On transfer of the child for criminal proceedings, he shall be dealt with as an adult and in accordance with the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965. The transfer of custody is an arrest. The examining trial shall be conducted by the court to which the case was transferred, which may remand the child to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

(i) If the child's case is brought to the attention of the grand jury and the grand jury does not indict for the offense charged in the complaint forwarded by the juvenile court, the district court or criminal district court shall certify the grand jury's failure to indict to the juvenile court. On receipt of the certification, the juvenile court may resume jurisdiction of the case.

§ 54.03. Adjudication Hearing

(a) A child may be found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision only after an adjudication hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) At the beginning of the adjudication hearing, the juvenile court judge shall explain to the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem:

- (1) the allegations made against the child;
- (2) the nature and possible consequences of the proceedings;
- (3) the child's privilege against self-incrimination;
- (4) the child's right to trial and to confrontation of witnesses;
- (5) the child's right to representation by an attorney if he is not already represented; and
- (6) the child's right to trial by jury.

(c) Trial shall be by jury unless jury is waived in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.

(d) Only material, relevant, and competent evidence in accordance with the requirements for the trial of civil cases may be considered in the adjudication hearing. Except in a detention or discretionary transfer hearing, a social history report or social service file shall not be viewed by the court before the adjudication decision and shall not be viewed by the jury at any time.

(e) A child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision need not be a witness against nor otherwise incriminate himself. An extrajudicial statement which was obtained without fulfilling the requirements of this title or of the constitution of this state or the United States, may not be used in an adjudication hearing. A statement made by the child out of court is insufficient to support a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision unless it is corroborated in whole or in part by other evidence. Evidence illegally seized or obtained is inadmissible in an adjudication hearing.

(f) At the conclusion of the adjudication hearing, the court or jury shall find whether or not the child has engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision. The finding must be based on competent evidence admitted at the hearing. The child shall be presumed to be innocent of the charges against him and no finding that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be returned unless the state has proved such beyond a reasonable doubt. In all jury cases the jury will be instructed that the burden is on the state to prove that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct or is in need of supervision beyond a reasonable doubt.

(g) If the court or jury finds that the child did not engage in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, the court shall dismiss the case with prejudice.

(h) If the finding is that the child did engage in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision, the court or jury shall state which of the allegations in the petition were found to be established by the evidence. The court shall also set a date and time for the disposition hearing.

§ 54.04. Disposition Hearing

(a) The disposition hearing shall be separate, distinct, and subsequent to the adjudication hearing. There is no right to a jury at the disposition hearing.

(b) At the disposition hearing, the juvenile court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the disposition hearing, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in disposition. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(c) No disposition may be made under this section unless the court finds that the child is in need of rehabilitation or that the protection of the public or the child requires that disposition be made. If the court does not so find, it shall dismiss the child and enter a final judgment without any disposition.

(d) If the court makes the finding specified in Subsection (c) of this section, it may:

(1) place the child on probation on such reasonable and lawful terms as the court may determine for a period not to exceed one year, subject to extensions not to exceed one year each:

- (A) in his own home or in the custody of a relative or other fit person;
- (B) in a suitable foster home; or
- (C) in a suitable public or private institution or agency, except the Texas Youth Council; or

(2) if the court or jury found at the conclusion of the adjudication hearing that the child engaged in delinquent conduct, the court may commit the child to the Texas Youth Council.

(e) The Texas Youth Council shall accept a child properly committed to it by a juvenile court even though the child may be 17 years of age or older at the time of commitment.

(f) The court shall state specifically in the order its reasons for the disposition and shall furnish a copy of the order to the child. If the child is placed on probation, the terms of probation shall be written in the order.

(g) In no event may the court commit a child to the Texas Youth Council because the child engaged in conduct defined in Subdivision (2), (3), or (4) of Section 51.03(b) of this code.

(h) At the conclusion of the dispositional hearing, the court shall inform the child of his right to appeal, as required by Section 56.01 of this code.

§ 54.05. Hearing to Modify Disposition

(a) Any disposition, except a commitment to the Texas Youth Council, may be modified by the juvenile court as provided in this section until:

- (1) the child reaches his 18th birthday; or
- (2) the child is earlier discharged by the court or operation of law.

(b) All dispositions automatically terminate when the child reaches his 18th birthday.

(c) There is no right to a jury at a hearing to modify disposition.

(d) A hearing to modify disposition shall be held on the petition of the child and his parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or attorney, or on the petition of the state, a probation officer, or the court itself. Reasonable notice of a hearing to modify disposition shall be given to all parties.

(e) At the hearing to modify disposition, the court may consider written reports from probation officers, professional court employees, or professional consultants in addition to the testimony of witnesses. Prior to the hearing to modify disposition, the court shall provide the attorney for the child with access to all written matter to be considered by the court in deciding whether to modify disposition. The court may order counsel not to reveal items to the child or his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem if such disclosure would materially harm the treatment and rehabilitation of the child or would substantially decrease the likelihood of receiving information from the same or similar sources in the future.

(f) A disposition based on a finding that the child engaged in delinquent conduct may be modified so as to commit the child to the Texas Youth Council if the court after a hearing to modify disposition finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the child violated a reasonable and lawful order of the court.

(g) A disposition based solely on a finding that the child engaged in conduct indicating a need for supervision may not be modified to commit the child to the Texas Youth Council. A new finding in compliance with Section 54.03 of this code must be made that the child engaged in delinquent conduct as defined in Section 51.03(a) of this code.

(h) A hearing shall be held prior to commitment to the Texas Youth Council as a modified disposition. In other disposition modifications, the child and his parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or attorney may waive hearing in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.

(i) The court shall specifically state in the order its reasons for modifying the disposition and shall furnish a copy of the order to the child.

§ 54.06. Judgments for Support

(a) When a child has been placed on probation outside his home, the juvenile court, after giving the parent or other person responsible for the child's support a reasonable opportunity to be heard, may order the parent or other person to pay in a manner directed by the court a reasonable sum for the support in whole or in part of the child.

(b) Orders for support may be enforced as provided in Section 54.07 of this code.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to authorize support payments for a child committed to the Texas Youth Council.

§ 54.07. Enforcement of Order

(a) Any order of the juvenile court may be enforced by contempt.

(b) The juvenile court may enforce its order for support by civil contempt proceedings after 10 days' notice to the defaulting person of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order.

(c) On the motion of any person or agency entitled to receive payments for the benefit of a child, the juvenile court may render judgment against a defaulting person for any amount unpaid and owing after 10 days' notice to the defaulting person of his failure or refusal to carry out the terms of the order. The judgment may be enforced by any means available for the enforcement of judgments for other debts.

§ 54.08. Public Access to Court Hearings

The general public may be excluded from hearings under this title. The court in its discretion may admit such members of the general public as it deems proper.

§ 54.09. Recording of Proceedings

All judicial proceedings under this chapter except detention hearings shall be recorded by stenographic notes or by electronic, mechanical, or other appropriate means. Upon request of any party, a detention hearing shall be recorded.

CHAPTER 55. PROCEEDINGS CONCERNING CHILDREN WITH MENTAL ILLNESS, RETARDATION, DISEASE, OR DEFECT

Section

55.01. Physical or Mental Examination.

55.02. Mentally Ill Child.

Section

55.03. Mentally Retarded Child.

55.04. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Fitness to Proceed.

55.05. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Responsibility.

§ 55.01. Physical or Mental Examination

At any stage of proceedings under this title, the juvenile court may cause the child to be examined by a physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist.

§ 55.02. Mentally Ill Child

(a) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged by petition or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be mentally ill, the court shall initiate proceedings to order temporary hospitalization of the child for observation and treatment.

(b) The Texas Mental Health Code (5547-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governs proceedings for temporary hospitalization except that the juvenile court shall conduct the proceedings whether or not the juvenile court is also a county court.

(c) If the juvenile court enters an order of temporary hospitalization of the child, the child shall be cared for, treated, and released in conformity to the Texas Mental Health Code except:

(1) a juvenile court order of temporary hospitalization of a child automatically expires when the child becomes 21 years of age;

(2) the head of a mental hospital shall notify the juvenile court that ordered temporary hospitalization at least 10 days prior to discharge of the child; and

(3) appeal from juvenile court proceedings under this section shall be to the court of civil appeals as in other proceedings under this title.

(d) If the juvenile court orders temporary hospitalization of a child, the proceedings under this title then pending in juvenile court shall be stayed.

(e) If the child is discharged from the mental hospital before reaching 21 years of age, the juvenile court may:

(1) dismiss the juvenile court proceedings with prejudice; or

(2) continue with proceedings under this title as though no order of temporary hospitalization had been made.

§ 55.03. Mentally Retarded Child

(a) If it appears to the juvenile court, on the suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be mentally retarded, the court shall initiate proceedings to order commitment of the child to a facility for the care and treatment of mentally retarded persons.

(b) The Mentally Retarded Persons Act (Article 3871b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governs proceedings for commitment of a mentally retarded child except that the juvenile court shall conduct the proceedings whether or not the juvenile court is also a county court.

(c) If the juvenile court enters an order committing the child for care and treatment in a facility for mentally retarded persons, the child shall be cared for, treated, and released in conformity to the Mentally Retarded Persons Act except:

(1) the juvenile court that ordered commitment of the child shall be notified at least 10 days prior to discharge of the child; and

(2) appeal from juvenile court proceedings under this section shall be to the court of civil appeals as in other proceedings under this title.

(d) If the juvenile court orders commitment of a child to a facility for the care and treatment of mentally retarded persons, the proceedings under this title then pending in juvenile court shall be stayed.

(e) If the child is discharged from the facility for the care and treatment of mentally retarded persons before reaching 21 years of age, the juvenile court may:

(1) dismiss the juvenile court proceedings with prejudice; or

(2) continue with proceedings under this title as though no order of commitment had been made.

§ 55.04. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Fitness to Proceed

(a) No child who as a result of mental disease or defect lacks capacity to understand the proceedings in juvenile court or to assist in his own defense shall be subjected to discretionary transfer to criminal court, adjudication, disposition, or modification of disposition as long as such incapacity endures.

(b) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may be unfit to proceed, the court shall order appropriate medical and psychiatric inquiry to assist in determining whether the child is unfit to proceed because of mental disease or defect.

(c) The court or jury shall determine from the psychiatric and other evidence at a hearing separate from, but conducted in accordance with the requirements for, the adjudication hearing whether the child is fit or unfit to proceed.

(d) Unfitness to proceed must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence.

(e) If the court or jury determines that the child is fit to proceed, the juvenile court shall continue with proceedings under this title as though no question of fitness to proceed had been raised.

(f) If the court or jury determines that the child is unfit to proceed, the court or jury shall determine whether the child should be committed for a period of temporary hospitalization for observation and treatment in accordance with Section 55.02 of this code or committed to a facility for mentally retarded persons for care and treatment in accordance with Section 55.03 of this code.

(g) Proceedings to determine fitness to proceed may be joined with proceedings under Sections 55.02 and 55.03 of this code.

(h) The fact that the child is unfit to proceed does not preclude any legal objection to the juvenile court proceedings which is susceptible of fair determination prior to the adjudication hearing and without the personal participation of the child.

§ 55.05. Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Responsibility

(a) A child is not responsible for delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision if at the time of such conduct, as a result of mental disease or defect, he lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law.

(b) If it appears to the juvenile court, on suggestion of a party or on the court's own notice, that a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision may not be responsible as a result of mental disease or defect, the court shall order appropriate medical and psychiatric inquiry to assist in determining whether the child is or is not responsible.

(c) The issue of whether the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect shall be tried to the court or jury in the adjudication hearing.

(d) Mental disease or defect excluding responsibility must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence.

(e) In its findings or verdict the court or jury must state whether the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect.

(f) If the court or jury finds the child responsible for his conduct the proceedings shall continue as though no question of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility had been raised.

(g) If the court or jury finds that the child is not responsible for his conduct as a result of mental disease or defect, the court shall dismiss the proceedings with prejudice, and the court shall initiate proceedings under Section 55.02 or 55.03 of this code to determine whether the child should be committed for care and treatment as a mentally ill or mentally retarded child.

(h) A child declared not responsible for his conduct because of mental disease or defect shall not thereafter be subject to proceedings under this title with respect to such conduct, other than proceedings under Section 55.02 or 55.03 of this code.

CHAPTER 56. APPEAL

Section

56.01. Right to Appeal.

56.02. Transcript on Appeal.

§ 56.01. Right to Appeal

(a) An appeal from an order of a juvenile court is to the Texas Court of Civil Appeals and the case may be carried to the Texas Supreme Court by writ of error or upon certificate, as in civil cases generally.

(b) The requirements governing an appeal are as in civil cases generally.

(c) An appeal may be taken by or on behalf of the child from:

(1) an order entered under Section 54.02 of this code respecting transfer of the child to criminal court for prosecution as an adult;

(2) an order entered under Section 54.03 of this code with regard to delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision;

(3) an order entered under Section 54.04 of this code disposing of the case;

(4) an order entered under Section 54.05 of this code respecting modification of a previous juvenile court disposition; or

(5) an order entered under Chapter 55 of this code<sup>1</sup> committing a child to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally retarded.

(d) Notice of appeal shall be given to the juvenile court as in civil cases generally.

(e) On entry of an order that is appealable under this section, the court shall instruct the attorney to advise the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem of the child's right to appeal, of the child's right to representation by counsel on appeal, and of the child's right to appointment of an attorney for appeal if an attorney cannot be obtained because of indigency. If the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem express a desire to appeal, the attorney shall file a notice of appeal with the juvenile court and inform the court whether or not he will handle the appeal.

(f) On entering an order that is appealable under this section, the juvenile court, if the child is not represented by an attorney, shall give notice to the child and his parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem of the child's right to appeal, of the child's right to representation by counsel on appeal, and of the child's right to appointment of an attorney for appeal if an attorney cannot be obtained because of indigency. Counsel shall be appointed under the standards provided in Section 51.10 of this code unless the right to appeal is waived in accordance with Section 51.09 of this code.

(g) An appeal does not suspend the order of the juvenile court, nor does it release the child from the custody of that court or of the person, institution, or agency to whose care the child is committed, unless the juvenile court so orders. However, the appellate court may provide for a personal bond.

(h) If the order appealed from takes custody of the child from his parent, guardian, or custodian, the appeal has precedence over all other cases.

(i) The appellate court may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment or order, including an order of disposition or modified disposition, from which appeal was taken. It may reverse or modify an order of disposition or modified order of disposition while affirming the juvenile court adjudication that the child engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

(j) Neither the child nor his family shall be identified in an appellate opinion rendered in an appeal or habeas corpus proceedings related to juvenile court proceedings under this title. The appellate opinion shall be styled, "In the matter of . . . . .," identifying the child by his initials only.

§ 56.02. Transcript on Appeal

(a) The attorney representing a child on appeal who desires to have included in the record on appeal a transcription of notes of the reporter has the responsibility of obtaining and paying for the transcription and furnishing it to the clerk in duplicate in time for inclusion in the record.

(b) The juvenile court shall order the reporter to furnish a transcription without charge to the attorney if the court finds, after hearing or on an affidavit filed by the child's parent or other person responsible for support of the child that he is unable to pay or to give security therefor.

(c) On certificate of the court that this service has been rendered, payment therefor shall be made from the general funds of the county in which the proceedings appealed from occurred.

(d) The court reporter shall report any portion of the proceedings requested by either party or directed by the court and shall report the proceedings in question and answer form unless a narrative transcript is requested.

Enactment

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 883, ch. 399, § 1, enacted the new Texas Penal Code, effective January 1, 1974. Section 2 thereof made various conforming amendments in the Texas Civil Statutes and Codes and § 3 repealed articles of the Texas Penal Code of 1925 and Vernon's Texas Penal Code, as amended.

Sections 4 to 7 of the 1973 Act provided:

"Sec. 4. Effective date. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1974.

"Sec. 5. Disposition of un repealed articles.<sup>1</sup> (a) The purpose of this section is to provide for transfer of articles of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, which are not repealed by this Act to the civil statutes or other appropriate places within the framework of Texas statute law, without reenactment and without altering the meaning or effect of the unrepealed articles, so that when this Act takes effect there will be only one Texas Penal Code without the confusion that would result if remnants of the old Penal Code were allowed to continue to exist in that form in the statute books.

“(b) In order to carry out the purpose of this section, the Texas Legislative Council shall prepare and submit to the secretary of state, for publication with the Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, an appendix listing the unrepealed articles of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, and prescribing for each unrepealed title, chapter, or article a new official citation. The council may include in the appendix any comments that may be helpful to users of the statute books.

“(c) In order that the five-volume Vernon’s Texas Penal Code Annotated may be completely replaced, the council in the appendix authorized by Subsection (b) of this section may also recommend transfer and reclassification of statutes which were not enacted as part of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, but were compiled as articles of Vernon’s Texas Penal Code.

“(d) Nothing in this section or done under its authority alters the meaning or effect of any statute of this state.

“Sec. 6. Saving provisions. (a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, this Act applies only to offenses committed on or after its effective date, and a criminal action for an offense committed before this Act’s effective date is governed by the law existing before the effective date, which law is continued in effect for this purpose, as if this Act were not in force. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed on or after the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurs on or after the effective date.

“(b) Conduct constituting an offense under existing law that is repealed by this Act and that does not constitute an offense under this Act may not be prosecuted after the effective date of this Act. If, on the effective date of this Act, a criminal action is pending for conduct that was an offense under the laws repealed by this Act and that does not constitute an offense under this Act, the action is dismissed on the effective date of this Act. However, a conviction existing on the effective date of this Act for conduct constituting an offense under laws repealed by this Act is valid and unaffected by this Act. For purposes of this section, “conviction” means a finding of guilt in a court of competent jurisdiction, and it is of no consequence that the conviction is not final.

“(c) In a criminal action pending on or commenced on or after the effective date of this Act, for an offense committed before the effective date, the defendant, if adjudged guilty, shall be assessed punishment under this Act if he so elects by written motion filed with the trial court before the sentencing hearing begins.

“Sec. 7. Severability. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.”

TITLE 1. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section

- 1.01. Short Title.
- 1.02. Objectives of Code.
- 1.03. Effect of Code.
- 1.04. Territorial Jurisdiction.
- 1.05. Construction of Code.
- 1.06. Computation of Age.
- 1.07. Definitions.
- 1.08. Preemption.

§ 1.01. Short Title

This code shall be known and may be cited as the Penal Code.

