

Table of Contents for Bill of Rights Course: Litigating the Constitution

Establishment Clause and Freedom Issues (No Article/Biographies Only)	1
Shelby County v. Holder and Texas v. Holder and the Voting Rights Act of 1965: Basic Changes or Continuation Craig L. Jackson	2
The Future of Affirmative Action in Light of Fisher v. UT Allan Van Fleet	3
Defense of Marriage Act Phyllis Randolph Frye	4
Second Amendment Developments, The Constitutionality of Recent Federal and State Firearms Restrictions Richard Rosen	5
The Texas Anti-SLAPP Statute: Issues for Business Tort and Bill of Rights Litigation Mark C. Walker	6
Constitutional Issues in General Litigation William Robert Peterson	7
United States Constitution IV Amendment Update Greg Gladden	8
Texas Open Meetings Act	9
Sunshine is Bright This Month James C. Ho Ashley Elizabeth Johnson
In Defense of Open Government James C. Ho
Right to Counsel in Civil Cases	10
Civil Right to Counsel Update 2013 Joshua Bauer John Carse
Keeping Families Together, Saving Money, and Other Motivations Behind New Civil Right to Counsel Laws Laura Abel
Walking Before Running: Implementation of a Right to Counsel in Civil Cases John Pollock
Guantanamo Bay and the Golden Rule Colby C. Vokey	11