§ 1.02. Objectives of Code

The general purposes of this code are to establish a system of prohibitions, penalties, and correctional measures to deal with conduct that unjustifiably and inexcusably causes or threatens harm to those individual or public interests for which state protection is appropriate. To this end, the provisions of this code are intended, and shall be construed, to achieve the following objectives:

- (1) to insure the public safety through:
  - (A) the deterrent influence of the penalties hereinafter provided;
  - (B) the rehabilitation of those convicted of violations of this code; and
  - (C) such punishment as may be necessary to prevent likely recurrence of criminal behavior;
- (2) by definition and grading of offenses to give fair warning of what is prohibited and of the consequences of violation;
- (3) to prescribe penalties that are proportionate to the seriousness of offenses and that permit recognition of differences in rehabilitation possibilities among individual offenders;
- (4) to safeguard conduct that is without guilt from condemnation as criminal;
- (5) to guide and limit the exercise of official discretion in law enforcement to prevent arbitrary or oppressive treatment of persons accused or convicted of offenses; and
- (6) to define the scope of state interest in law enforcement against specific offenses and to systematize the exercise of state criminal jurisdiction.

§ 1.03. Effect of Code

(a) Conduct does not constitute an offense unless it is defined as an offense by statute, municipal ordinance, order of a county commissioners court, or rule authorized by and lawfully adopted under a statute.

(b) The provisions of Titles 1, 2, and 3 of this code apply to offenses defined by other laws, unless the statute defining the offense provides otherwise; however, the punishment affixed to an offense defined outside this code shall be applicable unless the punishment is classified in accordance with this code.

(c) This code does not bar, suspend, or otherwise affect a right or liability to damages, penalty, forfeiture, or other remedy authorized by law to be recovered or enforced in a civil suit for conduct this code defines as an offense, and the civil injury is not merged in the offense.

§ 1.04. Territorial Jurisdiction

(a) This state has jurisdiction over an offense that a person commits by his own conduct or the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible if:

(1) either the conduct or a result that is an element of the offense occurs inside this state;

(2) the conduct outside this state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense inside this state;

(3) the conduct outside this state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense inside this state, and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy occurs inside this state; or

(4) the conduct inside this state constitutes an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit, or establishes criminal responsibility for the commission of, an offense in another jurisdiction that is also an offense under the laws of this state.

(b) If the offense is criminal homicide, a "result" is either the physical impact causing death or the death itself. If the body of a criminal homicide victim is found in this state, it is presumed that the death occurred in this state. If death alone is the basis for jurisdiction, it is a defense to the exercise of jurisdiction by this state that the conduct that constitutes the offense is not made criminal in the jurisdiction where the conduct occurred.

(c) An offense based on an omission to perform a duty imposed on an actor by a statute of this state is committed inside this state regardless of the location of the actor at the time of the offense.

(d) This state includes the land and water (and the air space above the land and water) over which this state has power to define offenses.

§ 1.05. Construction of Code

(a) The rule that a penal statute is to be strictly construed does not apply to this code. The provisions of this code shall be construed according to the fair import of their terms, to promote justice and effect the objectives of the code.

(b) Unless a different construction is required by the context, Sections 2.01, 2.02, 2.04, 2.05, and 3.01 through 3.12 of the Code Construction Act (Article 5429b-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) apply to the construction of this code.

1 West's Tex. Stats. & Codes—51

§ 1.06. Computation of Age

A person attains a specified age on the day of the anniversary of his birthdate.

§ 1.08. Preemption

No governmental subdivision or agency may enact or enforce a law that makes any conduct covered by this code an offense subject to a criminal penalty. This section shall apply only as long as the law governing the conduct proscribed by this code is legally enforceable.

CHAPTER 2. BURDEN OF PROOF

Section

2.01. Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt.

2.02. Exception.

2.03. Defense.

2.04. Affirmative Defense.

2.05. Presumption.

2.06. Prima Facie Case.

§ 2.01. Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt

All persons are presumed to be innocent and no person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of the offense is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that he has been arrested, confined, or indicted for, or otherwise charged with, the offense gives rise to no inference of guilt at his trial.

§ 2.02. Exception

(a) An exception to an offense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: "It is an exception to the application of . . ."

(b) The prosecuting attorney must negate the existence of an exception in the accusation charging commission of the offense and prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant or defendant's conduct does not fall within the exception.

(c) This section does not affect exceptions applicable to offenses enacted prior to the effective date of this code.

§ 2.03. Defense

(a) A defense to prosecution for an offense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: "It is a defense to prosecution . . ."

(b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to negate the existence of a defense in the accusation charging commission of the offense.

(c) The issue of the existence of a defense is not submitted to the jury unless evidence is admitted supporting the defense.

(d) If the issue of the existence of a defense is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge that a reasonable doubt on the issue requires that the defendant be acquitted.

(e) A ground of defense in a penal law that is not plainly labeled in accordance with this chapter has the procedural and evidentiary consequences of a defense.

§ 2.04. Affirmative Defense

(a) An affirmative defense in this code is so labeled by the phrase: "It is an affirmative defense to prosecution . . . ."

(b) The prosecuting attorney is not required to negate the existence of an affirmative defense in the accusation charging commission of the offense.

(c) The issue of the existence of an affirmative defense is not submitted to the jury unless evidence is admitted supporting the defense.

(d) If the issue of the existence of an affirmative defense is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge that the defendant must prove the affirmative defense by a preponderance of evidence.

§ 2.05. Presumption

When this code or another penal law establishes a presumption with respect to any fact, it has the following consequences:

(1) if there is sufficient evidence of the facts that give rise to the presumption, the issue of the existence of the presumed fact must be submitted to the jury, unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly precludes a finding beyond a reasonable doubt of the presumed fact; and

(2) if the existence of the presumed fact is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge the jury, in terms of the presumption and the specific element to which it applies, as follows:

(A) that the facts giving rise to the presumption must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt;

(B) that if such facts are proven beyond a reasonable doubt the jury may find that the element of the offense sought to be presumed exists, but it is not bound to so find;

(C) that even though the jury may find the existence of such element, the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the other elements of the offense charged; and

(D) if the jury has a reasonable doubt as to the existence of a fact or facts giving rise to the presumption, the element to which the presumption applies, or any other element of the offense charged, it shall acquit the defendant and say by its verdict not guilty.

§ 2.06. Prima Facie Case

When a statute declares that given facts constitute a prima facie case, proof of such facts warrants submission of a case to the jury with the usual instructions on burden of proof.

CHAPTER 3. MULTIPLE PROSECUTIONS

Section

3.01. Definition.

3.02. Consolidation and Joinder of Prosecutions.

3.03. Sentences for Offenses Arising Out of Same Criminal Episode.

3.04. Severance.

§ 3.01. Definition

In this chapter, "criminal episode" means the repeated commission of any one offense defined in Title 7 of this code (Offenses Against Property).<sup>1</sup>

§ 3.02. Consolidation and Joinder of Prosecutions

(a) A defendant may be prosecuted in a single criminal action for all offenses arising out of the same criminal episode.

(b) When a single criminal action is based on more than one charging instrument within the jurisdiction of the trial court, the state shall file written notice of the action not less than 30 days prior to the trial.

(c) If a judgment of guilt is reversed, set aside, or vacated, and a new trial ordered, the state may not prosecute in a single criminal action in the new trial any offense not joined in the former prosecution unless evidence to establish probable guilt for that offense was not known to the appropriate prosecuting official at the time the first prosecution commenced.

§ 3.03. Sentences for Offenses Arising Out of Same Criminal Episode

When the accused is found guilty of more than one offense arising out of the same criminal episode prosecuted in a single criminal action, sentence for each offense for which he has been found guilty shall be pronounced. Such sentences shall run concurrently.

§ 3.04. Severance

(a) Whenever two or more offenses have been consolidated or joined for trial under Section 3.02 of this code, the defendant shall have a right to a severance of the offenses.

(b) In the event of severance under this section, the provisions of Section 3.03 of this code do not apply, and the court in its discretion may order the sentences to run either concurrently or consecutively.

TITLE 2. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

CHAPTER 6. CULPABILITY GENERALLY

Section

6.01. Requirement of Voluntary Act or Omission.

6.02. Requirement of Culpability.

Section

- 6.03. Definitions of Culpable Mental States.
- 6.04. Causation: Conduct and Results.

§ 6.01. Requirement of Voluntary Act or Omission

(a) A person commits an offense only if he voluntarily engages in conduct, including an act, an omission, or possession, in violation of a statute that provides that the conduct is an offense.

(b) Possession is a voluntary act if the possessor knowingly obtains or receives the thing possessed or is aware of his control of the thing for a sufficient time to permit him to terminate his control.

(c) A person who omits to perform an act does not commit an offense unless a statute provides that the omission is an offense or otherwise provides that he has a duty to perform the act.

§ 6.02. Requirement of Culpability

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, a person does not commit an offense unless he intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with criminal negligence engages in conduct as the definition of the offense requires.

(b) If the definition of an offense does not prescribe a culpable mental state, a culpable mental state is nevertheless required unless the definition plainly dispenses with any mental element.

(c) If the definition of an offense does not prescribe a culpable mental state, but one is nevertheless required under Subsection (b) of this section, intent, knowledge, or recklessness suffices to establish criminal responsibility.

(d) Culpable mental states are classified according to relative degrees, from highest to lowest, as follows:

- (1) intentional;
- (2) knowing;
- (3) reckless;
- (4) criminal negligence.

(e) Proof of a higher degree of culpability than that charged constitutes proof of the culpability charged.

§ 6.03. Definitions of Culpable Mental States

(a) A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

(b) A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to circumstances surrounding his conduct when he is aware of the nature of his conduct or that the circumstances exist. A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

(c) A person acts recklessly, or is reckless, with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he is aware of but consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that its disregard constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

(d) A person acts with criminal negligence, or is criminally negligent, with respect to circumstances surrounding his conduct or the result of his conduct when he ought to be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the circumstances exist or the result will occur. The risk must be of such a nature and degree that the failure to perceive it constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that an ordinary person would exercise under all the circumstances as viewed from the actor's standpoint.

§ 6.04. Causation: Conduct and Results

(a) A person is criminally responsible if the result would not have occurred but for his conduct, operating either alone or concurrently with another cause, unless the concurrent cause was clearly sufficient to produce the result and the conduct of the actor clearly insufficient.

(b) A person is nevertheless criminally responsible for causing a result if the only difference between what actually occurred and what he desired, contemplated, or risked is that:

- (1) a different offense was committed; or
- (2) a different person or property was injured, harmed, or otherwise affected.

- 7.01. Parties to Offenses.
- 7.02. Criminal Responsibility for Conduct of Another.
- 7.03. Defenses Excluded.

SUBCHAPTER B. CORPORATIONS AND ASSOCIATIONS

- 7.21. Definitions.
- 7.22. Criminal Responsibility of Corporation or Association.
- 7.23. Criminal Responsibility of Person for Conduct in Behalf of Corporation or Association.
- 7.24. Defense to Criminal Responsibility of Corporation or Association.

SUBCHAPTER A. COMPLICITY

§ 7.01. Parties to Offenses

(a) A person is criminally responsible as a party to an offense if the offense is committed by his own conduct, by the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible, or by both.

(b) Each party to an offense may be charged with commission of the offense.

(c) All traditional distinctions between accomplices and principals are abolished by this section, and each party to an offense may be charged and convicted without alleging that he acted as a principal or accomplice.

§ 7.02. Criminal Responsibility for Conduct of Another

(a) A person is criminally responsible for an offense committed by the conduct of another if:

(1) acting with the kind of culpability required for the offense, he causes or aids an innocent or nonresponsible person to engage in conduct prohibited by the definition of the offense;

(2) acting with intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, he solicits, encourages, directs, aids, or attempts to aid the other person to commit the offense; or

(3) having a legal duty to prevent commission of the offense and acting with intent to promote or assist its commission, he fails to make a reasonable effort to prevent commission of the offense.

(b) If, in the attempt to carry out a conspiracy to commit one felony, another felony is committed by one of the conspirators, all conspirators are guilty of the felony actually committed, though having no intent to commit it, if the offense was committed in furtherance of the unlawful purpose and was one that should have been anticipated as a result of the carrying out of the conspiracy.

§ 7.03. Defenses Excluded

In a prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility is based on the conduct of another, the actor may be convicted on proof of commission of the offense and that he was a party to its commission, and it is no defense:

(1) that the actor belongs to a class of persons that by definition of the offense is legally incapable of committing the offense in an individual capacity; or

(2) that the person for whose conduct the actor is criminally responsible has been acquitted, has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or of a different type or class of offense, or is immune from prosecution.

[Sections 7.04 to 7.20 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. CORPORATIONS AND ASSOCIATIONS

§ 7.21. Definitions

In this subchapter:

(1) "Agent" means a director, officer, employee, or other person authorized to act in behalf of a corporation or association.

(2) "High managerial agent" means:

(A) a partner in a partnership;

(B) an officer of a corporation or association;

(C) an agent of a corporation or association who has duties of such responsibility that his conduct reasonably may be assumed to represent the policy of the corporation or association.

§ 7.22. Criminal Responsibility of Corporation or Association

(a) If conduct constituting an offense is performed by an agent acting in behalf of a corporation or association and within the scope of his office or employment, the corporation or association is criminally responsible for an offense defined:

(1) in this code where corporations and associations are made subject thereto;

(2) by law other than this code in which a legislative purpose to impose criminal responsibility on corporations or associations plainly appears; or

(3) by law other than this code for which strict liability is imposed, unless a legislative purpose not to impose criminal responsibility on corporations or associations plainly appears.

(b) A corporation is criminally responsible for a felony offense only if its commission was authorized, requested, commanded, performed, or recklessly tolerated by:

(1) a majority of the board of directors acting in behalf of the corporation or association; or

(2) a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the corporation or association and within the scope of his office or employment.

§ 7.23. Criminal Responsibility of Person for Conduct in Behalf of Corporation or Association

(a) An individual is criminally responsible for conduct that he performs in the name of or in behalf of a corporation or association to the same extent as if the conduct were performed in his own name or behalf.

(b) An agent having primary responsibility for the discharge of a duty to act imposed by law on a corporation or association is criminally responsible for omission to discharge the duty to the same extent as if the duty were imposed by law directly on him.

(c) If an individual is convicted of conduct constituting an offense performed in the name of or on behalf of a corporation or association, he is subject to the sentence authorized by law for an individual convicted of the offense.

§ 7.24. Defense to Criminal Responsibility of Corporation or Association

(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution of a corporation or association under Section 7.22(a)(1) or (a)(2) of this code that the high managerial agent having supervisory responsibility over the subject matter of the offense employed due diligence to prevent its commission.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if it is plainly inconsistent with the legislative purpose expressed in the law defining the particular offense.

CHAPTER 8. GENERAL DEFENSES TO CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Section

8.01. Insanity.

8.02. Mistake of Fact.

Section

- 8.03. Mistake of Law.
- 8.04. Intoxication.
- 8.05. Duress.
- 8.06. Entrapment.
- 8.07. Age Affecting Criminal Responsibility.

§ 8.01. Insanity

(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that, at the time of the conduct charged, the actor, as a result of mental disease or defect, either did not know that his conduct was wrong or was incapable of conforming his conduct to the requirements of the law he allegedly violated.

(b) The term "mental disease or defect" does not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.

§ 8.02. Mistake of Fact

(a) It is a defense to prosecution that the actor through mistake formed a reasonable belief about a matter of fact if his mistaken belief negated the kind of culpability required for commission of the offense.

(b) Although an actor's mistake of fact may constitute a defense to the offense charged, he may nevertheless be convicted of any lesser included offense of which he would be guilty if the fact were as he believed.

§ 8.03. Mistake of Law

(a) It is no defense to prosecution that the actor was ignorant of the provisions of any law after the law has taken effect.

(b) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor reasonably believed the conduct charged did not constitute a crime and that he acted in reasonable reliance upon:

(1) an official statement of the law contained in a written order or grant of permission by an administrative agency charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question; or

(2) a written interpretation of the law contained in an opinion of a court of record or made by a public official charged by law with responsibility for interpreting the law in question.

(c) Although an actor's mistake of law may constitute a defense to the offense charged, he may nevertheless be convicted of a lesser included offense of which he would be guilty if the law were as he believed.

§ 8.04. Intoxication

(a) Voluntary intoxication does not constitute a defense to the commission of crime.

(b) Evidence of temporary insanity caused by intoxication may be introduced by the actor in mitigation of the penalty attached to the offense for which he is being tried.

(c) When temporary insanity is relied upon as a defense and the evidence tends to show that such insanity was caused by intoxication, the court shall charge the jury in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(d) For purposes of this section "intoxication" means disturbance of mental or physical capacity resulting from the introduction of any substance into the body.

§ 8.05. Duress

(a) It is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was compelled to do so by threat of imminent death or serious bodily injury to himself or another.

(b) In a prosecution for an offense that does not constitute a felony, it is an affirmative defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was compelled to do so by force or threat of force.

(c) Compulsion within the meaning of this section exists only if the force or threat of force would render a person of reasonable firmness incapable of resisting the pressure.

(d) The defense provided by this section is unavailable if the actor intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly placed himself in a situation in which it was probable that he would be subjected to compulsion.

(e) It is no defense that a person acted at the command or persuasion of his spouse, unless he acted under compulsion that would establish a defense under this section.

§ 8.06. Entrapment

(a) It is a defense to prosecution that the actor engaged in the conduct charged because he was induced to do so by a law enforcement agent using persuasion or other means likely to cause persons to commit the offense. Conduct merely affording a person an opportunity to commit an offense does not constitute entrapment.

(b) In this section "law enforcement agent" includes personnel of the state and local law enforcement agencies as well as of the United States and any person acting in accordance with instructions from such agents.

§ 8.07. Age Affecting Criminal Responsibility

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, a person may not be prosecuted or convicted for any offense that he committed when younger than 15 years.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, a person who is younger than 17 years may not be prosecuted or convicted for any offense, unless the juvenile court waives jurisdiction and certifies him for criminal prosecution.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to prosecutions for:

(1) aggravated perjury, when it appears by proof that the actor had sufficient discretion to understand the nature and obligation of an oath;

(2) a violation of a penal statute cognizable under Chapter 302, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended;<sup>1</sup> or

(3) a violation of a motor vehicle traffic ordinance of an incorporated city or town.

(d) No person who has been adjudged a delinquent child may be convicted of any offense alleged in the petition to adjudge him a delinquent child or any offense within the knowledge of the juvenile judge as evidenced by anything in the record of the juvenile proceeding.

(e) No person may, in any case, be punished by death for an offense committed while he was younger than 17 years.

SUBCHAPTER F. SPECIAL RELATIONSHIPS

- 9.61. Parent—Child.
- 9.62. Educator—Student.
- 9.63. Guardian—Incompetent.

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 9.01. Definitions.

In this chapter:

(1) "Custody" means:

- (A) under arrest by a peace officer; or
- (B) under restraint by a public servant pursuant to an order of a court.

(2) "Escape" means unauthorized departure from custody or failure to return to custody following temporary leave for a specific purpose or limited period, but does not include a violation of conditions of probation or parole.

(3) "Deadly force" means force that is intended or known by the actor to cause, or in the manner of its use or intended use is capable of causing, death or serious bodily injury.

§ 9.02. Justification as a Defense

It is a defense to prosecution that the conduct in question is justified under this chapter.

§ 9.03. Confinement as Justifiable Force

Confinement is justified when force is justified by this chapter if the actor takes reasonable measures to terminate the confinement as soon as he knows he safely can unless the person confined has been arrested for an offense.

§ 9.04. Threats as Justifiable Force

The threat of force is justified when the use of force is justified by this chapter. For purposes of this section, a threat to cause death or serious bodily injury by the production of a weapon or otherwise, as long as the actor's purpose is limited to creating an apprehension that he will use deadly force if necessary, does not constitute the use of deadly force.

§ 9.05. Reckless Injury of Innocent Third Person

Even though an actor is justified under this chapter in threatening or using force or deadly force against another, if in doing so he also recklessly injures or kills an innocent third person, the justification afforded by this chapter is unavailable in a prosecution for the reckless injury or killing of the innocent third person.

§ 9.06. Civil Remedies Unaffected

The fact that conduct is justified under this chapter does not abolish or impair any remedy for the conduct that is available in a civil suit.

[Sections 9.07 to 9.20 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. JUSTIFICATION GENERALLY

§ 9.21. Public Duty

(a) Except as qualified by Subsections (b) and (c) of this section, conduct is justified if the actor reasonably believes the conduct is required or authorized by law, by the judgment or order of a competent court or other governmental tribunal, or in the execution of legal process.

(b) The other sections of this chapter control when force is used against a person to protect persons (Subchapter C),<sup>1</sup> to protect property (Subchapter D),<sup>2</sup> for law enforcement (Subchapter E),<sup>3</sup> or by virtue of a special relationship (Subchapter F).<sup>4</sup>

(c) The use of deadly force is not justified under this section unless the actor reasonably believes the deadly force is specifically required by statute or unless it occurs in the lawful conduct of war. If deadly force is so justified, there is no duty to retreat before using it.

(d) The justification afforded by this section is available if the actor reasonably believes:

- (1) the court or governmental tribunal has jurisdiction or the process is lawful, even though the court or governmental tribunal lacks jurisdiction or the process is unlawful; or

(2) his conduct is required or authorized to assist a public servant in the performance of his official duty, even though the servant exceeds his lawful authority.

- <sup>1</sup> Section 9.31 et seq.
- <sup>2</sup> Section 9.41 et seq.
- <sup>3</sup> Section 9.51 et seq.
- <sup>4</sup> Section 9.61 et seq.

§ 9.22. Necessity

Conduct is justified if:

(1) the actor reasonably believes the conduct is immediately necessary to avoid imminent harm;

(2) the desirability and urgency of avoiding the harm clearly outweigh, according to ordinary standards of reasonableness, the harm sought to be prevented by the law prescribing the conduct; and

(3) a legislative purpose to exclude the justification claimed for the conduct does not otherwise plainly appear.

SUBCHAPTER C. PROTECTION OF PERSONS

§ 9.31. Self-Defense

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, a person is justified in using force against another when and to the degree he reasonably believes the force is immediately necessary to protect himself against the other's use or attempted use of unlawful force.

(b) A person may not be convicted under this section on the uncorroborated testimony of the person allegedly solicited and unless the solicitation is made under circumstances strongly corroborative of both the solicitation itself and the actor's intent that the other person act on the solicitation.

(c) It is no defense to prosecution under this section that:

(1) the person solicited is not criminally responsible for the felony solicited;

(2) the person solicited has been acquitted, has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or of a different type or class of offense, or is immune from prosecution;

Art. 666-3a. Definitions

The following definitions of words and terms shall apply as used in this Act:

(1) "Alcoholic Beverage" shall mean alcohol and any beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent ( $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%) of alcohol by volume which is capable of use for beverage purposes, either alone or when diluted.

(2) "Consignment Sale" shall mean the delivery of alcoholic beverages under any agreement, arrangement, condition, or system whereby the person receiving the same has the right at any time to relinquish possession to or return them to the shipper and whereby title to such remains in the shipper. It shall also mean the delivery of alcoholic beverages under any agreement, arrangement, condition, or system whereby the person designated as the receiver merely acts as an intermediary for the shipper or seller and the actual receiver as well as the delivery of alcoholic beverages to a factor or broker or any other method employed by a shipper or seller whereby any person is placed in actual or constructive possession of alcoholic beverages without acquiring title thereto, or any method employed by a shipper or seller whereby any person designated as the purchaser does not in fact purchase the same. It is not intended that this definition shall exclude any other kind of transaction which in law may be construed as a consignment sale.

(e) The holder of such permit continues to comply with all of the provisions of Section 18 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act, except the provision prohibiting the licensing of only a portion of a building as "premise."

(1). The Board or Administrator shall have the power upon its own motion, and it is hereby made its duty upon petition of any Mayor, Chief of Police, or any City Marshal, or the City Attorney of any city or town, or the County Judge, Sheriff, or County or District Attorney of any county of this State wherein may be located the place of business of any permittee complained of, which said petition shall be supported by the sworn statement of at least one credible person, to fix a date for hearing and give notice thereof to any permittee complained of for the purpose of determining whether the permit should be cancelled or suspended and notify such permittee that he may appear to show cause why such permit should not be cancelled or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2). In all cases where application is made for a permit, the Board or Administrator shall give due consideration to the recommendations of any of the above enumerated officers in granting or refusing such permit. In all instances where a protest against the issuance of a permit is made to the Board by the above enumerated officers, if upon a hearing or upon any finding of facts, it is determined that the issuance of a permit would be in conflict with the requirements as set out in this Act, the Board or Administrator shall enter its order accordingly. A copy of any order or refusal shall be mailed or delivered immediately to the applicant which said order shall set forth the reasons for refusal.

(3). The Board or Administrator may designate any of its members or other representatives to conduct any hearing, authorized by this Act, make a record thereof, and the Board or Administrator may upon such record render its decision as though the hearing had been held before all members of the Board or Administrator. The Board may prescribe its own rules of procedure and evidence.

(4). All notices of hearing for refusal, cancellation, or suspension may be served personally or by any representative of the Board or by sending the same by United States registered mail addressed to the person cited at his last known address and no other notice shall be necessary. At least three (3) days notice shall be given in all instances where a hearing is provided for by this Act. Notice of cancellation or suspension stating the reason therefor, shall be served upon the permittee or upon whatever person may be in charge temporarily, or otherwise, of the licensed premises, or shall be affixed to the outside of the door of the licensed premises, or shall be sent by United States registered mail addressed to such permittee or licensee at the licensed premises, or said cancellation notice shall be published by the Board once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks in the county in which the licensed premises are located, or if no newspaper is published in the county, in a newspaper in a neighboring county. written instrument, executed by any person and he shall by plea under oath deny the execution of such instrument, the court shall require the production and proof of the same.

In the event the Attorney General shall file suit or claim for taxes and attach or file as an exhibit any report or audit of said permittee or licensee, and an affidavit made by the Administrator or his representative that the taxes shown to be due by said report or audit are past due and unpaid, that all payments and credits have been allowed, then, unless the party resisting the same shall file an answer in the same form and manner as required by Article 3736, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, as amended by Chapter 239, Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature,<sup>1</sup> said audit or report shall be taken as prima facie evidence thereof, and the proceedings of said Article are hereby made applicable to suits to collect taxes hereunder.

A certificate under the seal of the Board executed by any member or the Administrator setting forth the terms of any order, rule, regulation, bond, or other instrument referred to in this Section and that the same has been adopted, promulgated, and published or executed and filed with the Board and was in force and effect at any date or during any period specified in such certificate, shall be prima facie evidence of all such facts, and such certificate shall be admitted in evidence in any action, civil or criminal, involving such order, rule, and regulation and the publication thereof, without further proof of such promulgation, adoption, or publication and without further proof of its contents and the same provision shall apply to any bond or other instrument referred to in this Section.

(b) The Board or Administrator is authorized to issue an Airline-Beverage Permit to each corporation operating a commercial airline in or through the State of Texas. The annual fee for an Airline-Beverage Permit shall be One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). The provisions of Sections 15a1 and 18 of this Article shall not apply to Airline-Beverage Permits. Application and payment of the fee shall be made directly to the Board.

(c) Under rules and regulations promulgated by the Board, the holder of an Airline-Beverage Permit may store alcoholic beverages in sealed containers of any size within the boundaries of any airport served by the holder on a regular basis.

(d) As to all alcoholic beverages on board any commercial passenger aircraft departing from any airport in this state, the taxes imposed by the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be paid as prescribed by rules and regulations of the Board.

(e) Neither the preparation nor the serving of alcoholic beverages by the holder of an Airline-

Beverage Permit to its passengers shall be considered as a sale for consideration but shall be completely exempt from the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as amended. In lieu of that tax, there is hereby imposed a special airline-beverage service fee in the amount of five cents ($.05) for each individual serving of an alcoholic beverage served by such permit holder within the boundaries of this state. Such fee shall be imposed at the time of the delivery to the passenger of the container containing any alcoholic beverage, and the permit holder may absorb the cost of the fee or may collect the fee from the passenger. The fees shall be remitted monthly by the permit holder to the Board under a reporting system prescribed by rules and regulations of the Board.

(f) Only the holder of a Package Store Permit shall be authorized to sell liquor to the holder of an Airline-Beverage Permit; and for the purposes of this Act, any sale of liquor to the holder of an Airline-Beverage Permit shall be considered a sale at retail to a consumer. Anyone who knowingly violates the provisions of this subsection will forfeit his permit as Package Store Permittee and/or an Airline-Beverage Permittee.

(22) Mixed Beverage Permit. (a) A Mixed Beverage Permit authorizes the holder to sell mixed beverages from unsealed containers, or from sealed containers containing no less than one fluid ounce but not more than two fluid ounces, for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued. If a mixed beverage establishment is located in a hotel, the permittee may deliver wine and beer to individual rooms of the hotel without regard to whether the hotel rooms are part of the licensed premises.

(b) Notwithstanding the limitation set out in this subsection and in Section 20e of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act,<sup>7</sup> a Mixed Beverage Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to purchase wine, beer, and malt liquor in a container of any legal size containing alcohol of not more than twenty-one per centum (21%) by volume from the holder of any permit or license which authorizes the holder thereof to sell same for resale, and the Mixed Beverage Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to sell such wine, beer and malt liquor in a container of any legal size for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued.

(c) The annual fee for a Mixed Beverage Permit is Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) for an original permit, One Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) for the first annual renewal, One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for the second annual renewal, and Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the third annual and each subsequent annual renewal.

(23) Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. (a) The Commission may, in its discretion, issue on a temporary basis a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. The fee for the permit is Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per day.

(b) The permit authorizes the sale of mixed beverages for consumption on the premises for which the permit is issued and may only be issued to a political party or political association supporting a candidate for public office or a proposed amendment to the State Constitution or other ballot measure, an organization formed for a specific charitable or civic purpose, a fraternal organization in existence for over five years with a regular membership, or a religious organization.

(c) Distilled spirits sold under a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit must be purchased from the holder of a Local Distributor's permit.

(d) All provisions of this Act applicable to a Mixed Beverage Permit also apply to a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit, unless there is a special provision to the contrary.

(e) The requirements which apply to the application and issuance of other permits contained in this Act do not apply to the application and issuance of a Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permit. The Commission may adopt such rules and regulations as it determines to be necessary to implement and administer the provisions of this Section, including, but not limited to, limitations on the number of times during any calendar year a qualified organization may be issued a license provided for by this Section.

(24) Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit. A Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit authorizes the holder to sell mixed beverages on Sunday between the hours of 1 a. m. and 2 a. m. and on any day except Sunday between the hours of 12 midnight and 2 a. m. if the premises covered by the permit are in an area where the sale of mixed beverages during those hours is authorized by this Act. All Sections of this Act which apply to a Mixed Beverage Permit also apply to a Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit. The annual State fee for a Mixed Beverage Late Hours Permit is One Hundred Dollars ($100).

(25) (a) Caterer's Permit. A Caterer's Permit may only be issued to the holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit. It authorizes the Mixed Beverage Permittee to sell mixed beverages on a temporary basis at a place other than the premises for which the Mixed Beverage Permit is issued, but only in an area where the sale of such beverages has been authorized by a local option election.

(b) The provisions of this Act which apply to the application and issuance of other permits do not apply to the application and issuance of a Caterer's Permit. The restrictions and regulations which apply to the sale of mixed beverages on the licensed premises also apply to the sale under the authority of a Caterer's Permit, and any act which is prohibited on the licensed premises is also prohibited when the permittee is operating other than on the licensed premises under a Caterer's Permit. Any act which, if done on the licensed premises would be a ground for cancellation or suspension of the Mixed Beverage Permit, is a ground for cancellation of both the Mixed Beverage Permit and the Caterer's Permit if done when the permittee is operating away from the licensed premises under the authority of a Caterer's Permit.

(c) A Caterer's Permit is auxiliary to the primary Mixed Beverage Permit held by the permittee. All receipts from the sale of mixed beverages under the authority of the Caterer's Permit shall be treated for tax purposes as if they were made under the authority of the primary permit. If the primary permit ceases to be valid for any reason, the Caterer's Permit ceases to be valid. All provisions of this Act applicable to the primary permit not inconsistent with this subsection apply to a Caterer's Permit.

(d) The Commission shall adopt rules and regulations governing the application, issuance, and use of Caterer's Permits.

(e) The annual fee for a Caterer's Permit is Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250).

of a Package Store, Wine Only Package Store, or Mixed Beverage Permittee, or any interest of any kind in the premises in which any such Package Store, Wine Only Package Store, or Mixed Beverage Permittee conducts its business.

It shall be unlawful for any person who owns or has an interest in the business of a Distiller, Brewer, Rectifier, Wholesaler, Class B Wholesaler, Class A Winery, Class B Winery, Wine Bottler, Local Distributor's Permit or any agent, servant or employee: (a) to own or have an interest directly or indirectly in the business, premises, equipment or fixtures of any Mixed Beverage Permit; (b) to furnish, give or lend any money or service or other thing of value, or to guarantee the fulfillment of any financial obligation of any Mixed Beverage Permittee; (c) to make or offer to enter into an agreement, condition, or system, the effect of which will amount to the shipment and delivery of alcoholic beverages on consignment; (d) to furnish, give, rent, lend, or sell to any Mixed Beverage Permittee any equipment, fixtures, or supplies to be used in the selling or dispensing of alcoholic beverages; (e) to pay or make any allowances to any Mixed Beverage Permittee for a special advertising or distributing service, or to allow any excessive discounts; (f) to offer any prize, premium, gift or other similar inducement, other than to the extent authorized by Section 17(3)(g) of this Article I,<sup>7</sup> to any Mixed Beverage Permittee or the agent, servant, or employee thereof or to advertise in the convention program or sponsor a function at a meeting or convention of any corporate trade association of holders of Mixed Beverage Permits. Art. 666-17a. Possession of Equipment or Material for Manufacturing Illicit Beverages; False Statement in Application for Permit or License; Perjury

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any equipment or material designed for, capable of use for, or used in the manufacturing of any illicit beverage.

(2) Any person who makes any false statement or representation in his application for a permit or license, or in any statement, report, or other instrument to be filed with the Board, which is required to be sworn to, shall be deemed guilty of perjury and his punishment fixed as prescribed for such offense in Article 308 of the Penal Code, 1925.

[Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 1053, ch. 448, § 23.]

Art. 666-17b. Anti-Tied House Restrictions; Applications for Permits; Investigation; Enforcement; Exceptions

(1) In considering any original application or renewal application for any permit authorized to be issued under the terms of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act, except such permits as are specifically excluded by subparagraph (4) of this Section, the Board or Administrator may make such investigation or request such additional information as may be deemed necessary to enforce the provisions of this Section and to provide strict adherence to a general policy prohibiting the "tied house" and related practices hereinafter declared to constitute unfair competition and unlawful trade practices. The term "tied house" as used herein shall mean any overlapping ownership or other prohibited relationship between those engaged in the alcoholic beverage industry at different levels, that is, between a manufacturer and a wholesaler or retailer, or between a wholesaler and a retailer, as the words wholesaler, retailer, and manufacturer are generally used and understood, regardless of the specific designations used in Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act for the various types of permits herein authorized to be issued.

(2) In furtherance of the general anti-tied house and anti-subterfuge policy, it is specifically declared that:

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person owning or having any interest in any permit issued under the terms of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act to secure or to hold, either directly or indirectly, any ownership or ownership interest in the business or stocks (including stock options, convertible debentures, or other similar interests) in a permit or the business of a permittee of a different level which maintains licensed premises in Texas.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to act or serve as officer, director, or employee of the businesses of permittees of a different level.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any permittee to own the premises, fixtures, or equipment of a permittee of a different level.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any permittee to secure or in any manner to obtain the use of any premises, fixtures, or equipment on the credit of a permittee of a different level.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any permittee to loan to, or by means of his credit to secure a loan for, any permittee of a different level. In the event that any permittee secures a loan from any out-of-state source, there shall be a presumption of tied house or subterfuge, and the permittee securing such loan shall have the burden of showing that he has been guilty of no violation of this Section of the Texas Liquor Control Act.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any permittee to enter, with any other permittee of a different level or with any other person or legal entity, into any conspiracy or agreement to control or manage, financially or administratively, directly or indirectly, in any form or degree, the business or interests of any other permittee of a different level.

(g) It shall be unlawful for any permittee to enter, with any other permittee, into any profit-sharing agreement of any kind or any agreement relating to the repurchase of any assets or any agreement attempting to effectuate the shipment or delivery of any alcoholic beverage or beverages on consignment.

(3) The Board or Administrator, upon the finding of any violation of law specified in any subparagraph of Subsection (2) above, shall cancel or suspend for a period of time not less than six (6) months the permit of the permittee or permittees involved. Any person who has held or who has had any interest of any kind in any permit which has been cancelled under the terms of this provision shall thereafter for a period of one (1) year be ineligible to hold or to have any interest of any kind in any permit which is authorized to be issued under the terms of this Act.

(4) The provisions of this Section shall not be applied to any application for the renewal of any permit held by an applicant who was engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in this state under charter or permit prior to August 24, 1935, or to any application for renewal of either a Non-resident Seller's Permit or a Wholesaler's Permit held by an applicant who was the holder of the same type of permit on January 1, 1941, and who has continuously since that date been the holder of such a permit. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 80, ch. 38, § 16, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 666-18. Qualifications of Permittees; Scope of Permits; Subterfuge Ownership; Premises and Control of Permittees; Package Store Permits; Civil Remedies

No person who has not been a citizen of Texas for a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of his application therefor shall be eligible to receive a permit under this Act. No permit except a Brewer's Permit, and such other licenses and permits as are necessary to the operation of a Brewer's Permit, shall be issued to a corporation unless the same be incorporated under the laws of the state and unless at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the stock of the corporation is owned at all times by citizens who have resided within the state for a period of three (3) years and who possess the qualifications required of other applicants for permits; provided, however, that the restrictions contained in the preceding clause shall not apply to domestic or foreign corporations that were engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in this state under charter or permit prior to August 24, 1935. Partnerships, firms, and associations applying for permits shall be composed wholly of citizens possessing the qualifications above enumerated. Any corporation (except carrier) holding a permit under this Act which shall violate any provisions hereof, or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder, shall be subject to forfeiture of its charter and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, when any such violation is called to his attention, to file a suit for such cancellation in a District Court of Travis County. Such provisions of this section as require Texas citizenship or require incorporation in Texas shall not apply to the holders of agent's, industrial, medicinal and carrier's permits. No person shall sell, warehouse, store or solicit orders for any liquor in any wet area without first having procured a permit of the class required for such privilege, or consent to the use of or allow his permit to be displayed by or used by any person other than the one to whom the permit was issued. It is the intent of the Legislature to prevent subterfuge ownership of or unlawful use of a permit or the premises covered by such permit; and all provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be liberally construed to carry out this intent, and it shall be the duty of the Board or the Administrator to provide strict adherence to the general policy of preventing subterfuge ownership and related practices hereinafter declared to constitute unlawful trade practices. No applicant for a Package Store Permit or a renewal thereof shall have authority to designate as "premise" and the Board or Administrator shall not approve a lesser area than that specifically defined as "premise" in Section 3-a(7)<sup>1</sup> of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act as enacted by the 44th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1935. Every permittee shall have and maintain exclusive occupancy and control of the entire licensed premises in every phase of the storage, distribution, possession, and transportation and sale of all alcoholic beverages purchased, stored or sold on the licensed premises. Any device, scheme or plan which surrenders control of the employees, premises or business of the permittee to persons other than the permittee shall be unlawful. No person under the age of twenty-one (21) years, unless accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, adult husband or adult wife, or other adult person into whose custody he or she has been committed for the time by some court, shall knowingly be allowed on the premises of the holder of a Package Store Permit. Any permittee who shall be injured in his business or property by reason of anything prohibited in this section may institute suit in any district court in the county wherein the violation is alleged to have occurred to require enforcement by injunctive procedures and/or to recover threefold the damages by him sustained; plus costs of suit including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Art. 666-19. Cancellation or Suspension of Permit on Conviction; Suit on Bond; Liability of Surety

If a person has been finally convicted in any Court for the violation of any provision of this Act or of any rule and regulation of the Board, the Board or Administrator may cancel or suspend any permit which he may hold or in which he may have an interest and no appeal from such action shall be allowed.

When any person who holds a permit or who has an interest in a permit shall be finally convicted for the violation of any provision of this Act or of any rule and regulation of the Board, or if his permit or a permit in which he has an interest has been cancelled by the Board or Administrator and no appeal is pending, the Board may in its own name institute action upon the bond supporting such permit for the benefit of the State. Upon proof of such conviction or cancellation of the permit, the Court before whom such suit is brought shall render judgment in favor of the Board for all fines, costs, and fifteen (15) per centum of the face value of the bond.

If any permittee shall fail to remit seasonably any money due the State, the surety on his bond shall be liable for all such taxes or money due the State and in addition thereto a penalty of fifteen (15) per centum of the face value of the bond. Suits for the collection of any of the amounts herein specified shall be brought in any Court of competent jurisdiction of Travis County, Texas.

Nothing in this Act shall be construed to impose upon the surety on any such bond a greater liability than the total amount thereof or the amount remaining unextinguished by any prior recovery or recoveries as the case may be.

The surety may terminate its liability under such bond by giving thirty (30) days' written notice thereof, served either personally or by registered mail, to the principal and to the Board; and upon giving such notice the surety shall be discharged from all liability under such bond for any act or omission of the principal occurring after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date of service of such notice. Unless on or before the expiration of such period, the principal shall duly file a new bond in like amount and conditioned as the original in substitution of the bond so terminated, the permit of the principal shall likewise terminate upon the expiration of such period.

Art. 666-20. Searches and Seizures

A search warrant may issue under Title 6 of the Code of Criminal Procedure<sup>1</sup> for the purpose of searching for, seizing, and destroying any alcoholic beverage possessed, sold, transported, manufactured, kept, or stored in violation of the provisions of this Act; for the purpose of searching for and seizing any equipment and instrumentality used for, capable of use for, or designed for use in the manufacturing of any illicit beverage or any vehicle or instrumentality used or to be used for the illegal transportation or storage of any illicit beverage, unlawful equipment, or materials used or to be used in the illegal manufacturing of any illicit beverage and for the purpose of searching for and seizing any forged or counterfeit stamp, die, plate, official signature, certificate, evidence of tax payment, license, or other instrument pertaining to this Act, or any instrumentality, or equipment, or parts thereof used or to be used, designed, or capable of use for the manufacturing, printing, etching, inditing, or any other way bringing into existence any forged or counterfeit stamp, die, plate, certificate, official signature, evidence of tax payment, permit, license, or any other instrument pertaining to this Act.

Search warrants may be issued by any magistrate upon the affidavit of a credible person, setting forth the name or description of the owner or person in charge of the premises to be searched, or stating that his name and description are unknown, the address or description of the premises, and showing that the described premise is a place where some specified phase or phases of this Act are violated or are being violated. If the place to be searched is a private dwelling occupied as such and no part thereof is used as a store, shop, hotel, boarding house, or any purpose other than a private residence such affidavit shall be made by two (2) credible persons.

Except as herein provided the application, issuance, and execution of any such warrant and all proceedings relative thereto shall conform as near as may be to the provisions of Title 6 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

All such alcoholic beverages and articles shall be seized by the officer executing the warrant and shall not be taken from the custody of any officer by writ of replevin nor any other process but shall be held by such officer to await final judgment in the proceedings. It is not intended by the provisions of this Section that a search warrant shall be required for any peace officer or any agent, representative, or inspector of the Board to search any premise covered by any permit or license under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 666-20a. Tax on Liquor Prescriptions

(a) There is hereby levied a tax upon every prescription for liquor, when the same is filled by a pharmacist, in the sum of twenty-two (22) cents.

(b) The tax herein levied shall be paid by the affixation of a tax stamp to each prescription before the liquor prescribed thereon is sold or dispensed by the pharmacist.

(c) The Texas Liquor Control Board shall by rule and regulation require the keeping of such records and the rendering of such reports as it may deem advisable in order to enforce compliance with this Article.

(d) The tax herein levied shall be a liability upon the owner or owners of the pharmacy or drug store selling liquor upon the prescription of a doctor, and unless such tax is paid it may be recovered by suit filed by the Texas Liquor Control Board in Travis County, Texas, against any person liable for the payment of tax. Failure to pay any tax due shall constitute grounds for revocation of any permit authorizing the sale of liquor on prescription.

(e) Tax stamps herein required shall be prescribed by the Texas Liquor Control Board, and upon requisition of the Board shall be printed under the direction of the Board of Control and furnished to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall furnish such stamps only to the holders of medicinal permits in Texas. Such stamps shall have printed thereon such serial number or other means of identification as the Texas Liquor Control Board may require, and each stamp shall be in duplicate counterparts so that one of each such counterparts may be affixed to the container of liquor and to the prescription upon which such liquor is sold. The Texas Liquor Control Board is hereby authorized to promulgate such regulation as may be deemed necessary as to the affixation of stamps, the cancellation thereof, and the accounting therefor.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell any liquor upon a prescription therefor until and unless there shall first be affixed to such prescription the tax stamp herein required. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell any liquor upon a prescription therefor unless and until there shall first be affixed to such container of liquor the counterpart of a tax stamp as herein required.

Art. 666-20b. Mixed Beverage Permittee; Refill of Containers Prohibited and Destruction Required; Facilities for Destruction; Use of Automatic Measuring Devices; Consumption on Premises Required

(a) No Mixed Beverage Permittee may refill with any substance a container which contained distilled spirits on which the tax prescribed in Section 21, Article I, of this Act<sup>1</sup> has been paid.

(b) A Mixed Beverage Permittee or any person employed by the permittee who empties a bottle containing distilled spirits on which the tax prescribed in Section 21, Article I, of this Act has been paid, shall immediately after emptying the bottle destroy it. A bottle is considered destroyed if it is no longer capable of containing any liquid.

(c) Every Mixed Beverage Permittee shall provide at all service counters where distilled spirits are poured from bottles the necessary facilities for the destruction of bottles so that persons emptying distilled spirits bottles may immediately destroy them.

(d) Any Mixed Beverage Permittee, his officer, agent, or employee, who is found in possession of an emptied distilled spirits bottle which contained distilled spirits on which the tax prescribed in Section 21, Article I, of this Act has been paid, which has not been destroyed is guilty of a separate violation of this Section for each bottle.

(e) An empty distilled spirits bottle which has locked on it an automatic measuring and dispensing device of a type approved by the Administrator or Commission, so as to prevent the refilling of the bottle without unlocking and removing the device from the bottle, is not required to be destroyed as required in Subsections (a) through (d) of this Section, but shall be destroyed immediately upon the unlocking and removal of the device. Subsection (d) of this Section does not apply to the possession of an empty distilled spirits bottle until the device has been unlocked and removed from the bottle.

(f) No holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit shall sell any alcoholic beverage to any other holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit or to any other person, except for consumption on the licensed premises of the selling permit holder, or as provided in Subsection (g) of this section.

(g) No holder of a Mixed Beverage Permit shall permit any person to take any alcoholic beverages purchased on the licensed premises from the premises where sold; provided, however, where a person orders wine with his food and has a portion of the open container remaining, he shall have the right to remove same from the premises.

A person who violates this Section is punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or by confinement in the county jail for no more than thirty (30) days or by both. The Commission or Administrator may, after notice and hearing, suspend for a period of up to sixty (60) days, or cancel, the permit of any permittee it finds to have violated this subsection.

(a) The word "permittee," as used in this section, means a Mixed Beverage Permittee, Late Hour Mixed Beverage Permittee, Daily Temporary Mixed Beverage Permittee, Private Club Registration Permittee, or a Late Hour Private Club Registration Permittee.

(b) A tax at the rate of ten percent (10%) is imposed on the gross receipts of a permittee from the sale, preparation, or service of mixed beverages, or from the sale, preparation, or service of ice or nonalcoholic beverages which are sold, prepared, or served for the purpose of being mixed with alcoholic beverages and consumed on the premises of the permittee.

(c) Every permittee shall make and keep a record, in a form prescribed by the Commission or Administrator, of all taxable receipts and accumulate the total for each business day. The Commission or Administrator may, after notice and hearing, suspend for a period of up to 60 days or cancel the permit of any person who violates this subsection.

(h) The Commission shall examine the tax account of each permittee and shall collect any additional taxes due as established through any records or information that is in the Commission's possession or any records or information that is available or may come into the Commission's possession. For the convenience of the Commission in examining tax accounts of Mixed Beverage Permittees and Private Club Permittees, it is hereby required that each such permittee purchase separately and individually for each licensed premises any and all alcoholic beverages to be sold or served on the licensed premises. The Commission or Administrator may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the collection and administration of the tax imposed by this section.

(i) No person may fail to keep any record in the manner required by this section, fail to file any return in the manner required by this section, keep a false record, or file a false return. A person who

(1) There is hereby levied and imposed on the first sale in addition to the other fees and taxes levied by this Act the following:

(a) A tax of $2.00 per gallon on each gallon of distilled spirits, providing the minimum tax on any package of distilled spirits shall be $0.122 if the package contains one-half pint, and providing further that the minimum tax on any package of distilled spirits shall be $0.05 if the package contains 2 ounces or less. Should packages containing less than ½ pint but more than 2 ounces ever be legalized in Texas, the minimum tax on any such package of distilled spirits shall be $0.122.

(b) A tax of $0.17 on each gallon of vinous liquor that does not contain over 14 percent of alcohol by volume.

(c) A tax of $0.34 on each gallon of vinous liquor containing more than 14 percent of alcohol by volume.

(d) A tax of $0.43 on each gallon of artificially carbonated and natural sparkling vinous liquor.

(e) A tax of $0.165 on each gallon of malt liquor containing alcohol in excess of four percent by weight.

(2) The term "first sale" as used in Article I of this Act shall be construed in compliance with whichever of the following rules is applicable:

(a) As to liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state by the holder of a wholesaler's permit authorizing such importation, the term "first sale" shall mean the first actual sale by the holder of any wholesaler's permit to the holder of any other permit authorizing the retail sale of the beverage to be taxed, or to the holder of a Local Distributor's Permit.

(b) As to any liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, distilled or produced in or brought into this state by any person, groups of persons, or legal entity other than a holder of a permit authorizing importation, the term "first sale" shall mean and include the first sale, possession, distribution, or use in this state of any and all liquor refined, blended, manufactured, imported into, or in any other manner produced or acquired, possessed, or brought into this state.

(c) As to ale and malt liquor, the term "first sale" shall be given the meaning attributed to "first sale" or importation in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.<sup>1</sup>

(3) Any holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of any liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, shall pay the tax or taxes levied thereon by the laws of this state by the reporting system under bond in compliance with the following provisions:

(a) The Commission shall require of each holder of a permit authorizing the importation into this state of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, a bond or bonds executed by the permit holder as principal and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this state as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the State of Texas and conditioned as the Commission may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State of Texas against the anticipated tax liability on the principal during any six (6) weeks' period.

(b) The tax on liquor, other than ale or malt liquor, imported into this state, shall become due and payable and shall be paid by the permit holder on or before the 15th day of the month following the first sale. As to ale and malt liquor, the tax shall become due and payable as provided in Section 33, Article II, Texas Liquor Control Act.

(c) The tax shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provision or provisions in Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, and remittance therefor made payable to the State Treasurer shall be due at the office of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission in Austin, Travis County, Texas, on or before the 15th day of the month due less two percent (2%) of the amount due which shall be withheld by the permit holder for the keeping of records, furnishing of bonds, and properly accounting for the remittance of the tax due; provided, however, that no allowance shall be granted or permitted when the tax is delinquent at the time of payment.

(d) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Commission, and remittances therefor made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Commission each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Commission to the State Treasurer for the allocation in conformity with the terms of Section 46, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act.<sup>2</sup>

(e) If any permit holder, in computing and paying the tax due, through oversight, mistake, error or miscalculation, has paid more tax than is legally due, the permit holder who paid such excess tax shall be entitled to a refund thereof, and a claim for such refund may be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Commission or Administrator, and such excess tax shall be refunded to the permit holder who has paid the same, or credit may be allowed on future tax payment. Refunds for overpayment of tax may be made by the Commission from the revenues derived from the collection of the tax before the same has been allocated, and so much of such funds as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

(f) The permit holder shall report to the Commission each receipt of shipment of liquor, other than ale and malt liquor, for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, and shall prepare and furnish any such further information and such reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission.

(g) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax owed by a permit holder, a certificate by the Commission or Administrator showing the deficiency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and compliance by the Commission with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(4) It is not intended that the tax levied in Subsection (1) of this Section 21 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be collected on liquor shipped out of this state for consumption outside this state or sold aboard ship for ship's supplies, and the Commission shall provide forms for obtaining exemption from or credit for such taxes and shall provide by rule and regulation for equitable and final disposition of any tax credit brought about by such payment of any such unintended or excess tax.

(5) Unless the liquor is exempted from tax under the terms of Subsection (4) of this Section 21 or unless payment has been or is to be made by a permit holder in conformity with the provisions of Subsection (3) of this Section 21, or unless payment has been or is to be made by the permit holder in conformity with Section 21½C, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act<sup>3</sup>, the tax levied under Subsection (1) of this Section 21, Article I, Texas Liquor Control Act, shall be paid by affixing a stamp or stamps on each bottle or container of liquor. Said stamps shall be affixed in strict accordance with any rule and regulation promulgated pursuant to this Act. The Commission, however, may, in any situation deemed by it to create an emergency or other circumstance which in its judgment would make it impractical to require the affixing of stamps, by order prescribe special rules for the payment of the tax in the specific situation under consideration.

(6) Every holder of a permit authorizing the wholesaling of liquor, upon receipt of a shipment of liquor for sale within this state, under the provisions of this Act, shall prepare and furnish such information and reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Commission. All such permittees authorized to transport liquor beyond the boundaries of this state shall furnish to the Commission duplicate copies of all invoices for the sale of such liquors, within twenty-four (24) hours after such liquors have been removed from their place of business.

(7) Any person, persons, or association who violates any portion of this Section 21 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year.

Should the Board adopt a manner or method of collection, or rules and regulations which do not require the affixing of tax stamps to the containers, then it shall not be necessary for such stamps to be affixed to such containers. And likewise, it shall not be unlawful, if the tax has been paid on such wine in accordance with the rules of the Board, and the Texas Liquor Control Act is otherwise complied with, for any holder of a permit authorizing the holder to sell wine either on or off-premises, to have in his possession or sell wine which does not have tax stamps affixed to the containers. Nor shall it be unlawful, in such case, for any person to possess wine without the tax stamp being affixed to the container, if the tax on such wine has been paid and if such person is otherwise complying with the laws of this State.

Art. 666-21½. Additional Taxes

Sub-sec. 1. In addition to all other fees and taxes, there is hereby levied and imposed on the first sale the following:

(a) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of One Dollar and twenty-eight cents ($1.28) per gallon on each gallon of distilled spirits, provided the minimum tax levied in this Section on any package of distilled spirits shall be ten per cent (10%) of eight cents (8¢).

(b) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of ten cents (10¢) on each gallon of vinous liquor that does not contain over fourteen per cent (14%) of alcohol by volume.

(c) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of twenty cents (20¢) on each gallon of vinous liquor containing more than fourteen per cent (14%) and not more than twenty-four per cent (24%) of alcohol by volume.

(d) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of twenty-five cents (25¢) on each gallon of artificially carbonated and natural sparkling vinous liquor.

(e) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of fifty cents (50¢) on each gallon of vinous liquor containing alcohol in excess of twenty-four per cent (24%) by volume.

(f) A tax of ten per cent (10%) of fifteen cents (15¢) on each gallon of malt liquor containing alcohol in excess of four per cent (4%) by weight.

The term "first sale" as used in this section shall mean and include the first sale, possession, distribution, or use in this State of any and all liquor refined, blended, manufactured, imported into, or in any other manner produced or acquired, possessed, or brought into this State; but shall not include sales of liquor by permittees authorized to sell at retail only where such sales are made from stocks on hand and in possession of such permittee on the effective date of this section.

The tax herein levied shall be paid by affixing a stamp or stamps on each bottle or container of liquor. Said stamps shall be affixed in strict accordance with any rule or regulation promulgated in pursuance of this Act.

It shall be the duty of each person who makes a first sale of any liquor in this State to affix said stamps on each bottle or container of liquor and to cancel the same in accordance with any rule and regulation of the Board. The Board shall have power to relax the foregoing provision when in its judgment it would be impracticable to require the affixing of such stamp on the bottle or container, irrespective of any other provision of this Act. And any person, persons, or association who violates any portion of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than one (1) year. Every holder of a permit authorizing the wholesaling of liquor, upon receipt of a shipment of liquor for sale within this State, under the provisions of this Act, shall prepare and furnish such information and such reports as may be required by rules and regulations of the Board.

Sub-sec. 2. Stamps for distilled spirits evidencing the tax levied in sub-division (a) of this Section 21½ of this Article shall be supplied by the Treasurer to all authorized to purchase them at a discount of two per cent (2%) of the face value thereof when purchased in lots of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or more.

Sub-sec. 3. It is further provided that the tax herein levied shall apply and attach to all liquor which shall be in storage or in the possession of any permittee, other than one authorized to sell at retail only, for the purpose of sale, and that all such permittees having possession of any liquor for the purpose of sale shall on the effective date hereon render and submit to the Texas Liquor Control Board at Austin, Texas, a true and correct sworn inventory of all such liquors, setting forth in detail the size of containers and the quantity thereof. Such inventory shall be rendered upon a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Board. Such inventory must be placed in the United States mail, addressed to the Texas Liquor Control Board at Austin, Texas, within twenty-four (24) hours of the effective date hereof, and a true, correct, and exact copy thereof must be retained by the person making such report. Failure or refusal to render such inventory shall be deemed sufficient grounds for the cancellation of any permit or license by the Board, and, in addition thereto, any such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the County Jail for any term not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sub-sec. 4. It is further provided that the Texas Liquor Control Board shall have printed and supplied to the State Treasurer, and the State Treasurer shall have on demand, tax stamps of such values as will enable any permittee, other than one authorized to sell at retail only, having possession of liquors with legal and valid Texas tax stamps affixed of a different rate of assessment than is herein provided to affix an additional stamp on each container so that the added amount of tax paid, as represented by such additional stamp together with the one originally affixed, will equal the total amount of tax levied by law. All liquors in containers to which have not been affixed proper tax stamps, or stamps in the aggregate to show payment of all tax as levied by law, are hereby declared to be illicit beverages and subject to seizure and forfeiture as otherwise provided by law, and any person in possession thereof shall be prosecuted for the possession of illicit beverages as provided by law; but this shall not apply to stocks on hand in the possession of permittees authorized to sell at retail only or their vendees.

Sub-sec. 5. The Texas Liquor Control Board is hereby authorized to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations requiring the filing of inventories and the issuance and distribution of stamps through its representatives, and for the inspection of liquor stocks wherever they may be in this State, such as may be deemed necessary to enforce compliance with this Article.

Sub-sec. 6. The tax levied in this Section 21½ is on sales made prior to midnight of August 31, 1951.

Sub-sec. 6½. The above described method of payment of the liquor tax herein levied shall not be in force and effect if, as and when and during the period of time for which the Texas Liquor Control Board, by rule and regulation, has prescribed another or different method of the payment of such tax, either with or without the additional stamps provided above. The Texas Liquor Control Board is fully authorized and empowered to adopt and promulgate, from time to time, rules and regulations relative to the collection of such tax levied in this Section; and such rule or regulation may be adopted and become effective with or without the statutory notice provided for the adoption of other rules and regulations of the Board. Such rules and regulations may include provisions for the present stamps, or stamps of the present denominations, to evidence the payment of both the tax herein levied and the tax heretofore levied in the Texas Liquor Control Act as amended, both as to collection of such tax and any refunds authorized under this Section 21½. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer in connection with the sale of any stamps used to evidence the payment of such tax, to follow and comply with any rule or regulation of the Board pursuant to the power granted herein.

Art. 666-23. Dry and Wet Areas; Definitions

Whenever the term "dry area" is used in this Act, it shall mean and refer to all counties, justice precincts, incorporated cities or towns wherein the sale of alcoholic beverages had been prohibited by valid local option elections held under the laws of the State in force at the time of taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas in the year 1919. It likewise shall mean and refer to any such areas where sale of such alcoholic beverages shall be prohibited under the terms of this Act.

The term "wet area" shall mean and refer to all other areas of the State.

As to any particular type of alcoholic beverage, each county, justice precinct, incorporated city or town within this State shall be deemed to be a "dry area" unless such political subdivision was a "wet area" at the time Section 20 of Article XVI of the Constitution became effective and has not since said time changed its status, or unless the sale of that particular type of alcoholic beverage has been legalized by local option election in such political subdivision since said time; provided, however, the Commissioners Court of any county of over 500,000 population according to the last federal census, may designate that the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a professional sports stadium, which is used wholly or partly for professional sporting events, having a seating capacity of 40,000 or more, and the land, not to exceed 125 acres, adjacent to such stadium used for the benefit of such stadium (regardless of ownership of such land) and where no registered voters reside, and/or the area actually encompassed by the building structure of a regional airport, shall be wet for purposes of the sale of mixed beverages, only, under this Act; provided further, that such Commissioners Court shall have authority to so declare only in counties where the sale of all alcoholic beverages has been legalized, either throughout the entire county or any portion of such county, and where a majority of the voters in the county in which such sports stadium or regional airport is located, at the general election on November 3, 1970, approved the constitutional amendment authorizing mixed beverage local option elections; and such order of the Commissioners Court designating such area wet for the purposes of the sale of mixed beverages will authorize the issuance of a Mixed Beverage Permit.

The term "wet area" shall be construed as including in each particular instance only alcoholic beverages of a type or alcoholic beverage not exceeding in alcoholic content that which have been legalized by a valid local option election in the prescribed area, except as otherwise provided above.

The trial courts of this State shall take judicial knowledge of the status of wet and dry areas as herein defined in any criminal prosecution.

An allegation that any county or political subdivision as herein provided is a dry area as to any particular type of alcoholic beverage shall in law be deemed sufficient in any information, complaint, or indictment; provided, however, that a different status of such area may be urged and proved as a defense.

Art. 666-30. Sale or Destruction of Beverages and Property Seized; Ceiling Prices during Emergency; Disposition of Proceeds; Forfeiture; Reports; Penalties; Illegal Seizures; Reimbursement

(a) All alcoholic beverages and the containers thereof, and any device in which the alcoholic beverage is packaged, which have been seized by an agent or employee of the Texas Liquor Control Board, or by any peace officer as provided in Section 42,<sup>1</sup> shall be turned over to the Board for immediate public or private sale in such place or manner as it may deem best; provided further, that any bill of sale executed by the Board or Administrator shall convey a good and valid title to the purchaser as to any such property sold. No alcoholic beverages unfit to be sold for public consumption, or of illicit manufacture, may be sold by the Board, but may be destroyed by the Board.

Any property or equipment forfeited to the state as provided in Section 42<sup>1</sup> may also be sold by the Board at public or private sale in such place or manner as it may deem best.

Provided, however, any beer, its containers or original packages which may be seized under the terms of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be disposed of as follows:

Upon being notified that any beer has been seized, the Board shall immediately notify a holder of a General or Local Distributor's or Branch Distributor's License who handles the brand of beer seized and who operates in the county where said beer was seized. If the beer was seized in a dry area, either the Distributor or Branch Distributor operating nearest said area handling the brand or the Manufacturer brewing said beer shall be notified. The Board and the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said seized beer is in a salable condition. If said beer is determined not to be in a salable condition it shall be immediately destroyed by the Board. If said beer is determined to be in a salable condition it shall be offered for sale to the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified. If offered to a Distributor or Branch Distributor, it shall be at the Distributor's or Branch Distributor's cost price less any state taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. its place of business, or if offered to a Manufacturer the price shall be the cost price to its nearest Distributor or Branch Distributor, less any state taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. said nearest Distributor's or Branch Distributor's place of business, but the storage or warehousing charges necessarily incurred as a result of the seizure shall in all cases be added to such cost price.

Should said Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer not exercise the right to purchase any salable beer or any returnable bottles, containers or packages at their deposit price within ten (10) days, then the Board shall proceed to sell same at public or private sale as hereinabove provided.

Any liquor, its containers or original packages which may be seized under the terms of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be disposed of as follows:

Upon being notified that any liquor has been seized, the Board shall immediately notify a holder of a Wholesaler's Permit or a General Class B or Local Class B Wholesaler's Permit who handles the brand of liquor seized and who operates in the county where said liquor was seized. If the liquor was seized in a dry area, the Wholesaler operating nearest said area handling the brand shall be notified. The Board and the Wholesaler so notified shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said seized liquor is in a salable condition. If said liquor is determined not to be in a salable condition, it shall be immediately destroyed by the Board. If said liquor is determined to be in a salable condition, it shall first be offered for sale to the Wholesaler so notified. If offered to a Wholesaler, it shall be at the Wholesaler's cost price, F.O.B. its place of business, plus any storage or warehousing charges necessarily incurred as a result of the seizure.

Should said Wholesaler not exercise the right to purchase any salable liquor, containers or packages at the price specified above within ten (10) days, then the Board shall proceed to sell same at public or private sale as hereinabove provided.

The provisions hereinabove contained shall not prevent the Board from exercising its discretion in the event that illicit alcoholic beverages have been seized as the result of an accidental shipment or other reasonable mistake; under such circumstances the Board may issue such orders and make such disposition of the alcoholic beverages as to it seems just and reasonable.

In the event the United States Government shall provide any plan or method whereby illicit alcoholic beverages and other property seized or belonging to or forfeited to the state shall be sold at ceiling prices during a national emergency, the Board shall have the right to comply with Federal law or regulations in the sale or disposal of such illicit alcoholic beverages or other property, even to the extent of partially or wholly abrogating any provisions hereof which may be in conflict with the Federal law or regulations.

(b) The proceeds of the sale of seized alcoholic beverages, containers thereof, and devices in which the alcoholic beverages are packaged shall be placed in escrow in a suspense account set up by the Board for such purpose pending the outcome of the forfeiture suit as provided in Section 42, Article I. Proceeds in escrow which are not forfeited to the state as the result of suit shall be refunded to the alleged violator.

The proceeds from any forfeiture sale and any proceeds held in escrow by the Board upon entry of a judgment forfeiting same to the state shall be disposed of as follows:

Thirty-five percent (35%) of all moneys derived from the sale of alcoholic beverages, containers, any device in which said alcoholic beverages are packaged, or property, as authorized in this Act shall be placed in a separate fund in the State Treasury to be designated as the Confiscated Liquor Fund, and thereafter all moneys in said fund shall be available to the Board to defray the expenses, and it is hereby appropriated for said purpose of purchasing and accumulating evidence as to violations of the provisions of this Act, and to defray the expenses incurred in assembling, storing, transporting, selling and accounting for said confiscated alcoholic beverages, containers, devices and property and for any other purpose deemed necessary by the Board in administering and enforcing the provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act. Any unexpended portion of said fund at the end of each biennium shall remain in said fund subject to further appropriation for such purposes. Sixty-five percent (65%) of all moneys derived from the sale herein referred to shall be deposited in the General Fund of the State of Texas.

As to liquors confiscated by representatives of the Board, or any peace officer, it shall be incumbent upon the officer making the seizure to list each and every item or items so confiscated and the place and name of owner, operator, or person from whom such seizure is made. Such report shall be made in quadruplicate, two (2) copies of which shall be verified by oath; one (1) verified copy shall be retained in the permanent files of the Texas Liquor Control Board or other agency making the seizure, and one (1) verified copy shall be filed with the Comptroller of the State of Texas, which shall constitute a permanent file, and both of which shall be subject to inspection by any member of the Legislature or any duly authorized law enforcement agency of the State of Texas, and one (1) copy shall be delivered to the owner, operator, or person from whom such seizure is made. A false statement of said confiscated alcoholic beverage, or other personal property shall be punishable as now provided for false swearing. Any failure on the part of the peace officer making such seizures to file said reports shall constitute a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof he shall be fined not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor less than Fifty Dollars ($50) or shall be confined in jail not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days or by both such fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the Texas Liquor Control Board and its agents to see that said reports are made by said peace officers. Should the state illegally seize and sell any alcoholic beverages, the person legally entitled to possession of the alcoholic beverages at the time of the illegal seizure shall be entitled to recover from the state the fair market value of the alcoholic beverages illegally seized and sold; such reimbursement shall be paid out of the proceeds held in escrow from the sale of such illegally seized alcoholic beverages, and to the extent further necessary from the Confiscated Liquor Fund.

Art. 666-32. Local Option Election

The commissioners court of each county in the state, upon proper petition, shall order an election wherein the qualified voters of such county, or of any justice precinct, or incorporated city or town therein, may by the exercise of local option determine whether or not the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits of such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

Subject to the provisions of this section and Section 32½ of the Texas Liquor Control Act,<sup>1</sup> upon the written application of any ten or more qualified voters of any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, the county clerk of such county shall issue to the applicants a petition to be circulated among the qualified voters thereof for the signatures of those qualified voters in such area who desire that a local option election be called therein for the purpose of determining whether the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits of such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

An application for a petition seeking an election to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Application for Local Option Election Petition to Legalize," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the applicants, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the applicants whose signatures appear hereon to see legalized the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above." The petition so issued shall clearly state the issue to be voted upon in such election, which shall be the same issue as that set out in the application, and the issue shall be one of those set out in Section 40 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.<sup>2</sup>

An application for a petition seeking an election to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Application for Local Option Election Petition to Prohibit," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the applicants, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the applicants whose signatures appear hereon to see prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above." The petition so issued shall clearly state the issue to be voted upon in such election, which shall be the same issue as that set out in the application, and the issue shall be one of those set out in Section 40 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.<sup>2</sup>

The petition for a local option election seeking to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Petition for Local Option Election to Legalize," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the petitioners, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the petitioners whose signatures appear hereon to see legalized the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above."

The petition for a local option election seeking to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed, "Petition for Local Option Election to Prohibit," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the petitioners, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the petitioners whose signatures appear hereon to see prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above."

Each such petition shall show the date of its issue by the county clerk and shall be serially numbered, and each page of such petition shall bear the same date and serial number, and shall bear the actual seal of the county clerk, and not a facsimile of such seal. The county clerk shall supply as many copies of the petition as may be required by the applicants but not to exceed more than one page of such petition for every ten registered voters in such county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town, and each copy shall bear the date, number and seal on each page as required in the original. The county clerk shall keep a copy of each such petition and a record of the applicants therefor. When any such petition so issued shall within thirty days after the date of issue be filed with the county clerk bearing the actual signatures of as many as thirty-five percent of the qualified voters of any such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, together with a notation showing the residence address of each of the said signers, together with the number that appears on his voter registration certificate, all of which information shall be in the actual handwriting of the signers of the petition, taking the vote for Governor at the last preceding general election as the basis for determining the number of qualified voters in any such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, it is hereby required that the commissioners court at its next regular session shall order a local option election to be held upon the issue set out in such petition. Such order shall state in its heading and in its text whether the local option election to be held is for the purpose of prohibiting or for the purpose of legalizing the sale of the alcoholic beverages set out in the issue recited in the application and the petition. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to check the names of the signers of any such petition, and the voting precincts in which they reside to determine whether or not the signers of such petition were in fact qualified voters in such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town at the time such petition was issued, and to certify to the commissioners court the number of qualified voters signing such petition. No signature shall be counted, either by the county clerk or the commissioners court, where there is reason to believe it is not the actual signature of the purported signer, or that the voter registration certificate number is not correct or in the actual handwriting of the signer, or that it is a duplication either of name or of handwriting used in any other signature on the petition, and no signature shall be counted unless the correct residence address of the signer is shown in the actual handwriting of the signer and unless it is signed exactly as the name of the voter appears on the official copy of the current list of registered voters for the voting year which the petition is issued.

The minutes of the commissioners court shall record the date any such petition is presented, the names of the signers thereof, and the action taken with relation to the same. In any election ordered by the commissioners court, the issue ordered to appear on the ballot shall be the same as that applied for and set out in the petition. No subsequent election upon the same issue shall be held within one year from the date of the last preceding local option election in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

Any authorized voting unit, that is, any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town which has at any time heretofore exercised or may at any time hereafter exercise the right of local option, shall retain the status adopted, whether absolute prohibition or legalization of the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents on which an issue may be submitted under the terms of Section 40 of Article I,<sup>2</sup> until that status is changed by a subsequent local option election in the same authorized voting unit; provided, however, that consistent with the purpose of the local option provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act and in order to insure that each voter shall have the maximum possible control over the status of the sale of alcoholic beverages in the area of his residence, it is specifically provided that the status which resulted from or is the result of a duly called election for an incorporated city or town shall prevail as against the status which resulted from or is the result of a duly called election in a justice precinct or county in which such incorporated city or town, or any part thereof, is contained; and provided, further, that the status which resulted from or is the result of a duly called election for a justice precinct shall prevail as against the status which resulted from or is the result of a duly called election in an incorporated city or town in which such justice precinct is wholly contained or in a county in which such justice precinct is located. #### Art. 666-32½. Expense of Holding Elections

(a) The expense of holding any local option election authorized by the Texas Liquor Control Act in any county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town shall be paid by the county, but the expense to the county shall be limited to the holding of one election in each of the above political subdivisions within a one-year period where the intent of the election is to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, and the expense to the county shall be limited to the holding of one election in each of the aforesaid political subdivisions within a one-year period where the intent of the election is to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages. All other local option elections, excepting the aforementioned one election in a one-year period with intent to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, and excepting the aforementioned one election in a one-year period with intent to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages, shall be paid by the county from funds derived by the county as prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section as follows:

(b) When the application for an election in a county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town is presented, the county clerk at the time and before the issuance of any petition for a local option election shall require a deposit in the form of a cashier's check in the aggregate amount of twenty-five cents per voter listed on the current list of registered voters as residing in the county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town for which the election is sought. The money so received shall be deposited in the county's general fund, and no refund shall be made to the applicants regardless of whether the petition is returned to the county clerk or the election is ordered. When there is presented to the county clerk an application which must be accompanied by a deposit, the county clerk shall not issue a petition to the applicants unless and until the deposit is made, and a county clerk who issues a petition upon such an application without first receiving the deposit is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than 30 days, or both fined and imprisoned.

Art. 666-33. Order for Election

When the commissioners court orders an election as herein provided for, it shall be the duty of the court to order such election to be held upon a day not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of the order, and the order thus made shall state the issue to be voted upon in such election, and the order shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all provisions necessary to give it validity or to clothe the court with jurisdiction to make it valid, have been duly complied with.

The election shall be held at a voting place within each regular county election precinct as established by the commissioners court within the affected territory if the election is for the entire county or for a justice precinct, and at a voting place within each election precinct established by the governing body of the city or town for its municipal elections if the election is for an incorporated city or town. If the governing body of a city or town has not established precincts for its municipal elections, the commissioners court shall prescribe the election precincts for the local option election, under the rules governing establishment of precincts for municipal elections. The election shall be held at the customary polling place within each election precinct, if available; and if it is not available for that election, the commissioners court shall designate some other polling place. The order for the election shall state the polling place for each election precinct. The order shall also state the precinct numbers of county precincts included in each municipal election precinct if the election is for an incorporated city or town. The general election laws shall govern the appointment of the election judges and clerks, who shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve. Watchers for the election may be appointed in accordance with the general laws of the state, but they shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve.

Not less than three days before any local option election, the county judge shall cause to be held a public school of instruction for those who will actually conduct the election at the polling places, such school to be open to any interested person. The county clerk shall post in his office a notice of the time and place of the meeting at least forty-eight hours before it is held. The county clerk shall also notify each presiding judge of the time and place at which such school will be held, and it shall be the duty of each presiding judge to give like notice to those persons who will serve as clerks and watchers, if appointed, at the election in his precinct.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the general election laws, the issue to be voted on shall be printed on the ballot in the exact language stated in Section 40 of this Act,<sup>1</sup> and the ballot shall be marked as provided herein. However, the failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted if the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. In elections to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, those in favor of such legalization shall erase the words "Against the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same; and those who oppose such legalization shall erase the words "For the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same. #### Art. 666-37. Canvass of Votes; Continuance of Operations as Distributor and Wholesaler

(a) Said court shall hold a special session on the fifth day after holding of said election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of canvassing the votes and certifying the results, and if a majority of the voters favor the issue "Against the legal sale, etc." as to any alcoholic beverages of the various types and alcoholic content, said court shall immediately make an order declaring the results of said vote and absolutely prohibiting the sale of such prohibited type or types of alcoholic beverages within the political subdivision after thirty (30) days from the date of declaring the results thereof, and thereafter until such time as the qualified voters therein may thereafter at the legal election held for such purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise; and the order thus made shall be held as prima facie evidence that all provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding said election and counting and returning the votes and declaring the results thereof.

In any local option election in which it is sought to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages in which a majority of the votes cast favor the issue "Against the legal sale of" etc., or in any local option election in which it is sought to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages on one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents or manner of sale not already legal in the political subdivision involved in which a majority of the votes cast favor the issue "For the legal sale of" etc., then the sale of all alcoholic beverages which were legal in said county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town before the holding of such local option election shall continue to be legal.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, a licensed distributor of beer whose warehouse or other facilities used in connection with such distributorship are located in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, at the time the sale of beer is prohibited in any such political subdivision by a valid local option election such distributor nevertheless shall have the right to continue to operate as a distributor in such political subdivision, and to maintain the necessary premises and facilities in such political subdivision for such distribution, and to enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to such distributorship previously enjoyed as such distributor in such political subdivision, including but not limited to, the right to possess, store, warehouse and sell beer in such political subdivision, and also to deliver beer into and out of such political subdivision; provided, however, that during the period the sale of beer is prohibited in such political subdivision as a result of such election, sale of beer and delivery of beer by such distributor shall be made only to licensed outlets located outside of such political subdivision where the possession and sale of beer is legal.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing Subsection (a) of this Section, or any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any holder of a Wholesaler's Permit whose warehouse or other facilities used in connection with such wholesale operation are located in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, at the time when the sale of the type or types of liquor authorized to be sold by such permit holder may be prohibited in any such political subdivision by a valid local option election, such Wholesaler's Permit holder nevertheless shall have the right to continue to operate as a wholesaler in such political subdivision and to maintain the necessary premises and facilities in such political subdivision for such wholesale operation and to enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to such Wholesaler's Permit previously enjoyed as such permit holder in such political subdivision, including but not limited to, the right to possess, store, warehouse and sell liquor in such political subdivision, and also to receive and deliver such liquor into and out of such political subdivision; provided, however, that during the period the sale of liquor is prohibited in such political subdivision as a result of such election, sale of liquor and delivery of such liquor by such Wholesaler's Permit holder shall be made only to permit-holding outlets located outside of such political subdivision where the possession and sale of liquor is legal.

Art. 666-42. Seizures; Replevin; Suit for Forfeiture; Intervention by Lienholders; Sale; Liens on Proceeds

(a) All illicit beverages as defined by this Act<sup>1</sup> together with the containers and any device in which the beverage is packaged, and any wagon, buggy, automobile, water or aircraft, or any other vehicle, used for the transportation of any illicit beverage, or any equipment designed to be used or which is used for illicit manufacturing of beverages, or any material of any kind which is to be used in the manufacturing of illicit beverages, may be seized with or without a warrant by an agent or employee of the Texas Liquor Control Board, or by any peace officer, and any person found in possession or in charge thereof may be arrested without a warrant. No alcoholic beverages, containers, or any device in which such beverage is packaged so seized shall be replevied, but shall be delivered to the Board, to be held for the sale and deposit of proceeds in escrow as provided in Section 30<sup>2</sup> of Article I. Any such wagon, buggy, automobile, water or aircraft or any other vehicle so seized may be replevied by the owner thereof or lawful lienholder thereon upon execution by him of a good and valid bond with sufficient surety in a sum double the appraised value of the property replevied, which said bond shall be approved by said officer and shall be conditioned to return said property to the custody of said officer on the day of trial of any suit for the forfeiture of such property to abide the judgment of the court. In any such suit where the owner of the vehicle or the lienholder appears and contests the suit, the burden shall be on the state to prove that such owner or lienholder knowingly violated some provision of this Act; otherwise the court shall enter judgment for such owner or lienholder.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, the District Attorney, and the County Attorney, or any of them, when notified by the officer making the seizure, or by the Texas Liquor Control Board, that such seizure has been made, to institute a suit for forfeiture of the property seized and of the proceeds of the sale of the alcoholic beverages, containers, and devices in which such alcoholic beverages are packaged (referred to hereinafter as "proceeds in escrow"), such suit to be brought in the name of the State of Texas against such property and proceeds in escrow in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county wherein such seizure was made. Notice of pendency of such suit shall be served on any person found in possession of the beverages or property at the time of seizure in the manner prescribed by law and the case shall proceed to trial as other civil cases. If no person be found in possession of the beverages or property, or if at the time suit is filed the whereabouts of those in possession is unknown, notice shall be posted at the courthouse door in the county wherein the property was seized for a period of twenty (20) days. If upon the trial of such suit it is found that the alcoholic beverages were illicit, or that the vehicle was used for the transportation of illicit beverages, or that the equipment is designed to be used or is used for illicit manufacturing of beverages, or the material is to be used in the manufacturing of illicit beverages, then the court trying said cause shall render judgment forfeiting the property and proceeds in escrow to the State of Texas and ordering the same disposed of as provided for by Section 30 of this Article, or if in the opinion of the Board or Administrator any such property, except the proceeds in escrow, is needed for the use of the Board, then the same may be retained and so used until such time as such property is sold by the Board as provided herein. The costs of such proceedings shall be paid by the Board, out of funds derived under the provisions of said Section 30, or from any other fund available to the Board for such purpose.

(c) As to any property or articles upon which there may be a lien, by a bona fide lienholder, the holder of such may intervene to establish his rights and shall be required to show such lien to have been granted in a bona fide manner and without knowledge of the fact at the time of creation of the lien, that any article or property upon which such lien exists has been used or was to be used in violation of this Act. If the holder of any such lien shall intervene, then the court trying said cause shall render judgment forfeiting the same to the State of Texas, and if such lien is established to the satisfaction of the court, said court shall authorize the issuance of an order of sale directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county wherein the property was seized, commanding such officer to sell said property in the same manner as personal property is sold under execution. The court may order such property sold in whole or in part as it may deem proper and the sale shall be conducted at the courthouse door. The money realized from the sale of such property shall be applied first to the payment of the costs of suit and expenses incident to the sale and after such expenses have been approved and allowed by the court trying the case, then the further proceeds of such sale shall be used to pay all such liens according to priorities, and any remaining proceeds shall be paid to the Board to be allocated as provided in Section 30 hereof. All such liens against property sold under this Section shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of its sale. In case such lien is not established to the satisfaction of the court the judgment shall be entered ordering same disposed of as provided in Subsection (b) of this Section.

A lien on alcoholic beverages, containers thereof, and devices in which the alcoholic beverages are packaged will attach to the proceeds of their sale, which have been placed in escrow as provided in Section 30 of this Article I. The lien must be established as provided by this Subsection. Upon establishment of liens on the proceeds in escrow to the satisfaction of the court, the proceeds in escrow will be used to pay all such liens according to priorities. The remaining proceeds shall be disposed of as provided in Subsection (b) of Section 30 of this Article I.

The sheriff, constable, or Texas Liquor Control Board executing said sale shall issue a bill of sale or certificate to the purchaser of said property, and such bill of sale or certificate shall convey valid and unimpaired title to such property.

Art. 666-58. Salvaging Insured Losses

[Text as added by Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1797, ch. 531, § 1]

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any person not otherwise permitted or licensed to sell alcoholic beverages but coming into possession of any alcoholic beverages as an insurer or an insurance salvor in the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas by a qualified permittee or licensee may sell such beverages in one lot or parcel to a duly licensed holder of a qualified permit or license without himself qualifying as a permittee or licensee. Provided, however, no alcoholic beverages unfit to be sold for public consumption may be so sold, and provided further, immediately after taking possession of said alcoholic beverages the said insurer or insurance salvor shall register same with the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, furnishing the Commission a detailed listing and exact location of the alcoholic beverages and posting with the Commission a surety bond in such amount as the Administrator may deem adequate to protect the State in relation to taxes due on such alcoholic beverages, if any; provided, the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission shall find same to be salable and provided further, the person making such registration shall remit therewith a registration fee of Ten Dollars, which fee shall permit the sale of only the alcoholic beverages detailed in the said registration.

It is further provided, however, that as to beer, its containers, or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer, or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale:

Upon being notified and furnished a list of any beer possessed and desired to be sold by any insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify a holder of a General or Local Distributor's or Branch Distributor's License who handles the brand of beer and who operates in the county where said beer is located. If the beer is located in a dry area or if no Distributor operates in the county, either the Distributor or Branch Distributor operating nearest said area handling the brand or the Manufacturer brewing said beer shall be notified. The insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission, and the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said beer is in a salable condition. If said beer is determined not to be in a salable condition it shall be immediately destroyed by the Commission. If said beer is determined to be in a salable condition it shall be offered for sale to the Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer so notified. If offered to a Distributor or Branch Distributor, it shall be at the Distributor's or Branch Distributor's cost price less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. its place of business, or if offered to a Manufacturer the price shall be the cost price to its nearest Distributor or Branch Distributor, less any State taxes if theretofore paid on such beer, F.O.B. said nearest Distributor's or Branch Distributor's place of business.

Should said Distributor or Branch Distributor or Manufacturer not exercise the right to purchase any salable beer or any returnable bottles, containers or packages at their deposit price within ten (10) days, then the insurer or insurance salvor shall proceed to sell same as hereinabove otherwise provided.

Having purchased such beverages in accordance with this article, the purchasing duly licensed permittee or licensee may thereafter handle, possess, transport, sell, or otherwise dispose of beverages so acquired to the same extent and in the same way allowed as to other alcoholic beverages legally acquired by such permittee or licensee.

It is further provided, however, that as to any liquor, its containers or original packages which may come into the possession of any insurer or any insurance salvor in connection with the salvage or liquidation of an insured damage or loss sustained in Texas, the following procedure shall be followed as to disposition or sale.

Upon being notified and furnished a list of liquor that has been possessed and desired to be sold by an insurer or insurance salvor, the Commission shall immediately notify only the holder or holders of the Wholesaler's Permit or General Class B or Local Class B Wholesaler's Permit who handle and regularly sell the brand or brands of liquor possessed and who operate in the county where said liquor is located. If the liquor is located in a dry area, only the Wholesalers operating nearest said area handling and regularly selling the brand or brands shall be notified. The Commission and the Wholesaler or Wholesalers and the Non-resident Sellers or their Agents of the brand or brands possessed so notified, and the insurer or insurance salvor shall jointly determine and agree as to whether or not said liquor is in a salable condition; provided, however, that no Non-resident Seller or Manufacturer's Agent, acting either in this capacity or in any other, shall be authorized to represent any person, persons, or legal entity other than the primary source of supply for the alcoholic beverage involved within the United States. If said liquor is determined not to be in a salable condition, it shall be destroyed immediately by the Commission. If said liquor is determined to be in a salable condition, it shall first be offered for sale to the Wholesaler and the Non-resident Seller of the brand or brands at their cost price, less any State taxes on said liquor if theretofore paid.

Should any Wholesaler of the brand not exercise the right to purchase any salable liquor, containers or packages within ten (10) days, then the Commission shall proceed to sell same at public or private sales as hereinabove otherwise provided.

The term "salable," as used herein, shall mean a finding that the beverage has not been adulterated and is fit for consumption, all tax stamps required by law have been affixed, and the labels are legible as to contents, brand and manufacturer. The salvor may reject any bid made on a part only of the whole salvage.

which it is received by him from the manufacturer, general distributor, branch distributor, or another local distributor, and to sell and deliver beer to any other distributors licensed in this state to sell beer. Annual state fee for a Local Distributor's License shall be Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

(d) Branch Distributor's License. The holder of a Manufacturer's or General Distributor's License, after obtaining the primary license in the county of his domicile or residence, may establish other places of business in any counties wherein the sale of beer is legal for the distribution of beer upon obtaining a Branch Distributor's License for each such place of business as herein provided, and such Branch Distributor may serve free beer for consumption on the licensed premises. Application for a renewal of a Branch Distributor's License may be made concurrently with the filing of the application for the renewal of a Manufacturer's or General Distributor's License, and all Branch Distributor Licenses shall terminate at the same time as the primary license of such licensee. The annual State fee for a Branch Distributor's License shall be Fifty Dollars (\$50); provided, however, that the fee for any license required to terminate in less than twelve (12) months from the date of issue shall be paid in advance at the rate of Four and  $\frac{25}{100}$  Dollars (\$4.25) for each month or fraction thereof for which the license is issued.

To obtain a Branch Distributor's License the applicant therefor shall make application in the same manner as provided in Section 6 of Article II of this Act.<sup>2</sup>

The renewal of a Branch Distributor's License shall be made in the manner as provided in Section 7 of Article II of this Act,<sup>3</sup> and application for renewal may be made concurrently with application for renewal of the primary license. The privileges of a Branch Distributor's License shall be the same as a General Distributor's License as provided in this Section.

If by local option election the holder of a Branch License shall be prevented from selling beer in the county of his residence and for such reason his primary license becomes void, nevertheless he shall not be denied the right of lawfully selling beer under any existing Branch License until the normal expiration thereof; it being further provided that any such Manufacturer or Distributor may, upon the expiration of any such Branch License, immediately thereafter obtain in any county wherein a Branch License has been held a primary Manufacturer's or Distributor's License without the necessity of qualifying as a resident of the county in which such primary license is sought.

(e) Retail Dealer's On-Premise License. A Retail Dealer's On-Premise License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer for consumption on or off the premises where sold, in or from any lawful container to the ultimate consumer, but not for resale. Annual State fee for a Retail Dealer's On-Premise License shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(e-1) Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License. A Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer on Sunday between the hours of 1:00 a. m. and 2:00 a. m. and on any day except Sunday between the hours of 12:00 p. m. and 2:00 a. m. if the premises covered by such license are in an area where the sale of beer during such hours is authorized by this Act. All sections of this Act which apply to the Retail Dealer's On-Premise License shall also apply to the Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License. The annual State fee for a Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100).

(e-2) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, the holder of a Retail Dealer's On-Premise Late Hours License shall be limited to selling authorized alcoholic beverages for on-premise consumption during extended hours.

(f) Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License. A Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer in a lawful container direct to the consumer, but not for resale and not to be opened or consumed on or near the premises where sold. Annual State fee for a Retail Dealer's Off-Premise License shall be Ten Dollars ($10).

(g) No General Distributor's License, Local Distributor's License, or Branch Distributor's License shall be issued to any person who is the holder of a Package Store Permit, or a Wine Only Package Store Permit.

(h) The Commissioners Court in each county of this State shall have the power, except as herein otherwise provided as to Temporary Licenses, to levy and collect from every person licensed hereunder in said county a license fee equal to one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the State fee; and any incorporated city or town wherein the license is issued shall have the power, except as to Temporary Licenses, to levy and collect a license fee not to exceed one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the State fee, but no other fee or tax shall be levied by either. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the levying, assessing, and collecting of general ad valorem taxes on the property of any person licensed to sell beer. The Board or Administrator may cancel the license of any person upon finding that the licensee has not paid any fee levied by the city as provided in this subsection.

(i) The holder of a Manufacturer's License or a Distributor's License shall be authorized to maintain or engage necessary warehouses, for storage purposes only in areas where the sale of beer is lawful, from which deliveries may be made without such warehouses being licensed, except that importations of beer from outside the State shall not be made directly or indirectly to such unlicensed warehouses. Any warehouse or railway car in which sales orders for beer are taken or money therefor collected shall be deemed a separate place of business for which a license is required. The sale and delivery of beer from a truck of a licensed Manufacturer or Distributor to a licensed Retail Dealer at the latter's place of business shall not constitute such truck to be a separate place of business. The Board shall govern by rule and regulation the transportation of such beer, the sale of which is to be consummated at the licensed Retailer's place of business.

(j) Temporary License. A Temporary License shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer only for consumption on or off the premises where sold, in or from any lawful container to the ultimate consumer, and no such license shall authorize the sale of beer at any point outside the county where same is issued. Temporary Licenses shall be issued by the Board, Administrator, or any authorized representative of the Board. The Board shall adopt all necessary rules and regulations to effectuate the issuance and use of Temporary Licenses. A Temporary License shall not be issued to any person who does not also hold a Retail Dealer's On-Premise License or a Wine and Beer Retailer's Permit. A Temporary License shall be issued for a period of not more than four (4) days. Fees collected from the issuance of Temporary Licenses shall be retained by the Texas Liquor Control Board, and no fees shall be charged by any City or County for such licenses; and no refund shall be allowed upon the surrender or non-use of any such license. The Board, Administrator, or any authorized representative of the Board may issue such licenses only for the sale of beer at picnics, celebrations, or similar events, and may refuse to issue such licenses if there is reason to believe the issuance of the license would in any manner be detrimental to the public. The basic license or permit, under which the Temporary License was issued, may be suspended or cancelled for any violation of Section 19 or Section 19-B of this Article<sup>4</sup> on the premises of a Temporary License. The fee for a Temporary License shall be Five Dollars ($5).

(k) (1) Agent's Beer License. Agents, representatives and employees of beer manufacturers located within or without the State, which agents, representatives and employees engage in selling, offering to sell, soliciting, displaying, advertising or otherwise promoting sales of beer by personal contact with licensed retailers of beer, their agents, servants or employees, and/or consumers of beer, and whose compensation for employment is based mainly on such activities by such personal contact as opposed to similar activities by personal contact with licensed distributors of beer; and agents, representatives and employees of licensed distributors of beer who engage in selling, offering to sell, soliciting, displaying, advertising or otherwise promoting sales of beer by personal contact with licensed retailers of beer, their agents, servants or employees, and/or consumers of beer, and whose compensation for such employment is based mainly on such activities by such personal contact, are hereby required to have a license issued by the Board and designated "Agent's Beer License."

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the activities set out in paragraph (1) hereof unless he is the holder of a valid Agent's Beer License, and upon conviction of any person for violation of this Section he shall be punished as is provided in Section 41<sup>5</sup> of Article 1 of this Act. A period of grace of five (5) days, which shall be the first five (5) days of his activities as set out in paragraph (1) hereof, is hereby extended to such person, during which period he shall procure an Agent's Beer License from the Texas Liquor Control Board. No such license shall be granted to any person until it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Board that he is employed or has good prospects of being employed to act as agent or a representative for the holder of a Manufacturer's or Distributor's License.

(3) It shall be unlawful except during the five-day grace period set out in paragraph (1) hereof for any Manufacturer or Distributor to use or be the beneficiary of the services of any person to carry on the activities set out in paragraph (1) hereof unless such person is the holder of a valid Agent's Beer License.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any Manufacturer located within or without the State or any Distributor to employ in any capacity or to continue in his employ a person who has been issued an Agent's Beer License during a time when such license is under a suspension order of the Board or within one (1) year from the date of cancellation for cause of such license by the Board.

(5) The Board is given authority to promulgate and enforce reasonable rules and regulations defining the qualifications and regulating the conduct of any such licensed agent.

(6) All applications for such licenses shall be filed with the Board, or any designated employee of the Board, on such form and including therein such required information as may be prescribed by the Board. Such application shall be acted upon exclusively by the Board or the Administrator, or a designated employee of the Board, and the County Judge shall not receive such applications nor shall he have jurisdiction over the approval or issuance of such licenses.

(7) All such licenses shall be issued on an annual basis and shall expire one (1) year from the date of issue. Applications for renewal of such licenses shall be filed with the Board not more than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date thereof on forms requiring such information as may be prescribed by the Board.

(8) Any Agent's Beer License may be suspended or cancelled by the Board for violation of any of the rules or regulations of the Board, or for any of the reasons the license of a Manufacturer or Distributor may be suspended or cancelled, and the same procedure applicable to the suspension or cancellation of the Manufacturer's or Distributor's License shall be followed in the suspension or cancellation of such Agent's Beer License.

(9) The annual fee for an Agent's Beer License shall be Three Dollars ($3), and cities and counties shall not have the authority to assess a fee for the issuance of such licenses. It is hereby declared to be a violation of the Texas Liquor Control Act for any Manufacturer or Distributor to pay the license fee for any person licensed hereunder, or to reimburse any person for such payment. The Board shall not refund any part of the fee collected hereunder to any person for any reason.

4. If the County Judge approves the application for a license as a Retail Dealer of beer, then the Board or Administrator may refuse to issue a Retailer's License to any applicant for any one (1) or more of the reasons which would have been legal ground for the County Judge to refuse to approve the application for such a license.

5. Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act:<sup>1</sup>

1. During a period of two (2) years from and after the date of the original Manufacturer's License applied for in accordance with Section 5, paragraph 1, hereof, an application for a renewal of such Manufacturer's License shall not be denied on the grounds that the applicant has not brewed and packaged beer in Texas within the period covered by such Manufacturer's License or will not brew and package beer in Texas within the period to be covered by such renewal so long as such applicant is in good faith engaged in the construction of a plant for the brewing of beer on the licensed premises, or engaged in any of the following things which will enable such applicant to commence such construction: (i) preliminary engineering, (ii) preparing drawings and specifications, (iii) conducting engineering, architectural or equipment studies, or (iv) preparing for and taking bids from contractors; and during a period of three (3) years from the date of the original Manufacturer's License, and so long as the holder of such Manufacturer's License is engaged in such construction or one of the other preliminary preparations described in this paragraph, the Board shall be diligent in granting renewal licenses, and shall issue each renewal license in such time as to make it immediately effective on the expiration of the original or renewal license which preceded it, and during a period of three (3) years from the date of the original Manufacturer's License, so long as the holder of such Manufacturer's License is engaged in such construc-

When any such license is denied renewal under these circumstances, no subsequent original application by such applicant shall be granted during the succeeding two (2) years from the date of such denial.

3. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Section 5A shall not ever apply to the holder of any Manufacturer's License in effect on January 1, 1953, or any renewal thereof.

Art. 667-6. Hearing upon Application

(a) The application of any person desiring to be licensed to manufacture, distribute, or sell beer shall be filed in duplicate with the county judge, who shall set same for hearing at a date not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days from the filing of same.

(b) (1) Upon the filing of an original application for license to manufacture or distribute beer, the County Clerk shall give notice thereof by posting at the Courthouse door, a written notice of the filing of such application, which notice shall contain the substance of said application and the date of the hearing thereon.

(b) (2) Upon the filing of an original application for a license to sell beer at retail at a location heretofore licensed, the County Clerk shall give notice thereof by posting at the Courthouse door, a written notice of the filing of such application, which notice shall contain the substance of said application and the date of the hearing thereon.

However, upon the filing of an original application for a license to sell beer at retail at a location not theretofore licensed, the County Clerk shall give notice of such application by publication for two (2) consecutive issues in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city or town in which the applicant's place of business is to be located. Provided, however, that where no newspaper is published in the city or town, then the same shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where applicant's business is to be located, and if no newspaper is published in the county, then notice shall be published in a newspaper which is published in the closest neighboring county and circulated in the county where the license or permit is sought. Such notice shall be published in ten (10) point black face type, and shall set forth the type of retail license or permit to be applied for, the exact location of said business, the name of the owner or owners thereof, and if operating under an assumed name, the trade name, together with all names of owners, and if a corporation, the names and titles of all officers of said corporation. At the time the application is filed with the Clerk, the applicant shall deposit with said Clerk, cost of the publication of two (2) notices, which deposit shall be used in payment of such publication.

(b) (3) Any person shall be permitted to contest the facts stated in any application for a license to distribute, manufacture or sell beer at retail, and the applicant's right to secure such license, upon giving security for all costs which may be incurred in such contest should the case be decided in favor of the applicant; provided, however, no officer of a county or incorporated city or town shall be required to give bond for such cost.

(c) If upon hearing upon the petition of any applicant for a license the county judge finds the facts stated therein to be true and has not other lawful reason for denying the application, he shall enter an order so certifying, and a copy of said order shall be delivered to the applicant; applicant shall thereupon present the same to the assessor and collector of taxes of the county wherein the application is made and shall pay to the assessor and collector of taxes the fee specified in this Article for the class of license applied for; the assessor and collector of taxes shall thereupon report to the Texas Liquor Control Board upon a form prescribed by said Board certifying that the application for license has been approved and all required fees paid, and such other information as may be required by the Board, and to such certificate shall be attached a copy of the original application for license. Upon receiving such report or certification from the assessor and collector of taxes, it shall be the duty of the Board or Administrator to issue the license accordingly, if it is found that the applicant is entitled to a license, which license shall show the class of business the applicant is authorized to conduct, amount of fees paid, date, correct address of the place of business, and date of expiration, and such other information as the Board shall deem proper; provided, however, that the Board or Administrator may refuse to issue any such license if in possession of information from which it is determined that any statement contained in the application therefor is false, untrue, or misleading, or that there are other legal reasons why a license should not be issued. Upon any refusal by the Board or Administrator, applicant shall be entitled to refund of any license fee paid to the county assessor and collector of taxes at the time of filing his application.

(d) If upon hearing upon the petition of any applicant for a license the county judge finds any facts stated therein to be untrue, the application shall be denied; and it shall be sufficient cause for the county judge to refuse to grant any license when he has reason to believe that the applicant will conduct his business of selling beer at retail in a manner contrary to law or in any place or manner conducive to the violation of the law or likely to result in any jeopardy to the peace, morals, health, or safety of the general public. There shall be sufficient legal reason to deny a license if it is found that the place, building, or premises for which the license is sought has theretofore been used for selling alcoholic beverages in violation of law at any time during the six (6) months immediately preceding the date of application, or has during that time been a place operated, used, or frequented in any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of this Act,<sup>1</sup> or, so operated, used or frequented for any purpose or in any manner that is lewd, immoral or offensive to public decency. In the granting or withholding of any license to sell beer at retail, the county judge in forming his conclusions shall give due and proper consideration to any recommendations made by the district or county attorney or the sheriff of the county, and the mayor and chief of police of any incorporated city or town wherein the applicant proposes to conduct his business and to any recommendations made by representatives of the Board.

(e) In the event the county judge, Texas Liquor Control Board or Administrator denied the application for a license, he shall enter his judgment accordingly, and the applicant may within thirty (30) days thereafter appeal to the district court of the county where such application is made, and such district court may hear and determine such appeal in term-time or vacation and under the same rules and procedure as provided in Section 14, Article I, of this Act.<sup>2</sup> In the event the judgment of the district court shall be favorable to the applicant and an appeal is taken, a certified copy of the judgment shall be presented to the assessor and collector of taxes who shall thereupon accept the fees required and make report to the Board in the manner required upon like orders issued by the county judge. In the event the license is finally issued upon orders of the district court, and, upon appeal, the order of the district court be reversed, then the mandate of the appellate court shall, without further proceedings, invalidate and make void the license authorized by order of the district court, and the holder thereof shall, upon application therefor, be entitled to a refund of the proportionate amount of unexpired fees. So much of the proceeds collected for license fees under this Article as may be necessary for refunds herein provided for are appropriated for that purpose. Any person appealing from a judgment or order under the provisions of this Section shall give bond for all costs incident to such appeal and shall be required to pay such costs if the judgment on appeal is unfavorable to the applicant, but not otherwise; provided, however, no such bond shall be required upon appeals filed on behalf of the state.

(f) Every person making application for an original license of any class herein provided, except Branch Licenses and Temporary Licenses, shall be subject at the time of the hearing thereon to a fee of Five ($5.00) Dollars, which fee shall, by the county clerk, be deposited in the county treasury and the applicant shall be liable for no other fees except said application fee and the annual license fee required of him by this Act.<sup>1</sup>

(g) No person shall be authorized to sell beer during the pendency of his original application for a license, and no official shall advise or suggest that such action would be lawful or permitted.

Any license issued under the terms of this Article except Branch Licenses, Importer's Licenses, Importer's Carrier's Licenses, and Temporary Licenses specifically provided for, shall terminate one (1) year from the date issued, and no license shall be issued for a longer term than one (1) year. When it is desired to renew any license obtained under the procedure provided in this Article, the holder of such license shall make written application to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes of the county wherein the license is located not more than thirty (30) days prior to, and not after, the date of expiration of the license held by him. Such application for renewal shall be signed by the applicant and contain full and complete information required of the applicant by the Board showing such applicant is not disqualified from holding a license under this Act, and applicant shall pay to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes the appropriate license fee for the class of license sought to be renewed. The Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall thereupon transmit to the Board the original copy of said application for renewal together with the certification that all required fees have been paid for the ensuing license period; and upon receiving the original copy of said application and certification as to the payment of fees, the Board or Administrator may in its discretion issue the license applied for, or may reject the same and require that the applicant for renewal file application with the County Judge and submit to hearing before such County Judge in the manner required of any applicant for the primary or original license. Any applicant for renewal when such renewal is rejected by the Board or Administrator shall be entitled to refund of any license fee paid to the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes at the time of filing his application for renewal.

(b). Any application for renewal shall be accompanied by a fee of Two Dollars ($2), which shall be in addition to the amount required by law to be paid for annual license fees, as a renewal fee charge. Any renewal fee charges collected by the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall be deposited in the county treasury as fees of office and be so accounted for by him. No applicant for renewal of license shall be required to pay any fees other than the renewal fee charge and license fees herein provided, except when required by action of the Board or Administrator to submit to hearing upon such renewal before the County Judge.

(c). A separate license fee shall be required for every place of business where the business of manufacturing, importing, or selling beer is conducted.

(d). No license issued under the provisions of this Article shall be assigned by the holder thereof to any person; provided that should any holder of a license desire to change the place of business designated in such license, he may do so by applying upon a form prescribed by the Board to the County Judge and receiving his consent or approval, but further providing that the County Judge may deny such application for change in the place of business for any cause for which an original application may be denied. Any such application may be subject to protest and hearing as though it were an original application. No additional license fees for the remaining unexpired term of the license shall be required of the applicant for change of location.

(e). No licensee shall obtain any refund upon the surrender or nonuse of any license for the manufacture, distribution, importation, or sale of beer except as otherwise provided in this Article.

(g). Every license issued prior to the effective date hereof authorizing the manufacture, distribution, or sale of beer shall remain in force until the date of its expiration, but the licensee thereunder shall hold such license as fully subject to all the provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the cancellation or suspension thereof for cause as any license that may be issued on or after the effective date hereof.

(h). Should the license of any licensee become mutilated or destroyed the Board or Administrator may issue another license by way of replacement in any manner deemed appropriate by the Board or Administrator.

(i). If any license as provided in this Act shall have been issued to any person for a premises, location, or place of business, and said license is still in effect no other license shall be issued to an applicant therefor unless the holder of the existing license shall have made showing in a manner prescribed by the Board that any privilege conveyed by the existing license will no longer be exercised by the holder thereof at such premises, location or place of business. If the holder of such license desires to transfer the license to another location, such transfer may be applied for as herein provided. In the event the holder of such license makes any declaration required by the Board that the license is no longer to be used, then, and in that event, it shall be unlawful for the holder thereof to manufacture, sell, or possess for the purpose of sale any beer unless and until he shall have made application to reinstate the use of the license in the manner and procedure required in making application for an original license, and re-use of the license may be denied by the County Judge before whom the application for re-use shall be filed, or by the Texas Liquor Control Board or the Administrator for any cause for which a license applied for in an original application may be denied.

(j). The Board shall require of Manufacturers of beer in Texas, and of Importers of beer into Texas, a bond or bonds executed by the Manufacturer or Importer as principal, and a surety company, duly qualified and doing business in this State, as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the order of the State of Texas and conditioned as the Board may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. #### Art. 874a. Private Bird Shooting Area

Hunting or Taking Authorized; License; Resort Operator

Sec. 1. Subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful to hunt or take privately owned or pen-reared game birds when such game birds are hunted or taken on private bird shooting areas. A "private bird shooting area" is defined as an area upon which the hunting or taking of privately owned game birds is consummated within the provisions of this Act. This Act shall authorize a person and guests to hunt or take privately owned or pen-reared game birds from private bird shooting areas only after such person has received a license from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, granting him the right to take or hunt such game birds. However, nothing in this section shall prevent a bona fide shooting resort operator from obtaining a private bird shooting area license and establishing a private bird shooting area as authorized in this Act. When a bona fide shooting resort operator operates a private bird shooting area, such operator may accommodate any guest on either area without regard to the rules on guests contained in Section 1 of this Act.

Area Included; Lettered Markers

Sec. 2. A private bird shooting area shall contain an area of not more than 300 contiguous acres on which privately owned or pen-reared game birds are banded and released to provide game bird shooting for all activities related to field dog competition and training and the sport of shooting, hunting or taking privately owned or pen-reared game birds. A private bird shooting area shall be distinguished from any other club, shooting resort, shooting preserve or leased premises for hunting purposes, by clearly marking its boundaries with wood or metal markers bearing the words, "Private Bird Shooting Area, Licensed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department". The lettering on these markers shall be large enough to permit reading under ordinary conditions at 200 feet. These markers shall be placed so as to clearly mark the boundaries of each designated area and each entrance.

Fee; Affidavit

Sec. 3. Before a license is issued, the person applying for a license shall pay the Parks and Wildlife Department the sum of $25. The licensee shall file with the Parks and Wildlife Department an affidavit stating that he will not violate any of the provisions of this Act and that he will endeavor to prevent guests from violating its provisions.

Banding and Holding in Captivity; Season; Licensees Permitted

Sec. 4. All privately owned or pen-reared game birds released on a private bird shooting area shall be banded with a band indicating the permit number of the licensee and the band shall remain on the bird after it is killed and until finally processed. A private bird shooting area licensee shall be entitled to hold in captivity game birds for use on the area for which he is licensed. On a private bird shooting area where privately owned or pen-reared game birds are released for hunting, the season for hunting such birds shall be January 1 through December 31 of each year. Only those persons holding a valid Texas hunting license shall be permitted to hunt, take or shoot privately owned or pen-reared game birds under the provisions of this Act.

Form for License

Sec. 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to issue or accept the license referred to by the provisions of this Act except on the form prescribed by the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Penalty

Art. 913a. Protection of Endangered Species

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this Act:

(1) "Director" means the executive director of the parks and wildlife department.

(2) "Department" means the parks and wildlife department.

(3) "Fish or wildlife" means any wild mammal, fish, wild bird, amphibian, reptile, mollusk, or crustacean, or any part, product, egg, offspring, dead or alive, of a wild mammal, fish, wild bird, amphibian, reptile, mollusk, or crustacean.

(4) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, association, or partnership.

(5) "Management" means the collection and application of biological information for the purposes of increasing the number of individuals within species and populations of wildlife up to the optimum carrying capacity of their habitat and the maintaining of such levels. The term "management" likewise includes the entire range of activities constituting a full scientific resource program including, but not limited to, research, census, law enforcement, habitat acquisition and improvement, and education. Also included within the term, when and where appropriate, is the periodic or total protection of species or populations as well as regulated taking.

Nongame Species

Sec. 2. (a) The department shall conduct investigations on nongame fish and wildlife in order to develop information relating to population, distribution, habitat needs, limiting factors, and other biological and ecological data to determine management measures necessary for their continued ability to sustain themselves successfully. On the basis of such determination, the department shall issue proposed regulations not later than one year from the effective date of this Act and develop management programs designed to insure the continued ability of nongame fish and wildlife to perpetuate themselves successfully. The proposed regulations shall set forth species or subspecies of nongame wildlife which the department deems in need of management pursuant to this section, giving their common and scientific names by species and subspecies. The department shall conduct ongoing investigations of nongame fish and wildlife and may from time to time amend such regulations by adding or deleting therefrom species or subspecies of nongame wildlife.

(b) The department shall by regulations establish proposed limitations relating to taking, possession, transportation, exportation, processing, sale or offer for sale, or shipment as may be deemed necessary to manage nongame fish and wildlife. The regulations shall become effective 60 days after being proposed and during that period public comment shall be solicited. The department shall hold a public hearing, notice of which shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. On the basis of public comments received or the testimony at a hearing the department may make such changes in the proposed regulations as are consistent with effective management of nongame fish and wildlife.

Endangered Species

Sec. 3. Fish or wildlife are classified as endangered species if they appear on:

(1) the present United States List of Endangered Foreign Fish and Wildlife (50 C.F.R. Part 17, Appendix A);

(2) the present United States List of Endangered Native Fish and Wildlife (50 C.F.R. Part 17, Appendix D); or

(3) the list filed by the director under this Act of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

Statewide Extinction

Sec. 4. Fish or wildlife may be classified by the director as threatened with statewide extinction if the department finds that the continued existence of the fish or wildlife is endangered in this state due to any of the following factors:

(1) the destruction, drastic modification, or severe curtailment of its habitat;

(2) the over-utilization of it for commercial or sporting purposes;

(3) the effect on it of disease or predation; or

(4) other natural or man-made factors affecting its continued existence.

Initial Classification by Director

Sec. 5. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Act, the department shall file with the secretary of state a proposed list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction. This list shall become effective on the 45th day after the date it is filed. Before the effective date of the proposed list, the department shall hold a public hearing on the proposed list. Notice of the hearing shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. The proposed list may be amended prior to its effective date.

Classification Amendment by Director

Sec. 6. (a) If the federal lists set out in Section 3 of this Act are subsequently altered, the director shall file an order with the secretary of state accepting the alteration. The order is effective immediately.

(b) The department may amend the list filed under Section 5 of this Act by filing an order with the secretary of state. Notice of the intent to file the order and the contents of the proposed order must be given 60 days prior to the date of filing. If petition procedures set out in Section 7 of this Act are initiated relating to the contents of the proposed order during the 60-day notice period, the order may not be filed until the conclusion of the proceedings. The order is effective on the date of filing.

Petition for Reclassification

Sec. 7. (a) On the petition of three interested persons presenting substantial scientific evidence for the addition or deletion of fish or wildlife classified as threatened with statewide extinction, the department may conduct a review of the classification and file an order with the secretary of state adding or deleting fish or wildlife from the list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

(b) If the department refuses to conduct a review of the classification of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction under Subsection (a) of this section, a petition of 50 interested persons presenting scientific evidence for the addition or deletion of fish or wildlife classified as threatened with statewide extinction may be presented to the department. On receipt of this petition, the department must hold a public hearing to review the classification. Notice of the hearing shall be published in at least three major newspapers of general circulation in this state at least one week prior to the hearing date. Based on findings from the public hearing, the department may file an order with the secretary of state adding or deleting fish or wildlife from the list of fish or wildlife threatened with statewide extinction.

(d) Fish or wildlife classified as an endangered species shall be considered and included within the meaning of "protected fish or wildlife" as that term is used in Article 913, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(e) Failure to comply with this section is a violation of this Act. Failure to comply with the terms of a permit issued under Article 913, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, is a violation of that article.

(f) The provisions of this Act do not apply to the possession of mounted or preserved endangered species by public or private nonprofit educational, zoological, or research institutions held prior to the effective date of this Act. The department may require such institutions to furnish a list of mounted or preserved endangered species which they hold, together with adequate proof of the time of acquisition.

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following words, terms and phrases used in this Act are hereby defined as follows:

(a) A "Commercial Fisherman" is any person who takes fish or oysters or shrimp or other edible aquatic products from tidal waters of this state, for pay, or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange.

(b) A "Commercial Fishing Boat" is any boat or vessel which is required to be numbered or registered by and under the laws of the United States of America or the State of Texas, and which is used for the purpose of taking, catching, or assisting in taking or catching fish, shrimp, oysters, or any other edible aquatic life from tidal waters of the State of Texas for pay or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange.

(c) "Tidal Waters" as that term is used herein, means all of the salt waters of the State of Texas, including that portion of the state's territorial waters in the Gulf of Mexico within three (3) marine leagues from shore.

Commercial Fishermen's Licenses

Sec. 2. Before any commercial fisherman shall take, catch or assist in taking, any fish, shrimp or oysters, or any other edible aquatic life from the tidal salt waters of this state, a license shall first be procured from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department privileging him so to do. The fee for such Commercial Fisherman's License shall be Five Dollars ($5). Fifteen cents (15¢) may be retained by the issuing agent for each license issued, except that employees of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department may not retain such fee. The license shall expire August 31st following the date of issuance.

Commercial Fishing Boat Licenses

Sec. 3. Before any commercial fishing boat shall be used for the purpose of taking, catching, or assisting in taking or catching fish, shrimp, oysters, or any other edible aquatic life from the tidal waters of this State, for pay, or for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange, a license, to be known as a Commercial Fishing Boat License, shall first be procured by the owner of such commercial fishing boat from the Game and Fish Commission of Texas privileging such boat to be so used. The fee for a Commercial Fishing Boat License shall be Six Dollars ($6). Twenty-five cents (25¢) may be retained by the issuing agent for each license issued, except that employees of the Game and Fish Commission may not retain such fee. The license shall expire August 31st following the date of issuance.

Quota of Boat Licenses

Sec. 4. In July of each year the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission of Texas shall set the quota of Commercial Fishing Boat Licenses to be issued the succeeding conservation year, which shall extend from September 1st of such year to August 31st of the succeeding year, after a survey and investigation and determination of the maximum poundage of shrimp, oysters and other edible aquatic life which may be caught during the following year commercially without danger to the maximum point of production; and when, in the opinion, finding and determination of the Commission, the maximum production has been reached so as to assure the ability to take a maximum crop for the following year, and the Commercial Fishing Boat Licenses and Commercial Fisherman's Licenses quotas for the current conservation year have been reached, then the Commission shall not issue any additional licenses except upon a public hearing after due notice to the public and persons interested under such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Commission. Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act, the Commission shall determine the conservation quota for the period remaining until August 31, 1949, and shall issue licenses under such quota.

The failure of any applicant to give all of the information required herein shall constitute grounds for the refusal of such permit, and it shall be mandatory upon the Commission to refuse such permit. The making of any false statement shall constitute a felony, the crime of perjury punishable under the penal laws of this state, and shall be grounds for cancellation of any license issued under and by virtue of such application.

Acts Without License Unlawful

Sec. 2. All State lands thus exchanged shall be for other lands adjoining the same park, historic site, scientific area or game management area, and shall contain no State improvements other than fences.

Sec. 3. The State shall receive a good and marketable title to all lands thus exchanged and the title to such lands received in exchange shall first be approved by the Attorney General's office.

Sec. 4. All tracts of land to be received in exchange shall be appraised and determined to be of equal value to the State lands exchanged, except that if the land or tracts of land to be received are determined by independent, competent appraisal to have a greater value than those State lands exchanged, the Department may use such funds as may be available to it for land acquisition as a partial consideration for the exchange.

Sec. 5. All transactions for exchange of lands by authority of this Act shall have the prior written approval of the Governor.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1248, ch. 309, eff. May 24, 1971.]

Art. 978f-5. Wildlife Management Areas; Powers of Commission to Manage; Regulation of Hunting and Fishing

Management by Commission

Sec. 1. The Game and Fish Commission is hereby authorized to manage, along sound biological lines, such wildlife and/or fish species as may be found on any lands which it has acquired or which it may hereafter acquire for use as a wildlife management area.

Hunting and Fishing; Authority to Prohibit or Regulate

Sec. 2. The Game and Fish Commission shall have authority to prohibit all hunting and fishing within or upon all lands named in Section 1 of this Act, for such period of time as may be necessary to safeguard any species of wildlife or fish found thereon; shall have authority from time to time, as sound biological management practices shall warrant, to prescribe open seasons for hunting and/or fishing therein, to prescribe the number, kind, sex and size of any wildlife and fish that may be taken therefrom or thereon, and to prescribe the means and methods for taking and the conditions under which any wildlife or fish species may be taken within such area.

Special Permit to Hunt

Sec. 3. Any special permit that may be issued for the hunting of wildlife species on any lands described in Section 1 of this Act shall be made available to applicants in such way as to give all applicants an impartial opportunity to obtain such a permit to the extent of the total number issued. No person may receive a special permit for two (2) consecutive years unless all applications from persons who applied but did not receive a special permit in the preceding year are filled. The Parks and Wildlife Commission shall charge a fee for the issuance of permits issued under this Section. The Commission shall set the amount of the fee to cover the costs of issuance of the permit and to cover the costs of enforcing game laws and protecting hunters during hunting periods on wildlife management areas. The provisions of this Section shall not be construed to waive the hunting license requirements as provided by law, but shall be cumulative thereof.

Prohibitions Enumerated

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to take or attempt to take any wildlife or fish species from, or to possess any wildlife or fish species taken from, any area to which this Act applies at any time, or in any numbers, or by any means, or under any conditions except as permitted by the Game and Fish Commission under the provisions of this Act.

Art. 978f-5a. Wildlife Management Areas; Expenditure of Funds to Counties and School Districts in Lieu of Taxes

The Parks and Wildlife Department is hereby authorized and directed to expend funds to counties and school districts for assessments in lieu of property taxes on wildlife management areas purchased from federal funds or grants authorized by Pittman-Robertson Act or Dingell-Johnson Act. It is the intent of this bill to encourage the development of wildlife management areas in the counties of the state; however, it is a matter of equity that the local units of government are entitled to funds assessed in lieu of property taxes for these wildlife management areas. No general revenue funds may be expended in lieu of taxes for wildlife management areas; however, special funds may be expended for this purpose provided reimbursement or matching from the federal government is available at a federal ratio of 2 to 1 or better. Sec. 2. Subject to the limitations provided in Section 3, it shall be unlawful, except as provided in this Act, for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to take or kill any game bird or game animals in these counties of the State of Texas at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill or trap any fur-bearing animal in the counties to which this Act applies, at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish or other aquatic life or marine animals by any means or method in these counties of this state at any time. In order to better conserve an ample supply of the wildlife resources in the counties to which this Act applies to the end that the most reasonable and equitable privileges may be enjoyed by the people of said counties and their posterity in their ownership and in the taking of such resources, it is deemed for the public welfare that this Legislature should provide a law adaptable to changing conditions and emergencies which threaten depletion or waste of the wildlife resources in said counties. The Parks and Wildlife Commission is therefore granted the authority, power and duty to provide by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, periods of time when it shall be lawful to take a portion of the wildlife resources in said counties or in any portion of any of said counties when its investigations and findings of fact disclose that there is an ample supply of such wildlife resources that a portion thereof may be taken which will not threaten depletion or waste of such supply. It shall also, by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, provide the means and the method and the place and the manner in which such wildlife resources may be lawfully taken, provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to hunt, take or kill any game bird or game animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill, or trap any fur-bearing animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish by any means or method in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; unless the owner of the land or the water, or his duly authorized agent shall give consent thereto.

Research Investigations and Studies of Reduction or Increase in Supply of Wildlife Resources; Open Seasons

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Parks and Wildlife Department to conduct, from time to time, or continuously, scientific research investigations and studies of the supply, economic value, environment, breeding habits and, so far as possible, the sex ratio of the different species of wildlife resources as well as the factors affecting their increase or decrease, particularly with reference to hunting, trapping, fishing, disease, infestation, predation, agricultural pressure, over-population, and any and all other factors that enter into a reduction or an increase in the supply of such wildlife resources of this state. Pursuant to and based upon such studies, said Commission shall enter its findings of fact with respect thereto, and if, in the opinion of the Commission, an open season or period of time may be safely provided for any of the wildlife resources of said county, said Commission is authorized and directed from time to time to provide an open season or period of time when such wildlife resources may be taken. The proclamation, rule or regulation issued by the Commission shall be specific as to the quantity, species, sex, insofar as possible, age or size that may be taken. Such proclamation, rule or regulation shall provide the method and/or means that may be resorted to as well as the area, county or portion of the county where such wildlife resources may be taken. In order to prevent depletion or waste of the wildlife resources of said State of Texas, the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall have authority from time to time by proclamation, rule or regulation to conserve the wildlife resources of said county by an open season or period of time when it shall be lawful to take a portion of such wildlife resources from said county or portion of said county of the State of Texas.

Preventing Depletion; Declaring State of Emergency

Sec. 5. When said Commission finds from its investigations herein provided for that danger of depletion, as defined in this Act, of any species of fish, game bird, game animal or fur-bearing animal exists in any portion of said counties, it shall be the duty of the said Commission to revoke or modify or otherwise amend its order or orders so as to deter or prevent contribution to depletion of such species by the taking thereof. When said Commission finds that danger of waste, as defined in this Act, of any of such species of fish, game bird, game animal or fur-bearing animal, or sex thereof, exists in all or any portion of said counties the Commission may issue or amend or revoke or modify such of its rules and regulations as will afford to all of the people of this state the most equitable and reasonable privileges in the pursuit, taking or killing of such species or sex thereof in said area. When the Commission finds that danger of depletion exists in any area by virtue of an emergency condition, the Commission may declare a state of emergency as to such species in said area, and its orders, rules and regulations issued under such state of emergency shall take effect and be in full force immediately upon issuance thereof.

Hunting Antlerless Deer, Antelope and Elk; Proclamation, Rule or Regulation; Agreement of Landowner

Sec. 6. The Parks and Wildlife Commission's proclamation, rule or regulation permitting the hunting or taking of antlerless deer, antelope and elk should not be effective as to any tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken until the owner or person in charge of that specific tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken shall have agreed in writing to the removal by hunting of such antlerless deer, antelope or elk from the tract under supervision, and regulation of the Commission; and to the number of antlerless deer, antelope and elk to be removed therefrom. Antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permits may be issued by the landowner, or by the person in charge of the land, to hunters to take antlerless deer, antelope or elk only upon the particular tract covered by the landowner's agreement. For the purposes of this Section, the Parks and Wildlife Commission may, when the conditions warrant, permit the taking of antlerless deer, antelope or elk without the requirement of an antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permit, but in such cases the Commission's proclamation shall be specific as to the counties or portions of counties in which antlerless deer, antelope or elk may be taken without the special hunting permit. In areas not covered by the above provision, no person shall hunt or kill any antlerless deer, antelope or elk without first having procured an antlerless deer, antelope or elk permit issued by the Parks and Wildlife Department. Such permit shall be issued in such form and under such rules as may be prescribed by the Parks and Wildlife Commission, but no permit shall be issued later than ten (10) days before the opening date of the hunting season. No person may sell or trade a permit authorized by this Section for anything of value.

Public Hearing on Proposed Rule, Regulation or Order; Notice

Sec. 7. There shall be a public hearing held in the county to be affected by any proposed rule, regulation or order dealing with hunting or fishing as provided for in this Act before such proposed rule, regulation or order is adopted by the Commission. Notice of this public hearing must be given in a newspaper published in such county at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing. If no newspaper is published in the county, notice of such hearing must be given in a newspaper published in an adjoining county, which is widely circulated in the county in which the proposed rule, regulation or order is to be in effect. The hearing may be conducted by a designated employee of the Parks and Wildlife Department, or by any member of the Commission, provided it is not necessary for the Commission or some member of the Commission to be present at the said hearing.

Adoption of Orders, Proclamations, Rules and Regulations; Quorum

Sec. 8. Orders, proclamations, rules and regulations proposed under the provisions of this Act shall be adopted by a quorum of the Commission at any regular or special Commission meeting or meetings, the date and time to be designated by the Commission and such meeting or meetings for such purpose shall only be held in the Commission's office in Austin, Texas. For the purpose of the provisions of this Act any person interested shall be entitled to be heard at such meetings, and to introduce evidence as to imminence of waste or depletion, as defined in this Act. Two (2) members, or the chairman and one (1) member of said Commission shall constitute a quorum. No order, rule or regulation, general or local, shall be adopted at any regular or special meeting of the Commission unless a quorum is present.

Effective Date of Orders, Rules and Regulations; Expiration; Revocation or Modification

Sec. 9. Orders, rules and regulations adopted by the Commission shall become effective at a time fixed by the Commission but not earlier than fifteen (15) days after their adoption, except in the case of emergency as provided in this Act, and shall continue in full force and effect until they shall expire by their own terms, or are revoked, modified or amended by said Commission.

Filing Copies of Orders, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 10. Immediately after its adoption, a copy of each order, rule or regulation adopted by said Commission shall be numbered and filed in its office in Austin, Texas; and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and the office of the county clerk and the county attorney in the county affected by the order, rule or regulation and a mimeographed copy shall be furnished to each employee of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Construing Particular Regulatory Powers of Commission

Sec. 11. The particular regulatory powers herein granted to said Commission shall not be construed to limit other and general powers conferred upon it by law.

Review of Orders; Actions to Test Validity of Orders, Rules and Regulations

Sec. 12. The Parks and Wildlife Commission is hereby expressly given the power and authority to review its own orders and to modify, amend or revise the same as it shall find the facts to warrant. Any action that may be filed to test the validity of any proclamation, order, rule or regulation of the Commission, passed pursuant to and under the provisions of this Act, must be brought in Travis County. Such suit shall be advanced by trial and determined as quickly as possible. In all such trials the burden of proof shall be upon the party complaining of such order, proclamation, rule or regulation to show it is invalid.
